Riley, of Grant Centre, Rev. F. Traver, of Romeo, Rev. H. D. Miller, of Capac, and others. Everybody is invited to attend.

—The following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for at the Brockway Centre Post Office: John A. Barron, Jas Slocks, Ibs Hittings, Sarah Sunburn, J. W. Severson, William Reid 2, Andrew McLane, Jas H. Moore, Mrs. Louisa Looer, John Christie, John Cavanaugh (dead letter), William Cummings, Wm A. Cavanaugh, Harnel Sunburn, Geo M. Wade.

—Holden Bros have one of the finest stores in these parts. For the past week carpenters have been at work overhauling and fitting up the back rooms of the building where W. N. McKenna and family used to live. They now have three different departments to their store, the dry goods and fancy article department; the boot and shoe; and the grocery. They intend to do a rushing business hereafter.

—As the old cock crows the young ones learn. The old adage is true in this case at least. A young lad about 14 years of age was seen staggering through our streets drunk, one day last week. It was a pitiful sight but the poor boy was not so much to be blamed, as 'twas said he had received the devil's bruth from the hands of his own mother. She also had received an overdose of the same kind of stuff as evidenced by her antics round the streets.

—The Mission fair will be held September 26th and 27th. The 33rd annual fair of the Macomb County Agricultural Society will be held at Richmond on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 13, 14 and 15. The State fair will be held at Jackson on Sept 19, 20, 21, and 22. The 8th annual fair of the Brockway District Agricultural Society will be held October 3rd, 4th and 5th. When will the Brockway Centre Society hold its fair, does any one know?

—A quiet wedding took place at Mt. Clemens on Thursday, July 13, the groom being a former Port Gratiot boy, Will F. Berry, now editor of the Cass City Enterprise. The beautiful bride he captured was Miss Louisa A. Cady, of Mt. Clemens, and the marriage ceremony was performed at her grandfather's residence, by the Rev. Francis Berry, of this village. The happy couple will make a short tour south, visiting Detroit, Cleveland, Toledo, and other cities.

—The young son of Anthony Welch who took a $5 bill from the store of F. A. Baker has been at work again in two different places. Last week he stole over $4 from the till of Holywood & McKinnon and this week he got about $4 from H. Wynant's store part of the money was found on his person but what he done with the rest is not known. It is high time that something was done with the boy. Will the people allow this to be carried on and no complaint made?

—The Peck correspondent to the Port Huron Tribune says: "We had a grand celebration in the evening a number of the young folks drove to Brockway to get a glimpse of the great sea monster that was so recently caught in the Brockway sluice. Upon our arrival we were directed to the fair grounds, and there was the great view cage that contained the greatest curiosity of the day. It looked more like an abused donkey than an ill-shaped horse as advertised. The landlord of the Brockway hotel informed me that its name was Dougle Patterson."

Brockway, July 12th, 1882.
DEAR FRIENDS AND CHILDREN:

On this occasion I cannot find language to express my feelings, and, if I could my emotions would overcome me. I am now nearly sixty-three years of age, I have raised a large family of good, kind and dutiful children, among them are five girls good, kind and obedient. They have each selected partners of their joys and sorrows for life, and in each case with my fullest approbation. And now in giving away my last daughter, permit me to say I do it with a father's blessing, you are all worthy of more than I could or ever can do for you. May God bless you all, my children. Your loving father,
N. DEPELLE.

—Ask your Grocer for Port Huron Brooms. Take no other. Every one warranted. Manufactured by C. Perival & Son, 10th St.

—The Lawson Reapers and Mowers, handled by F. S. Poole are the lightest and strongest in the market. The mower is the easiest managed machine in the trade, and the one best adapted to all conditions of grass and land. In the improved reaper for the season of 1882, is presented a model machine tried in all its parts and found wanting in none. Lightest draft and strongest as it is possible to make it in all parts subjected to severe or steady strain. The greatest care is exercised in the manufacture of these machines and we are confident that they are just what the American Farmers want, and without which they cannot afford to work their land. Critical examination and comparison is solicited. F. S. Poole, Agent.
