—This week we chronicle the death of one of the oldest settlers in these parts, Cornelius Connel, aged 116 years, who died while sitting in his chair at his home in this township. The old gentleman is a highland Scotchman could not speak any other language than his native gaelic, was quite hearty up to the time of his death and was a good and honorable gentleman. He leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn his loss.

—While Shep Weter, (H. Freeman's man who buys eggs in these parts) was driving between Inlay City and Deenville the other evening rather late he was stopped by two men who demanded him to get down off his wagon and one held a pistol to his head while the other searched him, but as it happened he did not have any money on his person. They departed into the woods from whence they came feeling rather sore over their disappointment.

—Seelye of the Armada Telegraph, claims to be the only unmarried editor in Macomb county and asks the ladies to make a note of it. The publisher of the Mt. Clemens Press assures him that the ladies have already made a note of it and that there are three other unmarried editors in Macomb county, against whom the same note is entered. That beats St. Clair county all hollow. There are only three unshackled editors in this county and they are all over young to marry yet.—Port Huron Sun.

BASE BALL.

A matched game of base ball came off at this place on Friday, July 21st, between the Elk Rangers and the club here, resulting in a victory for this club, over the Rangers, of 3. The score stood 23 to 22. Both clubs played well and the Elk club departed satisfied that they had been treated like gentlemen by our club, and say they will try and make it interesting for them when they come up to their grounds and play the return game. The usual amount of abuse given to the umpire in most games was dispensed with for the umpire, Dr. S. W. Bedford, of Peck, dealt square with both sides and everybody was pleased with him for the able manner in which he used his judgment. The scorers were J. C. McKenna, of this place, and E. B. Tucker, of Peck. The following are the number of runs made by each member:

VICTORS.		ELK RANGERS.
Wallace	3	Savell	3
Emery	2	Holmes	2

Manning	3	Backcock	1
Scott	3	Farr	1

Barrett	3	Miller	1
McArthur	1	Warner	5

Total 26 Total 23
After the game was played both clubs retired to the Commercial House where a bounteous repast was awaiting them and all fell to and ate a hearty supper. The return game will be played on the grounds of the Rangers at Peck on Saturday, August 5th.

—The Rawson Reapers and Mowers, handled by F. S. Poole are the lightest and strongest machine in the market. The mower is the easiest managed machine in the trade, and the one best adapted to all conditions of grass and land. In the improved reaper for the season of 1882, is presented a model machine tried in all its parts and found wanting in none. Lightest draft and strongest as it is possible to make it in all parts subjected to severe or steady strain. The greatest care is exercised in the manufacture of these machines and we are confident that they are just what the American Farmers want, and without which they cannot afford to work their land. Critical examination and comparison is solicited.
