

CORRESPONDENCE.

Brockway Bits.

The M. E. S. S. of this place, intend holding their anniversary and a concert in connection with it, three weeks from next Wednesday, (October 29th.)

Dr Gowan moved into his new house last week.

The whistle of the grist mill was blown for the first time this summer last Saturday. Tyro.

FOUND—In front of my place in the village of Brockway, a bride, The loser by calling and proving property may take the same away.
Henry Pearce, residence in Davidson house.

Capac Chips.

Fred Lock is home for a short time.

John Nehman (with the "Whitney Family") was in town Monday.

Married, Oct 9th by Rev H. D.
Miller Harvey Caswell to Flora Burt, all of Capac.

Married, Oct 9th by Rev H. D.
Miller of Capac Jos E. Soules of Fort Gratiot to Cora Saunders of Capac.

Mrs Jos Nehman and two children Maggie and baby left Capac Monday evening accompanied to Lapeer by Mike, en route for Dakota Ter there to join her husband who has been some time there.

Grand opening of fall and winter Millinery Saturday Oct 21st at Mrs J.
A. Smith, 'Bazaar.'

Lost and found on the morning after Sunday eve, before the residence of a well known citizen of this lovely burg, and in close proximity to the gate (which by-the-way bears sufficient evidence of having been overbanded some dark hour.) A pair-of-gentscuffs, almost for further information call on or address the finder J. B.
Cavanaugh Station Agent. Yours
"SWHET BRIAN".

Minden Marmarings.

"Minden fair" came off last week, and was a success because it was "fair" week and fair weather, and the fair ladies were present with their fair babies, and the men with their "fair" horses, and all received a fair price, except a few who thought they were unfairly dealt with. The colored Gent from Pt Austin took the cake with his trotter.

Mr F. E. Burbanks and lady have returned to Minden. Burbanks' grin, is as "broad as a front door yard".

Loads of grain are coming into Minden and farmers are paying up their accounts, while the farmer and merchant rejoice together.

Mrs Mary N. Davis is stopping with her brother Rev J. Lewis a few days this week, after which she will go to Pt Crockett, her husband's field of labor for this year.

Mr Shock christened the cooler on Saturday evening, because he resisted the officer who was taking his grain for debt. It does not pay to disregard an honest debt while you have wheat in your barn.

Our new Post Office is being occupied, and we have great reason to rejoice.

A wedding procession came in town on Monday about half a mile in length and there are more to follow. It is amounting to an epidemic. I think we all had better take a holiday and get married. But then, I am a grass widower, what is the use of me talking.

Mr V. Ferguson, father of Mrs Clint Haviland was in town last week visiting his daughter.

The Minden band is "going on into perfection". They have secured the cats all out of town. John Benevay takes James Haviland's place.

There will be a social on Friday evening of this week. The ladies will give us peaches, cream and cake.
We are going to have a program consisting of eating, then laugh, then cut some more, then throw peaches at each other and laugh, then eat again.

Richard O'Keefe, our station agent is building a house for himself. It means something. Richard calls on his sweetheart very frequently, and she sings for him "Darling I am growing old" and Dick has taken the hint.

Jas Haviland has returned from Texas with forty horses. Any parties wishing to purchase a horse can satisfy themselves in color shape and size.

The peach and cream social at Mc-Kays Hall last Friday evening was a success.

Rev George S. Davis from Pt Crockett was in town last Thursday.

F. E. Burbanks lost his gold pen.
Jas Buncowaki was the accused party. The case was tried before Justice Yates and the accused found guilty of stealing, refusing to pay damages and cost he was sent to Lexington Jail.
He reported paid the amount and was released.

George McDonald is the man for Representative to the State Legislature from this district. We are sure of his nomination and election. Mr McDonald is one of Mindens best business men and in every sense a true man.

Samuel C. Bell and Emma Geok of Charleston were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening of last week by Rev J. Bettles.

Mr Stuy of Capac has a fine lot of peaches but he has to watch them night with a gun. Look out boys, SERRA

The officers of the Brockway Centre Agri-Club society will meet at J. S. Duffie's office on Tuesday Oct. 17 10 P. M. to settle all matters connected with the fair. All persons holding tickets for sale will please report. All interested parties are invited to attend the meeting.

Additional Expositions.

The Board of Supervisors of this county are now in session at Ft Huron.
—Don't forget to call on C. E. Roswell and get prices before attempting to buy goods at cost.

The prizes awarded to the different exhibitors at the fair will be published next week, we failed to get it ready in time for this issue.

George Welch was seriously, if not fatally injured by Griswold's tame bear to-day. It seems that a few boys were teasing the bear when it broke loose, caught young Welch and tore him in a frightful manner.

The following is the list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the post office at this place October 1st; Miss Annie Bullock, Mary A. Mullaney, Danil L. Weter, Marlon Robert, John Nesbett, Will Nesbett, W. A. Judson, James Mills, John Hodgson, J. K.
Kennedy.

A lodge of the Knights of Honor was instituted here last Friday night by Deputy Grand Dictator, R. B.
Conklin, of Lapeer. There are 18 charter members. The following are the officers:

P. D.—J. S. Duffie, T.—J. A. Morrill
V.—C. E. Roswell, G.—W. Shields
W.—H. Turner Guard—W. Turner
A.—L. Morrill S.—D. Rameshaw
R.—J. F. Holden C.—O. D. Vanderlip
F.—M. T. Grandy.

T. Darcy & Co have purchased a turning lathe, scroll saw, etc with all the machinery necessary to make mouldings, brackets, etc. They are going to erect another building and in a short time builders can get all the mouldings, brackets and trimmings they want without having to send their money away from home. Live men make a live town and Darcy & Co are bound not to be behind in pushing our home interests to the front.

Low the man with the mule, Take everything cool,
But he keeps moving about,
His wagon runs away
When he keeps it steady, And the little mules are stout, He draws goods by the load,
And can be found on the road, Between the city and station,
He is not a dead beat,
But will work so cheap,
That he is not worth the...
