☞ St. Mary's Church, Poplar street, Rev. RICHARD HINES, Rector. Service at 11 A. M. and 3½ P. M. The seats are free.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the First Baptist Church this evening after preaching, by Elder T. J. DRAKE, pastor.

STOLE THE BOOTS.—JOHN, who belongs to Capt. HORNE, on Shelby street, was arrested by Officer MCILVAINE, yesterday, for having stolen two pair of boots.

REVIVAL.—A protracted meeting is in progress at the First Baptist Church. There have been thirty-one accessions since 1st October under the ministry of Rev. T. J. DRAKE.

☞ We are informed that the Clerk of the County Court will attend at his office on Court Square on Monday, 28th inst., to issue State and county license under the tippling act which went into effect on the 21st.

☞ The funeral sermon of PHILIP RICHARDSON, the son of Gen. R. V. and M. E. RICHARDSON, will be preached this morning at 10 o'clock in Asbury Chapel, by Rev. J. P. C. COLLINS.

UNLICENSED.—Two men were arrested yesterday, who were offering for sale black and colored silk pieces, fancy cravats, ladies' worked collars and other things. They had no license to peddle.

NIGGER ROW.—In this celebrated locality, on St. Martin street, yesterday, two negroes, SMITH, a free fellow, and a servant of Lawyer ELDRIDGE, got into a fight, when the latter received a severe cut on his head. The offender was arrested by Officer MCILVAINE.

STRUCK BY A STUNG SHOT.—In a fight which took place in "Pinch," near the Navy Yard, on Friday night, EDWARD HUDSON was severely wounded about the head with a slungshot. It appears that he had partly provoked the assault. The police were soon on the spot, but the assailant had fled.

☞ To Hon. W. K. SEBASTIAN, Senator from Arkansas, we are indebted for the very important Report of Explorations and Surveys for a railroad route from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean, made under the direction of the Secretary of War in 1853-4, according to acts of Congress.

APPEALED.—A. WALLACE, one of the parties at the difficulty last week in Court Square, yesterday appealed from the decision of the Recorder, fining him twenty-five dollars for selling slaves on the Square. He gave the necessary bonds to appear at the next term of the Common Law Court.

BALL.—The ball of the Turngemeinde at Odd Fellows' Hall on Christmas Eve was a most enjoyable one. Notwithstanding the wet weather the fair Teutons attended in huge numbers. A splendid Christmas tree received due attention and the festivities of the evening passed delightfully.

FOUND.—In a field half a mile east of the city, a negro, a few days ago found a pocket-book containing a number of papers; among them is a note dated from French Camp for $190, signed P. W HEWITELL, payable to the order of JOEL F. GOWELL on MESSRS. BARKDALE & MCFARLAND. They will find them at our office.

☞ We are indebted to Messrs DAVIS, WILLIAMS & Co, for frequent favors for which they will please accept our thanks. For late papers we thank WM. BERRY of the Ocean Spray, and JAS. KERR, Jr., of the City of Memphis, also to R. S. BAINES of the Return, WM HART of the Republic, and the clerks of the Adams Express.

☞ The attention of the traveling public is called to the advertisement of the Depot Hotel, to be found under the head of "new advertisements." This house offers great advantages to those who intend to leave on the Charleston Road, owing to the fact that it is situated within a few steps of the Depot in this city. From our acquaintance with Dr. BROOKS, the proprietor, we hesitate not to say that in our opinion those who favor him with their patronage will be well cared for and induced to call upon him again.

☞ Our friends and former neighbors of the Daily Evening News have removed their Business Office to No. 41 Madison street, south side, a few doors below F. H. CLARK & Co.'s marble block. We congratulate our friends of the News, in being thus fortunate in getting a front office, in so desirable a neighborhood. May success and prosperity attend them in their new location. Mr. WONSRAM, the book-keeper, is always on hand to attend to any one having business with the Evening News and Weekly Family Visitor.

MINSTRELSY.—The Campbells, celebrated for powers of song unsurpassed, are amongst us to charm an applauding public. They are under the superintendence of the famed MATT. PELL. We need not make an exhortation upon the deeds of the Campbells—their claims are well known and readily acknowledged. Crowded houses and enthusiastic audiences will welcome the Campbells.

MAN STABBED.—At the boarding house of Mr. BANKS, last evening, a difficulty took place between a boarder named COOPER, who is a carpenter, and MRS. BANKS. Mr. BANKS interfered, when COOPER drew a weapon and stabbed him in the back, below the shoulder blade and to the right of the spine. The wound would have been instantly fatal had not the blade struck a rib. The man afterward threw the knife at MRS. BANKS—it missed her, however, and struck the kitchen door. COOPER was arrested. Dr. KIMBRO dressed the wound.

GAIETY THEATRE.—One of the largest and most fashionable houses of the season attended the Gaiety last night, it being selected for the benefit of Mr. EDWIN BOOTH. The Iron Chest was presented, and Mr. BOOTH's performance must have given entire satisfaction to the audience. He was called before the curtain, when he made his appearance and acknowledged gracefully the compliment to him. We do not think, however, that his personation of "Sir Edward Mortimer" equals others of his parts, as for example his "Richard III," and "Brutus," which latter was a most classic and powerful piece of acting. HAMILTON plays "Wilford" successfully, and the other characters were passably represented.

We desire, on behalf of ourselves and the regular critique of the APPEAL for a few weeks past, to disclaim any design to wound the feelings of an actor when it has been supposed we have too severely criticised. We are pleased to have observed some improvement in his acting, and, altogether, we think our critic has given an undeserved, though unpleasant, prominence to the acting of the gentleman referred to, his role not being one which would merit so conspicuous a notice as was given to it.

The play of "Taming the Shrew" was also presented last night, but at the hour of writing this we cannot speak of the performance.

On Monday evening, Mr. BOOTH will appear in what we have heard is his masterpiece as an actor, and what is certainly the masterpiece of Shakspeare—"Hamlet, Prince of Denmark." Our citizens will be pleased to hear of the re-engagement of this talented and deserving actor, who has become a favorite in our city.

MURDER IN THE CALABOOSE.—Amongst the large number of prisoners in the Calaboose on Thursday night, was a man named JOHN CARGON, who, with JNO. HARLESTON, was put in for fighting. It appears that early in the evening, probably before nine o'clock, CARGON in the most brutal manner beat, and kicked, and stamped upon an old man named JAMES QUALEY and two other men, one of whom was PAT NORRISSEY, the other a German. It appears that CARGON, after being locked up, became very savage and swore he would kill every man he could get to. He then attacked, as we have described, the three parties named. They were all, especially QUALEY, so thoroughly helpless from intoxication that they were incapable of making any resistance, or even crying out. Strange to say, though the officers were in the place several times through the night, no complaint was made, or any information given. In the morning the Turnkey, Mr. CARMICHAEL, discovered the condition of two of the men, who, though much bruised about the face and head, were able to walk. Even then not a man in the place mentioned the condition of QUALEY, and it was not until a later period in the day that his situation became known. His head and face were smashed and bruised in a most awful manner; his jaw was broken and the flesh under the chin was cut, perhaps by a blow the man CARGON had displayed, threatening death to the others by means of it. The jailer procured a physician and showed every possible kindness towards the unfortunate man, who died yesterday morning, without having been able to articulate a word. So great was the fear the murderer had inspired among the prisoners, that none could be prevailed upon to reveal what had passed, until MIKE HAYDEN, a boy, on being removed from the place and being promised protection, told the horrible story.

CARGON, and HARLESTON were taken before Esq. HILL, when the latter was discharged, and CARGON was committed to take his trial for the horrible deed he has committed. He asked no questions of the witnesses, but afterward sullenly acknowledged his guilt to the officer.

BOLD THIEVES.—As the Cumberland reached our landing yesterday, three of the "swell mob" hastened on board, and while the officers' and passengers' attention was directed forward, one of them, with a chisel, proceeded to open a trunk on the guards. The chambermaid saw the transaction and proceeded to raise an alarm, when one of the trio put a pistol to her head and threatened if she would not be quiet he would blow her brains out. She paid no attention to his threats, however, but ran into the cabin and there continued her shouts. Capt. DURRETT came up and secured the fellow who was at work, and his chisel with him. He was taken off to jail by officer MALLORY. The trunk belonged to A. K. MCIRWIN.

MURDEROUSLY DISPOSED.—As a gentleman, a friend of ours, was passing through a lit le knot of men that were conversing on Main street, near the Worsham House, on Thursday night, soon after ten oclock, one of them drew his hand rapidly down brushing the gentleman's bosom. He did not pay much attention to the matter, but on reaching home, he found his coat was cut, the wretch had attempted to stab him.

☞ A neat and substantial buggy, nearly new, and suited to a physician's or family use, may be had at considerably less than cost, by immediate application to D. MCCOMB, 157 Main street. dec27-3t

Fever and Ague.

A Case of Eight Months Standing Cured by Burnett's Holland Bitters.

MICHAEL KELLY, No. 117 Seventh, near Grant street, Pittsburgh, says:

"Last July, while rowing on the river, on a cottom-boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with Fever and Ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying BURNETT'S HOLLAND BITTERS, saying that a cure was guaranteed. After taking it for one week, I must say I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the Chill or Fever whatever."

I certify that the above statement is true.

Monetary and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SUNDAY, December 27, 1857.

CHICAGO.—From the Times, December 21: The money market is quite as much easier as it was at the adjournment of the Banks on Saturday last, and the demand for loans seems to have both the power and the will to help them. Good paper, of course, is discounted, and it bears but a small proportion to that which is refused. Western currency is still scarce.—Eastern exchange sells at ¾ @ ¾ per cent.

CINCINNATI.—From the Times December 21: During the one week now in very good demand at the Missouri House, where they had more applications than they were willing to accommodate at the usual rate 1½@2½ per cent. Borrowers were not numerous in the street, where the figures for good paper were, and they did not, about 24 per cent. per annum. The commercial community here seems to be very shy and healthful, and all payments are, for the most part, promptly met. The Taxes have been so punctually paid as to cause an agreeable surprise. New York exchange was very firm, with an upward tendency all last week, and no sales were reported to-day. Gold was in most rate demand at 1 and 1¼ prem., and at the close of the week more active. The supply is limited at present. Most of the gold received Money on the list was heavy during the week. Indiana Stock was firm, however, at 85@86 ds, and Illinois and Canons were better. The Canons were all the stock offered to-day. The Illinois was for a former figure. Virginia (Wheeling Banks) old issues, and the old Bank) were very difficult of sale. Although the Treasury Notes are to be promptly paid to-day, there will be a demand for them, and they will be taken at their price. Tennessee and Alabama. The State of Alabama has recently resumed in this city a loan of about $200,000 for the payment of the interest on her bonds, and for the payment of a portion of the principal sum due, to mature in a short time. The State has been punctual to the minute in the payment of her interest, and it is not to be doubted that the credit and replace the funds already paid, but rendered unavailable by the failure of a leading house with which it was placed, will be in the process of the new loan $200,000 in gold was forwarded to Europe by the last steamer, and $200,000 more will go forward on Wednesday.

DOVER N. H., Feb 2, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the sixth we have received all before being sold,) which we now send you in exchange from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to cause profound three or four new customers, and the approbation and patronage bestowed upon it, is the most universal and worthy testimony of our sincerity, fully convinced that it is a most valuable preparation.

Send us as soon as may be one gross of the size; and one dozen $2 size; all believe so warm our respectfully, HICKORY GROVE, St. Charles county, Mo., December 19, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some time last summer we were induced to try one of your Hair Restoratives, and the effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to recommend the article to you, it.

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing your advertisement, advised us to use your Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, in all good faith and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair.

We are, yours respectfully,
GEORGE W. HIGGINBOTHAM,
SARAH A. HIGGINBOTHAM.

GRANDVIEW, MAINE, June 29, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have sent two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it I was a man of sev enty. My hair has now attained its original color. Toll you so myself I have written without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours respectfully,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

EXTRACT

of a Letter from a Medical Gentleman at MADRAS, TO HIS BROTHER at WORCESTER, Mar, '51

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in our opinion, far most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."

The only Medal awarded by the Jury of the New York Exhibition for Foreign Sauces, was obtained by LEA & PERRINS for their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, the world wide fame of which having led to numerous imitations, purchasers are earnestly requested to see that the names of "LEA & PERRINS" are impressed upon the Bottle and Stopper, and printed upon the labels.
