THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL

THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 30, '57.

☞ We thank H. LANDRUM, clerk of the H. D. Newsom, for late papers.

COMMON LAW COURT.—This Court has adjourned until after New Year's, giving an opportunity to file exceptions and take appeals.

☞ Our acknowledgments are due Hon. A. B. GREENWOOD, of Arkansas, for a copy of the law authorizing the issue of Treasury notes.

ARRESTED.—An individual named JOHN J. COLE was arrested yesterday and placed in the Calabouse, on the charge of horse stealing from Arkansas. He waits a requisition from the Governor of that State.

☞ We are requested to state that on the morning of the sale of W. S. WELLS' Plantation—Negroes, Stock, &c., at his station, 7 miles from Memphis, on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, one car starts at 7½ and an extra train at 10 A. M., for the accommodation of those who may wish to attend the sale. The cars return in the evening. See advertisement for further particulars. WALLACE is the auctioneer.

THE CAMPBELLS.—At Odd Fellows' Hall last night, the music, singing and dancing of the Campbell Minstrels enchanted and enraptured a large and applauding audience. Some disappointment was exhibited at the absence of MATT PEEL, the monarch of negro minstrelsy. That absence was unavoidable. PEEL took his passage up to this port on the Belfast, but, owing to fogs on the river, the boat was delayed beyond its time. He will be present to-night, however, in all his excellence. Do not miss being present.

THE KELLER TROUPE.—We are compelled from a sense of justice, to say a word about the Keller Troupe, now performing at ASH's Theatre. Their tableaux have a merit few suspect who have not seen them. Let the reader of taste and refinement, by which we mean the elite of Memphis, call to mind one of the groupes of the old Masters, let him imagine that groups presented by living individuals, with all the expression, eyes with souls behind them, colors and costume can give them, he can then form an idea of the KELLERS and their glorious tableaux.

SHARPERS.—Our police are, practically, fine ornithologists; to cage specimens of the rara avis is a passion with them. Yesterday they secured, what they called two "suspicious birds," who had been staying at the Worsham House, but who "moved their boot" to the Merchants' Hotel. A guest at the former place lost on Sunday night, by the ravages of some "nocturnal birds," twenty-five dollars in gold, beside a sum of money in paper, a gold watch and other valuables. A gold chain, part of the missing property, was afterward found in the street. The two "suspicious birds" arrested for supposed complicity in the above "picking," are JAMES ANDERSON and GEO. MOORE.

THE WEATHER.—Oh tempora! but that is Latin—we will try French—ah le temps! which means oh, the weather! and what toothaching, rheumatic, dyspeptic, cast down individual did not yesterday say, swear and pray, about the dark, lowering, heavy, gloomy, dark, dismal, dreadful, direful, distressing, distracting, distasteful, (so many names concerning our subject begin with a D we have to cut short the list) weather.

"In every clime adored,
Jehovah, Jove, or Lord,
Send no better weather if the sentiment elements of nature it will afford."

We suspect our quotation from Pope halts, but it is as good as we can do this weather.

RECORDER'S COURT.—When Queen VICTORIA holds a grand levee after India is settled, when the Princes of that country attend to do her homage because the military have convincingly proved to them that they "oughter," she will not have a more a festive, respectful, or deferential audience than attended the Recorder yesterday morning. There was a crowd who had participated in Christmas doings with a very moderate amount of Christ-mas sentiment in their bosoms, and who had got into trouble accordingly. The Lord Chamberlain who introduced most of the visitants at the Esquire's levee, was the great General Spurious Whisky, conqueror of conscientiousness and Rupturer of Reputations. Recorder EAST, with that suavity and urbanity that has made him so great a favorite in this city, received his visitors with a punctilio most accurately graduated to a degree proportioned to their merits; and to the higher dignities he graciously accorded the strongest invitations which could not be declined, to accept the hospitality of the city, in the building at the foot of Exchange street, for longer or shorter periods, according to their claims.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.—This popular place of amusement was poorly attended night before last, on account of the stormy weather. Hamlet was presented, Mr. BOOTH playing that character. We have seen all the great artists of England and America in that great and difficult character, and when we sat spellbound by the genius of MACREADY and FORREST, we naturally concluded that nothing could ever equal their transcendent personations. But Mr. BOOTH, although indifferently supported and without that great incentive to action, "a full house," surpassed all we ever saw, heard or read. That character alone, as he played it night before last, established his matchless genius, and placed him a head and shoulders above any other man in his profession. It affords great pleasure to pay tribute to genius wherever we may find it. But especially is it pleasant to pay this tribute to one to whom the world has never awarded his meed of praise, and to say to him that the day is not distant when the world will acknowledge and reverence his great intellect.

It is to be hoped that Mr. BOOTH will repeat it before he closes his engagement, giving all a chance to hear him, (in our humble judgment,) his greatest character.

Last night he played "Sir Giles Overreach." He plays it better than in its former presentation; in short, he is greater in everything he plays than any man now living.

River Matters.

The river continued to fall yesterday. The levee presented quite an animated appearance, notwithstanding the mud.

To-night, let all take notice, the boat on which MANN is Captain, and Pepper and Larry Harmstead are clerks, that is to say the splendid Memphis, leaves for Cincinnati. We have beforetime so strongly expressed our approbation of this boat, its magnificently furnished tables (at meal times) and its generous and polite officers, that we can add nothing now, though if we could, we are sure it would be merited.

The pretty Comet leaves for the St. Francis river this evening.

☞ All persons indebted to the late firm of L. VEST & CO., are requested to come forward and make payments as early in January as possible. Mr. VEST will continue with me, and assist in winding up the business for the present. [dec30-tf] B. GRAHAM.

☞ A neat and substantial buggy, nearly new, and suited to a physician's or family use, may be had at considerably less than cost, by immediate application to D. MCCOMB, 157 Main street. dec27-3t

☞ The English papers (by the Europa) state that the run for gold had entirely ceased at Bilfast and throughout the whole of Ireland.

☞ The Empress Eugenie is having a yutch built at Havre, on a scale of unusual magnificence. It is to be called the Napoleon et Eugenie.

☞ The name of the new Princess of the Austrias—if a Princess—had already been fixed upon. It is something new in the world certainly—Parisiana Conception.

Jones—"Mr. Smith, I wish to speak to you privately; permit me to take you apart for a few moments."

Smith—(who isn't in the least frightened)—"Certainly, sir, if you'll promise to put me together again."

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 29th inst., by Rev. R. C. Grandy, D. D., Mr. GREEN MILLS to MISS MARY E. RICES.

On the 24th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Hoge, Mr. ROBERT G. STANARD, of Richmond, Va., to MISS MARTHA VIRGINIA COWAN, of Memphis.

DIED.

On Tuesday evening, 29th inst., of Consumption, Mr. WILLIAM S. SCOUT in his 22d year.

The funeral will take place THIS AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock, from the residence of Mrs. Simms, on Madison street. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Counterfeiters, Beware!

A reward is offer for the detection of any person counterfeiting, imitating, or the vender of any such counterfeit or imitation of FORRAGE'S HOLLAND BITTER. The genuine highly concentrated Holland Bitters, is put up in pint bottles only, having the name of the proprietor, B. PAGE, JR., blown in them, and the signature around the neck of each and every bottle.

British Plans of Vengeance in India.

Calcutta (Oct. 27) Correspondence of the London Times.]

The Government, I believe, is still of opinion that the movement has been a sudden and unbridled burst of fanaticism. In that case two circumstances require unexplained. First, the juncture of Musselmen and Hindoos; secondly, that the native Christians, except at Delhi, have not suffered. The people of Jaunpore, moreover, have offered voluntarily to rebuild the native church and schools, and in no proclamation issued by natives is there any mention whatever of the missionaries.

No plan whatever has yet been announced here for the reorganization of the army. It is not believed, however, that Government will object to the "English" plan, or will attempt to rehabilitate the Sepoy force. The great difficulty will be the pressure of class interests upon Government, and the existence of a dreadful conflict of opinion among its officers. The result will be inaction, unless orders are issued from England so clear as to require obedience instead of discussion.

At present public opinion is concentrated on the question of vengeance. The following sentences from the Friend of India, are understood to represent the universal idea:

1. That in districts under martial law, and during actual warfare, the loss of life and property should be regulated by military necessities alone.

2. That every mutineer who has taken up arms or quitted his ranks should die.

3. That every rebel who has taken up arms should die.

4. That in every village where a European has been murdered, a telegraph cut, or a dak stolen, a swift tribunal should exercise summary justice.

5. That every village in which a European fugitive has been insulted or refused aid, should be heavily fined.

THE OLD KING IN IMPRISONMENT

From the Bombay Correspondence of the London Times.]

An officer recently arrived from Delhi, while giving me a slight description of the city, &c., since the siege and assault, I naturally asked him if he had seen the "royal prisoner." He replied in the affirmative and added, "I think if I had anything to do with the safe keeping of such an old rascal, I should not allow him so many attendants." Upon this I made further inquiries, and learned that the prisoner has not only a large retinue, but that he is accommodated with his usual Oriental luxuries, fly drivers, and other comforts to an extent scarcely credible. He is, moreover, inclined to be jolly, (well may he be so,) and on the occasion of a visit paid him by some officers who did not remove their hats in his presence, turned to his son Jumna Bakht (who, I am glad to learn, is a prisoner with him) and said, "These people must dost their heads rather warm with their topees on."

DELHI AFTER ITS FALL.

From the Bombay Correspondence of the London times.]

General Wilson, whose health was impaired during the siege of Delhi, having earned his laurels by the capture of the city, has retired to the hills for the benefit of pure air and fresh breezes—handing over his charge to General Penny, late Brigadier in command at Meerut. General Penny reached Delhi on the 5th of October. Measures will now be taken to reduce the city to a defenceless state. All the defenses are to be leveled with the ground, and the Jummah Mosjid destroyed. The three princes taken by Brigadier Showers were sentenced to death after a trial, and were to be executed on the 13th inst. The King of Delhi was also to be arraigned a few days after. Arrests were daily made among the wealthy Mahommedans about Delhi, and plenty of evidence is at hand to convict every one of them.

TRIAL AND EXECUTION OF THE PRINCES.

PALACE DELHI, October 15.—The Ex-King, who is living in a small house within the palace walls, is to be brought to trial in a few days, for aiding and abetting the mutineers. Living with him is his favorite wife, Zeenut Mahal, and her son, Jumna Bakht, a lad of about eighteen or nineteen years old. Two of the King's sons, the Princes Mirza Bucktawar Shah and Mirza Moodoo, were tried last week for aiding and abetting the mutineers. One of them was appointed Colonel of the 11th Native Infantry, and the other of the 74th. They were tried by a military commission of five officers, with Brigadier General Chamberlain as President. Evidence was produced before the court, principally documentary, consisting of reports, returns, &c., bearing the prisoners' seals, showing that they exercised command of their regiments and acted. In their defense they pleaded total ignorance of the intention of the Sepoys to mutiny, and said that when the Meerut mutineers first reached Delhi, on the 11th of May, they (the Princes) thought it was a Russian invading army! They were then summoned to an audience by the King, and in a few days after were appointed colonels of regiments, at the request of the Sepoys themselves.

The court, however, found the prisoners guilty, and sentenced them to death, and accordingly, yesterday, they were shot by a party of the 60th Rifles. Detachments of Rifles, Artillery, Sappers and Goorkhas were present, and a great number of spectators. The bodies were cast into the Jumna river.

Stolen.

A YOUNG, spare built man, called at our stable on Saturday morning last, and hired a horse and he man, saying he wished to ride into the country a few miles on business, to return same day; but has not yet made his appearance. He was seen to take the road leading to Hernando. The mare he rode was about six years old, very compact serrel, about fourteen and a half hands high, under the saddle, with a small star in her forehead, and a peculiar hollow place on the left side of her neck near the shoulder, and of sprightly movement. The thief will probably attempt to palm himself off as a gentleman's servant; he is but a very young man, and has no intelligent appearance. A liberal reward will be given for his arrest and imprisonment, that he may be brought to justice. Also for the recovery of the mare. ELLIS, HOWARD & CO.

TO ASSOCIATED PRESS OF MEMPHIS.

BY THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH LINE.

From Washington—Walker.

WASHINGTON, December 29.—The instructions to Commodore Paulding were unnecessarily general, it became impossible for the Government to anticipate circumstances in and at Honduras, therefore, he determined on other his own and national, therefore, he determined on other his arrest of Walker will be justified until the receipt of Paulding's official dispatches

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says that Paulding acted without instructions, except those addressed to all officers by the Government some time since, to prevent violation of the neutrality laws. It is further stated that the Administration disapproves and disclaim Commodore Paulding's conduct, and will hold him to strict accountability.

The Times' correspondent says that Secretary Cass denounces the act of Walker as illegal, inexcusable and unauthorized; that Paulding will doubtless be court-martialled immediately. Walker's friends believe that Paulding has acted under secret instructions. Southern men claim it to be the duty of the Government to send Walker and his men back in a national vessel.

Walker Indignation Meeting.

NEW ORLEANS, December 29.—The reception of the news of General Walker's arrest caused great indignation throughout the city. NEW FIRM.

The subscribers have entered into partnership under the firm of F. H. CLARK & CO.

F. H. CLARK,
JAS. S. WILKINS,
THOS. HILL.

A CARD.

OUR NEW FIRM.

IT affords me pleasure to announce to my friends and the public that I have associated with me my former partner, JAS. S. WILKINS, and my well-known assistant, THOS. HILL, under the familiar style of F. H. CLARK & CO.

The new firm will start with an efficient force in each mechanical branch, the Watch department being under the supervision of Mr. Wilkins.

A beautiful assortment of the latest fashions, and prices as low as the same quality and style of goods can be purchased in Philadelphia or New York.

I am thankful for the liberal patronage extended to me during my fifteen years' residence in Memphis, and my aim will be to merit its continuance.

F. H. CLARK.

ESTABLISHED 1841.

OUR aim has been to keep pace with our growing city, and furnish those who want goods in our line with good articles, and at fair prices. Our patronage, for years, has been but little if any behind our Eastern cities. It is more extensive this season than ever. Our leading branches are, first—

WATCHES,

Of which we have every variety in general use, together with a large assortment made to our order, which for neatness of style and time-keeping, are surpassed by none. In our assortment will be found the Right Day Watch and the Repeating Chronometer, giving the time to a minute in the dark.

JEWELRY.

Our assortment in this important branch is kept full by frequent receipts of all the new styles, whether of foreign or domestic production.

GUNS, GUNS.

We have made this branch of our business a study for years, only posting ourselves with regard to the different qualities and merits of the different styles and makers, but of the kinds best suitable to our market. Our assortment, for a number of years, has been large, to which we have recently made many additions by direct importation. We can furnish our customers with SHOT GUNS from $5 to $200; RIFLES from $10 to $100. Also, the celebrated SHARPE'S RIFLE.

Pistols,

DERRINGER and COLT, of all sizes. Also, a full assortment of the kinds in general use.

SILVER GOODS.

Tea and Coffee Sets, Pitchers, Goblets, Cups, Castors, Spoons, Forks, Ladles, with many choice Fancy Articles, all cost free.

SILVER PLATED GOODS.

Urns, Castors, Candlesticks, Tea and Coffee Sets, Forgers, Cake and Fruit Baskets Spoons, Forks, Ladles, Pitchers, Goblets, Cups, Waiters, &c., &c.

CUTLERY.

A full assortment of Pocket and Table Knives, from the best makers, with a great variety of Fancy Goods.

OUR MECHANICAL BRANCH.

All kinds of Watch Work done in the most faithful manner. Jewelry repaired, and new made to order.

Engraving.

Plain and Ornamental Seals for Lodges, Courts, &c., in
