THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY MORNING.....JANUARY 7, 1858.

☞ Among the large number of Mississippians in the city, yesterday, were the Hon. J. M. HOWARD and Gen. A. G. BRADFORD.

BOLTON.—Sheriff SWAN returned to the city yesterday, having surrendered BOLTON to the authorities of Tipton county for trial at Covington.

COUNCIL.—Council met last night in extra session, but without doing any formal business, adjourned until Saturday evening, when they will meet to consider the tippling ordinance.

CITY RECORDER'S REPORT.—T. M. FARR, Esq., the City Recorder, reports as follows for the month of December: Number of persons brought up for examination 296. Found guilty 231. Discharged 55. Paid fines 170. Committed to Workhouse 61. Amount of fines paid into City Treasurer $1,162 48.

WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was delicious and enjoyable, but promenading was rendered uncomfortable by the mud, which is not confined to the middle of the street, but covers the crossings, and invades every angle of the sidewalks. The infliction is as universal as other plagues from heaven were in a former Memphis.

BRownlow's LECTURE.—This gentleman delivered his lecture on "Slavery" to a good audience, composed of our citizens last night at Odd Fellows' Hall. His remarks showed that he had studied the subject from its origin down to the present day, and that he authority to prove all the assertions he made. He is not a tour lecturing, and will visit all the principal cities in the East, where he will meet the Abolitionists face to face, and tell them all about Southern institutions.

MADGIE MITCHELL.—Vociferous applause and shouts of laughter are nightly greeting the charming MADGIE MITCHELL at Ash's Theatre. It is a real gratification to witness her humorous, naive style of performance. To-night, that many may be gratified at their especial request, Satan in Paris, or the Mysterious Stranger, will be presented. Miss CONWAY will dance a pas de deux. The Four Sisters will also be performed, in which piece MISS MITCHELL will sing the beautiful song, "Maggie by my side."

WHARFMASTER'S REPORT.—The Wharfmaster, A. H. AVERY, Esq., states in his report to Council for the month of December, that the number of arrivals of steamboats at this port during the month, was 233; arrivals at the flatboat landing 63. During the first half of the present corporate year, the collection of wharfage was as follows: Amount paid by packets, $4,177 65; by transient boats, $3,659 49; by flatboats, $2,016 22. Total collection for the six months $9,853 37; amount collected same time last year $7,382 95. Increase over previous half year $2,490 42.

WARD EXPENDITURES.—The Street Commissioner, Chas. MILLER, Esq., reports that during the month of December the expenses of labor on public improvements in each Ward of the city was as follows: 1st Ward, $00 00; 2d, $26 25; 3d, $55 70; 4th, $162 35; 5th, $00 00; 6th, $186 62½; Wharf, 236 70. Total, $662 82½. It will be seen that the amount expended for improvements on the wharf is greater than for any one ward in the city, we regret to say that the condition of the wharf allows no correspondent improvement.

MESSRS. SCOTT & DIXON.—It gives us great pleasure to invite the attention of the public to the hat card of Messrs. SCOTT & DIXON, who have very recently selected Memphis as the field of their professional pursuits. Both have enjoyed a high reputation in Mississippi, not only for professional ability, but also in respect to their high moral standing. Mr. SCOTT has occupied the position of Chancellor, which is regarded by his profession as second to none in that State. We regard ourselves as fortunate in having such acquisitions to our Bar and community.

CITY INSPECTOR'S REPORT.—The report of the City Inspector, ROSS JOINER, Esq., for the months of October, November and December shows that the following amounts were received during that time: For weighing hay, $180 02; weighing coal, $331 18; miscellaneous weighing, $84 25; gauging barrels, $20 28; adjusting scales, $26; sealing measures, 60 cents; gauging boats, $41; weighing carts, $22 50. Total, $678 83; of which one-fourth is paid over to the city. Some of these items deserve attention; for instance, if sixty cents is all that has been paid for sealing measures in this city for three months, there is room for inquiry whether the ordinance respecting measures is faithfully carried out.

AUCTIONEER'S NOTES.—We expressed a wish some time ago, that those self-swing notes, issued so freely of evenings in front of auction establishments, might go into suspension, our wish, and the wish of "many citizens," is about to be gratified. An ordinance on page 81 of the City Digest, says: "Any person who shall ring a bell in the streets to give notice of an auction, or of any other assembly, for a longer time than ten minutes; or elsewhere than before the door of the auction or assembly, shall be fined not less than five, nor more than twenty dollars." The City Marshal give notice last evening to a number of auctioneers, that he should strenuously enforce the above provision. Our friends, the auctioneers, will profit by our notice of the fact.

MORTUARY.—A table, carefully compiled by Dr. TUCK, Secretary of the Board of Health, states that, during the last year, the number of deaths in this city was 639; 45 of them were from accidents and casualties; between 20 and 30 of the deaths were of strangers; deaths in the city from disease were less than six hundred. Estimating the population at near 20,000, the rate of mortality is a little less than three per cent. The year has been healthy, except that scarlet fever and measles were prevalent in the spring. Of the deaths 382 were of males, 277 females; 436 whites, 173 blacks; 197 were between 1 and 5 years old; 51 from 5 to 10; 47 from 10 to 20; 82 from 20 to 30; 65 from 30 to 40; 49 from 40 to 50; 33 from 50 to 60; 11 from 60 to 70; 12 over 70; 22 unknown.

MRS. BATEMAN'S SELF.—Mr. and Mrs. BATEMAN have arrived and are preparing, at the Gaiety, to present the popular production of Mrs. BATEMAN, "Self," to the public of Memphis. Self is purely an American play and has elicited great admiration on account of its merits, both literary and dramatic. The New Orleans Picayune speaks as follows on the presentation of the play in that city recently: "A better audience, in point of numbers, and which is always a pleasing sign, made up in a large proportion of ladies, witnessed the second performance of the new comedy of Self, last evening, than was present at the first. Its verdict in favor of the piece and of the acting was clear and unequivocal. Self is as decided a success in New Orleans as it has been everywhere else it has been played." The same paper, at a later date said: "Mr. H. L. BATEMAN closed his two weeks' engagement here last evening very brilliantly. He now goes to Memphis, where, at the Gaiety, he will reproduce the two comedies of Mrs. BATEMAN he has so successfully presented in our city. We can recommend them to the attention, as we shall be sure they will secure the admiration, of the good people of Memphis."

SCENES AT THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.—The London correspondent of the Philadelphia American, writing of the opening of Parliament on the 31 inst., says:

"The day was fine, and throughout the line of route from Buckingham Palace to the House of Peers the accustomed assemblage of sightseers congregated, the female sex being in a strong majority, owing to the expectation which prevailed, and which was not disappointed, that the Prince of Prussia, the bridegroom elect of the Princess Royal, would take part in the procession.

"The Queen and Prince Consort were received with the usual demonstration; the Princess Royal also was warmly noticed, and the Prince of Prussia was declared to be, by feminine critics, a nice, handsome young fellow. The scene at the House of Lords was both interesting and imposing. The array of peers robed in scarlet and ermine, the brilliant dresses of the peeresses crowding the galleries—too many, by the way garbed in solemn black, announcing the loss of near and dear relations in India—the extremely full attendance of the diplomatic body in their gorgeous dresses, the Siamese ambassadors being among the number, and the splendid uniforms of many officers present, rendered the coup d'œil at once striking and magnificent.

"The arrival of the Queen, conducted by the Prince Consort, was the occasion of the display of testimonies of profound respect from all parts of the House, and as soon as her majesty was seated the well known hubbub and row, in a peculiar quarter announced the appearance of the 'Commons,' or members of the lower House, a circumstance which her majesty usually greets with a smile, as though she much enjoyed the 'scrounging' for places actively going on among the representatives of the people! Amid the very deepest silence the Queen read the anxiously expected speech."

☞ In ancient days the celebrated precept was "Know Thyself." In modern times it has been supplanted by the far more fashionable maxim, "Know thy neighbor and everything about him."

River Matters.

The river continued rising yesterday, and under the influence of bright sunshine, the deluge of mud on the levee began to subside.

The boats arrived since our last report were: From Louisville, the H. D. Norcum and the Chancellor for New Orleans. From New Orleans, the Flying Cloud for St. Louis, the Mary for Cincinnati, the Hill for Memphis. From Cincinnati, the Cincinnati for New Orleans. From St. Louis, the Morrison for New Orleans.

The H. R. W. Hill leaves for New Orleans to-morrow afternoon.

The Comet leaves to-morrow for St. Francis river.

☞ All persons indebted to the late firm of L. VEST & CO., are requested to come forward and make payments as early in January as possible. Mr. VEST will continue with me, and assist in winding up the business for the present. [dec30-tf] B. GRAHAM.

PILES IN BOTH FORMS CURED. READ THIS.

"I can only account for my present good health, from the constant, though moderate use of BRUNDRETH'S ROLLING BUTTERS—having from youth suffered, at intervals from PILES, in their worst form, sometimes to so great a degree as to completely prostrate me. I have for several months past, though subject to lose at shop, and manual physical effort, been entirely free from any symptom of this distressing disease, while my general health is very much improved."

Persons doubting the authenticity of this certificate, are requested to call on me personally with the parties signing it. They will take pleasure not only in referring them to the author, but to many others who have used the Rolling Butters for the same affliction, with equal success.

Thirty-Fifth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—SENATE—Session and no note acted, but the Senate refused, by names them acting on the Cabinet to the French Spoliation Bill.

The Senate are considering Crittenden's resolution, to cover for the unpaid balance on imports and collecting the revenue for its valuation.

Mr. Crittenden thought that an increase of free payment, on wool and cotton goods would produce an adequate revenue, and afford necessary protection. Fitch moved an amendment on taking back bills—discriminating against the smaller denominations to drive them out of circulation. On motion of Mr. Clay the resolution was laid over, and the bill was taken up.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—HOUSE—Gamer Jones, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill for the support of the Military Academy at Washington, Va. The Committee on Commercial Affairs reported a bill to amend the act for better security of the lives of passengers on board steamboats. The consideration of the bill was postponed to the first Tuesday in February.

House 12 m.—Clingman, from the committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a resolution, which was adopted, asking the President for the correspondence between the Secretary of State and Parsons and New Granada; also, with Brazil, relative to the negotiations of reciprocity; also, other and all correspondence on the subject of our claims with Spain, not heretofore made public.

The House then went into a Committee on the Whole on the President's message.

Sickles defended the constitutionality of the neutrality act of 1818, and said he was surprised to hear the assertions that it was not right to go on the high seas to capture the violators of our laws—that we are under treaty and stipulations to maintain a large naval force on the coast of Africa, yet we have not had been we enjoyed by all administrations and all parties, and said that Walker's expedition fitted out to make war and take life of property in Nicaragua, with whom we were at peace, and just made a treaty of amity and friendship, and at the same time a law for force was being landed, hostilities projected, now that does not properly constitute a violation of international law, and is not a case of murder. He recognized the right of American citizens to emigrate to foreign countries peacably, and wished the Isthmus Americanized, but not by expeditions like Walker's. That to Cuba Cuba. Pending action in accordance with the spirit of his instructions, and that the President has shown himself invariable to the interests of our people, to remain in the Cuban Amazon, practicing by cultivating kind and natural relations with the governments, with a view to Africa under them—that it is treason for another hands to make war upon peaceful nations, patriots.

Mr. Bliss and Bonham said the best good would grant for as any one in favor of the very nation of the Monroe doctrine, but not for the reasons given by Quitman—that Mr. Sickles in this party power that constitutes the Monroe's area, and that Quitman's "Hi. We thought that the thanks of Congress and a medal were due to Pending. He said that he was a national, not an international Democrat, and a believer of Monroe's doctrine, and wanted to see the sentiments of the Oxford manifesto implied when the nation will take the responsibility of seizing Cuba and Africa, and that the responsibility of seizing Cuba and Africa, and that the responsibility was on the whole over the 1st National Democrats believe that the Government should do certain things by compact, and that be interested that this from the Mother Country, but that Walker's invasions were purely lawless. That he was in favor of national grant laws (laughter) and declared himself a Hard-Shell Democrat.

Mr. Stephens said he sent to inquisition on Pending, rather than the arrest of Walker that was without law or color of law, and if Pending was sustained in that, it was a great outrage.

Mr. Hunt no sympathy, and said that there were abundant of precedents to show that the American Congress and people have sacrificed sets morally rich—but to take only worst.

Brooks replied to Mr. Stephens' assertion that some of Walker's men were Lazy and honey followers and degenerates in course of the argument on Pending's conduct, and thought that documents would justify it, and that China was an instance of necessity after Walker's escape in order naval and federal officers to prevent the next expedition. He heartily ridiculed the idea of paying Walker's expenses, and sending him back in a national vessel.

The committee rose the House then adjourned.
