NOTICE.

DR. J. M. SKEGGS has returned from New York, after an absence of three months, and has offered anew his services to the citizens of Memphis. He has taken an office at No. 37 Monroe street, he owes Main and Second and will attend to all calls in town or country. He will also do his best to cure the celebrated Gamgee method of treating cholera—the treatment is simple. All Medicines furnished gratis. Dr. Skeggs has had in the treatment of the various diseases, he thinks he should have a liberal patronage from the citizens of Memphis. 1-6-dly

DR. R. L. LASKY,
Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher,
Washington Street, between Main and Second,
MEMPHIS, TENN.
Office hours from 7 to 9 o'clock, A. M., and from 2 to 4 o'clock, P. M.

THANKFUL for the kind patronage heretofore extended to me, I take occasion to inform my friends and the public in general, that I do not any in addition to those this city as has been reported, and that I am ever ready to attend to the duties of my profession in cases of disease, and that I am at period to undertake the cure of Chronic complaints of a peculiar nature, and that I do not use "all or part of any preparation of mercury in disease whatever."

Secret diseases are cured in my own method, in such manner as not to interfere with the business and pleasure of patient, and that I do not use any mercury in the treatment of the same. 1-7-dly

For the benefit of Rheumatism, Asthma, Neuralgia, Nervous Headache and Tooth Ache, Paralysis, Dropsy, Dropsy on the Lower Spine, Spinal Curvature, Weakness, Chronic Diseases, Hips, Tumor Albus or White Swelling, Deafness, as well as all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Leucorrhea, Abscesses, Ulcers, Sores, &c., or any disease that requires an entire revolution of the Entire Animal Economy, I teach Martin's Secret treatment, which is universally known for its practical utility.

After a practice of ten years as Staff Physician and Director of several hospitals in Germany, and eight years practice in the United States, my reputation as a physician, surgeon and accoucher is sufficiently established as to render further comment.

Hotels---Hotels.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL!
THE undersigned has the pleasure to announce to the public that he has this day bought the property and has taken charge of that popular and well known hotel, the COMMERCIAL HOTEL, Memphis, Tenn. The office is under the charge of Mr. M. M. Avery, late proprietor of the Bowling House, Grand Bounds Miss., one of the most popular and success clerks of business men in the South, assisted by Mr. JOHN C. McALISTER, formerly of Jackson, Miss., as book keeper and Cashier. In that department Mr. McAlister has no superior. Mr. J. A. BRADLEY, late of Natchez, Miss., is Assistant Clerk and general director. The catering department is under the management of Mr. WILLIAM ROWAN, late of Vicksburg, Miss., long and well known as a Caterer in Memphis for several years. Proprietor of the Washington Hotel in Yazoo City, Miss. It is not to say that his department Mr. Rowan has no superior. Mr. CHARLES FAIRBRITHER, for fifteen years Superintendent of the dining room at Cameron's Hotel in Memphis, has charge of the table, and to his Assistant. The house keeping department is under the charge of Mrs. J. A. TYLER, a most elegant and accomplished lady. The Commercial Hotel is in sight of Jefferson street, and fronting the Great Father of Waters, unsurpassed by the hospitality and beauty of accommodation, prudence and dry goods known to the public. Clerks and Omnibuses will at all times and at all hours, both day and night, be ready to convey the traveling public from and from the river and Railroad Depots. The Railroad Tickets office and the Telegraph office are both kept in the Commercial Hotel. The proprietor is more than surrounded by such an able and competent corps of assistants, feels it himself that he can give very general satisfaction. In a word he will do his best to merit a liberal share of the public patronage. He will give you the best and the best attention he can, in the Mississippi style, all the best in the world.
