LIST OF LETTERS.—The official list of letters will be found in this morning's paper.

☞ We are again under obligations to the Adams Express Company for the late dates.

☞ Copies of our daily paper may be obtained at the desk this morning until 9 o'clock. Price five cents per copy, "dead head" system abolished.

☞ There are pews reserved in the St. Peter and St. Paul's (Catholic) Church, for the accommodation of strangers. Rev. T. L. GRACE will preach this morning at 10 o'clock.

TENNESSEE BONDS.—Our State bonds are rising in the New York market, on Saturday last, the sales were 3,000 at 88, 2,000 at 88½, 10,000 at 88½, and 19,000 at 89. At NICOLAY'S auction, Memphis city sixes brought 71½.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had fourteen cases before him yesterday; among them was a charge against the proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, for creating a nuisance in the alley in the rear of the house. The charge was dismissed, there being no proof to sustain the allegation.

WHERE DOES RIP VAN WINKLE SLEEP?—In reference to our remarks upon the tardiness of the issuing of the licenses to the keepers of coffee-houses, the city Recorder assures us that old RIP VAN WINKLE is no sleeping partner of his; he is impatiently awaiting the arrival of the license blanks from the printers, when he will duly fill up and issue them.

☞ The 4th of February, being the anniversary of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, it is proposed to observe it as a day of thanksgiving and religious devotion. In view of this, the Rev. Dr. BEVAN will preach a discourse in this church, on Court street, on that day, setting forth the causes of the existence of that denomination, the doctrines of said church, her present position, her future prospects, &c.

☞ Mr. T. P. HARLOW will be succeeded in his professional duties as principal of the school held in the basement of the First Baptist Church, on Second street, on Monday morning next, February 1st, by WILLIAM CLARK, who professes to teach all the branches required in an English education, including the French language. Terms may be known by application at the school room.

GAIETY THEATRE.—There was a large audience at this place last evening, to see the performance of the Martinetti-Blondin Troupe. Their performance, each evening last week, have embraced quite a number of their most entertaining pieces. On Monday evening will be presented, for the first time, Magic Pills, or The Conjuror's Gift—one of their most entertaining pieces, which has been received with decided approbation in other cities. Magic Pills will insure them a large audience on to-morrow evening.

A SAD CASE.—On Thursday night MATTHEW KEOGH was taken to the calaboose by the police, in a helpless state of drunkenness. On Friday he was fined for the offense, and, having no money, was about being put on the chain gang to work out his sentence, when his wife, who has to maintain him as well as herself by her hard labor, came forward and, against the advice of the Recorder, paid his fine; expressing her confidence that after the scrape liquor had got him into he would be better. The same night he was again taken to jail, insensible with liquor, from a house of ill-fame. Esq. BAIR sentenced the man incorrigible to twenty days in the chain gang.

NOTES FOR THE WEEK.—This is Septuagesima Sunday. The sun rises at 2 minutes past 7 in the morning, and sets at 24 minutes past 5. The day is 10 hours 22 minutes long, 10 minutes longer than on Sunday last. The moon is now past the full, and rises at 12 minutes past 8.

Sunday: The planet Uranus is in the constellation Taurus; Mars is 99 degrees from the moon. Monday: The anniversary of the election of the first President in the United States. Tuesday: The planet Uranus is stationary; the Pleiades set at 10 minutes to 7. Wednesday: Venus reaches her highest point (as the sun does at noon) at 10 minutes past 11 in the morning. Thursday: The anniversary of the burning of the martyr, JOHN ROGERS in 1555. Friday: The moon is in her third quarter; she is in the constellation Libra and the planet Mars is near her. Saturday: Anniversary of the earthquake in New England in 1726.

UNLAWFUL APPROPRIATION.—S. F. WATERMAN was examined before Esq. HORNE, on Friday, on the charge of unlawfully appropriating to his own use the contents of a small package, received by him from ADAMS & Co.'s Express. The evidence showed that some time ago a package reached ADAMS & Co.'s office in this city, directed to L. A. WATERMAN. Knowing no such party, and the package remaining at the office uncalled for, the City Directory was examined; the prisoner's name being found there, the package was sent to him, which he received and receipted for. On Wednesday last another WATERMAN called at the Express office, stating that the above-mentioned parcel was his; that the sender has just advised him that it had been forwarded, and that there were fifty dollars in money and a letter in it. The other WATERMAN was then interrogated. He said he was sorry a mistake had occurred; he had spent the money, but would pay it as soon as he could, and that his wife had burned the enclosed letter. He was held in $500 bail for his appearance for trial at the coming term of the Criminal Court.

WEATHERWISE.—The telegraph has of late stated daily the height of the thermometer at various points, affording data for a comparison between our situation and that of a portion of our co-tenants of this part of the American continent, in a thermal or calorific point of view—or, in plain English, supplying the means of guessing where the most perspiring and where the most shivering is done.

On Monday morning last the thermometer stood as follows: At Memphis, 53 degrees; St. Louis, 52; Cincinnati, 53. Tuesday, Memphis, 49; St. Louis, 44; Cincinnati, 49; New York, 52; Halifax, 32; New Orleans, 67. Wednesday, Memphis, 42; St. Louis, 40; Cincinnati, 40; New York, 52; Natchez, 56; New Orleans, 67; Quebec, 26. Thursday, Memphis, 46; St. Louis, 44; Cincinnati, 38; Montreal, 30. Friday, Memphis, 35; Cincinnati, 36; St. Johns, New Brunswick, 16; Chicago, 32; New Orleans, 56. Saturday, Memphis, at 7 in the morning, 33; at 2 in the afternoon, 57, which may be compared with the telegraphic report in another column this morning.

We are indebted for the Memphis report to the Health officer, Dr. TUCK, who has very accurate instruments, arranged according to the plan adopted by the Smithsonian Institute, and who keeps the register in the same manner as is done by the surgeons in the United States army. Memphis, in the above statement, appears relatively colder than she ought to do, for the reason that the figures placed against her above, represent the height of the thermometer at 7 o'clock in the morning, whereas the other temperatures are for 9 o'clock, two hours later. We have observed that while the temperatures of Nashville, Natchez, New Orleans and Vicksburg are often given in distant papers, that of Memphis is omitted. In RIP VAN WINKLE snoozing in our telegraph office? Wake up, you folks of wire and lightning!

River Matters.

The river continues to fall; but few boats were lying at the landing last evening, and but little business was proceeding, except the loading of the Ben Franklin.

Since our last report the following boats have arrived: From New Orleans, for Cincinnati, the Defender; for Memphis, the Ben Franklin; for Louisville, the Fairchild. From Louisville, for New Orleans, the Antelope. From Cincinnati, for Ft. Smith, the Little Rock.

The Ben Franklin leaves for New Orleans on Monday night. She seems likely to have a fine trip, as she had loaded 1,300 bales of cotton last evening.

St. Louis—From the Democrat, January 28: The river was falling rapidly on Tuesday night and yesterday. We have no news from any river or any point, except the Missouri, which the telegraph reports rising at Boonville. Since our last only two boats arrived. Business was very brisk at the New Orleans landing. Nothing doing by Ohio river boats; there have been none here for several days. Capt. Nelson started for Cairo last evening, to take charge of the new submarine No. 10. He will take her in the week of the Belle Golding, which was sunk two or three years ago, at Devil's Island. She was loaded with iron, much of which, it is believed, can now be recovered. The No. 7, the largest, we believe, of all the submarines, is on her way to this port, from the Lower Mississippi, having just completed operations upon the North Star, and the Julia, another sunken steamer, together, we believe, with a lot of damaged freight from the former.

The famous little steamer Ocean Spray sped into port a little after midnight of Monday, and only a little over six days out from New Orleans. She brings us papers of the 19th, for which, and a manifest, we are indebted to friend Salisbury. The Spray never fails to sustain the reputation she gained at the start, as one of the fleetest boats ever constructed on the Ohio. She beat on the trip, the Uncle Sam at least 12 hours to Cairo, the latter boat having the mail on board, and let the Ocean Spray had no mail with her. She did not want a mail, we presume; but what we have stated, shows the fact, that Uncle Sam's services are not always so well attended to as they might be. The mail boat beaten 12 hours in high water, by no mail boat! pshaw! The Ocean Spray leaves again for New Orleans at 10 A. M. to-morrow. Be on hand.

THE LEGISLATURE.

In Senate, Tuesday, Jan 26, a large number of House bills were passed on the first and second reading.

Mr. Walker introduced a bill to provide an annual sum for the support of the Memphis Hospital; also, a bill declaring it a felony to carry concealed about the person false or skeleton keys; Mr. Goff, a bill to consolidate the Nashville and Northwestern, the Memphis, Clarksville, and Louisville, and the Mississippi and Tennessee Central Railroad Companies.

The Senate asked that a committee of conference be raised on the bank bill, and the Speaker appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Whitthorne, Goff, and Morgan.

In the House, R. B. Cheatham, of Davidson county, was chosen to serve as Assistant Clerk for the remainder of the session.

Mr. Carter of Hardin's bill to repeal the special tax on Jacks and Stallions, substituted by Mr. Thompson's bill, was rejected—yeas 26, nays 39.

Mr. Chesshubro's bill to amend and construe the redemption laws, so as to preclude sale under mortgage, &c., where the right is waived, taking effect six months after passage, was passed the third reading—yeas 41, nays 23.

Mr. Newman has a claim added to the Speaker Henry Bill, authorizing the jailor to tax his expenses incurred in the removal of a prisoner in the Circuit Court of the county where he is last lodged in jail, which passed the third reading unanimously.

The Ninth Part of the Code was passed the third reading—yeas 38, nays 6. The Bell House objections from the Senate, were made the special order for Monday night.

The Senate's ample and liberal modification of the exemption bill were concurred in—yeas 53, nays 12.

A conference committee was ordered to consider of the disagreeing votes between the two Houses, as to the amendments to the bank bill.

☞ I believe it saved my life. Jacob Wooslry, of Bath Circle, New Brunswick township, writes:

"For two years I suffered the Vertigo, Nausea and Headache, attending Dyspepsia, sometimes so severely as to incapacitate me for any effort—at others, to confine me to my bed. My bowels were often so constipated as to oblige me to use the most powerful purgatives to relieve myself. Indeed, I at last found it necessary to use something of the kind constantly. Last fall I commenced using Brandreth's Pills. I have not taken them, and find it just what my case required. I cannot recommend it too highly, for I believe it saved my life."

THE Co-Partnership heretofore existing under the firm of Peter Rott & Co., is dissolved. All persons indebted to said firm for meat must make payment to the undersigned only. PETER ROTT.
