Who, in taking passage in a great trans-Atlantic steamer does not feel a thrill of exultation over her magnificent power. Against her the Storm King may hurl his elemental forces, no pieres her armor, nor stop her onward

But let me describe a scene when, one morning in mid-ocean, there came an alara from the pilot house followed by a cry: 'The ship's rudder is lost!' From the confident expression, consternation came to every face. The wheelman being helpless to direct her course, the vessel was at the mercy of wind and wave.

The captain had been negligent - the hangings of the rudder were allowed to wear weak, and suddenly it had dropped deep into the sea!

Strong in intellect, in physical vigor, in energy and in ambition, man confronts, undaunted, gigantic tasks and commands applause for his magnificent achievements. but, all unexpected y, an alarm comes -the rudder of his constitution is gone. He has been careless of its preservation; mental strain, nervous excitement, irregular habits, over work, have destroyed the action of his kidneys and liver. This would not occur were Warner's safe cure used to maintain vigor. And even now it marestore vitality to those organs and give back to the man that which will lead him to the haven of his amtition.

Drinking salt water will cure lundey, according to a theory elaborated by the secretary of the London swimming school.

FOR DISEASES of horses and carrie, nothing compares with Veterinary Carbonasive. It is the only preparation that leaves no sear and invar-ably grows the half in its original color, old by drug glist at 10 cents and st.00.

For its expression, ixpussession, depression of spirand general debility, in their various forms: also a revenitive against fever and ague and other intalitiest forces, the "Ferro-Phosphossied Ellipi Alisaya" made by Caswell Hazard & Co. New Yound sold by all Druggists, is the best fonic; and satisfies recovering from fover or other stekness

Sore Throat, Swellings, Sprains, Bruise Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, AND ALL OTHER HODILY FAISS AND ACHES, Said by Drugists and Dabers overprisers. Fully Contra Local

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indignation, Weakness, impure Blood, Mainrin, Chilis and Fevers, and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Ridneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Hearthourn and Belehing, and strengtheuse the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.

42. The genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other.

Made only by MPOWN CHEMICAL CO., MALTIMORE, MO

If you wish a certain cure for all Blood diseases. Nothing was ever invented that will cleanse the Blood and purify the System equal to Hops and MALT Bitters. It tones up the System, puts new Blood in your veins, restores your lost appetite and sleep, and brings you perfect health. It never fails to give relief in all cases of Kidney or Liver Troubles, Billousness, Indigestion, Constipation, Sick Headaches, Dyspepsia, Nervous disorders, and all Fermaic Complaints; when properly taken it is a sure cure. Thousands have been bonefited by it in this and other Western States. It is the best Combination of Vegetable remedies any et discovered for the restoration to health of the Weak and Debilitated. Do not get kilops and MALT Bitters confounded with inferior preparations of similar name. I prescribe Hops & Mait Bitters regularly in my practice. Robert Turner, M. D., Flat Rock, Mich. For sale by all druggists.

HOPS & MALT BITTERS CO., DETROIT, MICH. T.H. HINGHMAN & SONS. Detroit, Mich. | Whole | said | JAMES E. DAVIS & CO Detroit, Mich. | Agents

HAY FEVER I have been a Hay-Fever sufferer three CATARRH vears; I have often heard Ely's Cream Balm s; o's en of in the higgest terms, did not tak smuch terms, fild not take medi-stock in it because of the many quack medi-cines. A friend per unit-ed me to try the Balm, and with wonder in success,—T. S. GEER, Syracuse, N. Y.

Cream Balm

Price 20c. by mail or at druggists. Send for circular, ELY BROTHERS, Proggists, Owego, N. Y.

HAGAN'S Magnolia Balm

is a secret aid to beauty. Many a lady owes her freshness to it, who would rather not tell, and you can't tell.

In to the feld of life we pass
At early morn. The jeweled grass
With sunbeams kissed spreads at our feets
With sunbeams kissed spreads at our feets
And youth, like morn, all pure and sweet
And bright is filled with rosy dreams;
While in the purple heavens gleams
The star of fortune and of fame,
And in its light we read a name—
O dram, mest sweet, it is our own:
More glottons still, it shines alone!

The sun speeds on; the star no more Is seen. Him we dreams are o'er. Fortune and fame so coy and fleet But mock our weary, was worn foot Ambition's fairest price has flown; A name appears, but not our own.

What have we then for all our pains? For all our prayers? Are there no grains
Of good to show? Has all been lost
In that our cherished plans are crossed,
And dissipated each fond dream
As snow finkes melt within the stream?

Ah, no! See how our souls are filled With wealt of harvests we have tilled; With meckness, patence, low and truth; Blest sprigs of everlasting youth; Bright jewers of the crown within; R pe fruit of life's sharp dis ipline; Of which there dawns the twilight gray of day that dies not with the day.

—George W. Crofts, in The Current.

THE YOUNG TEACHER.

It was the evening of the commencement exercises at Mrs. Weston's large boarding school.

All was noise and excitement. The pupils were flying about in a flutter of anxiety, and in various stages of incompleted toilette.

"What have you done with my flowers, Nell? There, how provoking! You have tipped over my powder. Your elbows are always in the quoth Miss Lydia Holeamp, one of the older girls, her temper get ting the better of her. 'Dear me! There, I'm ready at last. I wonder where that Miss Barker is. I want her to give me another orilling in that recitation. I dressed early on pur-pose, and now I suppose she will be way prinking her dollyfied self!"

"Dear me. Lydia, you have had more instructions on your recitation than any of the rest have had on theirs. I should think it would better to study by yourself, and let Miss Barker have a little rest. The poor thing is overworked."

"Oh, pshaw." exclaimed Miss Hol-camp with a sneer; "she likes to show off, that is all. If she didn't like it she wouldn't be a teacher of elocution.

Thus speaking, Lydia Holcamp de-parted to seek her instructress in elocution-an art upon which the younglady prided herself. Lydia was especially anxious to distinguish herself to-night, for the reason that among those present she ex-pected there would be a certain Mr. Quintard, a member of a wealthy family whom she had visited during her vacation.

Her own father was a rich man, and the families had always been on terms of friendship. Harry and his sister she knew would come, and failure was not to be thought of. But Miss Barker's services were not to be secured; she was engaged with some of the younger pupils. "You can not see Miss Barker."

marked the preceptress. "You will have no difficulty with your piece, Miss Holcamp, unless you fail to remember certain passages. If I recol-lect correctly Miss Barker advised you to make sure of those points. Have you done so?"

"Oh! I remember it perfectly!" answered Miss Holcamp with confidence. But I wished Miss Barker to show me how to fall into that dramatic attitude which I like so much."

"Think of what you are saying Miss Holeamp, and that will aid you to the expression. Miss Barker can not give all her time to one.' Lydia went pouting away.

assurance, and she went fearlessly on untill suddenly her memory failed her. It was what the teachers had fear-

Miss Holcamp had some ability, they said, but no application. She was no student. She glanced helplessld toward Miss Barker, who pro upter her. Again she went on. Again she stopped for want of words. At last, after several promptings, she came to the end of her selection. Miss Barker had retreated behind the draperies, sore and disappointed that one of her most promising pupils had thus failed.

"It was all your fault," burst forth Lydia, "you hatefu", disagreeable thing! I believe you were jealous, and meant I should fail, when you went and hid yourself away with those children to-night. You knew I needed another lesson. The fair little teacher turned pale and trembled. She was not accus-tomed to such language. Most of her pupils were kind and obedient. She was slim, and young, and pretty, this teacher and a great student and worker. All the teachers respected and liked her.

"You have made me fail, and I hope

I may never see your face again!" concluded Lydia as she flounced

Just ontside of the draperies stood a handsome young man. He heard the abuse lavished upon the young teacher, and his lip curled.

"Who is the tall fair girl in grey!" he had inquired during the evening. "Miss Barker the teacher of elocution," had been the reply. He started. "Is it possible?" said he. "She appears as young as the pupils." Not one word came from Miss Baker's lips now, but he heard teachers and scholors exclaiming that it was a shame after the attention she had lavished upon Miss Holeamp during the past term. Mr. Harry Quintard (for he it was who had overheard Miss Holeamp) made his way to the preceptiess when the exercises were over, and asked her for an introduction to Miss Barker.

for an introduction to Miss Barker.

"Ah, you mustn't be making love to my pet teacher, Mr. Quintard, "said the lady, with an arch glance and an admonitory tap of her fan.

Nevertheless, Mr. Harry Quintard was presently seated by the side of "pretty Miss Barker," as nearly all called her in the school.

The teached little valenced wearied

She looked a little pale and wearied, and Harry noticed that her hands

"No wonder," he thought.
"It must be very exhausting work, teaching all those great girls," he said. "I should dearly like to hear you recite something yourself."

The eyes which looked into "pretty M as Barker's," were frank and admiring.

miring.

At this moment, his sister came up to them. She looked cold, and drew her brother aside. She had left Lydia, who had recently joined her, and wanted her brother to come to them.

"Lyd," said she, "is only a teacher in the school, Hal. Come with us."

"You will have to excuse me for the present," said Hal, who saw that others were making their way to Miss Barker's seat, "unless you and Lydia will join us. for I like Miss Barker very much. She is a perfect lady."

And Hal kept his word. He kept by the little teacher's side for the rest of the evening, much to Lydia's cha-

"Tell me, where will you spend your vacation?" he asked at parting.

She colored as she replied: "I'm going to a very lonely place in the country, and shall spend the time in working very hard." But why not rest?" he added; "you need rest, surely. "Tell me then, he added, "where you will go, that I may hope to see you again?"

She shook her head.
"It is best not," she said.
"What!" he exclaimed; "have I then treated you so badly that you will never see me again." Miss Barker's eyes fell, and again the warm color came over cheek and "There is a lady who was once very kind to me," she said, who lives very humbly among the mountains of Cumberland, and I am going to spend my summer with her. In the autumn I hope to begin a new phase of my art. You see I am poor, Mr. Quintard, and depend upon my exertions for a livdepend upon my exertions for a liv-

She looked straight into her panion's eyes as she spoke, and Harry Quintard read there both determination and pride. The expression in-cluded something else, too. It said, "You know now my circumstance, and also that I wish you to know Harry's eyes, however, never faltered beneath hers. They grew earnest and ardent.

"Will you give me the name of the place?" he asked gravely, and yet in pleading voice. She wrote the address upon a small card and gave it to him.

It was a month later that Harry Quintard entered the parlor of one of the most fashionable hotels in Kes-

It was a popular resort among the lake tourists, and to-night there was a grand reception going on. Music and recitations were to be followed by dancing in the ballroom. Someone was singing as he went and presently a murmur ran through the throng as a lady, young, fair as morn and graceful as a willow, was led forward and received with a greeting of warm applause.

What was there about this charming vision that sent Harry's blood tingling through his veins with a wild pleasure able thrill?

Sleeping or waking he had scarcely once lost his fair face from his mental sight since last they had met.

Yet-what could this mean? This brilliant entree among people of wealth and position? He had thought again and again of their meeting. He had fancied all kinds of rural scenesplaces isolated and beautiful, yet wild withal, with none but himself to admire the charming face and form that had so bewitched him; but to meet her thus, surrounded by an eulogic crowd -this indeed he had never thought of. Later he made his way to her side. She had not forgotten him, that was surprise was also a pleasure. The resebud face with its spirituelle light, was lifted to his, above her raiment of pale blue, and Harry knew that the excitement of her success made her radiant, yet under all that the young man felt there lurked a deeper pleasure at their meeting.

plain. Nay, more, Harry saw that the

'I gave some recitations in the town The evening anyanced, the guests assembled, and at last Lydia's turn to recite arrived.

She was a girl of most remarkable give me the church." The form of the young artist grew dignified and grave us she thus recorded her business proceedings. "The people who heard me were so kind as to invite me to recite for the e, and so it happens I am here. I shall be kept very busy, I trust, this summer."

Mr. Quintard looked down in open admiration of this darling young girl with her baby face.

"Then I am to be cheated out of those coveted woodland rambles. I have been counting upon them ever since we parted.

Linda smiled. "If you knew my history, Mr. Quintard, you would say that I was not, indeed, born for my present surroundings. They become you so well that I could never think that," he re-

They were now away from the crowd. "Linda," he said, "before I leave you to-night I want you to promise me something. I want you to promise you will marry me in the au-tumn." But how could that be, Mr. Quintard? Even were you not the affi-anced of another, your family would never regard me as a suitable mate

"Affianced to another!" Harry was so bewildered that he could only repeat her words. "What do you Before she could repty a voice sounded at their side. They had thought themselves alone.

"Yes, Harry Quintard-dare you deny h?" It was Lydia Holcamp who stood there before them and thus accused

Had Harry Quintard not once heard Lydia's abuse of her teacher, he would indeed have been dumb-founded. As it was, he read the game

"Yes, madam, I do deny it," he ejaculated, looking Lydia straight in the tace. He had heard his sister say that Miss Holcamp was sojourning in the moun tains, but he had not troubled himself to enquire where. Lydia, however, was not to be thwarted in her purpose.

"Do you deny this, too?" and she coolly read a portion of a letter containing vows of affection, and having for a signature his own name. "It is a base forgery, and you know it, woman!" cried Harry, al-most beside himself with her persistency And let me tell you at once, before you go any further, that I can very easily prove it to Miss Barker, if in no other way, through my own writing."

He had taken the letter from her

"There is a very palpable difference between this writing and my own-He showed Linds one that he took from his pocket as he spoke.

Linds turned toward him a pale but to cover a murderer with roses. This is sure-ty a strange freak, an imaccountable action trusting face.

He was trembling from head to feet with indignation. She laid her hand on his arm and whispered:

"Come, I believe you," and the girl's mocking laugh followed them they left the room.

Once away from her, Harry clasped Linda to his breast.
"Tell me," he cried, "do you really trust me? Do you know that girl fabricated that story because she hates vou? "And loves you." murmured Linds. with downcast lids. "And in your eyes does that excuse her? Tell me, do you love me, Linda

-darling, answer me?" "I can not answer you until you hear my story," faltered Linda, draw-ing away from him and sinking into a

She had grown pale, and her eyes were suffused with tears.

"Hear the blunt truth. I am the daughter of a coal miner. Harry heard with profound aston-ishment, it is true, but he did not start from her—a smile, indeed, dawned upon his face.

"You remind me of something which perhaps I enght to have told you," he said. "My grandfather was a poor carpenter, my father began his career in my grandfather's From that he became a builder, and is now to be sure a rich contractor. So you see I am not much in advance of ou in that respect."

Both laughed, but Linda said: "Ab, but with you all has been different. You have been well educated, and your wealth would enable you make a rich match. I have had to earn money while striving to educate myself. I worked in a factory for two years, when father died. He was killed in a mine, and as my mother was also dead, I was left alone. I had attended the common school, and was there encouraged to recite. I saved money and went to Manchester, and worked for one year in a factory there. While in that city I attended every free entertainment, and studied much at night. At last I applied for a position to teach, and secured it.

"My noble girl," eried Harry, "I would rather have you tor my wife to-day than any petted idle darling of luxury that I ever heard of."

Harry Quintard meant what he said, and Linda Barker knew it. He stooped his face till his lips met hers in a long kiss. Thus the daughter of a miner and the grandson of a carpenter betrothed themselves in true modern fashion. And among the circles of fashion and art to-day there walks no more perfect lady than Mrs. Harry Quintard. -Alfred Crayon.

Of all the good old games of child-hood give me "Hide and Seek" in grandpa's old barn, with the rain pattering down outside and all nice and dry inside. In dry weather we boys and girls used to play it around the house and sheds. Some one would begin to count, "Monkey, monkey, nottle of beer. How many monkeys are there here? One, two, three! Out goes he" untill all but one were counted out. The one left would shut his eyes, lean up against a shed or post and begin to count one hundred. The whole crowd would then scatter like scared sheep and hide. After counting one hundred the seeker would remark-"A bushel of wheat, A bushel of rve-All who ain't ready holler I." And then he would poke around as near the goal as possible, and look in rat holes, behind sheds, fences and bushes, and walk on his toes and twist his month every time he gave a squint.

One day we boys and girls were playing, and I was looking for a new playing, and I was looking for a new playing, and I was looking for a new with poor app tite, and perhaps slight cough a the morning, or on first lying down at night, should be looked to in time. Persons afflicted should be looked to in time. old and with an odor about ten pounds to the square inch, stood at the corner of the house. A bright idea struck me and in half a minute I had all my clothes off and was standing up to my chin in rain water and wigglers.
After dropping my pants, hat and waist outside, I carefully pulled the cover over my head. The water began to smell out loud and the wigglers waked up. I wanted fresh air, but the girl was now wandering around near me, seeking whom she might spy. After awhile all the others were caught. Then they all looked for me a few moments, but gave me up and yelled "Come in free." I didn't come. Then they yelled—"Oh, ye needn't be afraid! We'll let ye in free!" I politely, but silently, declined the in-vitation because all were standing rithin ten feet of my lair. I wasn' dressed for a party anyway-wigglers and rain water didn't suit me and the barrel didn't fit. It was too big. Then all began to look for me again. In a few moments one boy came back and got up on the barret and sat down to rest. I took a mouthful of wigglers as I dodged. Then he noticed my clothes behind the barrel, jumped down, picked them up, carried them to the goal, then hung them on a peg and said "One, two, three for Harry!" Then he sat down and laughed as if his heart would break. I didn't smile -didn't see anything funny. Then he came back and sat on me again and said, "Keep dark, I won't tell on

"Well, why don't ye come out then?" "Please get my pants for me. Say, get off the barrel, it smells bad in here!"

"Get yer pants yerself. Smells bad, does it? He, he! Kinder wet in there, ain't it? What kind of dress have yer got on, S'mother Hubbard, ain't it?"
Then I was mad and pushed up the lid with all my might, upset my tormentor and climbed out, just as the boys and girls came around the house. My dander was up and I was mad as a hornet. I spit out cuss words and wigglers. The girls yelled and exeunted. I stood my ground, shook off rain water, bad smell and wigglers and wanted to tight the whole crowd, and wanted to light the whole crowd, The boys yelled and laughed and told me to wipe off my chin and pull down my yest. [This last remark was cermy vest. [This last remark was cer-tainly a slur!] I went and took down my clothes, got inside and then said, "One, two, three for me!"

During the next two weeks I had to lick five boys for calling me "Wig-glers" and "Old Rain Water," and the girls would smile and look innocent when I came around. The next time I hide in a barrel of ancient rain water, I will first spill it, and then hide in a box.—H. Hamill, in Peck's Sun.

A. Oak was married to Miss Nettle Brownell at Wankau, this state, recently. He is said to be a fine man—a white Oak, as it were, and the A. probably stands for Acorn.—Peck's Precise young faty to her little brother "Wille, don't do that way. Don't kick the ankle of the table, you disturb me,"

The wine product for 1885 is estimated at 15,000,000 gallons. New York state has 3,500 railroad bridges

It is two years since the White House had a resh cont of paint. Millais is the first English painter who has been made a baron. Florida gooseberry "bushes" are really trees often 10 feet high.

In London there are 60,000 families occupying only one room each. Water sold for S cents per gallon last week at and near Achland, Pa. Figland has 187 regged schools, for the edu-cation of 50,000 poor children.

You can get a good dinner in a first-class hotel in Norway for 10 or 12 cents. The dudes of Lima, Peru, wear petrified hu nan eye balls for watch charms.

Fully 10,000,000 dozen of birch and boxwood poons are made in Russia every year. It is claimed that Grant voted for James Buchanan at the presidential election of 1856 The culture of flowers is one of the most ex-tensive and profitable industries of the Scilly islands.

Positifical high mass was celebrated, for the he first time since the reformation, recently at Men 'n Japan never, or hardly ever, swear. The vilest epithet one is likely to hear there is

The oldest living graduate of West Point is J. H. Hewitt of Baltimore, a member of the

A Canadian dictor argues that 50 per cent of ill diseases must be ascribed to the use of Bismurck having "sworn off" smoking, de-dere that he regards eiga-cites as both noxi-a and rediculous.

The pion for a 75 acre botanical garden in Mount Royal park at Montreal is being pushed forward to be ligation.

About 355 years ago potatoes were first eaten in England as sweetmeats, being stewed in sack wine and sugar. A national convention of string bands is to meet at Plitsburg in September. The cats of the city should get up an indignation meeting. Sendwich is and doctors want to stay the spread of leprosy by vaccinating the people with leprosy microbes; but they can't find any

A governor of Kansas once "cooked h's political goose" by declaring that "the average Kansas town will vote bonds to buy a can to tie to a dog's tail."

A society of child killers who, pretending to be nurses, poison babies "in order to save them from the vexatsons of life." have their head-quarters at Bostov, Russia.

A resurvey of the lands of France has just be a completed, to repair the leas caused by the turning of the official land registry booking the days of the commune in 1871.

Healthful Vigor for the Girls.

Mrs. Livermore says, in one of her ectures on G'r's, "I would give to girls equal intellectual and industrial t aining with boys. Yes, and give them equal v good health, too." When your equal y good health, too." girls are suffering from paleness and deb lity, it is a sign that their blood is poor and thin, and that they need Brown's Iron Bitters. The only preparation of iron that can be taken safely. Mi s Barton Ches nut st., Louisville

Mr. Bessemer's steel process patents have yielded him a600,000 a year for twenty one

How to Save Money, and we might also say—time—and pain as well'
in our advice to good—housekeepers and laddes generally. The great necessity existing always to have a perfectly—safe remedy convenient for the relief and prompt—cure of the ailments peru lar to—wo man—functional irreguarity, conseans pains, and all the symptons attendant upon uterine—disorders—induces us to recommend strongly—and—unqualifiedly Dr.
Pierce's—Favorite—Pres viotion'—womans best friend.—It will save money.

Horned toads are light feeders. Two hour flies will keep one in good order for s should be boked to in time. Persons afflicted with consumption are proverbially unconscious of their real state. Most cases commence with disordered liver, leading to had digestion and imperfee assimilation of food—hence the emaciation, or wasting of the flesh. It is a form of scrotu'ous disease, and is curable by the use of that greatest of all blood-cleansing, anti-billous and invigorating compounds, kn.wn as Dr. Pierce's "Gold in Medical Discovers."

The government pays a man $00 a month to wind the clocks in the Interior department building.

Many imitators, but no equal, has Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

A Philadelphia chemist says that the American style of kissing is what plays hob with the teeth The coral trade at Naples is at the lowest point it ever reached, owing to the disuse of the article as a fashionable adornment. The mortality from swine fever in England has reached a point when about 200 animals perish every week, or 100,000 per year out of 2,000,000 swine.

Albert Wolff, the famous Figaro critic, says that French art has latterly undergone a sertous decline, though still ahead of that of all other nations.

The majority of literary people now spell the name of the great dramatist, Shakespeare, and the minority are divided up on several differ-ent spellings of it.

ent spellings of it.

Richard Wagner's representatives, says the London Truth, have positively refused to allow 'Parsifal' to be performed in America on any terms whatever except as an oratorio, as it was given in London last winter.

The area of New Mexico is estimated at 78,000,000 acres; that 70,000,000 acres are fit only for pasturage, and 20,000,000 of this, by destitution of water, is available only for sheep.
This leaves 50,000,000 acres for cattle, but the availability of this is greatly diminished by the anis leaves 50,000,000 acres for cattle, but the availability of this is greatly diminished by the scarceness of springs and streams.

The Eric in Oregon.

Mark A. Miller, traveling agent for the Eric Railroad write from Portland, Oregon, that an attack of p'euro-pneumonia left behind it a severe and painful cough. After trying several remedes without su cess, he began using Red Star Cough Cure, and upon taking one bottle found himself on the road to rapid recovery. A Sample Box of Writing Pens Free. For 5 two-cent stamps to pay postage, etc., you can get a fine metallic box of best assorted steel pens, one set elegant gold and silver picture cards and copy of the Cultivator and Housekeeper; also it valuable receipts showing how to make best black writing ink for 10s a gallon, rood and cheap artificial honey and 12 other formulas worth $5.00 to any one. This offer is made to introduce the pens and the Cultivator. Address the Cultivator, Omaha, Neb.

What Everybody Says

Must be true. And the unanimous praise which people who have used it give Hossi's Sarsaparilla, should convince those who have never tried this medicine of its great curative powers. If you suffer from impure blood, that tired feeling, depressed spirits, dys. pepela, or kidney and liver complaints, give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial and you will be greatly bene-

"My wife has had very poor health for a long time, suffering from indigestion, poor appetite, and constant headache. She found no redief till she tried Hood-c-Sarsaparilla. She is now taking the third hottle, and never foll better in her life, We feel it a duty fo recommend it to every one we know." G. SOMERVILLE, Mooreland, Cook Co., III.

100 Doses One Doller.

"I had catarrh nine years, and anfered terribly with it. Soon after I began to take Hood's Sarsa, parilla the extarrh troubled me bees, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured." Jane Hiner, Lumberton, Clinton County, Quio. Hood's Sarsaparille gold by all drugglets. Il; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. BEST VARIETIES, SEND FOR CIRCULAR Address, T. I. SUTTON, Sutton P. O.

IT WILL PAY YOU DETROIT AND HAVE YOUR

EXAMINED AND FITTED WITH SPECTACLES OR EYE GLASSES

ROEHM & WRIGHT'S,
IMPORTERS, JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS, 140 WOODWARD AVE,
THEY MAKE NO CHARGE FOR TESTING EYES, AND SELDOM FAIL TO GIVE RELIEF.

In round numbers, 60,000 separate books and pamphlets have been published by the order of congress since this government

Every woman who suffers from Sick Headache, and who dislikes to take bitter doses, should try Carter's Little Liver Pills. They are the easlest of all med cines to take. A positive cure for the allove distressing complaints; gives prom t relief in Dyspersia and indigestion, prevent and cure Constipation and Piles. As easy to take as sugar. Only one pill a dose, 40 in a vial Price 25 cents. If you try them you will not do without them.

VERY IMPORTANT.

A cold in the Head causes much discomfort and annoyance and if of frequent recurrence of the produce serious results. The membrane of the masal passage becomes infamed and stopped up, an aerid and poisonous virus is formed ores for in the head, deafness, headache and roaring in the case case and the sufferer final, yet covers that he has the Catarrh, This loathsome disease is by us, ny considered incurable but a yet falls to yield to the power of Ely's Crean Baim. This is an article of undoubted merit, not a liquid nor a snuff, but a pleasant, cleant, and efficac our remedy which a child can use. It is a spilled into the nostrils where it is a sorbed, it opens the passages, allays infau mation, heals, all sores, cleanses and scothes the membranal linings and restores the senses of taste and smell. It gives instant relief; and a thorough treatment will certa niveure. Price 50s, at druggists or by mail. Ely Bros., Druggists Owego, N. Y. VERY IMPORTANT.

"ROUGH ON CATARRH."

Correct offensive odors at once. Complete ourse worst cases, also unequaled as gargie for Diphtheria ore Throat, Foul Breath. Sec.

There are no white servants at the White THE HOPE OF THE NATION

CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.
Stinging, Fritation, inflammation, all Kidney and Urinary Complaints, cured by "Buchu-Paiba." $1.

lidren, slow in development, puny, rate, use "Well's Health Renewer."

Colored gems and precious stones are having a great run in the east.

s one that yields its owner a good profit through the whole season. But he must supply the cows with what they need in order for them to be able to keep up their product. When their butter gets light is for he must make it "gilt edged" by using Wells, Richardson & Co's., Improved Butter Color. It give the golden color of June, and adds five cents pe pound to the value of the butter. PATENTS obtained by Louis Bagger & Co., At orneys, Washington, D.C. Est'd 1864. Advice free

DR. JOHN BULL'S Smith's Tonic Syrup FOR THE CURE OF

FEVER and AGUE

Or CHILLS and FEVER,

AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES. The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, wheth-er of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Westorn and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, requires cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

DR. JOHN BULL'S SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP,

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA, BULL'S WORM DESTROYER, The Popular Remedles of the Day. Principal Office, 831 Main St., LOUISVILLE, MY.

The BUYERS' GUIDE is issued Sept. and March, each year. $3° 256 pages, $3'4x113' inches, with over 3,500 illustrations — a whole Picture Gallery. GIVES Wholesale Prices direct to consumers on all goods for personal or family use. Tells how to order, and gives exact cost of everything you use, eat, drink, wear, or have fun with. These INVALUABLE BOOKS contain information gleaned from the markets of the world. We will mail a copy FREE to any address upon receipt of 10 cts. to defray expense of mailing. Let us hear from you. Respectfully,

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO.

TREATED FREE. DR. H. H. GREEN

Mas treated Drupsy and its complications with the most wonderful success; uses vegetable remedies, entirely harmless. Removes all symptoms of dropsy in sight to twenty days. Cures patients pronounced hopeless by the best of Divisions at least pronounce appears of the physicians.

From the first dose the symptoms rapidly disappear, and in ten days at least two-thirds of all arms toma are removed.

Some may cry humbug without knowing anything about it. Remember, it does not cost you abything to realize the merits of my treatment for yourself. I am constantly curing cases of long standing, cases that have been tapped a number of times, and the patient declared unable to live a week. Give full instory of case. Name sex, how long afficted, how badly swollen and where, is bowels coultve, have legs bursted and dripped water. Send for free pamphies, containing testimonials, questions, etc.

WEED WHEAT

COUNTERFEITERS BEWARE

A Michigan Concern Enjoined. [From the Rochester Morning Herald.]

The following injunction has been obtained by the Hop Bitters Company, of Ro hester, N. Y., against Collations D. Warner, of Reading. Michigan, prohibiting him from manufactus ng or selling "German Hop Bitters." The President of the United States of America to Collatinus D. Warner, of Ecoding Mich., his servants, norkmen, salesmes and agents and each and every of them:

Whereas, it has been represented unto the Justices of our Circuit Court, the Hon. Stanley Matthews, and the Hon Henry B. Provn, at Detroit, within and for said district, setting as a court of Chancers, that you. Collections D. Warcer, are manufacturing and selling a medicine named German Hop Bitters, in frand dent instation of the Hop It there made and sold by complaint; your said medicine being derivat, calculated and intented to mislead the public into purchas ag such consterfett goods as the manufacture of the complainant.

We therefore, in consideration of the We therefore, in consideration of the premises, do strictly enjoh, you the said Collatinus D. Warner and all and every the persons before named, from what is not ourse. Hop Bitters'on any suids contained in bottles so as to induce the belief that such fluits are made by compla man; and further, from manufacturing, selling or offerings for sale, any bitters or other fluids in the bottles and with the labels, and in the general farm in whice you were manufacturing and sching the bitters called by you German Hop! In s. on the fluid to be sufficient or induce the belief that a ters or fluids sold by you are the gasts of he complainant, until the nurther order of the court.

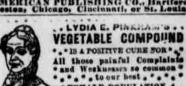

Witness.
THE HONORAGLE MORRISON R. WAITE.
Chief Justice of the United States.
At Detroit, this fifteenth day of July, A. D. [1., 8.]

Walter S. Harsha, Cork. Prosecute the Swindlers!!!

If when you call for Hop Bitters the draugist hands out anything but "Hop Bitters" will a green cluster of Jops on white their their street of the street draugist as you would a viper, and if he has taken yourmoney for a begins suff indict him for the fraud and sic fifm for damages for the swindle and we will swearly you liber just the swindle and we will swearly you liber just the swindle and we will be U.S. Court, injunction against the D. Warner, Reading, Mich. and all his raissmen, opens, drug-gists, and other industors.

. . PENALE POPULATION. . . consequent Spinal Weakness, and is particularly adapted to the change of life.

It removes frainness, Platulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and rabbers. Waterness of the Blomeck It cures Bloating, Readaches, Nerrous Frostenitos, Beneral Debility, Sleeplesamess, Depression and Indication. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, the backness, is always permanently cured by its use. Sond stamp to Lynn, Mass., for panielless, Letters of JOYOUS. HAPPY CHILDREN are indeed the greatest boon of markind. The indispensible qualification for this is health; and it is the FAY'S MAN LLA ROOFING! Resembles fine leather; for ROOFS, OUTSIDE WALLS, and INSIDE in place of Plaster, Versirong and durable. CARIPETS and RUGS or same materal. Catalogue with restinionials are samples Free. W. H. FAY & CO., Camden, S. J.

JOSEPH CILLOTTS STEEL PENS SOLD BY ALL DEALERS TIPPOUREUT THE WORLD SOLD MEDAL PARIS EXPOSITION-1878.

R. U. AWARE Lorillard's Climax Plug bearing a red the tug; that Lorillard's Rose Leaf fine cut; that Lorillard's Avy Clippings and that Lorillard's Smuth, at least and cheapest, quality const level ? $65 1denty, and poard to LIFE OF GRANT The World's greatest reldier, and the Nation's most honored citizen. Low price. Rapid Sales. P.W. Z.1861 LER & CO. Ill Adams St. Chicago HIGHIAND MILITARY ACADEMY, Worcester, Mass. — goth year begins Sept. 9, 1856. Studies; Most practical English Branches, Physics, Chomistry, Mercantile Studies, Surveying, French, German Classics, etc. C. B. METCALF, A. M. Supprintendent.

DER'S PASTILLES Price Story ASTEMA

W. N. U. D---3---36

Man and Beast

Mustang Liniment is older than most men, and used more and more every year.