DR. R. L. LASKY,
Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher,
Washington Street, between Main and Second,
MEMPHIS, TENN.
Office hours from 7 to 9 o'clock, A. M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

THANKFUL for the kind patronage heretofore extended to me, I take pleasure to inform my customers and the public generally, that I still remain in Memphis, and intend to have this city, as has been reported, and the I am ever ready to attend to all cases of internal and external disease, and that I am prepared to undertake the most difficult operations and accouchin nts, and that I do not on a single of any proportion of memory in disease whatever.

Secret Diseases are cured in my own method, in such a manner as not to injure the constitution of the patient, and that I do not use any mercury in the treatment of the same.

For the following cases: Rheumatism, Gravel, Neuralgia, Nervous Headache, of Tic-du-Doloureux, Paralysis, Dropsy, Torpidity of the Liver, Spinal Curvature and Weakness, Venereal Sores, Blood Taints or Stains, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Debility, Impotency, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Spermatorrhœa, &c., &c., I can confidently assure the sufferer of a speedy and permanent cure, by the use of the Magnetic-Electric Instrument, which is universally known for its practicability.

After a practice of ten years as Chief Physician and Director in Hospitals in Germany, and also of twenty years practice in the United States, my reputation as a Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher is sufficiently established to need no further comment.

Omnibuses will at all times and at all hours, both day and night be ready to convey passengers and parcels to and from the river and Railroad Depots. The Railroad Ticket office, and the Telegraph office are both lodged in the Commercial Hotel. The proprietor being thus surrounded by such able and competent corps of assistants, flatters himself that he can give very general satisfaction. In a word, he will hurry up the cabin, as hand round the table. He will give you the ham and the lamb the jelly and the jam, in the true McMaster style, all the best in the world. He solicits a liberal share of public patronage.

Depot Hotel,
Nearly opposite the Depot of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad,
MEMPHIS, TENN.,
R. F. C. BROOKS.....Proprietor.
To persons who contemplate leaving this city on the Charleston road, the proximity of this House to that depot, offers advantages which no other house in this city can possibly command. Those who arrive on the evening train will find it matter worth—their interest to stop at this House, and save—not last themselves by waiting on another ticket. Persons who visit Memphis, and intend leaving on the Charleston road, may save much by passing over from the Union Depot, and taking the cars at this House; saving hack hire, and the difference of rates of fare are much cheaper than any other house or equal accommodations in the city.
N. B.—Omnibuses always ready to convey passengers from this Hotel to any part of the city.
