Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a Deed of Trust, executed on the 14th January, 1856 by William L. Miller to me as trustee, for security to the Bank of the State of Tennessee, on the 22nd day of January, 1856, in Book 72, pages 410 and 411, for the purpose of securing the payment of certain debts therein mentioned, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for Cash, on WEDNESDAY, the 18th day of February next, in front of the office of the Clerk and Master of the Chancery Side of the Common Law and Chancery Court of the city of Memphis, a certain tract or land, situated in the county of Shelby and State of Tennessee, about five miles south of the City of Memphis, bounded as follows, to wit: On the North by several small tracts of land owned by Jackson Miller; on the East by the North line contiguous to the calls of the grants to Saul Carter on the East, it is bounded by a tract of 5000 acres granted to H. McCorkle; on the South by Wolf River, it is bounded by the meanders of the Mississippi river and contains 640 acres more or less, (including a small tract heretofore conveyed to Daniel Sullivan, on which stands a frame house) on which tract stands the dwelling house of the said William L. Miller, and is the same tract of land conveyed to Daniel Sullivan, on which stands the dwelling house of the said William L. Miller, and is the same tract of land conveyed to the said William L. Miller by deed of trust, of record in the Register's office of Shelby county, Tenn., in Book 72, pages 410 and 411, for the purpose of securing the payment of certain debts therein mentioned, which said debts are due and payable, and the same are now due and payable, and the said William L. Miller has failed to pay the said debts, and I will sell the said tract of land at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, on the day and place above mentioned, and will make a good and sufficient title to the purchaser, free from all claim of said William L. Miller, or any other person, and will give possession of said premises, if required, on the day of sale.

The said William L. Miller's equity of redemption in said land is worth the sum of $1000 and upwards, and is subject to a prior mortgage for $1000 and upwards, and is subject to a prior mortgage for $1000 and upwards, and is subject to a prior mortgage for
