Washington Street, between Main and Second,
MEMPHIS, TENN.
Office hours from 7 to 9 o'clock, A. M., and from 2 to 4 o'clock, P. M.

THANKFUL for the kind patronage heretofore extended to him, begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that it is not my intention to leave this city, as has been reported, and that I am ready at all times to attend to all cases of internal and chronic diseases, and that I am prepared to undertake the most difficult operations and accouchements, and that I do not use calomel or any preparation of mercury in disease whatever.

Secret diseases are cured in my own method, in such manner as not to interfere with the business of the patient, and that I do not use any mercury in the treatment of the same.

For the following: Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuralgia, Nervous Headache and Toothache, Paralysis, Dropsyis, Torpidity of the Liver, Spinal Curvature and Weakness, Tumors, Bone Diseases, Hip Joint Affections, Stiffening, Deafness, as well as all diseases of the Eye and Ear, Amaurosis, Cataracts, Sterility, Spermatorrhoea, &c., &c., he does not claim any more regalitude of the field and nervous system. I use the Magnetic-Electric treatment, which is universally known for its practicability.

After a practice of ten years as Staff Physician and Surgeon to one of the medical hospitals in Germany, and eight years practice in the United States, my reputation as a Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher is sufficiently established to give satisfactory connection.

Hotels---Hotels.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL!
THE undersigned has the pleasure to announce to the public that he has this day become the proprietor of the well known house, the COMMERCIAL HOTEL, Memphis, Tenn. The office is under the charge of Mr. M. M. TYLER, late proprietor of the Planters House, Grand Rapids, Mich., one of the most thoroughly and ably conducted houses from the North, assisted by Mr. JOHN C. MCALISTER, formerly of Jackson, Miss., as Book Keeper and Cashier. In that department, Mr. McAlister has no superior. Mr. J. A. BRADLEY, late of Natchez, Miss., is Assistant Clerk and general Collector. The catering department is under the experienced care of Mr. WILLIAM BOGAN, late of Pittsburg, Mess., long and well known as a Connectioner and for several years Proprietor of the Washington Hotel in Vicksburg, before it became what it is, that is the department Mr. Bogan has now charge. Mr. CHARLES FAIRBROTHER, for fifteen years Superintendent of the dining rooms of some of the first class Hotels in the United States, will be his Assistant. The house keeper department is under the charge of Mrs. S. A. TYLER, a lady of great experience and accomplishments. The Commercial Hotel is situated on Jefferson street, and fronting the Great Father of Waters, surrounded by the largest and best business, commission, produce and dry goods houses in the city. Hacks and Omnibuses will at all times and at all hours, both day and night, be ready to convey travelers and sojourners to and from the river and Railroad Depots. The Railroad Tickets and the Telegraph offices are both kept in the Commercial Hotel. The proprietor being thus surrounded by such an able and competent corps of assistants, flatters himself that he can give very general satisfaction. In a word, he will carry up the cakes, as hand round the bells. He will give you the ham and the lamb, the jelly and the jam. In the Market style, all the best in the world. He so kills a very liberal share of public patronage. M. M. MITCHELL,
Proprietor Commercial Hotel, Memphis, Tenn.
