To my Customers at Large,
in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas, my Debtors and Creditors, or to whomever else these Presents shall come—Greeting:
Whereas, private matters of no consequence to any one save myself, caused me suddenly to leave for the North, on the 2d of December, 1857, and return to my post on the 28th of January, 1858 these presents are to make known that I, WILLIAM A. GLIDDON, Gnitts Percha Trusa Manufacturer, am again to be seen at the old stand on Adams street, stout and hearty, and as willing as ever to attend to my own business and discourage that of others—a point which, were it more generally adopted by the masses, would enhance the peace of mind of many.
Furthermore, I have succeeded in constructing a Truss during my absence, whereby any one, white or black, male or female, absent or present, can be fitted without sending me their measure, only stating the size of the Rupture, and whether double or single. These instruments will be covered by Vu canized Gnitts Percha Cloth, a stupendous improvement on what I have hitherto used. The valuable opinion of medical gentlemen, to whom I can refer in this city, is the best criterion in substantiating the fact of my having succeeded in making a Truss that will be the thing for the present and future generations.
Also, I would beg leave to state that, should any one from unfortunate accidents lose a leg, I can supply him with another—not of cloth, but of steel; having been appointed Agent by Mr. Jno F Ord, of Philadelphia, for the sale of his celebrated and safe Metallic Skeleton Leg; Ankle Supporter, and numerous Surgical Machinery for the Treatment of Deformities.
Specimens of Leg can be seen at my office, where pamphlets are distributed gratis.

LaFayette Springs.
THIS Watering Place is one of the most beautiful sites for a Watering Place in the South. The facilities for access to the place, are as good as any it being situated half way between Oxford and Pontotoc, a distance of 16 miles from either place; there being a daily line of Stages from Oxford to Aberdeen. The place having changed hands the Proprietor feels confident that he is able fully to give satisfaction to all who may visit the place, and he flatters us to compart with the hardness of the times. The buildings are large and commodious, suited to the convenience of all who may feel a disposition to give them patronage.
