MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, MONDAY, June 7, 1858.

COTTON.—We have to-day to report our dull story of dull times; inactivity is the prevailing feature of the cotton market. Good bright cotton is bought for the East, and shipped up the river; low cottons command no attention. Prices are very irregular, but lower on the whole. The quotations below may be regarded as an approximation to the most prevalent rates.

Inferior.....5 @ 5¾ | Middling.....10 @11¼
Ordinary.....7¾@ 8¾ | Good Middling..11¾@12¼
Good Ordinary..9 @ 9¾ | Middling Fair...12¾@13
Low Middling..9¾@10¾ | Fair.....[illegible]

The New Orleans Picayune, of June 4, says: The demand continues moderate, with sales foots of some 3000 bales. Prices have been very irregular and in favor of buyers for the lower grades, but the better qualities are without any material change. We retain our last quotations which, however, are nominal for the grades below middling. Yesterday's sales embraced 2300 bales. We quote—

Inferior.....5 @ 6¾ | Middling.....11¼@11¾
Ordinary.....7¾@ 8¾ | Good Middling..12¼@12¾
Good Ordinary..9 @10 | Middling Fair...12¾@13
Low Middling..10¾@11¾ | Fair.....[illegible]

The Baltimore paper says: We received this morning from Messrs. Ward, Saunders & Hunt a note from Jas. A. Ferguson, Esq., directed to them from Williamsport, La., a town on a full-blown cotton bloom of the finest appearance, and adds that the cotton in that section, he adds, speaks well for the advancement the growing crop in that section.

From the Circular of Messrs. Nagle Rose, June 1.]

NEW CROP.—In our last we reported that the weather in the more southerly cotton States had become warm and favorable for the growth of the crop, and that a further improvement in the more northerly sections. During the week which has since ensued we have had the satisfaction to receive (with the exception of a little rain) but favorable accounts from our section, and not severe has been a return to near cold weather, although not warm, whether, even in this latitude, we may indulge the hope that the coldness and back evidence of an unpropitious spring have in fact yielded to the advance of summer, and that the will not again revisit us. Good stands are generally advised and crops in the intermediate districts, the accounts from which are very favorable, season been decidedly more alarm for the imperial spring, and put planting rather back.

But we regret to say that from the districts adjacent to the overflow we have nothing favorable to report. The water is still pouring through some of the levees, and all thoughts of making a crop in that overflow seems to be abandoned. Meanwhile the river is again rising from an all-time [illegible] Cairo, before reported there on the 27th ult., up to [illegible] of the late great rise in 1844. At St. Louis the river within five days of the 27th, was [illegible] carrying the flight of the water four feet above [illegible] have been this spring. The Upper Mississippi, Illinois and other northern rivers, are all reported rising [illegible] Ohio, by the beginning of the month, [illegible] case it will be superior to the great rise, and in that former among the [illegible] of June increase the weather as we are now advanced of continue at the South, the crop may be [illegible] average one, after every reasonable deduction for [illegible] the overflow.

SOUTHERN DEPOT FOR SINGER'S
Celebrated Improved Premium
Family and Manufacturing
Sewing Machines,
At McKinney & Co.'s Furniture Store, No. 192, MAIN STREET, MEMPHIS, TENN.

EDWIN DEAN, Agent for Singer's Incomparable Sewing Machines, respectfully announces that he has returned from a search, continued for months in his efforts in St. Louis, and the surrounding demand from Tennessee and Arkansas to establish at Alfred's in Memphis, at 15 two years ago, and now an office in St. Louis, and out of several hundred Machines sold, not a single Machine has ever required repairing or failed to give the highest satisfaction. The general remark has been: "I would not part with my Sewing Machine for a thousand dollars if I could not get another—I can't imagine why I never got along without it." Instances of complaint that they cannot get their sewing done, different kinds of work, and the different seams required thereon, they have learned to be more agreeable and more healthful occupation. Planters desiring to make their family clothing, will find a Machine in a few weeks. The same remarks have been made by Hotel keepers, Dressmakers, Tailors, Harnesses, Shoemakers, &c. &c. Those who wish to purchase a Singer Sewing Machine will soon find themselves behind the age.

No risk is incurred in trying a Singer Machine, in as much as every one is warranted to get out of order, if not abused. Warranted to make perfectly the beautiful interlocked stitch that will seam, hem, tell, gather, etc., it is adapted to all sorts of work, and in the only stitch that will neither rip nor ravel. Warranted to do the family sewing, and the heavier work. The Stitchers of the ladies is responsibly requested to the new Family and Shoemaker Machine, which is ornamented in the highest style of art, and is adapted to all sorts of family sewing, and is well as the most useful Family Machine ever invented.

All visitors continuously received, whether they wish to purchase or to gratify curiosity.

Monetary and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, MONDAY, June 7, 1858.

CINCINNATI.—The Commercial, of June 4, says: The money market continues easy and dull, with an abundance of capital, and but very little legitimate demand for it. The market for exchange is unaltered and dull.

PHILADELPHIA.—The weekly reports of the banks shows no change of importance, except in the large increase of specie. The loans are slightly on the decrease, but the specie and the circulation are not materially changed.

NEW ORLEANS.—From the Picayune, June 4: The market to-day has again presented a very quiet appearance. Irrespective of the dullness which prevails, there were elements for activity which somewhat interfered with business. Money continues in good supply, and prime paper maturing early in the fall, is readily absorbed at 8@10. At longer dates the rates range from 8@9, and for spring acceptances at 10@12. The exchange in bank are comparatively small. There is no alteration in exchanges. Prime sterling commands 107¾, though the leading drawers ask 108. France rule at 5¼@5¼ for 30 days, but without any sales of consequence. Sixty day bills on New York 1¼@¼ pr ct. discount. Boston and 1¼@1¾. Saint 1¼@¾ pr ct. discount.

NEW YORK.—From the Herald, June 2: In foreign exchanges the market is a very dull one to-day, and rates are again easier. The top price for sterling is 109¾, and the lowest 109¼, with some sales at 109¾, with small bills. In discounts the rates remain at 4@5 for first-class business paper and loans 3 to 4@6 for other paper. The money continues greatly in excess, but there is rather more doing in business circles, and the question has received a slight impulse for the better. The four per cents have further risen, remaining to be issued will be awarded on the 14th June.

WISCONSIN.—The multiplication of banks in Wisconsin continues. The Central Wisconsin, just opened at Watson, in Marathon county, makes ten new banks in that county. The banks named are the Tradesmen's Bank, Milwaukee; the State Bank, Janesville; the Osborne Bank of Gamesh, and the Marshfield Bank, Marshfield. In all, the list of the interior is mentioned as a bank supposed to be, but not really, located in Watson.

More about the Revolution in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY, June 5.

FIRST DISPATCH.—There is an immense excitement in the streets. The Vigilance arrested Lumsden (of the N. O. Picayune) who was kept in confinement several hours. He was drunk and disorderly around the Vigilance camp.

The Mayor is still at the Vigilance headquarters. He is afraid of his life if he leaves them. Affairs look equally. Don't expect an election on Monday.

SECOND DISPATCH.—The Mayor issued a proclamation, revoking the power of the Recorders to appoint a special police.

The citizens are disgusted with the Mayor for the variable course he has pursued. The streets continue excited. The Vigilants are still patrolling their position. Lafayette Square is still in the possession of the mob, who keep a cannon, loaded with grape, commanding all up, much to the square.

The Recorders have appointed 800 special police. Among them are some of the worst men in the city. They refuse to give up their authority, although revoked by the Mayor. They have also arrested several men known to belong to the Vigilants.

THIRD DISPATCH.—The Mayor is at the Vigilance Committee's rooms and has placed himself under their protection. No attack has been made by the mob yet. Col. Christy has withdrawn as the leader of the movement, on account of the legal position of the Vigilants. The Recorders are engaged in swearing in a Special Police, all citizens are invited to join.

Important.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—On Saturday the Mayor having his life guarded, proceeded to the St. Charles Hotel to meet the Council. It was impeached and H. Hamman, the Pro tem of the Board of Aldermen, was elected in his place. Col. Forno, chief of police, was dismissed and Col. Jacquet appointed in his place. The old police have been reinstated under Jacquet. A. T. Turney and C. B. Nunez, two telegraph repo tors, were arrested this morning by the Special Police of the city as dangerous characters; but were liberated on parole. Turney was re-arrested. It was rumored that the Mayor had seized the ballot boxes, if so, there will be no election to-day. Streets seemingly quiet, but no man's life is safe outside the different barricades. An attack was made upon the Vigilants on Saturday night. The Vigilants had 4 killed and 12 wounded by the accidental discharge of a cannon during the confusion.

Mayor Elected

NEW ORLEANS, June 7, P. M.—The election has gone American. Girard Stith has been elected by a small majority.

The Vigilants are still behind the barricades—but half of them sold. They declare their resolution to carry out their design of freeing the city of ruffians.

This was great rejoicing in Lafayette Square among the Sixth party. The city is in an uproar.
