Vacation week.

Good maple sugar weather this.

The homelier a man is the more beauty he wants in a wife.

Miss Pearl Mathews visited friends in Jeddo the past week.

M. W. Smith, of Marlette, was a visitor in this village last week.

Miss Lou Townsend, of Berville, visited among friends in this village the past week.

If all people were to "vote as they pray," it wouldn't take long to count the ballots.

Our old friend Edward Young, of Sandusky, was in the village the latter part of last week.

Martin Vanslyke, Sr. is visiting friends at South Haven where he will remain for a time.

Chester Bricker, of Port Huron, passed Sunday among friends and relatives in this village.

W. H. Ballentine, of Brockway, was in the village Monday. We are pleased to see him around again.

A number of the farmers west of here in the township of Lynn have done their spring seeding.

Bert Duffie, of Port Huron, was renewing old acquaintances in the village the latter part of last week.

Harry Thorn and wife, of Flint, are the guests of Geo. W. Barrett and other friends in this vicinity at present.

Jas. Hisey and family returned to their home in this place after a pleasant visit among friends in Stouffville, Ont.

Ed Welch, who has been employed in E. F. Pratt's barber shop for some time past, has moved with his family to Oxford.

Frank Gillam who has been at Alpena for the past winter returned to this place last week. He expects to go back to Alpena soon.

Geo. H. Mustard and wife and Cass D. Merritt and wife, of Port Huron, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ney one evening last week.

Bidwell Pake, of Colburn, Ont., has been visiting his brother-in-law, M. V. Richardson the past week. He is in search of a farm to buy.

Mrs. C. Ferguson and Mrs. H. D. Bowman, of Almont, mother and sister of A. W. Ferguson, have been visiting at the home of the latter the past week.

The California legislature has evolved new word. It is "dellequibible," and means a flank attack on a main question by criticising a minor detail.

E. P. Hantoon left for his home at Marine City last Saturday after a three weeks visit with his daughter, Mrs. Levi Morrill, Jr., and other friends in this village.

The tea-meeting held at the M. P. church last Thursday evening for the benefit of Rev. J. M. Crandall, was a complete success, both socially and financially. The proceeds amounted to twenty dollars.

"There's no terror, headache, in your threats," for I am armed so strong with remedy that I pass pain by, as an idle word, which I respect not since the discovery of Salvation Oil. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Worse by half than the hen and a half problem is this: A certain family consists of one grandfather, two grandmothers, one father-in-law, three mothers, two fathers, two daughters, one son, one daughter-in-law, one son-in-law, one grand-daughter, and there are only six persons in the family.

A little observation at a safe distance has shown the following uses of a hair-pin; shoe and glove buttoner, gimblet, hook, cork screw, pencil, book-mark, tooth pick, griddle lifter, nut pick, two of them make a buckle or can be used to beat eggs, three of them in the hand of an ordinary woman will beat any combination tool in the market.

The population of Brockway Centre is about 900, and we would say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the throat and lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. We would advise all our readers not to neglect the opportunity to call on their druggist and get a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs. Trial size free. Large bottles 50c. and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Miss Maggie McDermott, of Ft. Gratiot, is visiting friends in this place.

Miss Maggie Phare is making her home in Port Huron for the present.

Miss Olive Morrill visited relatives and friends in Ft. Gratiot the past week.

Miss Lydia Holder is spending the week with her mother in Port Huron.

Phil McDougall has been in New York State the past week on business for Anderson & Co.

Miss Lizzie Welch, of Brown City, visited with her parents and other friends in this village last week.

John Wilson, who has been occupying B. R. Noble's house on Kemette street, has moved to a distant part of the village.

A pleasant party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Ney last Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Leonard. All present passed a very enjoyable evening.

There is no drink quite so delicious and sparkling, pure and wholesome, as that made from Hives' Improved Root Beer Packages. Did you ever try it? It is one of the good things of this life.

We made an error in last issue in regard to the annual election of the township board. It should have read annual meeting of the township board, and was held on Tuesday instead of Monday.

The Marlette Leader has changed hands and is now owned by D. E. Hubbel, who has converted it into a 5 column quarto. In make-up and general appearance it is greatly improved. We wish Bro. Hubbel all manner of success.

The second annual stallion show will be held at this place on Saturday, April 20th. Premiums about the same as last year. Everybody was pleased with the success of last year's show and let us see if it cannot be bettered this year.

J. T. Waterman & Co., have just received their spring stock of clothing and general merchandise. Prices have been cut to rock bottom. They have anything you want. Give them a call and be convinced. Notice their change of adv. in this issue.

For the cure of colds, coughs, and all derangements of the respiratory organs no other medicine is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It relieves the asthmatic and consumptive, even in advanced stages of disease, and has saved innumerable lives.

Geo. Marakle has taken full possession of all the stock, implements, hay, grain, etc., of the Owens farm lately vacated by Wm. Gaskill and will manage the same for the next two years. Mr. Marakle is a practical farmer and will no doubt make a success in his undertakings.

The bicycle season has opened and H. H. Holden is on hand with a new adv. He is the agent for a number of first-class firms and parties desiring to purchase will do well to see him before investing. Mr. Holden has sold already this season two new bicycles, one to Lute McDonald and one to Thos. Howay.

The following items we clipped from last week's Marlette Leader:—

"Dr. McLean, of Brockway Centre, was in town on Saturday, assisting Dr. Will Burger in a difficult surgical operation."

"A tumor weighing several pounds was removed from Dr. W. T. Atkinson's horse last Saturday. Drs. Burger and McLean performed the operation. The 'patient' is doing well."

When Macbeth ironically asked, "Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" he little knew that mankind would one day be blessed with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, this powerful alterative gives tone and strength to every function and faculty of the system.

The Flint & Pere Marquette railroad company will prepare a roadbed standard gauge, complete from this city to St. Clair river on the Port Huron division before any change in the running of trains is made. The track will be ballasted and new ties and rails laid the entire distance. The work will begin two weeks hence.—East Saginaw Courier.

Thursday evening last some sneak thief entered the granary of Moses Halled and stole a bag of flour but only got a short distance with it when one of the family went out to the well with a lantern for a pail of water. The thief thinking he was being pursued dropped the flour and ran. Mr. Halled wishes to say to any such parties that if they are in need of flour to come to him and he will lend them some.

Prof. Booth, of Port Huron, was in the village Tuesday.

H. Allen has had a trellis erected in front of his residence.

A. H. Braidwood was passing around the cigars Wednesday—it is a girl.

Born, to the wife of Neil Evans on Sunday, March 17th, 1889, a daughter.

A. Siegel & Sons, of Port Huron, have a change of adv. in this issue. Read it.

Attend the entertainment of the Hyers Comedy Co. at Central Hall this (Thursday) evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Leonard have moved away, and will make their home somewhere on the Pacific coast.

Frank Newell, carriage painter, has a new adv. in this issue. Don't fail to read it, and should you require his services give him a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowley, of Capac, and Squire Gould and daughter, of Smith's Corners, were the guests of Rev. J. M. Crandall the past week.

We can fit the smallest boy or the largest man with a suit of clothes, a hat or anything in our line. A. Siegel & Sons, 211 Huron Ave., Port Huron.

John Donohue, who has been in the employ of McPhee & Grinnell as engineer lately, has moved to Port Huron, where he has secured a position on a tug.

We are exclusive agents for the celebrated Rossmore stiff and soft hats. We also have the Dunlap shape hats. A. Siegel & Sons, 211 Huron Ave., Port Huron.

The republican caucus held in Cowling's office last Tuesday was a very quiet affair. No one seemed to be very anxious for office consequently the old officers were nearly all re-nominated.

Married, at Brockway Centre, on Thursday, March 21, 1889, by Justice Cowing, John O. Holcomb and Sarah Ann Roe. The EXPOSITOR, together with their many friends, wish the happy couple many years of pleasant wedded life.

The band boys are thinking of erecting a band stand, if necessary funds can be obtained, in some centrally located spot of the village. Should you receive a serenade from the band in the near future you will know it means they are after cash. Make preparations to meet the demand.

The school exhibition held in the M. E. church last Friday evening was largely attended by parents and friends of the scholars. The entertainment was first-class in every particular. The proceeds of the evening amounted to about $15 which will be used in buying singing books for the school.

Thos. Fanning, of the firm of Fanning, Weter & Co., egg merchants, of Richmond, and A. H. Clute were in the village Tuesday making arrangements with the business men in regard to handling their eggs for the season. They will commence picking up eggs next Monday.

The handsomest lady in Brockway Centre remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merits, any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50c. and $1.
