Farmers are busy in the harvest field at present. The yield is large this year and the farmers and everybody are happy.

It is reported that Dave Orser, who left this place rather suddenly some time ago, is now in Port Huron or Ft. Gratiot.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Jas. McColl, one of our enterprising young business men, and Miss Livingston at Baden, Ont. the 28th inst.

Thos. S. Emery, who left Brown City a short time ago under rather unfavorable circumstances, is at present working in the law office of Edgar Weeks at Detroit.

Martin Vanstyke, Sr., writes us from South Haven stating that he is enjoying good health and that he will remove to Alamo, where he wishes his many friends in this village to write him.

Harvey Tappan, of Port Huron, was in the village Tuesday evening. He has rented a suite of rooms upstairs in the Lutz building for three years. Looks as though Harvey was coming to stay.

Secretary Wark, of the Brockway Centre Agricultural Association, will be at the post-office in Yale next Saturday for the purpose of paying last year's premiums. For the benefit of those who are not aware we wish to state that the fair will be held September 25, 26 and 27 this year.

The Solid Comfort Camping Club, of this place, consisting of Grant McArthur, Frank Newell, Jim Brown, Fred Palmer and Bert Jardine are taking in the sights at Caseville, camping on the shore of Lake Huron. Letters received from the boys state that they are enjoying themselves.

J. M. Loose Red Clover Co.—Gents: I have been a sufferer for the last five years from rheumatism across the shoulders, and by using your Fluid Extract Red Clover, am entirely relieved; believe it has driven it from my system, and won't be a weather barometer any longer. Yours Truly, F. D. Dibble, Palmer House, Chicago.

The management of the Flax Mills at this place is making some changes in its buildings. The large building where the flax is broken, scutched and pressed, is being considerably enlarged for the purpose of adding a pressing room, while the flax sheds are being moved 80 feet farther east to lessen the danger of fire catching from the mill.

One year ago Tuesday July 23rd, occurred the memorable hail storm which visited our village with such terrific force and did so much damage to both town and surrounding country that probably will live in the memory of our people for years to come and never cease to be spoken of as that terrible hailstorm of '88 when the stones were as large as hen's eggs and which destroyed everything in its path.

The building that Geo. Gough has recently been erecting for his photograph and undertaking rooms is completed and he now has as neat and commodious quarters as could be desired. The lower floor he uses for his gallery with a comfortable and tasty waiting room as one enters. Mr. Gough's reputation as an artist is becoming well known throughout the county and no one need go abroad for better pictures than can be secured at home. The second floor is devoted to his undertaking business where a full line of coffins and caskets are always on hand.

C. A. Wells and family visited friends in Port Huron over Sunday.

Joe Schmidt, an experienced butcher, is now employed by W. H. Rollins.

If you ever think you have cause to get mad at the printer man, tell him so. Perhaps the cause will prove imaginary.

Ed. Young and family, of Sauiac Centre, are visiting among relatives and friends in this vicinity at present.

Work on the cut-off from here to Pt. Huron is progressing rapidly under the supervision of the Lally Bros. and Mr. Lusk.

The tile for the drain on the west side of main street from the Commercial House to the bridge has arrived and the work of laying the same will soon begin.

Tom Howay and Joe Allen made a flying trip to Peck Sunday morning last, on their bicycles; going there in one hour and returning in one hour and a quarter.

M. P. Allen & Son have lately added a fresh line of choice family groceries to their already fine stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, notions, etc. Read what they have to say in a change of adv. this week.

Should you need Note Heads, Bill Heads, Statements, Envelopes, Dodgers or any kind of Job Printing, give us a call before placing your order elsewhere. We have facilities for doing first-class work cheaper than the cheapest.

The "Eternal Head" of the Expositor is again on deck of the "great and only" with both hands on the helm trying to get the old craft steered down after the rough and tempestuous weather experienced last week. What makes matters worse, the "Infernal" part of the concern is cooling his weary, classic brow in the soft, lake breezes of Caseville and we toil and sorrow alone.

Phil McDougal, of Port Huron, arrived on Monday with the intention of assisting his brother Lew for a few days in the present rush of business. Bad luck was his on Tuesday. As he was assisting in loading a binder he slipped and the full weight of the binder came upon his left foot inflicting a very painful wound and tearing three of the nails from his toes. He returned to Port Huron on Wednesday evening.—Crosswell Democrat. We are very sorry to learn of Phil's misfortune.

The social on Martin Monro's lawn last Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Yale cornet band, was largely attended by our citizens. The lawn was well lighted and the tables beautifully decorated with bouquets of flowers. A fine display of fireworks was one of the features of the evening. The most pleasing part during the evening was when we found room at the tables to partake of the delicious ice cream and cake. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves and departed feeling pleased over the evening's entertainment. Net proceeds, $15.61. It was very kind of Mr. Monro in allowing the band the use of his lawn and the members feel very thankful for his kindness. They also return a vote of thanks to the citizens for their liberal patronage and will endeavor, in the near future, to give each and every one a chance to hear some new music which they intend purchasing with part of the proceeds. Lowell Monro deserves much credit for the interest he took in getting up this social. The band is making good progress and well deserve the patronage of the public.

Marshal Gilliam has a new uniform hat.

Mrs. Raymond has removed to Port Huron.

A man says he goes "out on a lark" when he really goes out on a swallow.

C. H. Townsend returned to Anchorville Saturday after a short stay among friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Tripp, of Memphis, visited their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Paterson the first of the week.

Robt. M. Lathian, of Crosswell, was in town the fore part of the week calling upon his many friends.

Miss Minnie Welch was the recipient of a new piano from her father last week. It is a fine instrument.

Ed. Johnson, of the customs force, Port Huron, was calling on his many friends in this place the past week.

J. H. High and son Floyd, are visiting friends in the county of Elgin, Ont. They will be away two or three weeks.

Master Frankie Minnie, who was taken to Port Huron last week for medical treatment, is now rapidly improving.

W. V. Andreae is taking a trip up the lakes in the interest of the woolen mills of this place and also for the benefit of his health.

Henry Pearce is taking Grant McArthur's place behind the counters in Holden & Waring's store during the latter's absence.

Mrs. L. Jones has been visiting friends at Deekerville the past three weeks. Lambert and family will occupy Milton Bradley's house.

Jas. Wallace and family will leave this morning for Caseville, where they can enjoy the fresh air from the lake for two or three weeks.

J. B. Paisley and J. A. Rapley, left here last Wednesday for a visit among friends at Sand Beach, Port Austin, Caseville and other places.

Don't fail to notice the change of ad. for J. H. Bartlett, of Fargo, in this issue. He has something special to say to our readers about binders and twine.

A. J. Ward, of Brockway, has rented J. W. Gustin's brick building and opened out a saloon. It is fitted up in first-class style and was opened to the public Monday.

There will be a Maccabee Jubilee held at Muskegon, August 13th. The railroads will give half fare rates. Some of the members from this place intend taking in the trip.

Richard Williams, Lara Butler, J. W. Hayes, John Williams and John Crawford attended the horse races at Saginaw last week. They report some fine races and a good time.

A heavy rain storm occurred here Monday afternoon, accompanied by some wind. Quite a fall of hail stones was reported west of the village, but no damage done to crops.
