THE APPEAL.

Fourth of July Among the Slaves.

A NEGRO ORATOR "SMOKING ABOLITIONISM."

From the Auburn (Ga.) Gem.

Col. Scott permitted his negroes to hold a Fourth of July carnival, to which we had the pleasure of an invitation.

First, Big Nathan, acting as Major-General, and Isham, 1st Lieutenant, they paraded fifty or sixty slaves, well-fed, bright-eyed, light-stepping negroes, and in double file marched them to a sumptuously prepared dinner, fine enough for the palate of an English epicure. Big Nathan, a fine looking man, with excellent sense, was called upon for a speech, and he responded in genuine African eloquence. It was decidedly patriotic, and every word came welling from the heart in the earnestness and fervor of an untaught, unrestrained, overfull nature. He was particularly and peculiarly alive to his obligation to Mr. and Mrs. Scott, for their uniform kindness to himself and his "fellow servants"—to which sentiment there was a general response by all the gentlemen and ladies of color. The gentlemen bowed their heads, and the ladies made a "curtchy," while the young "shoes" jumped up and fell down, turning over upon the grass and batting their eyes at each other in silent approbation.

The orator did not know much about politics, but he took a very bold position in favor of his master and the ladies of color, and the excellence of his corn crop. He asserted that his corn crop was so luxuriant and so like a forest, that even at midday the lightning bugs had to make light before they could see how to get along, and that no man, nor even an owl, could make headway without a torch. He thought there was no earthly hope of harvesting his crop of corn, unless the colored adopted the expedient of building a board shelter over his corn fields; and as to the possibility of making a potato hill large enough to hold that excelent root, was a most ridiculous idea—the Alps and Andes were mounds insignificant in comparison to the demand. He further thought that his master's plantation was the genuine land of "Boelah," and he was "expriest" that his master could think of "affording" it for sale. After dealing some heavy blows at Abolitionism, he concluded with some original poetry, amid the clatter of dishes and gabble of voices.

After dinner was over, Borrell, an invited guest, came forward at the solicitation of the crowd, and made a very sensible talk. We were pleased with his idea of slavery. He thought he was much "better off" than either the free negroes or the poor white people of the North. He was happier, had more and better things to eat, &c., &c.

Abraham succeeded him in pretty much the same style of Big Nathan.

PROJECTED EMIGRATION OF FREE-LOVERS FROM NEW YORK TO THE SOUTH SEA ISLANDS.

The New York Tribune says:

"Under the inspiration of modern spiritualism a new movement has been put on foot in this city, having for its purpose the colonization of the numerous bodies of spiritualists, socialists and free-lovers on some of the islands in the South Pacific ocean. For several Sundays meetings have been held in a grove in New Jersey, a few miles above this city, at which a hundred or more of these people have attended. Prominent among them is a man named Tyler, formerly a Methodist clergyman, but who latterly has been successfully propagating the doctrines of spiritualism and free-lives. He was connected in some way also with the best of free-lovers at Berlin Heights, Ohio. The deliberations in question have resulted in unfolding a plan which will doubtly upset by a perusal of a document issued by Tyler, furnishing the outlines of a plan of emigration to the South Sea Islands.

"A regular organization for the above object is now effected, of which Tyler is the President, and a man named Leland the Secretary. Frequent meetings are held in the city; and the colonists are hopeful of the success of their scheme."

"UNEASY RESTS THE HEAD THAT WEARS THE CROWN."—The Paris correspondent of the North American, in a recent letter, says:

"The Emperor has certainly 'aged' very rapidly and sensibly during the last four or five months. I had an opportunity of observing him very closely the other day, as he walked up and down on the arm of the Minister of Wirtemburg, a much taller man than himself. Louis Napoleon looked like a little bent, almost hump-backed and decaying old man, more like sixty than fifty years of age. His step was slow and feeble, and without any elasticity, his whole frame seemed breaking down with the terrible weight and responsibility of despotic rule. To judge from recent acts his mind appears to be breaking down also; for certainly, to put it mildly, the whole course of his administration since the 16th of January has been a mistake."

THE BRITISH COTTON MANUFACTURE.—The British cotton manufacture is immense. According to the Paris Constitutionnel, it gives occupation to between one and two millions of inhabitants. It feeds entire provinces. During the last crisis, thousands of operatives were supported by public charity. What then, continues the Parisian editor, would be the consequence if those cotton manufacturers who work five days out of the six to clothe foreigners, should lose that market? Who can tell what might happen? Who can tell that England might see a terrible revolution break out at home. The cotton question would be converted into a social question. It is the sentiment on that situation which renders England so prudent and so moderate with regard to the United States with an assurance which, in case of necessity, she might carry to a degree of temerity.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The people of Tennessee will be called upon to vote on the first Thursday in September next upon the question of calling a Convention "to revise, alter, or amend the Constitution of the State of Tennessee." For the purpose of bringing the subject early before the public, in order that it may be deliberately considered, we publish the following Act of Assembly authorizing the people to vote:

AN ACT to authorize the people to call a Convention to revise, alter, or amend, the Constitution of the State of Tennessee.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That the citizens of this State, entitled to vote for members of the General Assembly, are hereby authorized to assemble at the several places of holding elections in their respective counties, and vote for or against calling a Convention to amend, revise, or form and make a new Constitution for the State.

Sec. 2. The election provided for in the first section, shall be held on the first Thursday in September next.

Sec. 3. The sheriffs of the several counties in the State shall, after giving sixty days' notice in writing in each civil district in their respective counties, and in some newspaper printed in said county, (if there be one) and if none, in some newspaper printed in Knoxville, Nashville, Jackson, and Memphis, open and hold an election, at the several places of holding elections in their counties, on the first Thursday in September next, as prescribed in this act.

Sec. 4. The elections authorized by this act shall be held and conducted under the same rules and regulations that elections are for members of the General Assembly, and the returns of such elections shall be made in the same manner, that returns are made of election for members of the General Assembly.

Sec. 5. Each voter shall write on his ticket "Convention, or no Convention, and the returns of such election having been made, the Governor and Secretary of State shall proceed to count the votes cast for, or against the Convention, and if it shall appear that the votes in favor of a Convention amount to a majority of the whole number of votes polled for Governor at the election next preceding the day of election for or against said constitution, Provided, that a majority of the entire vote so polled shall be in favor of the Convention, then, the Governor shall issue his proclamation, declaring that a majority of the votes polled, are in favor of a Convention. He shall also issue write of election, directed to the Sheriffs in every county in this State authorizing and requiring the Sheriffs thereof, to open and hold election for delegates to the Convention, at the several places of holding election in their respective counties, on the first Thursday in November next.

Sec. 6. Each county electing one representative to the General Assembly, shall elect a delegate to the Convention, and each representative district composed of more than one county, shall elect one delegate to the Convention. Counties that elect more than one representative, shall elect the the same number of delegates, as they are entitled to elect representatives.

Sec. 7. Elections of delegates to the Convention shall be held under the same rules and regulations, as members of the General Assembly, and returns of such elections shall be made in the same manner, as returns are made for members of the General Assembly. The persons having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected delegate to said Convention.

Sec. 8. The delegates elect shall assemble at the capitol in the city of Nashville, on the first Monday in December thereafter, and proceed to the discharge of their duty. They shall receive the same compensation for their travel and services, as members of the General Assembly are entitled to receive under the existing laws of the State.

Above three tracts of land are in a high state as any three tracts in the whole State of Arkansas, and two of them have been entirely abandoned, and the third one 1,000 acres have been above any overflow during the long progress of the late flood in the Mississippi Valley. These lands are suggested to those who are all incumbrance by overflow, and purchasers are invited to call and examine for themselves while the water marks are plain, so that they may see what lands are and what they are bringing. Also two family residences and eleven vacant lots in the city of Memphis, and $20,000 worth not lots in the town of Grenada, Miss., at the junction of the Memphis and Charleston and Mobile and Ohio roads.

Several tracts of the above have deadenings, varying in size from 100 to 800 acres in places. Also quite a number of other lands, both in hilly and river country, too tedious to mention.

Land for Sale.

I WOULD sell from one to three sections of the land on which I now live. This land lies in Hardeman county, West Tennessee, within one mile of the Mississippi line, six miles from LaGrange, and within two miles of the Junction of the Memphis Central and Memphis and Charleston Railroads.

The whole tract contains 1920 acres, about 600 acres of which are cleared and in a fine state of cultivation, and would form if cut one to three good settlements, if desired by purchasers, as there is about two hundred acres cleared and in cultivation on the Mississippi, an abundance of good timber and fine spring water on it. The improvements consist of an excellent dwelling and good out houses, and a good Gin House and Gin, both operated by a never failing stream of water, as this is the never failing stream in a hilly country, a agreeable neighborhood, purchasers would do well to examine it. Terms accommodating.

Cheap Plantation for Sale.

I OFFER my plantation, one half mile from Lafayette, 3 miles northwest of Lafayette, Tenn., containing Eight Hundred and Nineteen Acres, (819) of which is in a fine state of cultivation, 300 acres in Fine Polk, and at present is rented by Mr. N. H. Cotland. It is now in a high state of cultivation, well adapted to the production of cotton and corn. The place is well grown, and could easily be converted into one of the most valuable stock raising plantations in Tennessee, to four large fields. The improvements are comfortable; the dwelling house is of log, and has four large rooms; cabins (sufficiently for twenty negroes) stables, barns, cribs, stables, and all other necessary buildings; a good well of water, and one of the best selections of fruit in the country. This is one of the most healthy and beautiful sites to build a fine house in the county, being high and elevated and surrounded by a beautiful grove. The purchaser will be necessary to both the male and female colleges in LaGrange, and can save the expense of boarding his children at the University at Oxford or their company at home. I have more land than I can cultivate which is the only inducement to sell. Any one wishing a bargain in land can find it by calling on the Tennessee. Call and examine the land as I am determined to sell. I can be found at my residence three miles north of Lafayette, and will take pleasure in showing it to any one wishing to purchase.
