MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, TUESDAY, August 17, 1858.

COTTON.—Stagnation is the word that describes our cotton market. A few bales dribble in from those who have vainly held their cotton back, and some is sold without variation of price, almost invariably for the Eastern market. The stock is rather lighter than customary at this time of the year.

Money and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, TUESDAY, August 17, 1858.

NEW YORK.—From the News, August 11: There has been an unusual activity in monetary circles to-day in consequence of the awards of the ten million loan. Three millions of dollars have been paid in on account of it. Much of it has been re-loaned, and as high as 10¾ has been yielding a good profit to the seller. Bullmont has bought considerably, having been disappointed in getting any awarded to him. The old Sixteenth's have in fact been universally thwarted by their own miserable miscalculations. G. Robert & Son have also paid well with a large portion of their at. The chances consequent have arose almost some calling in of loans; but the parties called in easily obtained their money elsewhere. 1 2¾ to 4 ⅌ cent. In fact, money is easier to-day than otherwise, in spite of the shifting of loans. The Sub-Treasury has to-night $6,300,000, the during received to-day being also for a $146,000; but all this will shortly find its way back to bank, for Government has massive drafts.

The same paper of the 12th, says: The condition of the money market is not at all affected by this large loan. The sum of $1,431 4 ⅌ was paid into the Sub-Treasury to-day on account of it, and the causes except amount to $401 201. Money can be obtained on loan at 3 ⅌ cent. easy, and discounts of prime paper at 10@5 ⅌ cent., and second class paper 6@8 ⅌ cent. Several persons who obtained part of the loan have sold out at a good profit. One who had $400,000 at 4¾ ⅌ cent., and obtained it, sold out at 6 ⅌ cent., and has already pocketed the gains, an operation of $7,000, with which he intends, he says, to buy a yacht and join the yachting fraternity shortly. Two young men, having a couple of thousands each, borrowed them, bid for $800,000 at 4¼ ⅌ cent., obtained $2,000, obtained what they bid for, which they held immediately at 106 ⅌ cent., or 1¾ ⅌ cent. gain, pocketed $1,400, and paid $3,000 interest thereon.

Tuesday's bonds are active. On the 10th 10,000, 6's, 80 sold at 80¼ and 30,000 at 80¾.

NEW ORLEANS.—From the Picayune of August 12: Such one of every kind continues very dull, and transactions are too of minutiae to call for any remark. Money matters are very tight, and the rate 2@3 per cent. Sterling is very from 8@9 ⅌ ct. There is no variation in Exchange. From Sterling, Billings and Sight, quotations 75 cents per bale.

All Cotton in store insured, unless otherwise instructed. Constantly on hand a good assortment of Bales, Rope and Twine. aug3-dawtm

The Drugs

COMMONLY sold in cheap stores in Fever and Ague patients, a generally ruinous to the system, instead of more lasting and strengthening; yet the nostrums devised by self-sufficient old women are not much better. Something is needed which shall be the product of profound skill in the healing art, yet beyond the ordinary routine of the profession. This desideratum is supplied by the distinguished Dr. J. Hostetter, whose Bitters take rank among the most wonderful medicines ever devised. Its effects are speedy and certain. Here the most settled cases of the disease yield to the tonic properties of the Bitters.

For sale by druggists, and dealers generally, everywhere. aug11-dtwsmly
