The New Orleans Delta of August 14 reports: The market continues quiet, with but few desirable lots offering at prices within the views of buyers. The sales of the week embrace some 7,000 bales. The demand has been partly for the power grade, which have been held at firmer prices, while the mid ling and low qualities have been heavy, but we have no recent alteration to make in our quotations. The receipts of the week up to date are 91 bales. To-day's sales include 16 bales new crop, middling fair, at 12¾c, and one a trifle inferior, at 11¾ ⅌ lb.

Week's receipts, 1,768 bales; exports, 11,190; Stock on hand, 35,397 bales.

Union Schools.

I WOULD respectfully inform my friends and the public generally, that I have taken charge of the above institutions for a term of years, and will open a regular Boarding School for Young Ladies on the 20th of August. Arrangements have been made for an enlargement of the building of the Young Ladies' Seminary, in order to have a large and commodious hall for the students by the 1st of September. I pledge myself to have experienced and first class teachers, and I will take pleasure in trying to render the Young Ladies placed under my care, comfortable and happy.

Will also open an English and Classical School for Young Men, in which I propose to prepare them for College or the business transactions of life.

RATES OF TUITION PER SESSION.

Primary Department	$10 00
English, German, Geography and Arithmetic	15 00
Philosophy, Botany, Chemistry, and all other higher English branches	15 00
Latin, Greek and Mathematics	20 00
Music and the Piano and Guitar	75 00
For the use of an instrument	10 00
French (extra)	10 00
Incidental fee	1 00

Pupils will be charged from the period of entering school until the close of the term, and no deduction will be made except in case of protracted sickness. Tuition due and expected at the close of the term. The Young Ladies' Seminary is situated in the yard of the Boarding House, so they will not be exposed to bad weather. Young Men can get pleasant boarding places convenient to the Male Academy at $8 to $5 per month.

Young Ladies will board with the Principal. Board $20 per month. If they go home at Christmas, $18.

For further particulars address R. L. PERKINS, Mill Hill, Miss.
