The Tale of a Coat.

BAY CITY, M.O.L., January 97 .- A suit between two ministers of the gospel was adjudicated in a justice court here recently. Thelit gants were both gentlemen of color. One resides in Saginaw and the other in Bay City. Each is the leader of a more or less prosperous and devout flock of colored brothers and sisters who regard their respective pastors with all the respect and veneration due to conscientious gentlemen of the cloth. The flocks, however, did not figure in the lawsuit except as interested spectators. The casus belii was a lady's plush cloak of uncertain age. It was the property of the Saginaw clergyman, or eather of his wife. In time it came to pass that the Bay City preacher began to covet his neighbor's wife's cloak and duly made overtures for the purchase of the same. It was agreed that $25 was a just price for the The sum of $8 was paid in cash, the balance to follow on the installment plan. The goods were delivered and the better half of the Buy Cit pastor was resplendent in the figurative veivet and fine raiment. But there was a thorn in the side of the Bay City people. The clock was too small. It did not come up to ex-pectations and this so rankled in the breast of the lord of the household that he concluded not to pay any more on the parment. The installment plan was not pursued further. In the fumers of time it began to dawn on the Sagmaw preacher that there was something coming to him. He knew from experience that the tardiness of the doctor could not be due to lack of funds. It must be forgetfulness induced by a press of spir tual cares. He would write. is the first epistle to the Bay Citizen: Saginaw, Oct. 13, 1890. — Esteemed Brother: I take the liberty to remind you that there is due me a payment on that cloak. Will you kindly attend to it? Your trother in Christ, ----." The results of this communication were not all that had been anticipated. In fact no results were apparent and no payment. Here is the second epistle: "Saginaw, Nov. 1, 1890. Dear Friend: Will you attend to that cloak matter at your earliest opportunity? Yours truly. ---- " And still no further in-stallments came to gladden the household of the Saginaw pastor. Third epistic "Saginaw, Dec. 29, 1890.—Sir: Pay for that cloak at once or I shall proeqed to law. Respectfully, ——,"
And thus it came to pass that Justice Perrott was called upon to settle an earthly difference between two gentlemen whose thoughts and professions are spiritual. As the two litigants sat in court on opposite sides of the table their looks were not suggestive of the time when "the tion and the lamb shall walk together and a little child shall fead them." haw man tooked very ugly and the Bay City man retorted in kind. They glared at each other in a way that would indi-cute a deep seated hatred rankling in the breast of each. "Yo' honah," said the local pastor, "de title to de cloak is in me. It became mine when it was turned over to me, yo' honah." "Do title, yo' honah," exclaimed the other, "is in me till de cloak is paid for, yo' honah." The court took the latter view of the case, and the

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says: Tothero, O., Jan, 10, 1887.

Messrs, F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Cararh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to direccure, if they would take it according to directions. Yours Truly, L. L. GORSUCH, M.D. Office, 215 Summit St. We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that can not be enred with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. & Sold by Druggists, 75c.
