EXPOSITIONS.

Here's to the kicker.
 The treacherous kicker,
 The kicker who never is true;
 Who always is crying,
 And never is trying
 Some good for his own town to do.

No use to correct him,
 Nor need you expect him To get to the front like a man;
 For while others bustle He'll sit down and rustle Objections to raise to each plan.

And when the brute dies We'll pause with dry eyes, On his future condition to dwell,
 And we'll envy the devil That will handle the shovel When he roasts the rank kicker right well.

Prepare for the fall fairs.
 This is the first oyster month.
 Keep in mind the date of the Port Huron fair—Sept. 22-25.

A son of Wm. Edgerton's is laid up at home with a broken leg.

Simeon Hamilton lost a valuable black mare by death on Saturday.

Wm. Cavanaugh has a new residence under way on his lot on Mary street.

We are informed that Widow Morrill living north of Yale, fell and broke her leg.

The northern lights have been visible the past few evenings. A sure sign of rain.

H. C. Maloney and wife have gone to house-keeping in Judson Black's house.

Seventy cases of boots and shoes, all grades and styles just received at J. D. McKeith's.

John Holden and wife now occupy the house on Mill street owned by C. R. Holden.

Mrs. W. N. McKenna and family will move to Detroit this week where they will reside in the future.

Harvey Tappan makes another sale of lots 4 and 5 of Reed & McNutt's addition, to J. A. Jackson.

Never believe all you may hear; for he who believes all that he hears often believes more than he hears.

A slight frost was visible early Tuesday morning. Not enough to do any injury to fruit or vegetables.

Henry Pearce is in Avoca where he has secured the contract for erecting a store building for Mr. Marakle.

The Port Huron District Methodist Episcopal conference will meet in Simpson church, Detroit, Sept. 16.

M. A. Sargent presents a new adv. in this issue of the Expositor to which we call the attention of our many readers.

Tappan & Law have purchased a half interest in 1,000 acres of land in Elmer township, Sanilac county, of James Ferguson.

The undersigned has 200 bushels of seed wheat for sale at the flax mill in Yale. Call early and place your order.
 JAS. MCCOLL. 11tf

The Flint & Pere Marquette railroad company now have colored porters on parlor cars. The change went into effect last week.

James H. Moore is prepared for the fall trade with a full stock of Empire drills. Notice his change of adv. on the eighth page.

Pennington's air ship machine is taking a rest, but the Air Ship waltz by Dole will travel to every city and town in the United States.

Two greasy-looking characters with a cinnamon bear created considerable excitement on the streets of our village Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. Brown's condition the past few days has been much improved. It is earnestly hoped by her many friends that she will soon recover.

This week we received a very neat card announcing the birth on August 28th of a 9-pound boy at St. Joseph, Mo., to Dr. and Mrs. C. V. High.

Moses Austin, of Sanilac Centre, is employed in James Wallace's harness shop at present. Charley Presley is also kept busy pulling wax ends.

Johnny Sexton has opened a grocery in his building near the station. He will keep on hand groceries, provisions, canned goods, tobacco, cigars, etc.

APPRENTICE WANTED.—A boy 17 years old who is steady and desires to learn the harness maker's trade. For further particulars call on James Wallace, Yale. 11tf

The Expositor is read by everybody in the counties of St. Clair, Sanilac, Lapeer and Macomb whether subscribers or not. Advertisers please make a note of this.

A Foresters basket Pic-nic will be held at Lakeport on Thursday, Sept.
 17th. The high officers will be present and there will be a horse-back parade and boat-riding.

Beware of the thief of time, procrastination; this day is as convenient as to-morrow; this day is yours, to-morrow is not; this day is a day of mercy, to-morrow may be a day of doom.

J. D. McKeith has received his fall stock of ready-made clothing, overcoats, etc.

I have for sale the Bay Port lime, the cheapest and best in the market; also hair, calcine, cement, salt, etc., H. J. McPhee, Yale.

The largest day's threshing we have heard of this season was done at Geo.
 Marakle's on Monday. 1310 bushels of grain were turned out. Next.

No man or woman is equipped for life who has not learned to say "No"; but it's to be said kindly as well as firmly, if its lesson is to be made impressive.

You do not have to go to Port Huron for the latest styles in ladies', misses' and children's cloaks and jackets for you can get them here at John D. Mc-Keith's store.

Mrs. Taylor would respectfully invite the ladies of Yale and vicinity to call and look over her hosiery counter, as she has a full assortment of fall and winter grades.

WANTED.—I would like to get a number of apprentice girls to learn dressmaking. Apply at my establishment over F. W. Julian & Co.'s drug store.
 ALLIE BLACK, Yale. 18

The Yale Cornet Band appeared on the streets Tuesday evening and dis-coursed some sweet music. The boys "get there" with both feet and we hope to hear them more frequently.

Here is a remarkable offer: The Detroit Daily Times, $3.00 per year, and WEEKLY EXPOSITOR, $1.00 a year, both for the small sum of $2.50 per year in advance. Now is your time to subscribe.

Mrs. Taylor has moved into James Welch's house on Kennis street and the rooms over the bank will be occupied by J. C. Holden and wife until they build a new dwelling on Mechanic street.

Died, at Lapeer, on Thursday, Sept.
 3, 1891, the 5 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Soules. The funeral was held in the M. P. church in this place on Saturday, Rev. Sheppard, of Lapeer, officiating.

The merchants of Port Huron have organized an association called "The Merchants' Exchange of Port Huron, Michigan." This is for their mutual protection against slow paying customers and delinquent debtors.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Forty acres in Sec. 9, Speaker township, one mile north and one mile west of Moore's Corners. Land is first class. For further particulars apply on premises or write MICHAEL COONAN, Speaker, Mich. 18

There is an old adage "that when the breeze dies out, men must take to the oars." So in business, when trade is dull, tradesmen must take to advertising. It is the only way to push the boat along, and make business go forward.

If you could see your own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dust, dandruff and dead skin thereon accumulated. The best and most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

D. R. Menerey has again returned to his old love—the Coleman Independent.
 Inducements offered by Coleman business men were the lever that brought him back, and caused him to sever his connections with the Mt.
 Pleasant Enterprise.—Midland Sun.

Money can be earned in spare time by good reliable men and women as local agents for the warranted fruits, flowers and trees of J. E. Whitney, Rochester, N. Y. Yearly salary is paid for steady work, and a permanent honorable business is quickly built up. 15

M. Fitzgerald & Co. have newly papered and otherwise refitted the interior of their boot and shoe store and are now prepared with a new and neat stock to supply the wants of the people in the vicinity. A new advertisement appears in another column of this issue. Read it.

The postmasters at the county seats in the state have each received an order from the department at Washington to visit the offices in their respective counties and report the result of their visit to the post office department at Washington. The postmaster must bear his own expense.

Next Sunday will close the fourth year for Rev. C. B. Clark in this place.
 The conference will commence on the 16th inst. at the Palmer Memorial Church, at Detroit. There is a strong feeling among the members of the church, favoring Mr. Clark's return for another year.—Marquette Leader.

James Ball will have a public auction at his premises three miles north and one-half mile east of Peck on Wednesday, Oct. 7th. The sale will consist of farm stock, implements, a ten-horse engine and boiler, 1 twenty-six inch stone feed mill, and other machinery not mentioned. W. W. Lord, auctioneer.

Each one of us is bound to make the little circle in which we live better and happier; each one of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow; each one of us may have fixed in our mind the thought that out of a single household may flow influences that shall stimulate the whole commonwealth and the whole civilized world.—Ex.

At the regular meeting of Advance lodge, no. 110, I. O. O. F., Friday evening, Sept. 4, the following resolution was passed: Resolved, that we extend our united sympathies to our beloved brother, James Kettlewell, in the loss of his dear wife by the scythe of time, August 31, 1891, and commend him and his four small children to the one who doeth all things well. F. W. Julian, Secretary.

FOR RENT.—One hundred acres of first class farming land, one mile north of Yale. The land is all cleared and in the best of condition. Well fenced and watered; contains two bearing orchards, two good barns, cow barn, and other out buildings, all in good repair.
 For particulars apply on the premises, to William Williams, or to his address at Yale, Mich. 14-2m

The "Odd Fellows' Grand March" and the "Air Ship Waltz" are two of the latest compositions of Isaac Dole, 234 West Michigan St., Indianapolis, Ind. Both are musical gems. They comprise five pages each, sheet music size, besides illustrated title pages, not difficult in execution but beautiful in composition, and sell at 40c. each. By way of introduction Mr. Dole will mail them to any address on receipt of 10 cents each when accompanied by this notice.

Henry Pearce is busily engaged making numerous changes in and about his dwelling house on Jones street.

A bald-headed woman is unusual before she is 40, but gray hair is common with them earlier. Baldness and gray-ness may be prevented by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

W. W. Lord, auctioneer, will sell by public auction on the farm of Wm. H.
 Fletcher, one mile west, and 1 1/2 miles north of Melvin, Speaker township, on Friday, Sept. 18th, 1891, farm-stock, agricultural implements, etc. Sale to commence at one o'clock p. m., sharp.

Sallow and leaden-hued complexions soon give way to the loveliest pink and white when the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is persisted in, and cosmetics entirely abandoned. Nothing can counterfeit the rosy glow of perfect health, which blesses those who use this medicine.

The annual meeting of school district No. 1, was held in the primar school building on Monday evening, Sept. 7.
 But very little interest was manifest throughout the meeting. W. W. Grinnell was re-elected assessor, and J. B.
 Francis elected trustee for three years to succeed D. G. Williams. Director Ferguson's annual report showed receipts from all sources, $4,172.74; disbursements, $3,438.01; balance on hand $734.13. A claim of $728 and interest falls due October 17th.

A large crowd attended the entertainment given in Central hall Wed-

A Wonder Worker.
 Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington, Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around.
 They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting.
 He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is today enjoying good health. If you have any Throat, Lung or Chest Trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction.
 Trial bottle free at Grant Holden & Bro's. Drugstore.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
 An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using.
 Sent by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 7

For Sale.
