THE DAILY APPEAL.
SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 2, 1858.

☞ Market house stalls will be sold this morning, at 10 o'clock, by order of Mayor HADEN—rain or shine.

FIRES.—McGEHAN, who insulted a lady on Front street, on Thursday, was yesterday fined twenty-one dollars by Esquire EAST.

SIDEWALKS.—The masters of six negroes had yesterday to pay six dollars each, the fines of their six negroes, for their driving over the sidewalk on Union street.

COUNTERFEIT SCRIBNER SCHNAPPS.—We beg leave to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of UPDYKE WOLFE, in to-day's paper.

☞ The Commissioners of the Memphis Hospital are requested to meet at the office of Dr. MARTIN this evening at 4 o'clock. A full and prompt attendance is desirable.

☞ Religious services will be held at Old Fellows' Hall on Sunday morning, at half-past ten o'clock. The aim of these exercises is to encourage unity among Christians.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire last night was caused by the burning of a frame building on Beale street, between Shelby and Main, opposite DUVAL, ALGEO & Co.'s gas house. It occurred about one o'clock.

☞ A No. 1 book-keeper and salesman advertises for a situation, this morning. Mr. TULLY is an experienced man in his business, and we invite the attention of the mercantile community to his card.

THANKS.—We are obliged to H. BORDEN, Esq., of Adams' Express, for late eastern papers; also, to JAS. KEAN, Jr., of the City of Memphis, for western papers.

TRAVEL.—Absentees are flocking to their homes from the North in great crowds. Our hotels were crowded yesterday; at the Worsham House nearly every lady's sleeping room in the house was occupied.

RECORDER'S OFFICE.—The Recorder had only twelve cases before him yesterday, and they were of the most ordinary description. The city is very quiet and peaceful just now, and items are as scarce as widows' blushes.

COMMITTED.—RYAN, who was so smartly arrested by officer MARSHAL with house-breaking implements in his possession, was yesterday committed to jail by Esquire HILL, for trial at the next term of the Criminal Court, for having such unlawful instruments about him.

MARKET HOUSE.—We have heard nothing lately of the commencement of the new market house near the Charleston depot. What is doing about it? Are we to have a decent market house at once, or is another winter's inconvenience to be submitted to by tame and uncomplaining citizens?

☞ The Pastor of Asbury Chapel, corner of Hernando and Linden streets, South Memphis, proposes delivering a sermon on class meetings, at that Church, on to-morrow at half-past ten o'clock. He earnestly desires all his members who have not been attending these meetings to be present on the occasion.

J. R. GROVES & Co., NEW ORLEANS.—See the card of these gentlemen. Although a new house, the reputation for integrity and business qualifications enjoyed by the firm, will at once place it on a high footing. One of the partners, Mr. J. T. SIMMS, is exceedingly well and favorably known in Mississippi, from which the house will draw a large custom.

DANCING.—We have pleasure in directing attention to the card of Prof. H. ST. MARK STUART, who has attained eminence here as an instructor in the art of dancing. We have had experience of his ability in this city, and his claims on the patronage of the public will be fully recognized. His class opens in a few days, and those who would wish to join it should be early in their application.

A LOAD.—The steamboat Hill had a most remarkable load of freight and passengers yesterday; every ladies' state-room was filled and the gentlemen's intruded upon. There were one hundred and fifty passengers in the cabin, a heavy number on deck, and a large amount of freight. Business is awakening rapidly; as soon as the cessation of sickness below admits of travelling, our Hotels will be filled to overflowing.

SMALL BUSINESS.—PAUL EUGENE is well known to the police of this city, as being a distinguished member of that section of society who never do any good, and the evil they do in so small a way, on principles so minutely retail and unprofitable, that it is puzzling to decide whether they ought to be punished or laughed at. PAUL was found the other night hovering over the pockets of a poor wretch who lay sleeping drunk in the gutter. He was sent to the chain-gang as a vagrant.

☞ The New State Female College, under the supervision of Rev. Mr. STARKS, will go into operation on next Monday. For the convenience of those in the city who desire to send their daughters to this institution, omnibuses will be run regularly morning and evening, the charge being only fifteen cents per day. Persons desiring these omnibus accommodations, will be attended if they will report to Mr. ODELL, at the Gayoso livery stable, or A. J. MONTGOMERY, on Madison street.

GAIETY THEATRE.—The company at the Gaiety continue every evening to present sterling pieces for the amusement of the public, and BANNON and Mr. and Mrs. HENAS and others of the performers are advancing rapidly into favor. The bill for to-night, as given in the advertising columns, is an attractive Saturday night selection. The theatre, now that the interior is entirely completed, presents a very attractive appearance. Many of the public are kept away by fear of heat, but notwithstanding the blaze of light in the house, so perfect is the ventilation that no inconvenience is suffered.

MESSRS WHIPPLE & MONTGOMERY.—Attention is invited to the advertisement of these gentlemen which appears in this morning's paper. They intend to carry on the lumber business on a scale which shall keep pace with the growing importance of Memphis. It would be difficult to find cleverer men to deal with. This connection will not interfere with Mr. MONTGOMERY's attention to the speedy construction of the telegraph line between this city and Little Rock, to which he owns the exclusive patent right, and which, when finished, will complete the telegraphic connections of Memphis with the North, East and West, in all of which he has figured conspicuously.

BUTCHERS' STALLS.—It is stated that the Butchers' Association of this city have entered into a combination to allow no "outsiders" to obtain seats in market, and that they resolved to bid for no seat more than from one-sixth to one-tenth of what has been hitherto paid to the city as rent; of the correctness of this assertion we know nothing, but at the annual auction of stalls yesterday by Mr. WALLACE, when a stall was knocked down at a rent of thirty-five dollars, the butchers became angry, because a stall was knocked down to one not of their association. They refused to bid further and left the place, when the sale was closed. We understand it was the intention of the city officers to refuse the use of the stalls this morning to the butchers in rebellion, but a deputation of butchers waited upon the Mayor and informed him that the stalls were in a ruinous and dilapidated condition, when, we believe, a compromise was arranged so that the stalls can be used until the auction is resumed.

COTTON RECEIPTS.—We are under obligations to Messrs. TATE of the Charleston Railroad, WRIGHT of the Mississippi, and CORRIN of the Memphis and Ohio, for the following account of the cotton brought to this city by their road during the month of September just expired:

Memphis and Charleston road 4,881 bales.
Memphis and Ohio Road: From Brownsville station 613, Stanton 384, Mason 150, Galloway 1, Withe 86, Shelby 41 Total 1,275 bales.
Mississippi and Tennessee Road: From Horne Lake depot 36 bales, Hernando 592, Coldwater 307, Senatobia 647, Como 954, Sardis 315, Panola 488. Total 3,339 bales.

Recapitulation: Charleston Road 4,981 bales, Ohio 1,285 bales, Mississippi 3,339. Entire total 9,625 bales.

The Charleston Road brought to the city during July, 1,068 bales, in August 1,195, in September 4,981. Total for the three months, 7,234 bales; total receipts during Sept., 1857, 609 bales. Increase 9,625 bales.

Our thanks are also due to the clerks who kindly copied and handed us the above reports.

HANDSOME.—The Moniteur confirms the announcement that the sum of 400,000 francs ($16,000) is to be paid to Professor Morse, the inventor of the system of telegraphic communication which bears his name, as an honorary reward and personal recompense for his valuable labors. Of this sum France will pay 235,000f., and the remainder of the sum will be made up by Austria, Belgium, Holland, Sardinia, Rome, Sweden, Tuscany and Turkey. The money is to be paid in four installments.

Arrivals and Departures.
FRIDAY, October 1, 1858.

McGill, New Orleans to St. Louis.
Delaware, New Orleans to St. Louis.
Ed. Walsh, St. Louis to New Orleans.
Gladiator, St. Louis to New Orleans.
Dickey, St. Louis to New Orleans.

River News.

The river continues slowly to recede; a moderate amount of business was done at the landing yesterday. The weather was beautiful but very warm.

The Dickey, the very pet of our up river packets, leaves at six o'clock this evening for St. Louis. To passengers bound to that direction, she offers an opportunity of making a most agreeable trip, and in perfect safety, for her Captain, the popular Dan Able, Esq., is not only one of the most courteous of men, but also one of the most careful of officers. Do not forget the Dickey, at 6 o'clock.

Saucy Kate fires up, and at three o'clock this afternoon, takes one of her quick runs to Napoleon, to which place she carries the United States mails, which ensures her punctuality to time. Capt. Mason, Folger, and Waddill are the officers of the Kate Frisbee, and three gentlemen more attentive to the wishes and comfort of their passengers cannot be found on the river.

The Garvin is the regular packet boat for Vicksburg, for which place she will depart this evening at six o'clock. The Garvin has not only the attraction of being a splended boat, a carrier of the United States mails from Napoleon down, but she has on board as clerk, our friend, and everybody's friend and favorite, Jim Porter, late the highly popular clerk of the Eclipse; Mr. Bell, a thorough business man, is associated with him in the office.

The low water boat Economy is advertised for Cincinnati, to leave at three o'clock this afternoon, she is a light boat, running in the metal stream of water, and is just the craft to ascend the Ohio in.

The favorite steamboat Return has resumed its White River trips, and will leave for her usual landings at 8 o'clock this evening.

Yellow Fever Items

The New Orleans Crescent of Monday last says: We would take this occasion of reminding unacclimated people at a distance not to be too hasty in packing up their trunks for New Orleans. Let them wait till they hear that the fever has died a natural death—till it ceases to figure in the Board of Health reports; and then they may come with safety.

The Bayou paper, in another number, remarks: Night before last an up-river steamer arrived here with a hundred dock passengers, all unacclimated. We hear of many cases of fever among recently-arrived people, and a large proportion of deaths. It is quite certain that few, if any of the new-comers will escape the fever, and that of those who take it at least one half will die. The fever now rages in its most malignant form. It is indeed lamentable to see people thus madly rushing into the jaws of death. But if they will do so it can't be helped. Their lives are their own.

The cant-get-away club, of Mobile, reported as follows on Saturday week:

The Executive Committee report that, since the 14th inst., twenty cases of yellow fever have received assistance from the Club, of which seven have recovered and been discharged, three have died and two now under treatment. Ten cases of other diseases have also been attended to by the members of the Club. Thus far, no cases of yellow fever have been brought to the knowledge of the Committee in the 1st and 4th Wards, only one in the 7th Ward, one in the 3d Ward, and all the others in the 5th and 6th Wards. The Committee have made frequent inquiries into the health of their respective Wards, and that our conclusions accord with what they understand to be the impression of the physicians, that the disease now prevailing is of a mild and manageable character, and that there is no cause for much alarm.

The Vicksburg Whig of Tuesday last reports: There were two deaths in the city last week from yellow fever. There were nine deaths at the city hospital during the week, eight of which were from yellow fever. We regret to have to state that several new cases have developed themselves within the city limits in the past few days.

The Plaquemine (La.) Sentinel says: The fact is too palpable to be denied, and we are now pained to confess that the fever is among us. There are now at this time, we learn, about twelve cases in town, all in one particular section—embraced between Grand street, the Bayou Lyons and the river. Two deaths, we have heard, occurred since, and others are reported to have occurred. All these cases were foreign and unacclimated persons—with maybe an exception of two with respect to the unacclimated.

The Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, of last Thursday, says: In our last weekly report the number of deaths from any or all diseases was ten. This week the number is eight, being two less than the preceding week. We hear of no new cases, and sincerely trust that the pestilence has done its work.

The same paper says: The uncomfortably warm weather in the days, accompanied by almost equally uncomfortable chilly nights, we suppose, has added materially to the spread of yellow fever in our city since Saturday. We have heard of three new cases in this immediate neighborhood since Saturday. Three deaths of the fever have occurred since our last report, and there may be others that have not come to our knowledge. We have no means of ascertaining the precise state of the public health, our only dependence for information being from conversation with acquaintances.

The Plaquemine (Iberville) Gazette, of the 25th ult., speaking of the fever in that town, says: As we stated last week, our citizens procured a very favorable house, situated on the river bank, which they appropriated to a hospital, and where the Relief Association immediately conveyed all the destitute, and where every attention was given them. On Thursday, three nurses were sent up by the Howards of New Orleans, when all but three of the former nurses were discharged. There have been twelve deaths since our last issue, and about three or four cases, one of whom has recovered. Those who have died are all, we believe, either foreign or unacclimated persons. We have heard of no instance where an old citizen or native has been taken with the epidemic. One of the yellow fever deaths since our last issue was that of A R Atchison, said to be a son or near relative of Senator Atchison, of Missouri. He appeared to be not more than eighteen years of age. He arrived here in a destitute condition, and in a few days thereafter was discovered in an old stable, with the fever upon him.

At Baton Rouge on the 24th, out of forty-two cases in the hospital, eleven had died of the fever. Point Coupee, Concordia and Harrisonburg (Catahoula,) are reported healthy.

The total number of cases that have come under the care of the Howard Association in New Orleans is 2,362. The total number of deaths in that city for the week ending Saturday last was 619, of whom 444 died of yellow fever. Two hundred of the whole number were natives of the United States, 135 were Irish, 124 German, and 195 not reported. The Picayune of Tuesday last says:

The work opens with a fair degree of activity, and to look at the bustling thoroughfares, the large receipts of cotton and other produce, the numerous arrivals from sea, and the increasing activity on the levee, no one would imagine that we had any disease in our midst. The fact of it is, business progresses without much regard to the epidemic, which is now on the decline, and will very soon have run its course. Unacclimated persons, however, should keep away, as there are plenty of competent persons in New Orleans to do all the work that may be required.

The Vicksburg Southron, of Wednesday, says: We have no death from yellow fever to report this morning, and so far as we could learn last night, there were no new cases of fever in private practice. In the hospital the constant supply of fresh material cast upon our levee, is well represented.

At Charleston, on the 23d ult., was celebrated as a day of public prayer and humiliation, ordered by the authorities in view of the epidemic, with which the city is afflicted.

☞ Refer to SPEED, DONOHO & STRANGE's column.

☞ Attention is directed to the advertisement of "True Turf Oil." It is all it claims to be.

☞ For sale, a small family residence, just outside of the corporation, immediately east of the Memphis and Charleston depot. A bargain will be given if application is made soon at the APPEAL office.

The Traveling Community.

A remedy such as BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS cannot be too highly recommended. To the traveling community, especially, it is certainly an invaluable remedy; having little or no exercise, constantly exposed, and subject to the effects of a change of climate and water, they require some pleasant medicine of this kind to regulate the bowels.

Monetary and Financial

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SATURDAY, October 2, 1858.

Cotton—Receipts of the past five days, including yesterday, 1,195 bales; exports, 1,000 bales; stock, 106,000 bales. The market has been quiet and steady during the week, with a slight advance in the quotations. We quote fair to middling at 11½@12c, and the receipts have been very large. We travel 1-16c higher than last week's quotations for good cotton, and probably an additional two hundred bales were sold at that price. The steamboat Hill took out 600 bales for New Orleans.

Interior.....7 @8c | Middling.....11 @11¼
Ordinary.....8 @9½c | Good Middling.....11 9-16@11¾
Good ordinary.....10 @10½c | Middling Fair.....UN@11¾
Low Middling.....10 @10½c | Fair.....nominal.

Flour—We quote fair to good family at $5 25@5 50, and the demand has been quite active to day, and the supply of offerings of it is light. Prices have ruled firm, particularly since the receipt of the Pike County advices, but are without any quotable advance. We have to-day a very cheering advance, the arrival of the cotton in Liverpool was active with sales of 20,000 bales in two days at an advance of ¼d. We accept this as a hope in regard to the new crop, thinking it is the safe in regard to prices. There are many who imagine that cotton will yet experience a material rise, even if the cotton crop should attain the highest conceived figures that have yet been named. In this opinion they are confirmed by the very fair prices of cotton, by the satisfactory condition of the districts both of hands and animal, and the increased consumption of fabrics that must result from the opening of the China trade.

The sum paper of the 29th, say: The market has been very active for cotton, with a good deal more cash, and the business has fallen off in about 4,000 bales. Holders have claimed very full prices, but the Continent has been prompted at the range of our last quotations.

The N. Y. Enquirer says: One of the great features of the commercial world is the renewed and steady demand for cotton, a demand that increases with a much greater ratio than the increase of production. The European demands are such as to far outstrip any supply that can be reasonably expected to meet them for a few years to come. Without the available cotton from Egypt, East Africa and South America, the demand would be in vain if not enough to meet the growing demands in Europe.

Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SATURDAY, October 2, 1858.

COTTON—Receipts and Sales yesterday. We have received no sales of cotton for future delivery, nothing generally of which better than the quotations of last report can be had. The stock here is nearly large. We travel 1-16c higher than last week's quotations for good cotton, and probably an additional two hundred bales were sold at that price. The steamboat Hill took out 600 bales for New Orleans.

FLOUR—We quote fair to good family at $5 25@5 50, and the demand has been quite active to day, and the supply of offerings of it is light. Prices have ruled firm, particularly since the receipt of the Pike County advices, but are without any quotable advance. We have to-day a very cheering advance, the arrival of the cotton in Liverpool was active with sales of 20,000 bales in two days at an advance of ¼d. We accept this as a hope in regard to the new crop, thinking it is the safe in regard to prices. There are many who imagine that cotton will yet experience a material rise, even if the cotton crop should attain the highest conceived figures that have yet been named. In this opinion they are confirmed by the very fair prices of cotton, by the satisfactory condition of the districts both of hands and animal, and the increased consumption of fabrics that must result from the opening of the China trade.

The sum paper of the 29th, say: The market has been very active for cotton, with a good deal more cash, and the business has fallen off in about 4,000 bales. Holders have claimed very full prices, but the Continent has been prompted at the range of our last quotations.

The N. Y. Enquirer says: One of the great features of the commercial world is the renewed and steady demand for cotton, a demand that increases with a much greater ratio than the increase of production. The European demands are such as to far outstrip any supply that can be reasonably expected to meet them for a few years to come. Without the available cotton from Egypt, East Africa and South America, the demand would be in vain if not enough to meet the growing demands in Europe.
