VILLAGE ELECTION.

The election of village officers took place last Monday under the provisions of the new law and passed off very quietly. There were three tickets in the field—Village, Citizens' and People's. Party politics did not "cut any figure" with the average citizen. Of the 148 votes polled only 133 were properly cast. Many features about the new way of voting are very commendable. It does away with the army of workers which has always been a source of annoyance to the honest voter. There is no way to "doctor" a ticket and each man votes as he pleases. Below is a full report of Monday's election:

ARE YOU GOING?

20,000,000 visitors, at least, are expected at the Columbian Exposition; and whether you expect to be one of them or not, as an American, naturally you are interested in the preparations for the grand event. A splendid paper in DeForest's Family Magazine for April, "The Evolution of a Great Exposition," is the best thing of the kind that has yet been published. From it you may learn all the interesting points about the coming World's Fair, and the illustrations are simply superb, including a comprehensive view and the plan of the grounds, pictures of all the magnificent buildings, and portraits of some of the leading officers having it in charge. "A talk about Trees and Arbor Day" is a timely and deeply interesting paper, profusely illustrated with pictures of the favorite trees planted in different sections of the United States, so accurately delineated that each may be easily recognized when met with; "German without a Master" furnishes invaluable suggestions for the study of that useful language; "The International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons," a paper by the General Secretary of the Central Council, Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson, gives facts and incidents most charmingly interwoven; "A Snap Shot at Washington Etiquette" furnishes an insight of the rules that govern society at our national capital; "Easter Legends and Customs" is especially interesting, and "Easter Novelties" furnishes suggestions for all the Easter gifts one may want to make. Besides, there are splendid stories, every department is full of good things, and there are over 200 handsome illustrations; and every month's magazine is just as good, and the subscription price is only $2 a year. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St. New York City.
