☞ Rev. Dr. BARKER will preach at the Christian Church this morning at 11 o'clock.

☞ Mr. MITCHELL, of this vicinity, left in our office yesterday, a sweet potatoe two feet in length. It is a curiosity of its kind.

PERSONAL.—Maj. Ben. McCULLOCH, of Texas, has arrived in the city and taken rooms at the Worsham House.

DR BOW'S REVIEW.—The October number of this magazine has been received. It contains its usual variety of matter of great interest to Southern merchants and agriculturists.

BOARDERS.—Mr. MALLORY, who keeps the city jail had eighty one boarders at supper last evening, he says his family is splendid in quantity but very indifferent in quality.

THANKS.—We have almost daily to thank the proprietors and the gentlemanly and courteous clerk in this city, of the great house of Adams & Co.'s Express office, for very late Eastern papers.

TENNESSEE BONDS.—At the New York Stock Exchange on Tuesday, fifteen thousand Tennessee Bonds were sold at ninety-one, and twenty thousand at ninety-one and a quarter, an advance.

THEATRE.—At the Gaiety, to-morrow night, the finished Irish comedian, Mr. John Drew, will make his appearance in two highly popular pieces. The plays are Black Eyed Susan and The People's Attorney, an attractive bill.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had eighteen cases before him for adjudication yesterday, generally they were without interest for the public. JOHN STARKS for having a deadly weapon concealed upon his person was fined ten dollars.

ALARMS.—The alarm at six o'clock last night, was caused by the fire at the corner of Overton and Main streets breaking out again. The second alarm, at half past ten, originated in a blaze seen in the country, beyond the head of Poplar street.

THE CAMPBELLS.—These popular minstrels have been received with the most enthusiastic applause from crowded houses. An evening cannot be more agreeably spent than at these concerts. The ladies attend in large numbers, and none appear to enjoy the fine singing better than they.

☞ Our friend, PHILIP FLAVIN, has just received a full assortment of the celebrated Stodart Pianos, for which he is sole agent in this city, and which he is selling at New York prices. We advise purchasers to pay him a visit, at No. 20 Madison street. See his advertisement in the proper column.

EXTRA TRAINS.—During the fair that will be held the coming week, extra trains will be run on the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, to the grounds every half hour, starting from the depot on Main street. The fair will be only ten cents. The arrangement has been made by the superintendent H. COFFIN, Esq., for the public accommodation.

SUNDAY APPEAL AND LETTER LIST.—The publication of the Letter List is awarded by law to the paper having the largest circulation. The APPEAL, having established its claim to a circulation larger than any other paper in the city, is the paper, and the only one, in which this important advertisement appears. It is published regularly in our SUNDAY EDITION, and will be found in this morning's paper.

☞ About 3 o'clock yesterday morning some fend endeavored to destroy the residence of Mrs. SAMUEL JONES, on Linden street, by kindling a fire on the front porch next to the weatherboarding. Fortunately a gentleman passed by before the flames had spread to any extent, and was enabled to extinguish the fire. But for this, the house would inevitably been destroyed. It behooves every one to be watchful, as our city is evidently infested with a band of incendiaries.

☞ We have received the first number of a new paper, the White River Arkansian, published at Batesville, Arkansas, by Messrs. CLAIBORNE and SINS. It is neat in typographical appearance and well filled with interesting matter. It is thoroughly Democratic, and will prove, in the hands of its enterprising proprietors, a valuable auxiliary in the great Democratic army of journals of which our sister State can already boast. Our new contemporary has our best wishes for its triumphant success.

FEDERAL COURT AT JACKSON—ABLE CASE. We learn the ABLE case, in which a number of our citizens are concerned, was, day before yesterday, continued to the next term of the Court, at the instance and on the affidavit of ABLE. The plea in abatement, involving his residence and right to be a party in that Court, was not decided.

On the same day, the case of Cheek vs. the city of Memphis, was argued, and given to the jury. Our informant thinks the jury will give Capt. CHEEK some damages, but doubts whether they will reach the amount ($10,000) claimed by the complainant.

THE ST. LOUIS ROUTE.—It will be seen, by an advertisement we insert this morning, that Messrs DUVAL, ALGEO & CO., have been constituted the Agents of the St. Louis route to the East and North, receipting through to all points accessible by railway or boats. The great superiority of this route, its cheapness, punctuality and speed, have been universally recognized, and each boat of the splendid St. Louis packet line is carrying off thousands of bales of cotton. The firm of DUVAL, ALGEO & Co., possess every facility for conducting satisfactorily this important agency, and the Company have done well to secure agents so reliable and liberal.

COOL AND COMFORTABLE.—There has been during the past week a deficiency in the supply of ice in this city, and many have had to drink their water and juleps in a state more warm than comfortable. We are happy to have it in our power to state that Messrs. DUVAL, ALGEO & Co. have resolved to change this state of things, and to take upon themselves the supply of the entire city. This morning the steamer Admiral leaves St. Louis for Memphis with two hundred and forty tons of ice, which DUVAL, ALGEO & Co. will distribute throughout the whole city. This, however, is not the whole of the good news—no advance will be made in the price.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning a woman occupying a small tenement, the property of Michael FITZGIBBON, at the corner of Main and Overton streets, locked out her children while she went into the city on business. It appears some wood had been put in the stove that was too long for it; the ends projected, and when the middle was burned it fell to the floor, and nobody being present to attend to it, the place was set on fire. The house was consumed. The flames communicated to the grocery next door, and to the residence connected with it, the whole being occupied by Mr. BREUER. This place was also consumed, but much of the furniture and stock were got out. The house was insured in the Ætna; FITZGIBBONS' house was not insured. A house at the back of FITZGIBBONS' was also considerably scorched and burned at one end. The firemen were present, and did good service; but the houses being merely one-story frames, were soon consumed. It was rumored that two children were burned, but that was an error.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

SATURDAY, October 9, 1858

The river is getting very low, and continues to fall slowly. The day was cool, with indications of approaching rain. Business at the landing was very lively.

The Kate Frisbee is undergoing a thorough repair and renovation; she will be docked and put into first rate condition, from the hull to the pilot house. The Langley will take her place, and the St. Francis will take the place of the Langley. The St. Francis will leave to-morrow on her first trip, carrying freight passengers, and the United States mail to Napoleon. An excellent opportunity for down river travelers.

The fine boat Philadelphia, Capt. Marshall, commander, is the regular packet for St. Louis, leaving our wharf at 6 o'clock this evening. A more enjoyable occasion than traveling on such a boat as the Philadelphia, with a captain so full of the milk of human kindness as Marshall, is an enjoyment that will gratify the traveler.

The Alvin Adams, Capt. Lamb, commander, Halliday and Morgan, clerks, is the regular Cairo packet to-morrow; leaving at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Adams runs in connection with the Louisville and Cincinnati river boats.

The first class boat, Nebraska, is the New Orleans boat to-morrow. She will leave at 4 o'clock in the evening.

A WITNESS DRUGGED IN ST. LOUIS.—On Wednesday evening last, Dr. KIMBRO was called into the Gayoso House to attend a gentleman there who was very sick. On examining the party, he found some very peculiar symptoms. There was a profound depression of the system, the nervous energy was entirely relaxed, and the pupils of the eye contracted and dilated in an extraordinary manner. In reply to the Doctor's inquiries, the patient said that his name was CHARLES RAMMELSBURG, he was a resident of St. Louis, in which city he had been held in two thousand dollars bond to attend as witness at the trial of Louis STEIN, who stands charged with having counterfeited the coin of the United States. Mr. RAMMELSBURG was the principal witness against the man, and the only one who could depose to the most important facts of the case. On Saturday of last week, he returned to St. Louis from the North, where he had been traveling, for the purpose of attending the trial, and he informed the sheriff of the fact. A very near member of his family, however, so bamboozled, in the most persevering manner, to induce him to absent himself from the trial; these solicitations he treated as they deserved. On Sunday last he was introduced to a citizen of St. Louis, who stands in a respectable position there, and, at his invitation, went out to drink with him at the bar of a steamboat lying in port. He drank, perhaps, twice; after the last drink, he remembers little or nothing, until he opened his eyes and found himself lying among the deck passengers of a steamboat which had just touched at Cairo. He felt horribly sick, his head was reeling, his body trembling, and his consciousness imperfect and fluctuating. He was too much under the influence of some poisonous narcotic, or other drug which had doubtless been put in his liquor, to make any inquiries or explain his situation. When the boat reached this city he contrived to crawl on shore and take refuge in the Gayoso. His situation was very distressing, for he had but one dollar with him. Doctor KIMBRO, however, kindly attended him, and the Gayoso did not fail to extend to him a generous hospitality. The Sheriff of St. Louis was informed of the fact of Mr. RAMMELSBURG being in the city on the first opportunity, by telegraph, and last evening he left on his return for that place, where those who thus strove to prevent him giving testimony against a desperate man, who had broken the laws of his country, will be brought to a just account.

THE MYSTERY.—No new revelations respecting the mysterious infanticide and its strange surroundings were made yesterday. The mysterious house on the Raleigh road, beyond the bayou bridge, is gazed at by numerous visitors with intense curiosity, and the beech tree on the Alabama road, with the shallow grave beneath it, are objects of much attention and scrutiny. No clue has yet been discovered as to who was the murderer of the babe buried in the candle box.

SPIRITUALISM.—THOS GALES FOSTER, trance speaker, will lecture on the above subject at Odd Fellows' Hall, to-day at half past ten o'clock, A. M., and half past seven, P. M. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

☞ Refer to SPEED, DONOHO & STRANGE'S column.

☞ Attention is directed to the advertisement of "True Turf Oil." It is all it claims to be.

☞ For sale, a small family residence, just outside of the corporation, immediately east of the Memphis and Charleston depot. A bargain will be given if application is made soon at the APPEAL office.

NERVOUSNESS, OR WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND. If any of our readers are troubled with Nervousness or Weakness of any kind, they should procure a bottle of "BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS." We have tried it, and can recommend it confidently, as a medicine giving almost instantaneous relief.—Daily Enterprise.

"His command of language was immense. With him died the secret of the old poetical dialect of England—the art of producing rich effects by familiar words. Transplanted and most nearly part of language became worthless at his touch. His versification in the same manner while it rans the first model of that beautiful and peculiar which the following generation endeavored so highly, exhibited at the same time that last examples of noble ease, freedom, (and) variety of pause and cadence."

Great Reduction in Prices of Pianos.

HAVING determined to close out all the Pianos at our establishment (and our establishment in particular) headquarters for the sale of PIANOS in the Southern country, we have made such arrangements with the manufacturers of Pianos, that we will be enabled to make at least 10 per cent deduction from the usual prices on all Pianos sold by us. To be thoroughly convinced that we are selling the BEST Pianos cheaper than has ever before been offered in Memphis. Purchasers will oblige us by examining the Pianos, and ascertain the prices at oct7 McKINNEY & CO'S.

Lighte, Newton & Bradbury's Pianos.

NINE superior PIANOS just received from the establishment of Messrs. Lichte, Newton & Bradbury, which we are offering at New York prices. From the acquired reputation of these Piano Fortes, further notice from us will not be necessary. With every assurance that purchasers will get a No 1 Piano, we submit them for their inspection. [oct7] McKINNEY & CO.

Raven, Bacon & Co.'s Pianos.

EIGHT PIANOS just received from the celebrated establishment of Messrs Hallet, Davis & Co., Boston. These Pianos have the improved Iron Frame Patent Tension Bridge and French action. For touch, tone and durability, they are not surpassed. For sale very low by [oct7] McKINNEY & CO.

Exchange has taken another turn up, and some of the banks are checking at ½ discount on New York and Philadelphia. Bankable funds are scarce, and all present rates of exchange, 5 @ 10 will come here in large sums to supply the place made vacant by the expiration of sundry banks, and the withdrawal of a large part of "Mountain money." Our planting friends may rely upon getting full prices for their cotton, paid in good money, even in gold and silver, if they prefer the specie to paper.
