A good many of our farmers are thinking seriously of using a small boat for the purpose of sowing rice on their land.

Tuesday was Queen Victoria's 73rd birthday and was celebrated in fine style at Sarnia—so the boys who went from here say.

Queen Bess, French Lilac, Apple Blossom, Wild Plum Blossom, and Martha Washington are the best perfumes on earth for sale at Grant Holden & Bro's.

Frank A. Griswold our good looking station agent has as neat a cottage as you will find in town. He has made many improvements about it, the latest a new veranda.

Fred Currier is among those of the village who believe in improvement. He has leveled off his lot and made a lawn in front of his house. Let the good work go on.

We obtain patents for protection, not for ornament. Send for our valuable pamphlet. DuBois & DuBois, Inventive Age Building, Washington, D. C. Mention this paper. 37

J. H. Brien is fitting up ice cream parlors in connection with his bakery and will be ready in a few days to furnish ice cream by the dish or in bulk, at reasonable rates.

The game of base ball which was played last Saturday between our laddies and a team from the country resulted in a town victory. Score 4 to 32. The grounds were considerably wet by the recent rains but the boys did well.

George V. Reid has purchased 60 feet of land from Holden & McCall opposite the Commercial House on which he will erect a fine brick livery stable. Who says Yale is not on the boom? We are glad to see George prospering.

The case of B. R. Noble vs. Simon P. Murphy has been decided by the Supreme Court in favor of Noble.

This case was decided in the Circuit Court about two years ago in favor of Murphy and was carried to Supreme Court by Noble.

Do our citizens intend to celebrate the glorious Fourth this year? If so, it is time to begin to make arrangements for it. We might just as well have a good time and let outsiders see there is lots of life in Yale. Some one start the ball rolling.

FARM FOR SALE.—Containing 80 acres, more or less, near the thriving village of Yale; 60 acres under cultivation, 12 acres of beach and maple. Good buildings, fences, orchard and wells of water. For further particulars call on or address JOHN CHENEY, Yale. 3-4.

The printing fraternity will do well to look out for a man who signs "Frank Barnwell, 105 East 132 street, New York City." He is selling to the fraternity a color printing receipt which is worthless, and he also gets the order on misrepresentation.—Holly Advertiser.

There can be but one opinion as to whether a business can be carried on successfully without advertising. The man who expects people to patronize him when he does not advertise, might just as well sit in a pasture lot with a tin pail, expecting the cows to come to him to get milked.—Ex.

The Secretary of State has just issued his crop report for the month of May. In the report it is claimed that 11 per cent of the wheat acreage of St. Clair county will be plowed up on account of its being winter killed or otherwise destroyed. The prospects for a peach and apple crop are good.

A retired farmer, who has time to try experiments and note the results, says for the last three years he has planted a bean or two in each potato hill, and has never seen a bug on the potato tops where beans were grown in the same hill. If this is a protection against the bugs the remedy is simple and will pay for the trouble in the crop of beans.

Married, at the home of her parents in Yale, Wednesday, May 25, 1892, Jessie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Monroe and Albert Garney, of Detroit, the ceremony being performed by W. R. Gillett. The bride couple took the west bound train for Mayville and Vassar where they will make a short visit. There home will be in Detroit. The guests showed their esteem and love by numerous valuable and useful gifts.

Yesterday, while a representative of the EXPOSITOR was in Brockway, he called at A. A. Haskell's roller mills and there had the pleasure of seeing a machine used for dressing rolls. In grinding, the rolls become rough and hollowed in the center, and formerly had to be sent to large manufacturing for repairs, at a great loss of time and money, while with this machine each mill can dress its own rolls.

The dresser was invented by D. J. Davidson, miller at that place, who told us that in a mill of the capacity of the one at Brockway, his machine would at least lessen the expenses $100 each year.

While out in the country one day last week, we called on Chas. Williams, a prosperous farmer living one mile north and one and three quarters east. While there he showed an oddity in the plant-line, a freak of nature, seemingly. A geranium had been frozen down to a small stalk, but supposing it would grow up from the root, some care was given it and when finally it began to grow there were three distinct varieties of geranium. One part had green foliage, another white and the third is what is called "snow on the mountain." The plant is very handsome and it is a mystery how it should grow in that way as nothing was done to it.

There will be Union Memorial services at the M. P. church Sunday evening.

McPhee & Fletcher want 10,000 pounds of wool delivered at their elevator in Melvin for which they will pay the highest cash price.

Those who enjoy dancing should remember C. F. Michaels' May Ball to be given in his hall next Monday evening. Everybody invited and a good time guaranteed. Bill, only $1.00.

Born, in Yale, on Monday, May 23, to the wife of Justin Robinson, a daughter. This family having so recently sustained the loss of their little girl, this little one seems to have been sent to fill the place thus made vacant.

Remember the horse races at Port Huron Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 7, 8, 9 and 10. Purses, $2,600. Entries will close Monday, May 30th. You may look for an interesting time providing the weather is fair.

A Jersey Cow at your own price. Will sell from 5 to 9 head of Jersey cattle, on Wednesday, June 8th, 1892, at 2 o'clock P. M., at my residence in Speaker, Mich. Terms—5 months time on good approved joint notes with 8 per cent interest. ASKNEW MOORE.

In a letter from George E. Effrick, of Chicago, we learn that he has changed his address to 5755 South Halsted street. It also contained one dollar to pay for the EXPOSITOR another year. Thanks! Such contributions make us smile. Let others follow suit and keep us good-natured all the time.

The Yale Driving Park Association held a meeting in the Rapley House sample room Wednesday evening at which time Jason Clark was appointed to look after the buildings on the grounds and see that they are not destroyed by boys of destructive habits, and to report all boys who are found in the enclosure without permission.

A wealthy old bachelor of Liberty township, Porter county, Ind., has advertised in the public prints in effect that for the next 30 days he is open to sealed proposals of marriage from eligible candidates, but ladies inclined to disturbing domestic traits or extravagant tastes are warned not to compete. He should have added that he reserved the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

The Albany Telegram, May 28, will be printed on an army blue paper, especially designed for the Decoration Day number alone, and will contain original poems, sketches and stories by leading Grand Army officers and prominent "old Vets" from all parts of the country. It will also be very profusely and elegantly illustrated. The entire 16 pages will be sent by mail for 5 cents. Address, THE TELEGRAM, Albany, N. Y.

Many advertisers do not understand why custom cannot be directly traced to the source where they expended their money to obtain it. Business is like a river with many tributaries, in which it is impossible to trace every individual drop of water to the spring from whence it came. Temporary advertisements in a small way will not produce an immediate or permanent increase of business, any more than a light shower will effect the depth of water in a well.
