THE APPEAL.

First Baptist Church Difficulties—Trial of Rev. J. R. Graves.

From the Nashville Banner.]

We published in our issue of the 10th inst., that charges had been preferred by members of the First Baptist Church of this city, against the Rev. J. R. Graves, editor of the Tennessee Baptist, and the trial set for hearing before the congregation of the First Baptist Church, in the basement of the Church, to commence on Tuesday, the 12th inst. Long before the hour appointed for the trial, it was ascertained that the basement of the church would not be large enough to contain the immense crowd flocking to the church, and it was deemed necessary to hold the proceedings in the upper room of the church, and even then before the time of opening the meeting the church was crowded from vestibule to gallery.

Dr. C. K. Winston, having been previously appointed Moderator for the occasion, at the proper time, took his position and opened the meeting by reading a portion of scripture and prayer. He then proceeded to explain the object of the meeting, and announced that the Church had met for the purpose of trying the Rev. J. R. Graves, upon charges preferred against him by members of the First Baptist Church, and directed the Clerk to read the record of the proceedings he had so far in the case, including the charges. The record was then read and approved.

Rev. Mr. Perry, from Murfreesboro', then presented the response of the Baptist Church at Murfreesboro' to a document sent by this Church to the Murfreesboro' Church; also the response of Rev. J. M. Pendleton, to a letter addressed to himself.

Mr. Rutland submitted a motion that the documents presented by the Rev. Mr. Perry be read.

Mr. Fuller submitted a motion to lay by the documents upon the table, which motion prevailed.

Mr. Rutland inquired whether there were any other communications bearing upon the trial under consideration.

The Moderator stated that there were.

Mr. Rutland moved that these communications be read. The motion was defeated.

The Clerk then read a paper containing additional charges against Mr. Graves, signed by S. M. Scott and A. Nelson.

It was moved and seconded that the charges be entertained; which motion prevailed. Thereupon the Moderator declared that the Church decided to entertain these charges.

Mr. Fuller submitted a motion that the charges previously preferred against Rev. J. R. Graves, and set for hearing to-night, be now taken up and considered. Motion concurred in.

The charges having been read by the Clerk, the Moderator called upon Mr. Graves to state whether he admitted or denied the charges.

Mr. Graves—"I deny."

The Moderator then stated that it would devolve upon the prosecution to establish the charges.

Mr. Graves inquired if he would be allowed to answer these charges; he said they were grave and serious charges made, and he desired to answer them.

The Moderator stated that at the proper time he would be allowed ample opportunity to make his defense, but that there was no motion before the Church, and until a motion was submitted he could not be heard.

Mr. Graves then protested against the trial, and appealed to the Church to hear him in his defense.

The Moderator stated that if Mr. Graves desired to be heard now, a motion to non-suit the charges for informality could be made, when he could make any statement he desired.

Mr. Rutland thereupon submitted a motion that the charges preferred against Mr. Graves be remanded back on account of informality—declaring that the scriptural steps had not been taken.

The Moderator decided the motion in order, and that Mr. Graves could now be heard.

Mr. Graves then walked to the platform, and stated that he had something to say in regard to this trial, and to enter into the midst not be misrepresented, he had committed what he had to say to writing, which he then read in form of a "protest" against the proceedings already had in the case, and against any further proceedings in the matter, until scriptural grounds had been taken to settle the difficulty—until, as he demanded, the requirements of the New Testament should be complied with—the law governing such cases should be regarded. He urged that the trial, if any trial should be continued, and defended them at considerable length.

Mr. Graves stated during the discussion that Dr. Howell's treatment of himself, (Graves,) shows his relative ideas of justice, had been unjust and oppressive—that he had evidence that he had tried to injure his christian, personal and private character.

Dr. Howell interrupted him and demanded the proof.

Mr. Graves read Howden's certificates and desired to read others, but was requested to suspend.

He also stated that he did not wish to avoid an investigation into the charges—that he was ready, willing, and able to answer them, but that he wished to be tried by the laws governing such cases.

Dr. Howell took the floor and replied in a speech intended to answer and refute all Mr. Graves' objections—claimed that the proper steps had been taken. Gave an account of the origin of the difficulty—claimed that Mr. Graves should have sought a reconciliation according to the requirements of the New Testament in such cases—that he had been unjustly defamed in the Tennessee Baptist, while he had said and written nothing, and demanded a public trial—hoped that the Church would proceed with the trial—thought the interests of the Church demanded it.

Mr. Graves made a rejoinder, and in addition to his own arguments in defense of his "Protest," read several personal exegetical letters from distinguished Baptist Divines on the subject of the New Testament law, which he claimed had been disregarded.

Dr. Howell replied by dissenting from all he said generally, and stated that the opinions of the gentlemen just read were formed from statements made in the "Tennessee Baptist," which he claimed were incorrect and therefore the opinions erroneous.

Mr. McIntosh inquired whether Mr. Graves asked for more time to prepare.

Mr. Graves referred to his "Protest."

The Moderator then stated the question before the Church to be: Shall this whole matter be remanded, because the Scriptural steps have not been pursued.

The ayes and nays were demanded, which resulted in forty-one votes for remanding and ninety-eight for proceeding with the trial.

Mr. Graves requested that the Protest just rejected should be spread upon the minutes.

The Moderator informed him that if reporter had been appointed, and that the Protest would appear in the recorded proceedings of the trial.

Mr. Graves then, after a few remarks in regard to the proceedings just had, announced his withdrawal from the Church—said he could not fellowship with that Church any longer.

The Moderator stated that Mr. Graves had said that the Baptist form of Church government was the only pure democracy in the world, and that the only way to get out of a Baptist Church was by death or exclusion.

Mr. Graves replied that when a Church tramples upon the Law of Christ it becomes a faction, not a Church.

Dr. Howell moved to adjourn until Wednesday evening at 7½ o'clock.

Dr. Dayton urged amid some excitement the withdrawal of the motion, in order that he might read a short paper.

Mr. Rutland also desired to read a paper.

The mover objected, that it was too late, and refused to withdraw.

Dr. Dayton requested the congregation to remain after the meeting was adjourned.

The meeting was then closed by prayer.

ANOTHER MEETING.

SUNDAY NIGHT, 23 O'clock.

At the conclusion of the proceedings of the above meeting, those persons requested to remain, having voted in the preceding meeting against entertaining the charges against the Rev. J. R. Graves, proceeded to organize by calling the Rev. Mr. Kimbrough to the chair, and requesting Mr. Shanklands to act as clerk.

The chairman, after reading the psalm and prayer, declared the meeting organized and ready for business.

Mr. Rutland then presented a paper for the consideration of the body, styled "A Declaration," which claimed, for reasons set forth in the document, that the persons whose names are subscribed compose the First Baptist Church worshiping in this city, they considering the majority, who voted for sustaining the charges as contrary to the rules of the New Testament, and are therefore factionists. The "Declaration" was adopted and signed by between fifteen and twenty members of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Graves requested the body to call a council of two ministers from each Church in the Judson Association to act with them in investigating and deciding upon the charges brought against him.

The meeting then adjourned, to meet Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

☞ The Holly Springs Herald of the 16th inst., has the following. The suggestion that the ticket office of the Railroad should be kept open an hour or two before the cars leave is a good one, and we respectfully commend it to the Superintendent:

POCKET PICKED.—On Tuesday night last, whilst we were in the throng, trying to procure our ticket at the Memphis and Charleston depot, in Memphis, some expert gentleman lifted our pocket book from our pocket. The contents of the pocket book were about $80 in Pinkster's bank money, and some $23 in gold. We were on the alert, and our hand was not out of our pocket more than one minute during the time we were in the crowd, but during that unfortunate minute we were left dollarless. We have traveled over a considerable portion of the world—have seen our way through countries infested with robbers, bandits and guerrillas—have traveled whole days with our hand to the trigger of our gun, expecting an attack from guerrillas—have slept whole nights with our bowie knife under our head—have gone to bed in our arms, expecting to lose our scalp before morning, and we must confess, with sorrow, that Memphis is the first and only place that we have ever robbed of a dollar. This loss, which is a heavy one on the editor, as most of the money belonged to another, we attribute solely to the abominable practice of keeping of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad hack, of keeping the ticket office closed until a very few minutes before the cars start. This causes a rush to the office as soon as it is opened, and it is in such crowds that those light-fingered gentry commit their thefts. The office should be opened at least one or two hours before the departure of the cars, which would give all ample time to procure their tickets, without crowding round as they now have to do. We have no doubt that similar robberies are committed, at this depot every night, for another pocket was picked of $60 only a few moments before our money was stolen.

The University has recently very largely increased its facilities for practical instruction in the mechanical department, having received costly apparatus and cabinets of mechanicals and models for the illustration of subjects of science, and having materially enlarged its accommodations for the comfort as well as for the improvement of its students.

The institution is located in one of the most healthful regions in the entire south, and is surrounded by a population remarkable for intelligence, morality and a religious spirit.

Being on the line of the Mississippi Central Railroad, it is accessible from the north and the south, and by the connections of the road with a wide district of country.

Tuition $100 per annum. Board and Servant hire, $25. Students not lodging in the College, $10. The fee here-before charged for fuel and servants was inadequate.

Lee Stickney, Assistant, will board at the hall and in private families about $12 per month. These charges are repeatedly lower than those of Colleges offering similar advantages. JAMES M. ROWRY, Cheap Plantation for Sale.

I OFFER my plantation for sale, lying three miles northwest of LaGrange, Tenn., containing Eight Hundred and Nineteen Acres, (819.) This place was formerly owned by Capt. Thos. Polk, and at present is rented by Mr. K. H. Cotterell. It is now in a high state of cultivation, well adapted to the production of cotton and all kind of grain, easily growing, and could easily be converted into one of the most valuable stock farms in the west, being divided into four large fields. The improvements are the usual one-story dwelling house of 6 log, and has four large rooms; cabins (comfortable) for twenty or thirty negroes, gin, cribs, stables, and all other necessary buildings; a good well of water, and one of the best selections of fruit in the country. There is one of the most commanding and beautiful sites to build a fine house in the county, being high and elevated and surrounded by a beautiful grove. The purchaser will be convenient to both the male and female colleges in LaGrange, and can save the expense of boarding his children as well as having the pleasure of their company at home. I have more land than I can cultivate which is the only inducement to sell. Any one wishing a bargain in land can not do better in West Tennessee. Call and examine the land as I am determined to sell. It can be found at my residence three miles north of LaGrange, and will take pleasure in showing it to any one wishing to purchase.

SALE OF LAND AND NEGROES, IN SOUTH ARKANSAS.

BY virtue of authority given in a deed of trust executed to me by G. M. Watson, on the day of sale, and recorded in Columbia county, Arkansas, I offer for sale about lying in Columbia county, on the waters of the Smackover Creek, about thirty miles from Camden. One body of this land contains some two thousand acres, and four hundred of which are opened. The other, of some five hundred acres, has, perhaps, a hundred opened. On the latter is a Water-Mill, and other buildings, to the accommodation of a small force; but the overseer and negroes living upon the larger tract, have heretofore cultivated both together. There are

2,500 Acres of Land,

Forty-Five or Fifty Slaves,

About twenty of them field hands. None are very old. They have been well treated, are more likely than common, and are increasing rapidly.

I will also sell the Crops (except Cotton) made this year, the Stock, Plantation Tools and all other personal property on the Place.

I would prefer selling Land and Negroes to one purchaser; and if arrangements satisfactory to me are made, such a purchaser can get a reasonable credit on a portion of the money. But having determined to sell, I offer the Negroes individually and the Land in one third cash, the balance in two equal installments, on a credit of two and three years, bearing eight percent interest—the interest on the deferred payments to be paid annually.

A portion of the land and slaves are under mortgage to secure a debt of about eight thousand dollars to I. W. Hoon, of New Orleans.

J. H. Alpers is the manager upon the place, and to him, and to C. L. McRae, of Mount Holly, Union county, I refer persons who wish to examine the property. I expect to be on the place or in this neighborhood, by the middle of December next.

My post office is "Trenhilm's Depot, Lewis, Va." When in Arkansas my post office will be, "Lisbonville, Columbia county, Ark." THOS. S. WATSON, oct6-dawtm Trustee.
