THE DAILY APPEAL.

THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY, ... OCTOBER 21, 1858.

☞ Two or three local notices were inadvertently left out of our paper yesterday.

WEEKLY CLUB AT HERNANDO.—We are indebted to the kindness of Mr. G. W. NAIL for a club of ten subscribers to our mammoth WEEKLY to be sent to Hernando

☞ We tender our thanks to the steamer R. W. Adams for full files of late New Orleans papers. The Adams will leave for the Crescent City this evening.

THEATRICAL.—We learn that a dramatic company, who intend locating at Jackson, Miss., for the coming season, are at present in the city, and will leave here to-morrow evening.

THANKS.—We tender our thanks to the polite and accommodating clerk of the Polar Star for the latest dates from St. Louis; also, to Mr. H. BOORDS, of the Adams Express, for a late New York Herald.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN MISSISSIPPI.—Gov. McWILLIE has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday, November 25th, as a day of thanksgiving throughout our sister State.

SALE OF RACE HORSES.—W. F. HARPER yesterday sold his Yorkshire colt, Hempland, three years old, with his engagements, at auction to the highest bidder. He was knocked off to W. T. CHEATHAM at eleven hundred dollars. ROUNDTREE and BERATHITYT's Albion filly, Ella Moon, the winner of the $2,000 match on Monday last, was bought by W. G. ALEXANDER for four hundred dollars, his being the highest and best bid.

CATCH'S SALES.—M. C. CATCH & Son yesterday sold at auction Capt. A. B. SHAW's residence on Union street for $16,000, and two lots on Gayoso street, (not yet opened,) at $45 per front foot. On Tuesday, the same gentleman sold $45,000 worth of lots for Capt. SHAW on Union and Monroe streets. Dr GILBERT was the purchaser of the residence. To-day CATCH will sell Capt. SHAW's elegant and costly furniture at auction. Sale on the premises. Everybody attend.

IL TROVATORE—ASH'S THEATRE.—The wonderful Buckleys finish their season in Memphis this week, and have saved their choicest morsels for the last three nights. To-night they bring out the burlesque opera of Il Trovatore, which abounds in incidents that furnish a broader scope for travesties than any other the Buckleys have produced here, while we need not remind our readers what may be expected of the music, in the hands of these great artistes. Before the opera, these versatile geniuses give a brilliant melange of burnt-cork-isms, abounding in vocal, instrumental, and terpsichorean gems. There is great anxiety to hear the Trovatore, so we can safely predict an immense throng.

Bawdy Houses.

Can you, Mr. Editor, or any member of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, show any law authorizing the licensing of bawdy houses? If there is any such authority, either in the city charter or State laws, I should like to see it; and I sincerely hope, for the credit of the city, that no member of the Board would so degrade himself as to seriously entertain such proposition. And if there was, those members of the Board who are for them, let them reflect, that some day it may be sole to them, even by their own children, "You voted to license a house of ill fame on a big scale, thereby giving your aid and countenance to such establishments, and if we are ruined by them, let the blame rest upon you and not upon us."

Let it not be said that the city of Memphis shall have an income from houses of prostitution. M.

SHOOTING A MINISTER IN MISSISSIPPI.—We learn that the Rev. P. E Gross, Methodist preacher in charge of the Warren Circuit, Mississippi, was shot at Mount Albon, a few days since, by a man named Fisher. The wound is supposed to be mortal. Fisher has fled. All we could hear of the cause of the shooting was, that Fisher's wife had joined the church lately—and Fisher, meeting Mr. Green, abused him terribly, and finally rolled out a pistol and shot him.—Vicksburg Whig.

MR. HUME IN RUSSIA.—Late European journals represent that Mr. Home, the medium, recently gave an exhibition of his spiritual phenomena that occurred in his presence before the Czar, at St. Petersburg, and that the Czarina was so delighted that she gave him a diamond ring worth six hundred dollars. It was also said that he was offered an hotel if he would here a night at St. Petersburgh, to give sittings, but that he refused, having promised the friends of his Russian wife that he would cease to sit any longer as a medium for spirit manifestation.

SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.—AN IMPORTANT OPINION.—Hon. Judge BRAYMAN, of New York, in a charge which he made to the Grand Jury, on the 6th inst., among other matters to which he directed the attention of that body was the selling of newspapers on Sunday. His remarks show him to be a sensible man. We quote as follows:

"I have noticed that complaints have been made as to the sale of newspapers on Sunday by the newsboys. I regard the obtaining a newspaper on Sunday as a public necessity, and to seek to prevent their distribution, by carriers and newsboys would be equally futile and inexpedient, as well as a violation of that benign interpretation of the law which permits all that conduces to the health, comfort, and well-being of society to be vended. At the same time, I would observe that, when the newsboys or carriers, by their clamor or shouts, create a nuisance, disturbing the peace and quiet of the city, as well as of the religious exercises of the day, they should be checked.

"If our police would display the same activity in ferreting out serious crimes and arresting their prepetrators that they do now in dragging off to the lock-up honest, friendless boys, who seek to make a scanty livelihood by selling papers on a Sunday, the public would be far better served and satisfied. I perceive a far greater destitution which obliges so many more children to go forth on Sunday to glean their bread than a superficial observer would suppose. That they sell papers on Sunday is but a minor evil when violence and fraud pass so frequently unpunished and even unheeded in our midst."

FRANKLIN'S SON.—Speaking of the son of Dr. Franklin, the Newberry Herald, says:

As the name of Franklin is ever prominently before the public, it may not be uninteresting to give some account of his only son, William, about whom we think little is known by the community at large. Unlike his father, whose chief claim is for the invaluable services he rendered his country in her greatest need, the man was from the first to the last a staunch royalist. Before the Revolutionary war he held several civil and military offices of importance. At the commencement of the war he held the office of Governor of New Jersey, which appointment he received in 1772. When the difficulties between the mother country and the colonies were coming to a crisis, he threw his whole influence in favor of loyalty, and endeavored to prevent the Legislative Assembly of New Jersey from sanctioning the proceedings of the General Congress of Philadelphia. These efforts, however, did but little to stay the tide of popular sentiment in favor of resistance to tyranny, and soon rendered his position difficulty. He was deposed from office by the Whigs, to give place to William Livingston, and sent a prisoner to Connecticut, where he remained two years in East Windsor, in the house of Capt. Ebenezer Grant, near where the Theological Seminary now stands. In 1778 he was exchanged, and soon after went to England. There he spent the remainder of his life, receiving a pension from the British Government for the loss he sustained by his fidelity. He died in 1813, at the age of 82.

As might have been expected, his opposition to the cause of liberty, so dear to the heart of his father, produced an estrangement between them. For years they had no intercourse. When, in 1784, the son wrote to his father; in his reply, Dr. Franklin says:

"Nothing has ever hurt me so much, and affected me with such keen sensations as to find myself deserted in my old age by my only son; and not only deserted, but to find him taking up arms against me in a cause wherein my good fame, fortune and life were all at stake."

In his will, also, he alludes to the part his son had acted. After making some bequests, he adds:

"The part he acted against me in the late war, which is of public notoriety, will account for my leaving him no more of an estate he endeavored to deprive me of."

The patriotism of the father stands forth all the brighter when contrasted with the desertion of his son.

THE RACES.—There was a larger attendance at the course yesterday than on any previous day. There were two races—the first for the Jockey Club purse $300, mile heats, three heat in five with four entries, won by ROUNDTREE's Kate Hayes in three straight heats, and the second a Sweepstake for two year olds, mile out, $200 entrance, $50 forfeit, with six entries, three of which started, won by ROUNDTREE's Bill Alexander. The races were well contested and afforded much sport, the last especially, in which there was an interesting struggle between the winner and HARPER's Lexington colt. The betting was more spirited than usual, and a great deal of money changed hands on the result of the first race, in which Nannie Clark was the favorite before starting at 100 to 80. She was evidently in no condition, and came out third in the race.

We have only time to present a summary:

FIRST RACE.—Jockey Club Purse, $300; mile heats; three heats to five. Four entries.

B. F. Cheatham entered (James L. Bradley's) b m Nannie Clark, 4 y., by imp. Glencoe; dam Mary Hall, by Sovereign.....2 2 2

A. P. Boylan entered b. m. Kate Hayes 4 y., by imp. Albion; dam Eudora, by Priam.....1 1 1

Charles Merriweather entered s. h., 4 y., by imp. Ambassador; dam Fraxinella, by imp. Artaxerxes.....3 3 2

Time, 1:51½; 1:51½; 1:49.

SECOND RACE.—Sweepstake for two year olds, dash of a mile; $200 entrance; $50 forfeit; six contributions. W. Roundtree named ch. c. Bill Alexander, by Kyrkham; dam by imp. Glencoe.....1

W. F. Harper named two year old colt, by Lexington, out of Nannie Mae 3 ft.....2

Thomas B. Poindexter named b. c. by imp. Yorkshire out of Sally Morgan, by imp. Sharpshooter.....3

W. T. Cheatham named b. c. by Glencoe; dam Sonora Lass, by Lexington.....pd. ft.

El Odon named b. f., by Albion; dam Sovereign, pd. ft.

James Jackson nam ch. f. Fanny Bugg, by imp. Ambassador; dam Ida, by B Isharper.....pd. ft.

Time, 1:50¼.

To-day the great Harper stake for three year olds, two mile heats, comes off. From the number and character of the horses named, this promises to be the feature of the week. There will doubtless be a large attendance.

Port of Memphis

River News.

The river at this point continues to decline steadily, and there is some difficulty experienced by heavy draft boats in crossing the bars below. The weather yesterday was clear and the air in the morning and evening cool and bracing. Business at the landing was quite lively during the day.

The John Simonds left at 4 o'clock in the afternoon with an excellent trip of passengers and freight. Her load of cotton was not so large on account of the difficulty of crossing some of the bars.

The Polar Star (in place of the Lucas) arrived down last night with an excellent trip. She reports the upper rivers extremely low and navigation difficult. We learn from her officers that the Henry Choteau is hard aground above.

The fine steamer R. W. Adams will leave for New Orleans to-day at 4 o'clock p. m. She is an excellent boat, her passenger accommodations being superior and her officers attentive, careful and polite. Travelers should secure rooms early, as she leaves punctually at the hour named, and will doubtless be crowded. She makes close connection at Vicksburg with the cars on the Southern Railroad for New Orleans, by which route passengers will reach the latter city in 48 hours from Memphis.

The St. Francis No. 2 is the regular mail and passenger packet for Napoleon to-day at 3 o'clock, P. M. Passengers and shippers will bear in mind. A most excellent boat and popular and gentlemanly officers.

The splendid steamer Polar Star (in place of the Jas. H. Lucas) will leave as above this evening, at 6 o'clock. She is a fine passenger packet, and is in charge of excellent officers. Passengers can take no better boat for Cairo, St. Louis, or other points on the route.
