LETTER LIST.—The official list of letters remaining in the Memphis Post Office, will be found in this morning's paper.

DIVINE SERVICES.—We are happy to announce that the Rev. Dr. BEAN has so far recovered from an attack of pneumonia, as to be able to preach this morning at the usual hour, half past 10 o'clock.

LETTER LIST AND THE LARGEST CIRCULATION.—According to law, the list of uncalled for letters is awarded to the paper having the largest circulation within the delivery of the Post Office where the letters remain. The Post Office where the letters remain. The APPEAL having this superior circulation is made the medium for advertising the letter list which appears regularly in our SUNDAY EDITION. It will be found in this morning's paper. It is not published in any other paper.

MAIL AGENTS.—We had a visit yesterday from Messrs. EASTMAN and SMITH, Special Agents of the Post Office Department, who are here on business connected with their official duties.

☞ Our friends, Messrs. O. COLEMAN & Co., on Madison street, have received on consignment, for sale, a few barrels of pure old Apple Brandy, manufactured in South Hampton county, Va. Call and test it.

☞ Rev. Dr. W. J. BARNES will preach the funeral sermon of the late ERNEST WOODWARD, at 10½ o'clock this morning, at the Christian Church, on Linden street.

☞ We are laid under obligations to Mr. BOXDEN, the obliging agent of Adams & Co's Express, for the N. Y. Herald, of the 20th, and also Philadelphia papers of the 18th.

HON. JEFF. DAVIS.—This distinguished Mississippi Senator and true son of the South addressed a large mass meeting of the Democracy of New York City, in the Palace Gardens, on the evening of the 19th inst. Judge PARKER, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, was present, and made the first speech of the evening.

PROGRESS.—We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from our esteemed friend Gen. CALDWELL, of Madison, Ark. He dined at home on Friday and took supper at the usual hour in Memphis, traveling over the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad. This is an evidence of progress truly encouraging to our Arkansas friends. We learn that there yet remains only six miles of rails to lay, when the road will be completed to Madison.

☞ Citizens and strangers should procure the Ambrotypes taken by the artists, TYLER & Co., of 219 Main street, opposite Odd Fellows' Hall. The likenesses are of the finest quality, and the prices the lowest ever offered. Their rooms are spacious and well fitted up. They have a mammoth sky-light, obliging, talented operators, and the largest assortment of cases and frames ever brought to Memphis. Visitors to this gallery can obtain any size or style of likenesses they wish, at prices varying from seventy-five cents to one hundred dollars. With full confidence we commend TYLER Co. to the public. 1t

MAGNIFICENT COOKING STOVE.—Any friend of home art and home industry may, any day, step into the store of Messrs. SAFFARRANS & STRATTON, on Main street, between Monroe and Union, and see the most beautiful, elegant and superior cooking stove, ever manufactured in the United States. It is of wrought iron, and is calculated to prepare food for 150 persons. The boiler and other vessels are of copper, wrought by hand, and present a burnished and beautiful appearance. This stove received the premium at the late Fair of the Shelby County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, and is a credit to our city. Mers beautiful work can not be done in any part of the United States. Call in and see this magnificent specimen of home artizanship.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river is still falling, and accounts from the upper rivers continue gloomy enough. Business at the landing yesterday was very brisk throughout the entire day, and up to 10 o'clock, at night, several boats were still taking on cotton and other freight.

The latest arrivals from above report a very bad river, and daily getting worse, with 6 feet from St. Louis to Cairo, 6½ at Island 18, and about the same at Plum Point. The officers of the Cora Anderson report several boats aground between this and Cairo.

The splendid packet Nebraska, of the regular line, is off for the Crescent City and intermediate points at four o'clock to-morrow evening, a fact which passengers and shippers will do well to remember and be on board in time. Her officers, with the accommodating and gentlemanly Shultz at the desk, are unsurpassed by any on the river, and passengers have a sure guaranty of a speedy, safe and comfortable trip to the South.

The peerless Kate Frisbee, looking as neat and pretty as when new after her thorough overhauling, will drop down to the landing today, and be off for Napoleon at 8 o'clock tomorrow. Capt. McManus is in command and friend Folger still in the office—two gentleman well and favorably known—and under their future administration the "Kate" will be as great a favorite as heretofore.

The splendid steamer Philadelphia is the regular mail and passenger boat for St. Louis to-morrow evening. This boat fully deserves the high esteem in which she is held by those who have enjoyed the pleasure of a "cruise" upon her, and they are a multitude. Her accommodations are unsurpassed, and those who know it will never forget, while those who do not should remember that Mr. Tschudi is the chief clerk.

The fleet, low-water steamer, Economy, Capt. Brittbower, will leave for Cincinnati and intermediate points, this morning at 10 o'clock. The Economy is an excellent boat, and passengers will do well to travel on her, if they wish a pleasant and safe trip.

The Louisville Courier of Thursday has the following:

The river last evening was stationary, the late rise above not having yet reached this point. Yesterday was a real cut-throat day. From morning until night the city was shrouded in gloom. There was no storm, but a steady drizzle of cold, soaking rain. At the city wharf we saw but one steamer with any signs of animation, that was the Belmont from Pittsburg—the first arrival from the smoky city for three months.

The St. Louis Republican of the 21st, says: The river at this point was swelling a little yesterday—the rise caused by the late rains which have been general through the upper country. We do not imagine that the rise will amount to much, or that it will at all improve the river below, which is reported six and a half feet scant in the channel out to Cairo.

The upper rivers are all reported falling by the last arrivals. There is five feet scant in the channel of the Illinois, five feet to Keokuk, thirty-three inches on the Lower Rapids, and three and a half feet on the Upper Rapids.

THE RACES.—Yesterday closed a week of the best sport witnessed in Tennessee for many years. There was a large attendance, fully fifteen hundred persons being present. The ladies' stand was better filled than it had been before during the week. The four mile and repeat race for the Club purse of $1,000 was won by JNO. M. CLAY's Waterloo with little ease. There were, besides the winner, two entries, CAMPBELL's Jack Gamble, and Captain MOORE's Jenny Ross, the first of whom was distanced. Jenny Ross contested the first heat with some spirit, but it was very evident that she was overmatched. Once, on the back stretch near the half mile post, she made play at the Yorkshire, but she had no sooner laid her head upon his hip than he slipped away and she dropped behind, where she remained to the conclusion of the heat. Waterloo won the heat under a steady, bracing pull, in 7.50½, Jenny coming in some lengths behind, and in evident distress. As she passed the distance stand, when her rider saw there was no chance to win, he commenced taking her up, when she made a false step, stumbled and came near casting her rider. When the bugle sounded for the horses to come up to the string for the second heat, Captain MOORE came forward and requested permission to draw his mare. The judges, after consultation, granted the request, as the mare was plainly too much distressed by the previous run to have any show of winning, and had not escaped uninjured from the mishap of which we spoke. The purse was adjudged to be won by CLAY. Although this is the first victory achieved by the gallant Kentuckians during the meeting, we have very little doubt but that had sufficient time intervened between the Lexington meeting and ours, for them to have reached here ten days sooner, the result would have been very different. As it is, they have exhibited so much spirit and maintained such a gentlemanly and courteous bearing under the accumulated disasters of the week, that they have won greatly upon the admiration and esteem of their brother turfmen in Tennessee. They are worthy representatives of a gallant State, and we were gratified to learn that so far from being disheartened by the result of the present meeting, they purpose to return the ensuing Spring meeting and again contest the palm with us. Let them come, we say, and, changing slightly the words of a sentiment offered by one of them yesterday, at dinner, "Qui palmam merbit, ferat"

In the second race for the Proprietor's purse, there were three entries, one of whom, however, did not start, owing to some cause, the which we did not learn. Between Laura Williams and Effie Dean, however, there was a very beautiful and exciting race. Both had been beaten during the week, but both had made excellent runs, and the betting was even on them. A good start was effected, and at the tap of the drum they let slip at a slashing pace—Effie half a length in advance, which she increased to a clear length in going round the turn. Up the back stretch and round the second turn they made a beautiful run, and they swung into the home stretch the Albion a saddle-girth ahead. When cleverly turned into the home stretch, Laura showed her accustomed averse to being driven, and swerved in towards the railing. The rider, by a powerful effort, prevented her bolting, and drove her home under whip and spur. Effie Dean won the heat by two lengths in 1.51.

Both fillies cooled out well, and came up for the second heat looking better than before. They got off well again, Effie leading, by a neck, and for nearly half a mile they went at a killing pace. When they reached the gate leading to the stables, which is about six hundred yards from the stand, Laura halted, and showed a determination to go no further; but by a vigorous application of whip and spur, the jockey made her change her mind, and forward she started, at a still more rapid pace. She closed the gap once more; but making up for the delay on the back stretch had taken the starch out of her, while Effie had a good brush left in her yet. In the home stretch, Laura again swerved, drew up to the railing where there was a considerable fill in the grading of the track, looked over, but concluded she would not try it. It was too late, however, to make up for her previous procrastination. The Albion filly galloped in, winning the heat, and the race, in 1.48½. Had she been driven all the way round as she was for the first half mile, she would have greatly reduced this time. As it was, the time was very good, on a new track. The first half mile was done in 50½ second—extraordinarily rapid for horses running mile heats. The following is a

SUMMARY.

FIFTH DAY—Friday, October 22.—Jockey Club Purse, $1,000; four mile heats; three entries.

Col. M. Maryland ch. h. Waterloo, 4 y., by York silver; dam, Topaz, by Glencoe. 1 1 1

James M. Redgate named b. h. Jack Gamble, 6 y., by Wagner; dam by Stanley. 2 2 2

Capt. C. G Moore named ch. f. Jenny Ross, 4 y., by Glencoe; dam Betsy Ross. 3 3 dis.

Time, 7.50½.

SIXTH DAY—Proprietor's Purse, $100; open to all horses that had not won during the week; $10 entrance, $100 added; entrance added; three entries. A. P. Boylan named b. f. Rosa Fowler, 4 y., by Proprietor's Priam; dam by Daughery's Pacific (Dragon Morgan's sire). 1 1

Gould & Blythe named b. f. Effie Dean, 3 y., by Albion; dam Gloriana by Eclipse, 3 lbs. 2 2

W. Wonderly named b. f. Laura Williams, 3 y., by Glencoe; dam Jane Walsh, by Priam, 3 lbs. 3 3

Time, 1.51; 1.48½.

Thus has closed the first meeting over the Memphis Course. It has been entirely successful, and eclipsed any race meeting ever held in Tennessee, whether we regard the size of the purses or the number and character of the horses contending for them. During the week, besides the Proprietor's purse, $2,800 have been hung up in Jockey Club Purses and added to the stakes, and every race, except the four mile race of yesterday, has been well contested. The arrangements are all on a scale of princely liberality, and reflect the highest credit upon the good taste of the spirited proprietors. It is a source of much gratification to us to be able to note the good order which has prevailed during the entire week. It is no disparagement to other courses to say, what everybody says, that we have never seen so genteel, quiet, orderly and well behaved a crowd of the same size assembled upon a race field, nor indeed for any purpose. Up to yesterday the President of the Club has been present and presided with such dignity and impartiality as to win the good opinion of all parties. During his absence yesterday, his place was ably and satisfactorily filled by the senior Vice-President, J. J. WOSHAM, Esq. We may be permitted in conclusion to congratulate the proprietors and the public upon the successful inauguration of the manly sport of turf racing over the Memphis Course, and to express the pleasure we feel in the prospect that Memphis will soon become the great racing, as she now is the commercial center, of the Valley of the Mississippi.

☞ An intelligent and reliable cotton operator, of this city, has handed us the following for publication:

COST PER BALE FOR SHIPMENT OF COTTON FOR SALE IN NEW ORLEANS.

Drayage at Memphis from shed to boat	6
Freight to New Orleans	1 50
Insurance at 3/4 per bale, $75	56
Fire insurance at New Orleans, ⅛ P	30
Labor, drayage and storage at New Orleans	50
Commission on sales 2½ P ct. on say $40	1 00
Discount on draft at Memphis, 30 days, 1 P	55
Total charge on bale, weighing 450 lbs	$4 90

You thus see that the total charge on a bale of cotton weighing 450 lbs., which is the average of this season, is $4 90, or about 1 2-100 per cent. per lb., without counting anything for loss in weight.

It is apparent, therefore, from the course of our market the past week, that Memphis still preserves her established reputation as the best cotton market for the planter in the Union; for, at no time has there been (even with a declining tendency in all the markets of the country) more than a margin of 1 per cent. per lb. between Memphis and New Orleans—not sufficient really to give back to the buyer a new dollar for an old one.

EDITORS APPEAL: I have this day, for the first time, read the substance of the Ordinance proposed to be passed by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis, licensing bawdy houses, and I must say, it is monstrous—more particularly a portion of the third section. What is a girl fourteen years old but a mere child, liable to be led astray at any time, by designing persons; and requiring, at that age, the most watchful care of her parents? I cannot believe it possible that there is a man in our city, or even in the South, who would so far degrade himself as to legalize the reception of a child into a house of prostitution, to be degraded and made an outcast from society forever. Can a father, brother, or even one who is in any way connected with a young girl, vote for such an ordinance? I have read of men, in the large cities of the North, who would even sop their bread in the slime of prostitution; but I cannot believe we have any such in our midst. For the sake of humanity, I hope no such ordinance will be entertained by any member of our Board, as I am confident you cannot find many of the old prostitutes, hardened to iniquity, who would vote for any such a law, even if it only recommended or legalized the reception of a negro child.

Our city authorities have certainly the authority to regulate all such houses, and to keep prostitutes off the streets at night, and they ought to exercise it; but they have no authority whatever to legalize such houses. M.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SUNDAY, October 24, 1858.

COTTON.—There was quite a lively feeling in the market yesterday, notwithstanding the due report from Liverpool, and sales on Friday, and over 1200 bales were sold, of which 365 were reported to-day. Though the leading figure of the day was a shade lower than on the day previous, there was a good demand, and it went off free; as follows: 82 at 10¾c; 11 at 10¾c; 417 at 11; 66 at 11 1-16; 227 at 11⅛; 265 at 11⅛; 74 at 11 3-16; 254 at 11¼; and 6 bales at 11⅜ cents. The above statement shows that it 1-16 was the average price, as there was of the amount reported 451 bales below and 651 above. There being some little contention among the factors as to the change in prices, we will make no change in our quotations from those of yesterday. The market closed with a lively feeling.
