THE DAILY APPEAL.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 29, 1858.

☞ The Ladies' Fair, for the benefit of the Catholic Orphan Asaylum, will be continued to-night at Odd-Fellows' Hall.

☞ Dr. Hosine, of the dental firm of Drs. Sneed & Hosine, has arrived, and is stopping at the Gayoso. He has chosen Memphis as his future home. Success to the firm

☞ Messrs. W. R. Strange & Co. have placed upon our table Harper's New Monthly Magazine for November. It has a tempting table of contents.

Harper's Magazine for November.—This is an excellent number. Dalton, Kirk & Williams have then trimmed ready for reading, which is a great convenience.

☞ We invite the attention of the public to the certificates published by Dr. J. H. Kelly, in another column. His Rheumatic Liniment is said to be an infallible remedy for rheumatism.

☞ Messrs. Geo. Pattison & Co. have laid upon our table Harper's Magazine for November. We have no doubt it is an admirable number, but we intend to read it and see, which we would advise every one else to do.

Criminal Court.—The testimony in the case of Marcellus charged with killing Sandess was gone through yesterday, and last night at the adjournment the argument was progressing.

Newspaper for Sale.—The proprietor of the Panola Star offers for sale a one-half interest in that establishment. Terms, $500 in cash on the 1st of January next, and the balance in twelve months from that date. The Star is in a prosperous condition.

☞ Every one who is feeding corn, should know that the Little Giant Corn and Cob Crusher adds thirty-three per cent. to the value of corn. The latest improved mill of this kind, is sold by D. McComb & Co., 157 Main street, and they will refer to those who have had them in use, if called upon.

Hite & Smith.—This firm is doing a fine business in periodicals and papers at the Worsham House and Commercial Hotel. They have laid on our table the New York Herald, for October 25, and Harper's favorite Monthly Magazine, for November, which is a good number.

The Weather.—Dull, dismal, dark, drizzly and disagreeable, is the best description of the weather yesterday that we can give—all three terms begin with a d, so does the verb which the profane, in an ejaculatory, parenthetic, exclamatory, interjectional and apostrophical manner applied to the weather.

Memphis and Little Rock Railroad. In our notice yesterday of a portion of the officers of this road, we inadvertantly omitted to include Major M. L. Smith and his assistants, to whose energy and well-directed exertions the Company and the public are largely indebted for the rapid progress which the road has made during the last four months.

Mississippi Legislators in Memphis.—Major Simeon Oliver, General C. G. Nelms, and V. Merriwhether, Esq., of the De Soto delegation, and Dr. W. N. Raine, delegate of the De Soto Agricultural Society to the State Fair, were in the city yesterday en route for Jackson, where the Legislature assembles in called session on Monday next. They take the river route.

☞ We are requested to call attention to the real estate sale to be made this day at the auction house of G. B. Locke & Co., 262 Main street. They offer rare inducements, one lot on Main street, one lot on St. Martin street, and four lots on the Raleigh road in the Jno. Anderson subdivision. None of this property would be offered for sale at this time except necessity compels it. Bargains will be had.

Tyler & Co.—How is it that these artists can support the finest suit of rooms in Memphis, at the same time make the finest of Ambrotypes for 75 cents? Why sir! it is obvious. They can take 200 pictures daily—quantity affording profit. The principle is the same as that of cheap postage—cheap travel, &c. Large sales and small profits—opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

An Artist.—Most of our readers are acquainted with the artist, J. O'B. Inman, who spent last winter in this city. We learn with pleasure that he leaves New York on Monday on his return. Orders for his services may be left at Clarke's Building with Prof. Remington. Mr. Inman's uncommon powers with the brush, and his correct artistic taste are sure to secure him a crowd of sitters.

Recorder's Court.—Nineteen "cases," with little good in them, were brought before Esq. East yesterday. Two of the "unfortunates" were "ladies," and ladies of spirit, who know that women have rights, and knowing, dare maintain them—and maintain them they did by fighting. Anna Brown was informed that woman's rights must be accompanied by woman's duties, and she having neglected the duty of keeping the peace, was fined eleven dollars; Jane Lewis, appearing to be more sinned against than sinning, was discharged.

Misdemeanor.—H. Cano, who keeps a store on Front Row, between Jefferson and Adams streets, was brought before Esquire East yesterday on the complaint of J. Hanson, a resident of Arkansas, some fifty miles from the city, who stated that Cano in making out a bill against him last November, over charged him $4 18, which was paid. Hanson afterward found out the mistake, but had only lately arrived in the city, when Cano kept putting him off from time to time, and showed no disposition to correct the error. On his again making application to Cano yesterday, the latter seized the receipted bill from his hands and tore it up. Cano was fined eight dollars for the misdemeanor. Officer Penn made the arrest of the prisoner.

Two Thieves Arrested.—Yesterday Capt. Thomas and officer Tucker saw a boy of fourteen, named Arthur Short alias John Short, and a companion named Henry Williams, hanging suspiciously about an intoxicated man in a liquor store. They watched them unobserved, and saw Short take a pocket book from the drunkard's pocket which he handed to Williams, who went out with it. When he saw the officer he dropped the book, which proved to be empty, and ran, and Short followed. The two were soon after indulging in gloomy anticipations in jail. Short was under arrest here a short time ago, on the charge of stealing.

The Buckleys.—The people of Memphis, it is well known to those versed in musical and dramatic matters, are unusually good judges of the performers exhibited before them. They are not to be imposed upon by demerit, and they are most ready in their appreciation of real talent. This fact has been strongly proved by the patronage they have extended to the Buckleys, a troupe whose merit has stood the test of criticism in the greatest cities in the Union. Last night, as on other nights, the Washington street theater was crowded, and the warmest applause was accorded the accomplished performers. They will again appear to-night—be in time if you want a seat.

Sale of Corinth Lots.—We would again direct the attention of the readers of the Appeal to the sale of lots in the city of Corinth, to take place next Wednesday, 3d inst., under the direction of Messrs. G. B. Locke & Co., auctioneers of this city. We need not add anything with reference to the advantages which this young city enjoys as a commercial point, already enjoying a considerable cotton and grocery trade, and which promises in the future to become one of our first interior cities. These advantages are potent and we need not waste our space in explaining them. Suffice it that the terms of the sale are very liberal, no money being required for six months from day of sale. No better opportunity has of late presented itself for investment, and we advise men of enterprise and capital to try it. Remember the day of sale.

Difficulty at the Wharfboat.—Last evening, directly after 7 o'clock roll call, two Irishmen entered the station house and stated that they were passing down the river for New Orleans on the steamer Imperial—they showed their tickets in proof of this fact—that in consequence of being asked "two prices" for bread at the store on the wharfboat, they had run up town to buy bread at the regular rates. On returning, along with others, those who had bread in their hands were stopped by men who represented themselves as policemen, who told them that they could not pass over the wharfboat to the Imperial with bread bought elsewhere in their possession. One of them persisted in going aboard and was struck; they therefore resolved to apply for redress. Some of the police went aboard, the captain said he had not seen the difficulty but he knew of its occurrence. The men could not afford to lose time to remain as witnesses, so all the police could do was to see them safely aboard, being unable to bring the offenders to justice.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

☞ The river was slightly lowering yesterday. The weather was damp, with a drizzling rain during most of the day.

The great boat, H. R. W. Hill, Captain Newell, is the regular New Orleans packet today, leaving at 5 o'clock this evening. A better boat, or a more efficient captain, the traveler cannot find.

The Comet leaves for St. Francis river at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Messenger is up for St. Louis at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The W. Burton, a capital boat to travel on, will leave for New Orleans at 4 o'clock this afternoon

☞ The splendid light draught boat St. Francis No. 2, we see by an advertisement in this morninge paper, has commenced her trips as the regular White river packet, leaving this city at 6 o'clock every Thursday evening. Will Wood is in command.

From the Louisville Journal, October 26:

There is now a better prospect for a good stage of the river than we have had any time this season. It rained with little intermission from 12 o'clock night before last till last evening, and is still raining. The telegraph reports 4 feet water in the channel at Pittsburgh at noon yesterday and rising, and boats arrived at Cincinnati report heavy rains at Wheeling and Marietta, and a rise in Little Kanawha of two feet.

Thanks.—For late papers, we thank the obliging Borden, of Adams & Co.'s Express, and Thos. Tucker, of the steamer W. Burton.

Robbed on a Steamboat.—On Wednesday night Dawson Smith, who was on his way to White river from Salisbury, Miss., where he resides, took passage on the deck of the steamer Admiral, and there slept during the night. On awaking yesterday morning he found that his watch, a twenty dollar ball, two five dollar gold pieces, and about eight dollars in silver had been taken from him. He yesterday informed the police of his loss when he was shown a watch which he recognized as his own. The watch was found upon the person of Short, whose arrest is mentioned in another place. Smith was introduced to Short, and he recognized him as a very nice young man who had conversed with him on the boat, the preceding evening, in a very pleasant manner. Short has been running up a long account, and his stay in the penitentiary will probably not be short.

Health of Jackson, Mississippi.—The Mississippian of the 26th inst., says:

"It affords us much gratification to announce the continued exemption of Jackson from yellow fever and every kind of infectious or contagious disease. Our physicians all concur that the town was never freer from sickness."

☞ Many of our readers will recognize the eccentric individual mentioned in the following paragraph as formerly connected with us, as local editor of the Appeal:

"The Kansas City Journal of Commerce states that A. O. M'Grew, of Pittsburgh, Pa., left Kansas City on the 6th, solitary and alone, for Pike Peak diggings, taking his provisions, blankets, rifle and shovel, gun and ammunition in a wheelbarrow. When he left Pittsburgh he had just five cents in money, and no outfit, save what he had on his back. Mr. Pitkins, hardware dealer, of Kansas City, who had known M'Grew for some years, filled his wheelbarrow with an outfit, and M'G. started on his solitary pilgrimage of six hundred miles through an uninhabited country, save with Indians and buffaloes, determined to fill his single-wheeled coach with shining dust as soon as anybody."

A Noble Looking Indian Girl.—A soldier in the United States army, writing from the camp before Fort Fauntleroy, New Mexico, under date of July 28th, communicates to the Richmond Dispatch the following:

It was here that I saw the noblest looking Indian girl that eye ever beheld. Her dress consisted of a piece of brown cotton cloth, wrapped around her loins and hanging to the knees. On her head she wore her native war plume. She was tall, straight as an arrow, and had a free, wild Indian look, that was quite taking. (Some of her tribe were given to another kind of taking, which required all of our watchfulness to prevent.) She appeared to be about 18 years of age, and was the wife of a young chief about 20 years old. It was interesting to see with what respect she waited on him. Her example would be edifying to the wives of more civilized life. But it was amusing to see with what lordly indifference the young savage regarded her attentions. I trust I have too much of the native gallantry of my own Erin to see anything to commend in the example of coolness towards such a devoted and sweet spouse, although exhibited by "one of the rulers of the earth."

Missing Mules.—J. A. Ashford, at Smith & Porters, 18 Front Row, lost on the 22d inst., two three year old mules, one an iron gray horse mule, the other a bright sorrel mare mule, with a star in the forehead and white spot on the left hip; both shod before. A liberal reward is offered oc27-c3t: wlt.

☞ Country merchants, planters and citizens in general, wishing to purchase fine, well made fashionable clothing at low prices, for cash, will do well to visit the house of R. B. Du Bare, 187 Main street, under the Worsham House. He has a splendid stock at both wholesale and retail. oct23-1m

A Remedy for Dyspepsia.—Boerhave's Holland Bitters is now the most simple, delightful, and effectual remedy for dyspepsia, before the public. Many of our most worthy citizens testify to its efficacy. To persons subject to nervous, and sick headache, it is a valuable medicine.

Counterfeit Scheidam Schnapps.—We beg leave to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Udolpho Wolfe, in to-day's paper.

☞ Attention is directed to the advertisement of "True Tuft Oil." It is all it claims to be.

☞ Refer to Speed, Donoho & Strange's column.

Monetary and Financial

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE
FRIDAY, October 29, 1858.

New York.—The Herald, of October 25-8, says:

The movement in stocks for the past week has been the most important that we have had since February last. It has been marked by decided firmness in the general character of the business of the Stock Exchange; and, of course, on a scale similar to the operations of a full February, it has been quite decisive enough to warrant the belief that a new inflation may not be far distant. The demand for stocks of late has been almost unexampled. Business report a steady success to all orders for state security a for investment, from parties who never held a State stock before in their lives. The utter impossibility of finding employment for money renders a good 6 per cent. State stock below ninety a highly desirable purchase, and we are not surprised at the rapidity of the steadiness of the advance which has taken place in the issue of securities. But for the fear that the States may avail themselves of the rise to bring new stock, it would be safe to predict that before the 1st of January all the first class six per cent State bonds would sell above par. The same reasons which have led to the demand for and rise in Stateserks, have affected nearly as strikingly the best class of railroad stocks.

As an instance of the effect of this course of treatment, we give the following sales at the New York Stock Exchange of Tennessee Stocks, 1830: October 21st, 25,000 at 94; 22nd, 1,000 at 94, 18,000 at 94¼; 23d, 6,000 at 94¼, 16,000 at 94½.

The News of the 23d states:

The causes of the money market is partly running into State stocks, but the great main cause is not fixed investment, and rates for loans are easy at 5@6 and 4 ¾ cent. It is the same in Boston. To-day's letters from Europe state that in London money is easy at 2½@2¾ ¾ ct. for discounts, while the billion bank has run up to 97 ¾@98 billions of dollars. The Bank of Scotland has lowered its rate, which the London Times accounts inexplicable the putting up a dam against imaginary speculation, which must be carried by force very soon. However, there is no disposition to speculate. The London News points out that many home Railway securities are neglected, as our State stocks have been, which should now par. and invitine to more capital, if they have confidence, Stimulated by a growth of trade at home and abroad, and checks the tendency to speculation, which, a superabundance of money generally follows.

The payments from Treasury have exceeded the receipts this week by $653,000, which the banks have gained, so that the bank returns for the week will show quite favorable results. The banks will find their balances of deposits in hand increase, and their loans decrease.

The supply of money far exceeds all demand for its use, and low as the rates are they seem likely to be still lower. Call loans range from 2½ 3 and 4 ¾ ct. We observe also this week a marked beginning of speculation on it real estate. New York City lots are going up, while rents and interest of money are going down. The discount brokers are transacting a very small business at 3 and 4 ¾ cent. for first class endorsed paper 60 to 90 days; 4 to 5 ¾ cent. for 4 to 6 months date, and 4 to 7 for single names.

The same paper, of the 26th, says:

The market is moderately supplied with Southern bills, of which there is good enquiry. Money is still very easy in the South, the bold as not pressing them. Bankers' Sterling is steady at 109¾@110¼, with moderate sales Francs, 5 12½@5 10.

The Herald, of the 26th, reports:

Exchange on Europe, though lower than it was a fortnight ago, is still firm at quotations; the shipping dealer; we quote the rate for merchants' bills in 110 for the best bankers; drafts at 5 12½@5 13½@5 15. There is no change in the value of specie. Gold and silver bullion have been offering money during the week at three per cent., and it is probably more plentiful at that rate than it has been for years. There is no considerable transactions below three, though, of course, many loans are made on private terms, and probably below the market rate. The Fulton Bank has been quoted at 3 per cent., but we are greatly embarrassed to make interest for their capital, and, from the dullness of trade, no new paper is making. The Fulton Bank, however, will be very light indeed—lighter than have been known for years.

Tennessee currency is quoted at 1¾@1¾ discount.

THE LIFE OF LORENZO DE MEDICI; By Wm. Roscoe

MEMOIRS OF COURT GRAMMONT; By Count Hamilton.

THE WORKS OF DRYDEN; now first collected, illustrated with Notes, Historical, Critical and Explanatory, and a Life of the Author, by Walter Scott. Roy. 18 vols., fine copy, full tree-calf, 90.00. London, 1808.

"His command of language was immense. With him died the secret of the old poetical division of England—the art of producing those rich effects by familiar words. The toughest and most knotty parts of language became under his touch fluent. His versification in the same manner, adapted to the subject, the model of all melodious and peculiar in which the following generation esteemed so highly, exhibited at the same time the last example of noble sense, free, easy, yet strict of pulse and no more."—Jeffrey. "He was, perhaps, the greatest of those whom we have designated as the critical poets."—Edinburgh Review.
