The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spotsylvania C. H., Va.

A Grand Success.

One of the grandest entertainments that was ever held in the town hall in Fremont was given on Thursday evening the 15th inst. under the auspices of the Presbyterians of this place. Oysters were served cooked and raw to about 180 people. The hall was packed to its utmost. During the early part of the evening the company was entertained with choice vocal music by the grange choir and instrumental selections by Miss Alice Grafton. The audience becoming somewhat anxious to hear Mr. Wilson, of Crosswell, sing some of his comic songs and the hour getting late, Charles Gerken, the chairman, called the meeting to order to carry out the program, when the choir, under the leadership of A. W. Gardner, sang one of their beautiful selections. Mr. Wilson followed with a comic song and being encouraged was obliged to render another. Miss Alice Grafton came next with a beautiful song which was well received. Mr. Wilson followed with a song, "Oh! Money is a hard thing to borrow." W. H. McKenzie, of Roseburg, came next with a nice recitation followed by Mr. Wilson with another song. The chairman in a few well-chosen remarks introduced J. S. Crandell, of Sanilac Centre, who made a grand speech which was listened to by the audience with the greatest attention. The writer will add he only hopes that John will make his appearance again in our midst as he is very popular in this district and an excellent speaker. Mr. Wilson followed with another comic song which was succeeded by a diatribe by the ladies of Roseburg, which caused great amusement. The chairman next announced an auction sale when J. E. Darby, our popular auctioneer, came forward and disposed of some beautiful cakes. The greatest praise was unanimously given to all the ladies and gentlemen who exerted themselves to the utmost to render the entertainment a success. The duties of those who waited on the tables and attended to the cooking were somewhat arduous, owing to the liberal manner in which it was patronized. The proceeds amounted to about $50.
