LETTER LIST.—The official list of letters remaining in the Memphis Post Office, will be found in this morning's paper.

☞ Rev. J. G. ACTON will preach at Wesly Chapel this morning, at 11 o'clock.

☞ The sacrament will be administered at Asbury Charge, on the corner of Linden and Hernando streets this morning at half past 10 o'clock. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the opening of services.

☞ Rev. T. J. DRAKE will preach in the First Baptist Church in this city, at 11 o'clock A. M. to-day of "The binding force of a common sense construction of the inspired word of God." The public are respectfully invited to attend.

JURORS.—Jurors are in demand at the Court House, with a small supply and no advance in price.

SHIPMENTS.—Shipments of cotton East appear to be decreasing—the Dickey left for St. Louis last night, with a single bale in freight.

THE SOUTHERNER.—This popular boat is now on her way to this city, to resume her old trade.

THANKS.—We are greatly obliged to the clerk BOWDEN, of Adams' Express, for late New York papers.

KILLED.—A man employed on the Memphis and Charleston road was killed on Friday, near Moscow, by falling from the platform when the cars were in motion.

WELLINGTON STREET.—The residents in the eastern part of the city much want this street to be carried through. It is a very desirable improvement.

CISTERNS.—Considerable inconvenience is felt by many of our citizens, on account of the little rain we have had lately. Their cisterns are empty.

MUSIC.—We have understood that our amateur musicians are preparing something beautiful, with a view to an exhibition at an early day. These concerts are always acceptable.

SETTLING.—Some of our gravel pavements are now settling into a hard bed, and are in fine condition; but we fear they will "cut up" when the wet weather and frost are with us.

PREPARING.—Preparations for winter are to be frequently seen. Among other things, the magnolia in the centre of Court Square has been packed so as to be safe from frost.

PUNISHED.—GLASS, the vicious youth who drew a knife upon his mother on Friday, was sentenced yesterday, by Judge EAST, to pass a hundred and three days on the chain gang. A proper sentence.

THE SILVER HORN.—This splendid boat was at our wharf last night on her way to Bayou Lafourche, between which place and New Orleans she will run, having been sold by her St. Louis owners.

☞ We invite attention to the several St Louis advertisements which appear in to-day's paper. We are gratified to observe this indication of a determination on the part of the St. Louis merchants to build a permanent trade here.

IMPROVEMENT.—The gutter across Main street near Old Fellows' Hall, is finished, and is a good job. The iron gutter-plates are excellent articles for the purpose for which they are used. The use of them in the city is likely to spread.

☞ We learn that Gen. B. F. STRINGFELLOW, formerly Attorney-General and distinguished member of the Missouri Bar, will visit Memphis with the determination to make it his future home. Memphis will extend to him a cordial welcome.

LITERATURE.—HITE & Co., at their Literary Depots, at the Worsham House and the Commercial Hotel, have on their counters the following excellent papers: Harper's Weekly, Leslie's Illustrated, Yankee Notions, and the Waverly Magazine.

FINED.—HENRY DEXTER, the mean thief who stole two dollars from a little girl in the street on Friday, was yesterday sentenced by Esquire EAST to pay five dollars for vagrancy, the witnesses had left the town and nothing more could be done with him.

NO LICENSE.—The celebrated "Big Mary," who keeps the "gloomy abode" on north Main street, was brought before the Recorder yesterday, charged with selling genuine forty rod whisky without a license. MARY was compelled to pay ten dollars for her neglect.

LOOK FOR A FIGHT.—We are told by the proprietor that in a few days a fight will take place between the great Austrian Bear, now on exhibition on Main street, and a ferocious Bull. Both animals are now being trained for the contest. Sport for the many may be expected. Due notice of time and place will be given.

SUNDAY APPEAL.—The reader will find in this morning's paper a large amount of interesting reading, suitable for perusal on this Holy Sabbath day. The letter list, which is accorded to the APPEAL in consideration of its superior circulation, will also be found in our columns.

LEAVING.—In the spring, when the trees are leaving, creation looks bright and cheering; but now, when the leaves are leaving, nature looks melancholy and drooping; the gardens, however, are still green, and lovely roses shed their sceptable perfume. Sorry we are to think they will soon leave us too.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The residents of the southeast portion of the city will remember, that the Young Men's Mission Association open a Sunday School at 9 o'clock this morning, at the junction of Elliott and South streets. The young people will find a welcome reception and kind teachers.

FIRE WOOD.—Citizens are largely laying in their winter's wood, and loads of the article are brought in daily. As there is no public measuring of wood in the city, there is probably no little cheating going on. It is said that some half cords look very unlike other half cords in size, though there is a precise resemblance in price.

ANOTHER TRIAL.—The case of WM. R. HUNT, charged with killing MULL, in which a nolle prosequi was entered at the last term of the Criminal Court, has been again taken up, and is now in progress. Seven jurymen were selected yesterday, and a new panel ordered for to-morrow.

GOOD THINGS.—If you want to see a satisfactory show of genuine good works, call upon SPEIGHT's Confectionary, on Madison street, east of Main, and you will find them. They are rich, sweet and beautiful. His mince-pie lunches each morning are elegant affairs. The ladies should not fail to step in and partake.

THE EIGHTH WARD.—There is true patriotism and Buchanan tax party spirit in the Eighth Ward—the Ward is not pleased with itself and is determined to be improved. The expenses of improvements come out of the city treasury, and if the city will not improve the Eighth Ward, then the Eighth Ward will pay no more taxes into the city treasury—that is the Eighth Ward determination. The gallant Alderman JEFFERSON carries the flag in the fight and means to win, and we believe he will do so.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river, we rejoice to say, is still rising briskly. It rose a foot the last twenty-four hours. The cotton boats are now taking full loads. Yesterday was a very busy time at the wharf, especially in shipping cotton.

To-morrow the St. Louis packet, the Philadelphia, will leave as usual, at 4 o'clock, for St. Louis. We have often had occasion to speak of the Philadelphia, and always with commendation, for it is an excellent boat, and well conducted by its respected commander, Capt. Marshall. Those who take a stateroom on board her will not be disappointed.

The Memphis favorite, Kate Frisbee, will be loading to-morrow morning, and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon will start—having the U. S. mail aboard—for Napoleon. Capt. McManus and the polite clerk, Folger, will attend to the comfort of their passengers with untiring assiduity.

The splendid New Orleans packet Nebraska is at the landing and will leave to-morrow evening at 4 o'clock.

The Cincinnati packet Economy is expected to be at the wharf to-morrow.

NO VERDICT YET.—In the cases of ELIZA MILINER for stabbing "French Lou," and of HERRING against BOHLEN, for breach of promise of marriage, the juries, at the adjournment of court last night, had not agreed upon a verdict.

THE GAIETY.—Our readers will not forget that to-morrow night the celebrated Marsh children will appear at the Gaiety. It will be a great treat to witness their performances, which are of an extensively interesting kind and have obtained the commendations of the press in all parts of the country.

NO HOTEL LICENSE.—A sharp scrutiny is just now going on against persons who are not taking out corporation license when the law makes it necessary. THOS. FOLEY was yesterday fined thirty dollars for keeping a hotel without a license. The guilty had better look out.

AN INCENDIARY.—A deck hand, named Jno. BURNS, was arrested for hanging about one of the boats at the levee and threatening to set fire to it and burn it up, because he was not satisfied with the settlement of his account for work done on the boat. He was placed in the Station House, to await a better temper and the departure of the boat.

GARDENING.—The time is approaching when the lover of shrubs and flowers—that is to say all the ladies and all the gentlemen of taste—must pay attention to their gardens. We commend to their notice JOSEPH ETCHEVARNE, of Fort Pickering, whose card appears in our paper this morning. He is a splendid flourist and gardener, will put gardens into fine condition, and has constantly on hand a large assortment of flowering shrubs and evergreens.

☞ Rev. Mr. CASTLETON, of Baton Rouge, will lecture to the young men of Memphis this evening, in the Second Presbyterian Church, (Rev. Dr. GRUNDY's,) at 7 o'clock, upon the "Terrestial mission of mind—its triumphs in the progress of civilization and religion, and the special relation of the young men of our country to its ultimate and glorious triumphs." The public generally, but especially the young men, are invited to attend.

COLLINS.—COLLINS, the favorite delineator of Irish character, is in town, and will give a limited number of his popular and entertaining performances and songs. When last here, he appeared at Ash's Theatre; but it was too small to hold his audiences. He has now engaged Odd Fellows' Hall, and everybody will have an opportunity of attending. If genuine wit, excellent acting, and fine singing can please, Odd Fellows' Hall will be nightly crowded during COLLINS' stay.

ASSAULT.—THOS. BROWN was fined fifteen dollars and a half by Esq. EAST, yesterday, for an assault. He was upon a boat, at the landing, when a carpenter came on board in search of employment. Brown, in an authoritative manner, demanded to know what he wanted. The man said he had no right to answer the question, for saying which Brown knocked him down. After paying the above fine, Brown was arrested by the Sheriff and fined five dollars by Esq. HOUSE. Decidedly, Brown's investments were not profitable.

A COOL THIEF.—At one o'clock yesterday, a stranger named Jno MORAN, who has been in the city about three days, was walking up Navee street; on arriving opposite the house of Mr. SLOVER, below Hernando street, he suddenly walked into the parlor of that gentleman's house and took possession of a handsome clock, which stood on the mantlepiece. He walked off with it as far as Hernando street, then turned down again, deliberately passing the house he had just robbed. Keen eyes were on him, however, and officer MCILVAINE soon had him in custody. The man was short of time, he therefore stole a clock; when he had got that he had plenty of time, and therefore was in no hurry to make off.

☞ Gentlemen think no more of having a likeness taken at Tyler & Co.'s Gallery, so cheap and quick is the operation, than they do of a smile or a shave. Tyler & Co. have reduced likeness making to a system that amounts to mere fun. Those who have been tortured at other galleries will take note.

☞ Refer to SPEED, DONOHO & STRANGE's column.

COUNTERFEIT SCHEIDAM SCHNAPPS.—We beg leave to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of UDOLPHO WOLFE, in to-day's paper.

☞ Country merchants, planters and citizens in general, wishing to purchase fine, well made fashionable clothing at low prices, for cash, will do well to visit the house of R. B. DE BANE, 187 Main street, under the Worsham House. He has a splendid stock at both wholesale and retail. oct23-1m

ANOTHER INSTANCE OF THE EFFICACY OF BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—N. M. POINDEXTER, at Union office, September 16th, 1854, says: "Some weeks since, being seriously affected with pain and uneasiness at the stomach, loss of appetite, and at times strong symptoms of dyspepsia, I was induced to try your HOLLAND BITTERS, and I feel it but an act of justice to the article, as well as for the good of those who may be affected with like derangement of the stomach, to state, that the use of one single bottle of this medicine proved of incalculable benefit, having freed the stomach from all sense of depression, and removed every symptom of dyspepsia. I would also remark, that two other members of my family, who were afflicted in a similar manner with myself, were entirely relieved by the use of a single bottle each."

Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SUNDAY, November 7, 1858.

COTTON.—The gloomy intelligence from New Orleans held upon the market yesterday, and a decline of ⅛ of a cent took place, as is shown by our quotations below. The amount sold was 1,500 bales, of which 16 bales sold at 12 cents, 16 at 10¾, 98 at 10½, 700 at 11, 100 at 11⅛, and 289 at 11¼. The rating prior remained from 11¼ to 11 cents, 108 selling under that price and 197 above it. 700 bales sold at 11 cents and 5.0 at all other prices. The decline in New Orleans is attributed to the rapidly increasing stocks, there being 140,000 bales more cotton now on hand than at the same time last year, with an entire stock at all the ports of 307,000 bales ahead of last year. To these stocks are adding rapid accumulations. The rise in the river is permitting us to send off rapidly. A rise in the Arkansas river is reported, and that will let out a large quantity. The White and St. Francis, Hatchie and other streams and bayous below will soon be sending out their array of bales. The experts cannot be expected to drop price with the receipts, and the consequence may be yet further to add unfavorably upon prices, unless concurring news from Europe or some other quarter shall arise to prevent it. A bounding trade is expected in the spring. The banks of Rotland, Paris and New York are filled to repletion with gold. The cotton is wanted, and if the market can be fed, instead of glutted, rates may finally be favorable to the sellers.

Inferior	7 @ 7¾	Middling	10¾@11

The Delaware yesterday took out 2 016 bales for New Orleans; the Lucy Holcombe took 2 600 bales; the Dickey, for St. Louis, took 1 bale.

Monetary and Financial.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
SUNDAY, November 7, 1858.

NEW YORK.—Our exchanges from New York have been delayed some days, and last night we received an accumulation showered upon us. Tennessee State bonds have been selling at the New York Stock Exchange as follows: October 21, 5 000 at 94¾, 1,000 at 94; November 1, 5 000 at 94¼, 1,150 at 94; November 2, 10,000 at 94¼, 5 000 at 94¼, 10,000 at 94¼; November 3, 20,000 at 94¼, 15,000 at 94¼.

The Herald of November 1, says: There has been but little doing in the commercial world during the past week. But for the movements in dry goods here, and in cotton at the South, the operations of the week might have been summed up in a very small compass. But prices are, if anything, rather better than they were. Sugars are 8@¼c higher than they were a week or ten days ago. The rare firmly held at the advance, though transactions have been moderate. Provisions are rather dearer and some twelve days during the week have shown signs of activity. Coffee is again higher, with moderate sales, and is firmly held at the advance. Teas have been quiet, without change of quotations. Four hundred tierces 10 to 13 cents a barrel, and is in fair demand. Our weekly import tables of dry goods have been large, $1,236,659 against $1,050,000 for same week last year, and the aggregate thirty thrown on the market—$1,221,132 against $987,122 same week last year—this also been large. We hear, however, of few large transactions. Some orders from the South are being filled, and the trade is buying moderately for spring. The jobbing trade has been quiet yet. Prices are generally unchanged, both for foreign and domestic goods. The foreign import trade of the past week shows a large increase on that of last year. At this time in 1857 the crisis had paralyzed trade, and the imports were especially at the out of the country. So far as the money market here is concerned, it is very easy to see that the question will not affect it in the least. We need not, and do not, look for gold to come from England; when New York exchange falls here, it goes to sterling exchange falls here. Sterling goes down to 108 and from 108 to 107½—at which rate the shipment of specie paid a small profit. Since we have begun to send specie to the South, the European exchanges have declined. We quote sterling to-day, 108¼@¾N, and francs at 5, 16@5 14—at which rate no gold can go.

Until trade revives, and there is a real stir in demand for money to pay for merchandise, there need be no uneasiness for a tight market. We have had a month or four or five millions more to the South, or the exchanges turn before our shippers have an opportunity to repeal the exchanges at a small profit. Since we have begun to send specie to the South, the European exchanges have declined. We quote sterling to-day, 108¼@¾N, and francs at 5, 16@5 14—at which rate no gold can go.
