LETTER LIST.—The official list of letters remaining in the Memphis Post Office, will be found in this morning's paper.

PREACHING.—Rev. C. B. HENDRICKSON will preach at the First Baptist Church to-day at eleven o'clock, and seven at night.

MISSIONARY SERMON.—The Rev. Mr. COLEY, Cumberland Presbyterian minister and missionary for the Chickasaw and Choctaw Indians, will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in this city, this day at 10½ o'clock.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to A. DURYEE, clerk of the Henry Choteau, for late New Orleans papers.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had but a slight amount of business before him yesterday. Only seven cases engaged his attention.

CRIMINAL COURT.—At this court, last evening, the boy SHORT, who stole a pocket-book from a man in a groggery, was tried, and the case given into the hands of the jury.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was the pleasantest day we have had for some time; the weather was somewhat cold, but the bright sun shone cheerily throughout the day.

☞ Don't forget the postponed administrator's sale of California coaches, wagons and fixtures comes of to-morrow, Monday, the 15th inst., at ROSEBR'S mammoth cotton warehouse. Such wagons and sets of harness are not often to be had.

FEVER DISAPPEARED FROM VICKSBURG.—The Vicksburg Whig publishes the announcement made by the Mayor on the 9 h inst., that the yellow fever had disappeared from that city. The Relief Association also announce their adjournment sine die.

WOODPATT HOUSE.—The attention of the traveling public is invited to the card of this house in another column, just opened by Mr. A. G. BOWEN, who professes to be an experienced caterer to the tastes of the weary traveler. It will also be seen that he takes weekly and day boarders.

SHIPMENT.—We are obliged to our attentive and indefatigable Wharfmaster, Mr. WOLFE, for a report of the quantity of cotton shipped from this port last week, as follows: To New Orleans 13,694 bales, to St. Louis 344, and to the Ohio river 650 bales, making a total of 14,688 bales.

SENTENCED.—At the Criminal Court yesterday, CHARLES JOHNSON and JOHN ROBERTS, for stealing from the house of Mr. HENDERSON, on Union street, were sentenced to three year's labor each in the penitentiary. They were charged with burglary, but were found guilty of larceny only.

A SCHOLAR IN TROUBLE.—We are informed that there is at present on the chain-gang a man of no common attainments; he can read, write and speak French, English, German and Italian. The Captain of the chain-gang says he is an industrious old man, and wields a pick-axe diligently. His offense was being found asleep in a wagon.

APPEAL CLUB AT MIFFLIN, TENN.—We are indebted to the kindness of our friend, Mr. E. MANLY BRAY, for a club of new subscribers to our mammoth Weekly at Mifflin, in this State. We shall endeavor to deserve the increased tokens of confidence and approval which the APPEAL is daily receiving from the masses of this and the neighboring States.

FIENDISH.—SAM'L L. ELLISON and JNO. H. HUME inform us that when out hunting on Friday afternoon, on crossing the Tennessee Railroad track, at the curve two hundred yards below the White House, they found a number of iron spikes placed on the track, about a dozen or fifteen on each side, evidently with the intention of causing mischief. They removed them, and in ten minutes afterward the train came dashing along, and, thanks to their discovery, passed the spot safely.

THE LETTER LIST.—According to the act of Congress, the advertisement of uncalled for letters is awarded to the newspaper having the largest bona fide circculation within the delivery of the Postoffice where the letters remain. The APPEAL has this superior circulation, hence the letter list appears in this paper exclusively; it cannot be found in any other, and this fact, alone, to say nothing of the large amount of interesting reading which it invariably contains, furnishes a strong inducement to the public to prefer the APPEAL. The letter list appears regularly in our SUNDAY EDITION, and will be found in its appropriate place in this morning's paper.

SHOULD CAUGHT.—Night before last, a negro fellow, by means of a ladder, entered the second story of RABENSTEIN's grocery store, near the bayou on Beal street, and securing a trunk containing some two thousand dollars in specie, attempted to make his way out. In the attempt, however, the ladder gave way, and he fell on a pile of wood below, the trunk falling on him. He was so stunned and bruised by the fall, that he was unable to move, and the negro, trunk and money were found lying under the window, when the former was arrested, but a while accomplice, he had with him, managed to make off with some three hundred dollars of the money. The negro belonged to Mr. HUNT—he was considerably hurt. Some skeleton keys found upon him showed him to be an adept in crime.

MEMPHIS AND LITTLE ROCK RAILROAD—CONNECTION MADE WITH THE ST. FRANCIS.—We learn from Mr. ROBINSON, Secretary of this road, that it was completed to the St. Francis on Thursday last—a distance within a fraction of forty miles. It is now open for both passengers and freight. Three bales of cotton, shipped by Gov. IZARD, have already been brought over it, and delivered in this city. This is the entering-wedge to the greatest railroad enterprise in the whole Union, which has bound up in it interests which it is altogether impossible to calculate. It is the commencement of that stupendous work which is destined to unite the Mississippi valley with the Pacific ocean. An undertaking of such magnitude cannot fail to arrest the attention and arouse the energies of not only those immediately interested in its completion, but of all the friends of American progress and glory. A few years ago the thought of uniting the Mississippi river with the Atlantic by railroad was deemed chemerical and impossible. This has been done and now ceases to excite our wonder. Why may we not stretch our iron arms in a westerly direction? Why may not the iron horse cross the prairies, valleys and deserts of the west as easily as he has climbed the mountains and passed the rivers that separate us from our Pacific possessions? Labor, earnestness and energy accomplished the former, why should not the latter yield to the same mental and physical forces? Memphis has already done all that could reasonably be expected of her to bring about this grand result. Our Arkansas friends, who are in the pathway of this stupendous work, must do their. The Legislature, now in session, will have an opportunity of attesting their interest in the enterprise, and we cannot doubt that their liberal policy and generous assistance, will afford abundant proof that they not only appreciate but intend to push it forward.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river came in a stand since our last report, and was slightly falling last night; it fell three inches in 24 hours. The day was bright and sunny, though cool, and was altogether favorable to business.

The Philadelphia, one of the excellent St. Louis line of packets, will leave for St. Louis on Monday evening at 6 o'clock—Marshall, captain, and Petty, clerk. The Philadelphia is a good, staunch and commodious boat, swift in running, and punctual to her time.

The favorite Kate Frisbee is the regular Napoleon packet to-morrow, leaving at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Folger, the experienced and popular clerk is on board and will attend to the comfort of his passengers with unremitting care. The Kate carries the United States mails.

Captain Porterfield has purchased the elegant and well-built steamboat J. McKee, and has put her on the Memphis and Vicksburg mail line. This is an excellent investment, for the cessation of the yellow fever, and the wants of the cotton trade, insure an excellent business to a well conducted packet, such as the McKee. Captain Porterfield is a man of the right sort for the business—skillful, experienced and affable, he is sure to be a favorite. The McKee leaves our landing to-morrow at 5 o'clock P. M.

ST. LOUIS MERCHANTS.—The merchants of St. Louis are now cultivating the Memphis trade. Recent events have revealed to them its importance to their city. Our advertising columns are receiving large additions from them, and we have pleasure this morning in calling attention to the following houses, which stand deservedly high for their energy, business habits and reliability.

JOSEPH C. MILLER, No. 23 Market street. This house does a Forwarding and Commission business. His facilities for business makes his house a desirable connection.

DAVENPORT & DRAKE, Commission Merchants, corner of Market and Commercial streets, give excellent references, and will be found to be thorough business men.

W. P. & L. R. SHYOCK, Commission Merchants, on Levee and Commercial streets, furnish unexceptionable references in this city. Orders in such staples as are of especial importance to this city will be carefully attended to.

J. T. DOUGLASS, of Second street, is a large dealer in Patent Machine Bale Rope, and has a very superior article, which he will dispose of on terms that will prove satisfactory to the purchaser. We commend this article to the attention of dealers here.

PORTRAITS OF MY MARRIED FRIENDS, OR A PEEP AT HYMEN'S KINGDOM. By UNCLE BEN. New York: DICK & FITZGERALD.

This is a book that contains many interesting revelations of married life—revelations as useful as they are interesting. They purport to have been written by a bachelor, but he was evidently one of the observant kind, who thoughtfully studied traits of married life, not for the purpose of ill-natured sarcasms, but of wholesome and kindly instruction. There is an accuracy in its delineation of character and incident that will lead many of its readers to remark how much resemblance there is between persons in the story and acquaintances of their own. The volume is illustrated by several good engravings, and is bound in very handsome style. GEO. PATTISON & Co. have it for sale at their store on Main, above Madison street.

EVERY WOMAN HER OWN LAWYER; a Private Guide in all Matters of Law, of Essential Interest to Women. By Rev. GEO. BISHOP. New York: DICK & FITZGERALD.

Women's Rights have been laughed at by men and presented with absurd accompaniments by strong-minded women, until many persons appear to have arrived at the opinion that women are destitute of rights altogether; that such is not the case, this volume very satisfactorily demonstrates, by showing the position of women in the eye of the law, in their characters of maid, wife and widow. We wish this book were in every woman's hands, that the power of a woman in law to resist oppression and ill-usage, and to baffle the schemes of wicked and designing persons, might be universally known. Among the subjects discussed, are the following: Bigamy, Breach of Promise, Clandestine Marriages, Deserting a Wife, Divorce, Dower, Adultery, False Pretenses in Courtship, Illegitimate Children, Leaving a Husband, Liabilities of Husbands for their Wife's Debts, A Wife's Rights of Property, Drunken Husbands, Rights of Widows, Step-Fathers and Step-Children, Separation, Suing a Married Women, and many others. The language is without technicalities, and may be readily understood. It is for sale at GEORGE PATTISON & Co.'s, Main street.

A WIDOW WITHOUT A LICENSE.—SARAH MOONEY is the widow of a man whom many citizens remember as the glass-blower who frequently exhibited his art on Main street, near the Worsham House, under a canvas tent. He left his widow his residence, which is a trading boat situated at present on Wolfe river, and there the lady commenced the sale of liquid refreshments to the thirsty, but neglected to take out the necessary license from the city entitling her to the privilege she was exercising. She was taken before Major EAST yesterday, and plainly convicted of the offense. The Major is mercy itself to the ladies, but in this case the law allowed him no latitude, and he was compelled to fine Widow MOONEY thirty dollars.

☞ Our readers will observe, by our advertising columns, that Cooper's Refined Isinglass is now put up in small sized packages, suitable for families, by whom it is much used for blanc manges, jellies, &c. This article has been manufactured by Mr. PETER COOPER for the last thirty years, and its purity and reputation render it desirable alike to the consumer and to the trade.—Brooklyn Daily Times.

ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION.—"I can eat anything after taking your Holland Bitters," is a remark frequently made to us.

To persons troubled with acidity of the stomach, indigestion, or any disorder of the stomach, we would only say, try it. Its world-wide reputation has been established alone by the many wonderful cures it has effected. When used for dyspepsia, jaundice, liver complaint, weakness of any kind, costiveness and piles, it should be taken in small doses—say half a teaspoonful regularly three times a day, before meals.

Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, SUNDAY, November 14, 1858.

COTTON.—But little was done in the market yesterday. Many factors are hereabouts, holding over until Monday, judging that an improved feeling would manifest itself by that time. The sales made were by a small number of houses. The sales reported amount to 1,407 bales, as follows: 1 at 9, 149 at 10, 7 at 10⅛, 29 at 10⅜, 608 at 10½, 101 at 10⅝, 506 at 10¾, 120 at 11c. The greatest number of bales sold at any one price, was 608 bales at 10½; 106 bales were sold below that price, and 675 above it. We again omit quotations, for, from the few sales made there is no satisfactory criterion furnished from which to judge of the actual state of the market. We are inclined to think that Monday will show a better state of things than is indicated in the above reported sales.

The N. O. Bulletin, of November 8, reports: Sales of cotton on Saturday, 10,500 bales, at rates within the range of Friday's prices.—Low Middling 11@11¼c. Middling, 11¾@11¾c. Good Middling, 11¾@12. Stock on hand, 207,291 bales.
