THE DAILY APPEAL.

THURSDAY.....NOVEMBER 13, 1858.

☞ We have received by the overland mail San Francisco papers of the 20th October.

COUNCIL.—This body holds an extra meeting at 7 o'clock this evening. Strangers are invited and there will be plenty of gas—light.

THANKS.—For late papers we thank WILLIAMS & Co. and W. MCCREIGHT, of the Jas. H. Lucas, for late St. Louis papers.

☞ A general rehearsal of the amateurs volunteering for FLAVIO's concert will take place at the hall this morning, at 10 o'clock. Let every one attend. By order of the Musical Directors.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was a gem. The skies were blue, the wind calm, and the sun shone bright and warm. Autumn has not yet entirely succumbed to old winter.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had thirteen cases before him yesterday. Three paid their fines, the remainder went to that flourishing institution, the chain-gang.

A COLLEGE.—The medical men of the city ask Council to give them a piece of the public ground on the bluff to build a college on—we hope the bluff will be forever a breathing place for the people, not a subject for the doctors.

FIRE.—The boarding-house of CHARLES ORGAN, in Hopefield, was entirely destroyed by fire at about eleven o'clock yesterday morning. This fire was the cause of the alarm rung on this side, at that time.

CLOSING SALE.—At three o'clock this evening, the CURRIN's property which is advertised in our columns, will be sold by MR. CAYCE. Omnibuses will leave CAYCE's store, for the place of sale. Seats free.

LITERATURE.—GEO. PATTISON & Co. have on their counter that great favorite with the ladies, Godey's Ladie's Magazine for December; also, Graham's Illustrated Magazine for December. PATTISON & Co., as usual, are ahead.

LOST.—On Thursday evening last, on Third street, between Monroe and Jefferson streets, a lady's Honiton pocket handkerchief—centre of linen cambric. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at the counting-room of the APPEAL office.

BE ON HAND.—Cheap! cheap! GOLDING & PICARD, of 172 Main street, offer for sale their splendid stock of Dry Goods at cost; it was bought at a sacrifice, and will be sold in bargains, to liquidate. Now is the time, ladies, to get really cheap goods of extra quality.

THE TROT.—Our readers will bear in mind, that a trotting match will come off over the course to-day, for a purse of $100. There are eight entries, and very good sport may be anticipated. The cars will convey passengers to and from the track.

THE MARSH TROUPE.—The engagement of this famous troupe is approaching its termination, and those who wish to see the wonderful young people must lose no time in doing so. The splendid spectacle of Aladdin is a delightful thing, and has ravished the hearts of the audiences wherever it has been exhibited.

THE MEMPHIS LIGHT GUARDS.—The appropriation of a thousand dollars to this fine company by Council on Tuesday night had a most favorable effect on military aspirations yesterday. The spirit is rising, and Memphis streets will soon echo the notes of the shrill fife and the spirit stirring drum. The guards have a grand parade on the eighth of January.

CRIMINAL COURT.—PAT LYNCH was found guilty at the Criminal Court yesterday of stealing a twenty dollar note from DENNIS CALLAHAN, and was sentenced to six years' service in the penitentiary. CASSON, for stealing a valise from the Gayoso House, was put upon trial; his companion, LANG, was discharged. MICHAEL DELANEY, for stealing a diamond ring from DR. GILBERT, was sent to the same institution for five years.

Tyler & Co's. Gallery continues crowded to excess; the people pay no attention to unprincipled reports circulated by competitors, but judge for themselves. They can see that the works of art made by Tyler & Co. are the finest productions ever offered in Memphis, and that the prices of them are one-half that usually charged. The result is, any person wanting a likeness will go to Tyler & Co's. Gallery, opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

Take notice that relief must be obtained, forthwith, for the one-horse Artist, who continues his petty snarles at the four-horse Tyler & Co., or else he will surely go to the wall. Said one-horse gives a savage bark at the success of Tyler & Co., in taking 100 pictures on Tuesday, and swears to exhaust his last dollar to the glorious cause of railing at Tyler & Co. "Parti venti Cara solo," messieur.

WASHINGTON STREET OYSTER SALOON.—This saloon, kept by VINCENT BACIGALUPO, is now in full blast. It has been long a favorite resort for gentlemen who appreciate the oyster freshly taken from its sea-home and served in excellent style. This saloon receives constant supplies by our New Orleans packets, and has at present some of the best oysters ever offered in this city. Give VINCENT a call.

ST. ANDREW.—This Saint is the patron Saint of Scotland as GEORGE is of England and PATRICK of Ireland; the Scotch citizens of this country usually keep the anniversary of the Saint, and some of the most enjoyable occasions we have ever attended have been on these "auld lang syne" celebrations. At the Hall over the Recess saloon the Scotch residents of this city celebrate this anniversary to-night. We wish them a good time till the "wee sma' hours ayont the twal."

FLAVIO'S BENEFIT.—Let it not be forgotten that our popular and respected fellow-citizen, PHILIP FLAVIO, Esq., takes this evening, at Odd Fellows' Hall, a benefit tendered him by a large list of the respectable ladies and gentlemen of this city. His eminent services, his high claims, his philanthropy, kind-heartedness and singleness of purpose are well known and need not now be urged. The concert is to be the best the amateurs have ever given; all that is wanted, is a crowded house, and, reader, let us have it.

☞ We noticed in this city, yesterday, some of the friends of J. W. WHITE, whose death was mentioned in our paper of last week, on their way to Arkansas, for the purpose of investigating the circumstances connected with the death of MR. WHITE, and to have his body disinterred and removed, to be buried at his home in Chattanooga. We understand that a metallic burial-case, with all proper materials, &c., were procured by them in this city, and taken with them to Arkansas.

One hundred persons at least, again visited DeShong's gallery yesterday to have their gives glass pictures retaken, which were made elsewhere—said they had seen enough of the steam process—"served them right," when they knew (or ought to have known) that Thomas, at DeShong's, was awarded first premium throughout the South and West and warrants 100 per cent. better pictures or no pay required. Please call and see the finest pictures in the world, and made on true, (not green window glass.) Prices as cheap as elsewhere.

MEMPHIS MEDICAL COLLEGE.—This institution has, we learn, commenced its present session under the most favorable auspices and the most flattering prospects. There are now more than three times the number of students usually in attendance, and a good prospect of greater numbers. Its locality and position with reference to the diseases common to the Southwest, and the well known character of its professors, all of whom stand deservedly high in the medical world, entitle this institution to the confidence and patronage of medical students throughout the valley of the Mississippi.

SMOKING.—Smoking is a very natural thing, the dewey earth smokes on a sunny morning; volcanoes are professional smokers; steamboats smoke habitually; the Judge of the Criminal Court smokes as he dozes in his big arm chair—when the fire is big enough—and Memphis' chimneys are always smoking, but the President of Council, Alderman HUGHES, declares that no member of the Board of Aldermen shall smoke in the Council Chamber—he gave solemn and specific warning of his intentions to fine all smokers on Tuesday evening, and we may therefore for the future consider Council an anti-cigar body, and set it down for a fact that Council and gas don't smoke.

PROF. RASINI.—This gentleman has just completed the fall term of his Dancing School, with much success, and entire satisfaction to his numerous scholars. At a meeting held on Wednesday evening, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to PROF. RASINI, for his untiring efforts to perfect us in the beautiful art of dancing, and that he leaves us with our best wishes for his happiness and prosperity.

Resolved, That we tender him a complimentary party prior to his departure for New Orleans.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river was falling yesterday at the rate two inches in twenty-four hours. The landing was crowded all day, and was a scene of busy animation.

The Kate Frisbee leaves this day at two o'clock in the afternoon for Napoleon, to which place she carries the United States mail from this place. Capt. Folger—a great favorite along the route—is in the office as usual, and under his charge the traveler can confidently count upon an agreeable trip.

The splendid boat J. H. Lucas leaves for St. Louis at six o'clock to-night, Capt. Silver in command. The Lucas is one of the regular packet boats and will be found a good boat to travel on.

This is the regular day for the commodious and popular R. W. Adams to leave for New Orleans; her time of starting is five o'clock in the evening.

The Belfast is the New Orleans packet to-morrow.

The Resolute, Capt. Bugher, leaves this afternoon at three o'clock for Evansville, Louisville, Cincinnati and other ports on the Ohio. The Resolute is a good boat, and Bugher a most excellent captain. Travelers for the Ohio will do well to take a state-room on the Resolute.

The highly popular boat Return, with its equally popular captain, Jones, will leave on Saturday for White river. The captain, though a young man, is a veteran in the trade, and a more agreeable trip could not be hoped for than a run up the White river in his company. The boat is expressly adapted for the traffic. Do not forget the Return.

The St. Louis Republican, of November 15, says:

The river at this point continues to fall at its old rate of decline. The upper rivers are all falling. There was no arrival from the Missouri river yesterday. The officers of the Canada from St. Paul, report very cold weather, and the river falling all the way down. On Tuesday, when the Canada left St. Paul, ice had been frozen to considerable thickness, though none had appeared in the river at that date. There has been a good deal of snow in the vicinity of St. Paul, and the bluffs and hills were white all the way down to Dubuque.

For the Memphis Appeal.]

MESSRS. EDITORS: In your report of the proceedings of the City Council you say:

"Alderman Douglass contended earnestly that 'sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish,' the city must avoid even a twist of repudiation, and pay the money. With him, Alderman Elder, Robinson and Copeland agreed." This leaves the inference on every mind that all the rest of the Board are repudiators of their just debts, when the fact is that there are only two members who entertain those odious sentiments.

I am satisfied that no Board of Aldermen elected by the good people of Memphis will ever repudiate any obligation made by their predecessors; but should the Board ever so far swerve from honor and dignity as to decide to place this city in so contemptable a position, and I happen to be a member of that Board, I will not serve with it another hour; and, further, whenever the people of Memphis become repudiators of the obligations made by their duly appointed agents, which, God forbid, should ever occur, I must then cease to serve them, and will retire that they may appoint a more obedient servant than I could ever be under such circumstances. I will not serve dishonored masters.

Yours truly,

THOMAS JAMES FINNIE,
Alderman of the Fourth Ward.

IS LUCK.—The New Orleans Bulletin learns that the pay-teller of the Bank of New Orleans is the lucky holder of the ticket that won the $100,000 in the last drawing of the Havana Lottery.

THE POETRY OF THE HAT.—We heard many poetical regrets expressed over the decline of an old and faithful coat; but if any of our readers should be in the sad predicament of having lost a hat, and are under the necessity of purchasing a new one, we commend to their attention the following ditty:

You may say (saint it what you can,
You'll feel the dress makes the man.
Though you may have as big a soul
As ever was 'neath our Lord's control,
Your honor will be naught, unless
You show it with a gorgeous dress.

And what's the dress without the hat?
'Tis poetry to a squalling brat.
Wear Night hats that with comfort teem,
Not heavy ones that show the seam.
The latest style have got a curl,
Admired by every Southern girl.

To have a nice hat, much it matters,
To go and see the "Model Matters."
There, I tell you what I mean,
On Front Row, number 172;
And 'tis as true as this ditty,
They've got the best hats in the city.

And when they move to Brinkley's Block,
And open out their fine, large stock,
It will enchant men, boys and babies,
And so, indeed, the place for ladies.
They live to please—they're bound to flourish—
Three two young men,

FAIRCHILD & MORRIS.

N. B.—Their hats are all worn here at home,
And not by foreign Tapes at Rome.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
THURSDAY, November 18, 1858.

NEW YORK.—From the News, November 12: The aggregate of the money market is one of extreme moderation in the employment of its large superabundance of supply. The brokers borrow with ease at 3@4 ⅌ cent., on call, and time loans are 4@5 ⅌ cent. The discount business quotes rates at 4@5 ⅌ cent. for good indorsed business paper, and 5@7 for single names.

The usual course of the 12th, says: New Orleans exchange is changing rapidly in favor of New York, and is now at par. We only hear of $100,000 specie sent this week to Boston, while sold to coming to us from Philadelphia, and the Star of the West has arrived, with more than the usual semi-monthly remittance from California. The exact amount brought is $1,072,016, besides treasury drafts. Charleston exchange has also fallen to par. Money continues in unprecedented abundance. Sterling exchange is declining, and as the shipments of cotton are increased, it is possible we may receive specie from Europe. The rates for on 'Change are 3@5 ⅌ cent., mostly 3@4; brokers generally borrow at 4.

PREMIUM
LIGHTNING RODS.
A COPPER AND IRON
WIRE CABLE.

First Premium awarded at the Alabama State Fair, November 4th, 1858.

THERE are two objections generally urged against the common style of Lightning Rods, viz: That they work loose, and sometimes come entirely apart at the joints, and that they become rusty, and thus lose a part of their conducting power. These serious objections are now entirely obviated, by putting up the Rods in one continuous piece, without break or joint, and by the introduction of Copper in their manufacture.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE, KY.,
December 27, 1857.

This may certify, that I have carefully examined the Wire-Rope Lightning Conductor, manufactured by Messrs. J. A. Beem & Co., in this city, and am fully convinced, that their patent is a decided improvement in the employment of its large surface for supply. The brokers borrow with ease at 3@4 ⅌ cent., on call, and time loans are 4@5 ⅌ cent. The discount business quote rates at 4@5 ⅌ cent. for good indorsed business paper, and 5@7 for single names.

Commercial Matters.

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE,
THURSDAY, November 18, 1858.

COTTON.—The market was more lively yesterday, at the previous day's prices; 2,441 bales were reported sold as follows: 8 at 9¾, 110 at 9¾, 82 at 9⅞, 10 at 10, 8 at 10⅛, 126 at 10¼, 31 at 10⅜, 439 at 10½, 67 at 10⅝, 1,075 at 10¾, 8 at 10⅞, 451 at 11, 60 at 11⅛, 7 at 11¼—total, 2,448 bales. Over a thousand bales sold at 10½; 787 bales were sold below that rate, and 654 above it. There was considerable demand for good cottons, and we have reason to believe that much more cotton was sold at 11 cents than our report shows. If this was the case, of course the common qualities left on hand will be sold in a few days, at a price that will make the market appear lower than it really average.

Inferior	7 @ 7¾	Good Middling	10¾@10⅞
Ordinary	8 @ 8¾	Middling Fair	11¾@11⅞

Low Middling	10 @10¼	Good Fair	11¾@11¾
Middling	10¾@10¾	Good and Fine	11¾@12

The Nimrods took out for New Orleans, yesterday, 2,600 bales, and the Planet 600; the Messenger took for the Ohio river, 325 bales.

The Ohio railroad brought in 228 bales of cotton on Tuesday.
