THE APPEAL.

ARKANSAS NEWS.

HELENA CIRCUIT COURT.—This court holds its next session, commencing on Monday next, Judge BEASLEY presiding

UNITED STATES TROOPS TO BE ORDERED TO FORT SMITH.—It will be seen in another column that the Secretary of War has informed Mr. Butterfield that he will at an early day dispatch troops to this city for the protection of the overland mail between this city and California. The troops will be sent forward from here to the exposed points along the line. They will be furnished with the improved arms which will be forwarded here soon.

The Indians on the plains will, at an early day, be compelled to call upon the United States for protection, or upon the "rocks and mountains to hide them;" for we are confident they will be whipped out root and branch and we care not how soon.—Fort Smith Herald.

The same paper of the 13th inst., has the following:

ARRIVAL OF THE OVERLAND MAIL FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The overland mail from San Francisco arrived here on Wednesday morning last, having been out twenty two days and some hours, with six passengers. This is the ninth through stage from California, having had no detention from the Indians, and there is no dependence to be placed in the wild Indians, and said will be seen in another column, United States troops are to be placed along the entire route.

The citizens of Crawford county made a number of suspicious persons leave Frog Bayou, in that county, one day last week. They are the same individuals that were driven from Franklin county a few weeks since.

INDIAN PAYMENT.—Major Recton, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, we learn, finished paying out $159,000, due the Creeks and Seminoles, on the 12th inst.

RE-ELECTION OF MR. SEBASTIAN.—We are advised by a private telegraphic dispatch from Memphis that the Hon. Wm. K. Sebastian, has been re-elected to the United States Senate for six years from the fourth of March next by the legislature of Arkansas, now in session. The vote was nearly unanimous. There is no man in the State who has served him constituents in the better fidelity than Judge Sebastian, either in peace or in that body, or another term his continued retaining confidence of the people is proof of such faithfully represents. If all of the State he so ably represents, he affords us much pleasure to congratulate him with his numerous friends everywhere in tendering him our congratulations.—Washington Union.

Secretary Cobb's Report.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes under date of November 17th, as follows:

"It is said that the reports of the heads of department and bureau are in progress, if not completed. The report of the Secretary of the Treasury on the state of the finances is made directly to Congress, while those of the other Secretaries are made to the President. Mr. Cobb's report is looked for by the public with much interest, as it is to indicate the mode in which the public expenditures are to be met, at least for a year or two to come.

It is believed that the treasury will propose a general revision of the tariff, with a view to increase the rate of duties on articles now dutiable. A report is current that he will propose duties on tea and coffee at a rate that will yield five millions. This is a plan that will necessarily present itself to Congress as an alternative to a loan. But it is hardly to be supposed that another resort to a loan can be avoided, nor is there any reason why Congress should hesitate to borrow money, while there is a well-founded belief in the future ability of the government to pay it. It would be far better to borrow money than to oppress the public by onerous taxes upon the necessaries of life; or, by an increase of the tariff, to cause a large surplus to be accumulated for in Congress.

The treasury estimates have, it is said, been made up, and will soon appear in print. The estimates have, of course, been made with an eye to the necessity of keeping within reasonable limits the increasing expenditures of the government. These expenditures have necessarily followed our expansion of territory, and will perhaps be, for long, increased to such an amount that they can no longer be met by duties on imports. To direct taxes and excises we must come at last, or indulge less in a thirst for continental dominion.

The same correspondent says:

The state of our relations with Mexico is such that our Executive government must necessarily very soon take a positive attitude in regard to them. I have no doubt the policy of the Executive on the subject will be fully developed in the President's message to Congress at the opening of the coming session. The policy of inactivity is, I am persuaded, to be abandoned. It may be a question how far the present cabinet may be trusted in regard to measures now under consideration in relation to Mexico, but it is to be supposed, from the past transactions of the Administration, that they will present a firm and bold front in regard to foreign as well as domestic questions.

VALUE OF HORSES.—Sometime ago, a Dr. R. C. Lind, shot a man in Lexington, Mississippi, and was thrown in prison to await his trial. Mrs. Lind was frequently admitted to the jail, and a few days ago, took occasion to transfer her apparel to her husband, who passed the jailor as Mrs. Lind, and made tracks for parts unknown. The Advertiser says: "Judge Henry, on being informed of Dr. Lind's escape, declared that his wife should go in his place, unless he was returned; but we are glad that the severe rigor of justice gave way to the dictates of humanity, and she was released. We don't know to what extent Mrs. Lind is culpable in the eyes of the law; but we do know that the self-sacrificing devotion of a wife, as exemplified in this instance, is but one of those pure, ennobling traits which so adorn female character."—Choctaw News.

☞ At the recent election in Massachusetts, Robert C. Winthrop, one of the Old-Line Whig leaders who refused to become merged into Know-Nothingism or any other party, was defeated, and who yet stood aloof from the Democracy—this Robert C. Winthrop, able, patriotic and devoted to the Union of these States, rose in his entire conquered his Union prejudices and opposition to the Democracy, and voted for the Democratic candidate for Congress in opposition to Burlingame, the rank Abolitionist. He, like a distinguished Know-Nothing candidate for Governor in Tennessee, who was defeated because of Know-Nothingism by Andy Johnson, sees that there are but two parties in the country at this time—the National Democracy, the party true to the Union, and the Abolitionists, led on by Seward, devoted to the subjugation of the Southern States or a dissolution of the Union, and, therefore goes for the Democracy, the Constitution and the Union.—Huntsville Advocate.

PARISIAN FUN.—A Paris correspondent of the Philadelphia Bulletin says:

"The fashionable clubs here have got a new hobby. Large wagers are made on the result of promenades, performed from one given point to another, in Paris, on foot, by one of the members of said clubs—the difficulty consisting in the walking that distance blindfolded. Thus, it is not unusual to meet, on a fine, starry night, a number of persons, escorting one of these adventurous weights. A Mr. —— Sr. R. wagered one thousand francs against thirty thousand that he would walk, blindfolded, from the Bastile to the Madeleine and after succeeding the numberless difficulties and obstacles such a feat presented, he succeeded in winning the bet, having, very probably for the first time in his life, earned his money by the sweat of his brow."

CARSON'S PUMP SHOP,
On Second Alley,
BETWEEN UNION AND MONROE,

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Memphis and the country, and his numerous customers living at a distance in the country for their past patronage in his line of business, which business has hitherto been confined to the manufacturing and repairing of the Chain Pump, and still believing these to be the best pump in use, when modern good material and properly put up, (and the nearest when not so much so,) he would respectfully solicit a share of patronage. The Chain Pump cannot be used; also a few pumps yet thus put up, and warranted, he still thinks that there are other Pumps in use superior to the Chain Pump. I have determined to accommodate the taste of all by putting up or altering to order any kind of a Pump that this market can furnish. I have therefore, engaged an experienced workman, lately from the East, who will attend to this, will cut and settle all orders at short notice. He will also do every kind of PLUMBING, all of which I warrant myself and when I say warrant, I mean what I say, and say what I mean.

I have to the last year, added to my machinery to a number of Gun Pumps with entire success. I have also used large balance wheels on Hand Chain Pumps with equal success. In case you have heard of the wonderful Link Chain and Tumed Balloon, which is quite expensive, don't "freshen not away."

ANYTHING BY PARTS.

I have recently invented a CHAIN PUMP BOX, embracing two complete, separate and distinct Chain Pumps, in the box, (or double barrels, (and double price) two go upon one draw water, from this box at the same time, having no interference with each other whatever, being the best and in the particular, well or bucket, large enough for an man to do or set, chickens or mules to come from or a yard to water. I would refer you to Messrs. Fowlkes, Fowlkes & Co., Rugban and J. H. Stevens & Co.

W. CARSON.

P. S. I am prepared to ship Pumps at orders in short notice, up or down, east or west of the Mississippi river.
