THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY.....NOVEMBER 26, 1858

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Divine service will be held in the First Presbyterian Church on Popular street, on Thursday, 25th inst., (Thanksgiving day) at 11 o'clock. An address suitable to the occasion will be delivered by Rev. Dr. WADDEL, of LaGrange Synodical College.

COTTON.—We, this morning, report the sale of over four thousand bales of cotton yesterday at full prices. Memphis is hard to beat when a cotton bale is in question.

☞ The Hon. O. HARRISON, one of the prominent Old-Line Whigs of Panola county, Miss., paid us a visit yesterday. We are gratified to find that age has dealt gently with our old and esteemed friend.

CRIMINAL COURT.—This court was occupied during the whole of yesterday in the trial of JOHN CARSON, for the murder of a fellow prisoner in the calaboose. The testimony was gone through with and the argument proceeding at dusk last evening.

CHOCTAW (MISS.) RECORDER.—We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Mr. J. P. DODRIDGE, editor and proprietor of this paper, who has been spending a day or two in Memphis. He publishes a sound Democratic paper and in a region of country whose trade it is desirable that our merchants should enjoy. They would, therefore, consult their interest by advertising liberally in the Recorder.

THE WASHINGTON RIFLE-BALL.—This ball takes place at Odd-Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening next. The anniversary occasions of this company have always been among the most agreeable affairs of the winter season, and this year preparations have been made on a most liberal scale, and it is believed that all previous anniversary balls of the company will be eclipsed on Monday night. We thank the Directors for invitations.

A SENSATION ITEM.—Under the head of "mysterious," a morning cotemporary, yesterday, had the following: "On Friday last, a Mrs. KENNEDY, an Irish woman, was found dead in her house on the corner of Green and Shelby streets, with an infant in her arms. The latter was alone. A large clot of blood was found on the floor. Her husband, PETER KENNEDY, has disappeared." We have been unable to find Green street on RUCKER'S new map. That is mysterious.

VAN AMBURG'S MENAGERIE.—This celebrated American institution is having a profitable time in the city; its wise popularity leading crowds to visit it. To-day is their last day in this city, and those who have not visited it must lose no time. The spectacle of these wonders of natural history is not only interesting but instructive, to youth especially the sight is a great educational assistance, awakening their interest in their studies, and adding personal observation to their book knowledge.

THE HAGGAMAN CAVALCADE.—Our townsman, Mr. J. E. PENDLETON, leaves this afternoon on the the St. Francis, with two hundred hands engaged for work on the Haggaman Cravasse, below Lake Providence. There are now two hundred and fifty hands at work there, and this re-enforcement, it is believed, will be sufficient to have the work done by the time contracted—1st of January. It will be remembered that this crevasse inundated property, the value of which is estimated at near seven millions of dollars.

SEWING.—The inventor of the sewing machine accomplished a feat long—even in our own day—deemed impossible; now, however, we have numerous machines that can sew, and they puzzle us to choose among so many that are meritorious. The other day we saw Sloat's Machine at work, at H. P. MILLER'S agency, 194 Main street. It is a splendid thing, can work the finest shirt bosom, or stitch the leather for a shoe, and yet it is cheaper than the more early invented machines. We advise our lady readers to call and see it—they will find a lady at work who will politely explain to them the whole process.

☞ Mr. WM. J. SMITH, general news agent on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, starts out in person this morning, and will take the cars at Grand Junction for Water Valley, on the Mississippi Central Railroad. He will travel on this road for two or three days from Grand Junction to Water Valley and back, for the purpose of receiving the subscriptions of any persons who may desire the Daily APPEAL. Persons desiring the APPEAL can make arrangements with Mr. SMITH to get it every morning at twenty-five cents per week. Mr. SMITH will stop at the various stations on the road, and we commend him to the courtesies of our friends.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Major EAST had a very light day yesterday, only six cases were brought before him—four men were charged with drunkenness and sent to sober off on the chain-gang. Two others, guilty of the justifiable killing of a pig, were discharged on a verdict of "served the pig right." Two more for disorderly conduct were dealt with according to their deserts. The clerk, Mr. MOORE, after rubbing his spectacles to their brightest and entering his receipts in the ledger, announced the cash proceeds of the day's labor to be a dollar and a half. It is evident that the place for cheap justice is Major EAST's court, but do not advise our readers to patronize it.

MEMPHIS WATER WORKS.—We passed these extensive works on the landing yesterday and were struck with the air of desolation that has succeeded their late busy appearance. The engine was at rest, that for months has puffed and groaned as it sent the fluid up the hill to supply those vehicles whose sprinkling was as potent to lay the demon that haunts Memphis in the summer, as that of the priest is to lay evil spirits in general. The chimney—from whose vent issued no column of black and choking fume—hung all away. Ichabod was written on the deserted shed. The power that conquered the summer demon stands silent and impotent before the winter one—it could lay the dust, but what might is great enough to lay the mud?

THE WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was lowering, dull and cold. Just before sunset a rent in the cloudy curtain allowed the sun to show his bright disc for a few minutes, the flat scenery of the Arkansaw shore smiled merry as a bridegroom, under the enlivening influence, and the broad Mississippi looked bright and beautiful as it reflected the silver ray that fell salant its capacious bosom. People generally imagine that nature's most enchanting beauties are reserved for out of the way nooks, and distant places; it is not so; the most common place scenery glistens with loveliness under certain aspects. The genuine lover of nature watches for such wayward favors as the scatch of slanting sunlight from a frowning sky that we have mentioned, and treasures up the effect in the volume of unwritten poetry that is stamped enduringly upon his soul.

A HOWARD'S ROW CASE.—We were present in the Recorder's court yesterday, when a "regular built" Howard's Row case was brought up for trial. No school-boy caught manfully filching nuts out of a comrade's pocket ever looked more thoroughly "cheap" than did MICHAEL HANNAGEN, the accused individual, when confronted with justice. MICHAEL was not bad looking; in fact, we should take him to be what is called "a good hearted fellow." His face was smeared with tobacco juice; his hair, which was a little curly, hung elfishly about his face; he had no neckerchief on, his shirt bosom was unbuttoned, and his garment showed tokens of a closer acquaintance with mother earth than is permitted by good society to any but geologists. Two policemen—after taking the oath in a very business-like way, and kissing the Bible as if it were a brick—deposed that they found the culprit on Howard's Row; he was very high, but his language was very low; he was too "jolly" to be able to control his tongue, and too much elevated to carry his head level; he was bent on doing something extra, but a fifteen months' baby could beat him at walking. He uttered shrieks that would have been magnificent in a panorama, and talked with a facility that would be a fortune to a pill peddler. The men engaged in rolling cotton down the landing were especial objects of his attention, and with an air of importance, he issued his commands to them, with the energy of action and the volubility of epithetical language that could not be exceeded by a third mate of a steamboat who had enjoyed fifteen years' practice.

During the accusation, MICHAEL frequently desired to exercise a privilege often begged for by members of Congress—just to say "a few words" on that subject. When permitted to speak, he twisted his hat round uneasily, and declared he was very sorry, and if his Honor would "let him go this time," he would never do any more. His Honor, however, turned a deaf ear to MICHAEL—who had not half the powers of eloquence when sober that he had shown when drunk—and sentenced him to labor thirteen days on the chain gang, and this morning the unlucky fellow is laboring gratis in the streets for having associated to freely with the company on Howard's Row.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river was still falling yesterday; mud was much in the way of business on the landing but the amount of business going on was very large, notwithstanding.

The fine Cincinnati packet Memphis, leaves this evening for the Ohio river, and persons wishing to reach Cairo, Paducah, Evansville, Louisville, Cincinnati, and intermediate ports, will find the Memphis the very boat to suit them. Capt. Bugbee is in command and Dean in the office, and they are gentlemen who take good care of their passengers.

The magnificent Ingomar is the New Orleans packet this evening.

The neat and comfortable boat Evansville, Capt. Baird, is the regular packet for White river this evening. Comfortable state rooms, a good table, every necessary accommodation, and polite officers, await the travelers on the Evansville.

☞ Dealers in clothing are referred to the advertisement of Messrs. G. B. LOCKE & Co., who will sell this day, at nine o'clock, a large lot of superior clothing to the trade. Sale positive for cash.

☞ Merchants are referred to the advertisement of Messrs. G B LOCKE & Co., of a large sale of seasonable dry goods, to be made by them on Friday next. The goods are fresh and perfect, and will be sold without reserve.

☞ Dr. W. C. BEVAN, dentist, has removed to the corner of Main and Union streets, up stairs, over FLAHERTY'S old stand. See his card in another column.

THANKSGIVING PIES.—At JOSEPH SPECHT'S confectionery on Madison street above Main, on Thanksgiving day, (to-morrow) will be found any quantity of thanksgiving pies of the most delicious quality. Ladies and gentlemen calling, will have them served hot in the most agreeable style.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The party tendered Professor HASIMI by the young gentlemen members of his classes on the occasion of the closing of a session of his very popular dancing schools in this city, we learn is definitely set for Friday evening next. The event no doubt will be one of rare pleasure to the young folks who will participate therein, and prove exceedingly gratifying to the worthy gentleman in whose honor it is given.

To the Public.

MEMPHIS, November 23, 1858.

To the Editor of the Eagle and Enquirer:

There seems to be a wrong impression upon the minds of some people, and a false report in regard to the case of G. R. Simmons, the man that stole Buford's cotton here some time since and sold it to John V. Baugh, and then made his escape back to Panola county, Mississippi. The Police authorities here are charged with going to Mississippi after the said Simmons for the consideration of towards, and bringing him back here in order to get Mr. Baugh's money back from him, which was done, and then, for a small reward, aiding and abetting to affect his escape from the law of this State which he, the said G. A. Simmons, had so grossly violated. Now as to the police having any thing to do with this matter they never did, more than to make a dilligent effort to find him here, the day that he stole the cotton; but he left town very soon after he had done it. But as to the police officers going to Mississippi after him, there was not one that went. But Mr. John V. Baugh hired two men, Daniel Bogert and William Grant, to go to Panola county after him, which they done; and Bogert and Grant, with the Sheriff, Robert Moore, of Panola county brought Simmons back to Memphis, and carried him to Mr. Baugh, who was sick at his residence. Mr. Baugh not feeling able to attend to business told them to take him to his partner, Peter Harris, at the office, and that whatever his partner would do would be right with him. They then went to Mr. Harris, and the matter was settled in the following manner: The father of G. A. Simmons had deposited four hundred dollars in the hands of Robt. Moore, Sheriff of Panola county, Miss., for him to bring to Memphis and deposit in some man's hands, for the purpose of effecting the release and escape of his son, which conditions were as follows: the four hundred dollars brought here by Sheriff Moore, was to be paid over to John V. Baugh & Co., provided that he, the Sheriff, could get the said G. A. Simmons out of Memphis, without his being arrested by our officers which he succeeded in doing by the matter being kept a secret from the police until Simmons was gone out of town. In conclusion, we would say to the public, that there has been a wrong done, but the police of Memphis had nothing whatever to do with it, and are not willing to lie under such a charge; but saddle it upon those to whom it belongs, and not upon the police.

WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION—ANOTHER GREAT CURE EFFECTED BY BERRIAN'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—The wife of Pieter De Witte, living in Hollan', wo, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from Weakness of the Stomach and Indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some HOLLAND BITTERS at our office, which has given tone to her stomach; her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by our medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true. J. QUINTUS

THE undersigned offers for sale, a section of Land situated on White Oak Bayou, about four miles and a half from Austin. Terms, one third cash, and the balance in two equal instalments—the one payable in one, and the other in two years, each to draw interest at ten per cent. It will come off before the first day of January, if offer not be sold at the above price. Judge Dooley who lives near the place, or Wm. J. The N. O. Price Current, of November 20, reports: The transactions of the week in our leading staples have been to a very extent, and cotton and sugar and molasses have done off quite freely, while cotton generally has been in good request, though operations have been confined with extreme caution by the Northern and English exchange, and adverse European advices. In tobacco there have been no operations of consequence, and the business in other articles of produce has been limited to partly all article at Western produce.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 16th instant, of Louisiana and Mississippi, 20,710 bales, Tennessee and North Alabama 3,954, Arkansas 1,774, Mobile 205, Florida 163, Texas 165—together 27,084 bales. Total receipts of the season to the 16th inst., 1,000,000 bales. On Thursday morning the Crescent's advices, three days later, were before the public, reported the decline at Liverpool to have been at ¼@¼d within the week, but this information was received in a very little or no effect upon our own market, buyers again coming forward quite freely and taking about 12,000 bales. Yesterday there was again a very fair inquiry, but with only a moderate supply of desirable little the business fell off to about 9,000 bales, making a total for the past three days of 32,000 bales, and for the week of 60,500 bales, taken for Great Britain, France and the continent of Europe, with some for coastwise for our Northern ports. With respect to prices, we have to remark that to the lower grades, which are comparatively neglected, and are now accumulating the rates (or some days past have been rather in favor of buyers but for the qualities ranging from Middling to Good Middling, which embrace the bulk of the demand, the prices of the early part of the week are not only fully sustained, but they have acquired decidedly more steadiness and firmness within the last day or two, notwithstanding the adverse European advices, a further advance in freights and a still greater decline of the rates of exchange. There appears to be but little inquiry for the finer grades, and the rates for them are mostly nominal.

The receipts at this port since the first of September, inclusive, (at the ports above from Mobile, Florida and Texas) are 312,548 bales, against 305,127 bales to same date last year; and the increase in the receipts at all the ports of the United States, as compared with last year, is 137,201 bales. In the exports from the United States to foreign ports, we have to report a falling off of 12,000 bales, and there is an increase of 49,526 bales to Great Britain, of 73,802; to France, and of 11,294 bales to other foreign ports.
