TO THE STOCKHOLDERS IN THE Southern Pacific Railroad.

PROMPTLY pay the 1st instalment of fifty cents on each share, or at most one-fourth of the 2d payment, at the time thereof, and your due calls, as recommended by the Louisville Convention, into the office of J. New Orleans Convention

AN adjourned Stockholders' Meeting will be held at New Orleans on the 20th December, and doubtless largely attended. I trust every stockholder will pay up all unpaid instalments on stock, of whatever kind—lose, forfeited or sold. We desire every stockholder may be protected who will protect himself. The Road is thrown widely open, but stockholders who pay instalments may surrender stock, or loss 50 cents per share, are unwilling to protect such as neglect or refuse to do so. No candid man can be contemplated of paying off the $217,000 on 15th January, 1859, of obtaining possession of the Company's property, and the dismissal of the State's proceedings. All who act will be protected; those who do not comply can be cut off.

I append a resolution of the Board of Directors, unanimously adopted 19th November, 18 9:

"Resolved, That the President is hereby instructed to adopt, under the advice of counsel, the measures best calculated, by the laws of Texas, to protect those who shall pay up all annual instalments of stock—who shall make the loan of 50,000 dollars per share, or surrender one-half of their 5 per cent stock, as recommended by the stockholders at their last meeting."

All should pay money or surrender stock to the agents specified by the stockholders. They will, I confidently report to me, at Memphis, Tennessee, twice a week, and assemble at New Orleans a day or so before our meeting on the 20th instant. We have patient assiduity, a feeling and purpose, and the enterprise projected, I trust, from all danger hitherto encountered.

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY.....DECEMBER 11, 1858.

THE BICENTENNIAL OF QUEEN ELIZABETH—Yesterday being the 200th anniversary of the accession of the throne of Queen Elizabeth, the event was commemorated generally throughout the metropolis, in many places of worship sermons on the occasion being delivered. At Westminster Abby there was a performance of full choral services, including the Litany, which was chanted by the Rev. C. M. Arnold, minor canon, from Tallis, Mr. Thurle presiding at the organ. The Rev. Dr. Trench, Dean of Westminster, delivered a most appropriate discourse from the 33d chapter of Isaiah, 5th and 6th verses in the course of which he paid a tribute to the memory of her whom he was commemorating, adding, that whatever her private foibles might have been she never allowed them to interfere with her royal duties in the advancement of education. At Christ Church, Newgate street, the Lord Mayor, the principle members of the Court of Aldermen, the sheriffs and other civil functionaries were present in state. The whole of the scholars, with their master and the court of government, were also present.

FLATFOOTED COURTSHIP.—One long summer afternoon there came to Mr. Davidson's the most curious specimens of an old bachelor the the world ever heard of. He was gray, wrinkled and odd. He hated women, especially old maids, and wasn't afraid to say so. He and Aunt Patty had it hot and heavy, whenever chance threw them together; yet—till he came, and it was noticed that Aunt Patty took unusual pains with her dress whenever he was expected. One day the contest waged unusually strong. Aunt Patty left him in disgust, and went out into the garden. "The bear!" she muttered to herself, as she stooped to gather a blossom which attracted her attention.

"What did you run away for?" said a gruff voice close to her side.

"To get rid of you."

"You didn't do it, did you?"

"No, you are worse than a burdock burr."

"You won't get rid of me, neither."

"I won't, eh?"

"Only in one way."

"And what?"

"Marry me!"

"What, the two fools get married? What will people say?"

"That's nothing to us. Come, say yes or no. I'm in a hurry."

"Well no, then."

"Very well, good-by. I shan't come again."

"But stop a bit—what a pucker to be in!"

"Yes or no?"

"I must consult"—

"All right—I thought you was of age. Good-by!"

"Jabez Andrews, don't be a fool. Come back, come back, I say. Why, I believe the critter has taken me for earnest. Jabez Andrews I'll consider."—

"I don't want no considering, I've gone, Becky Hastings is waiting for me. I thought I'd give you the first chance. All right, Good-by."

"Jabez—Jabez! That stuck-up Becky Hastings shan't have him, if I die for it. Jabez—yes. Do you hear? Y-e-s!"

Hostetter's "Stomach Bitters" in all cases of Dyspepsia and similar affections has given that valuable preparation a wide popularity among those who for years suffered from such ailments. It is excellent as a tonic and beneficial in its effects on the system. Its history is one almost of miracles, due to which Dr. Hostetter can point with confidence and credit. Indeed, no remedy, perhaps, in the same period has attained such an extended popularity as the Doctor's "Bitters," which are ever regarded as a certain cure for distress of stomach. Those who have tried it speak praisingly of its effects, and therefore we can commend it to general use. The "Bitters" are free from anything calculated to prove injurious to the system, or objectionable to the patient.

THE GREAT WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, PROF. WOOD'S Hair Restorative! SETS the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a merchant in Maine, which speaks strongly of the superior virtues of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have the effect when coming from a reliable source. If our readers are guardian of truth, the Dr. needs no commendation, nor unless puffery from the press: BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1856. Professor O. J. Wood & Co.: GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same (the latter been three months since) I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for many years. I am now thirty years old, and my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with same effect. Send me notice I down due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contract on this statement. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here, and affixing my name as one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours, A. C. RAYMOND. BALTIMORE, Jan. 12, 1858. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. Professor Wood—Dear sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON. The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Brass, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great intelligence, and universally beloved. WM. DYER. Brookfield, January 15, 1856. Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that it effects all that is promised by its use; it cured my dandruff, and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was perfectly gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. E. BRAGG. The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small have a pint, and retail for one dollar per bottle; the medium bottle at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retail for two dollars; a bottle of the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for three dollars a bottle. THE LIVER INVIGORATOR PREPARED BY DR. SANDFORD. Compounded Entirely from Gums! It is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, cooling, mild, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the bowels and stomach to eject that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operation of most Cathartic medicines. The cooling influence the system has that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity. The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the health of the system is perfect. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the functions are at fault, and the stomach sympathizes with the Liver, it is called on to do its duty. For the one of the proprietors has tried every other medicine, and has never found one to be of any benefit to him, until he tried the Liver Invigorator. It has now been in use by him for the last three years, and has never failed to give him immediate relief. Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Jaundice, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Fever and Ague, and the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER, such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Costiveness, Dizziness, Drowsiness, Loss of Appetite, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Bilious, and Liver Complaints, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure. This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of the Medical profession, who have long been in the habit of this mildly country. Meeting with great success among them, it now offer to the American people, knowing that it has truly conferred unalloyed blessings on all who have used it. It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Persons of sedentary habits, in good health, will generally be found to be benefited by its use, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, imparting new health and vigor to the entire system. NOTICE—Wherever experience is had this invaluable medicine has become well known, and its virtues tried, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular medical properties. CAUTION. The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all other bitters. ☞ Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the Sole Proprietors, BENJAMIN PAGE, JR., & CO., MANUFACTURING Pharmaceutists and Chemists, PITTSBURGH, PA. S. MANSFIELD & CO., Agents for Memphis. Sold also by H. P. FARNSWORTH, WARD & JONES and JOHNSON & LONG, and Druggists generally. ap23-dtwawly&tf
