THE DAILY APPEAL.

Beautiful Suburban Property FOR SALE.

We have for sale eleven and one-half acres beautiful suburban property, situated on the corner of the new State line road and McLean avenue, two miles east of the city. This property is all under fence, and susceptible of being divided into three beautiful building sites. We desire to sell it in one body to one purchaser, at private sale, but if not disposed of in this way, it will be divided and sold at public auction on THURSDAY, the 16th day of December.

TERMS—One-third cash, one-third in six months, and the balance at two years, without interest.

Persons desiring to inspect the property will please call on Col. C. D. McLean, Tilman Bettis, Mr. Myers, Mr. Littlejohn, or Mr. Lynch, on the premises.

For terms, at private sale, apply to Col. G. B. Lock, or to

McCLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL,
n26-td Appeal Office.

☞ Farmers and others are referred to the advertisement of G. B. Locke & Co. for sale of mules and horses to be made by them this day at their auction rooms, 262 Main street, at 10 o'clock a. m. Better plan, however, is to attend the sale.

THE WEATHER.—Oceans of cloud, numerous showers, a few streaks of sunshine, and a (Memphis) universe of mud, made up the weather yesterday, with the admixture of a warm temperature as a sort of "another down."

THE BOONE SOLD.—The steamboat Daniel Boone was sold yesterday morning by auction, for six thousand dollars, to JOHN A. HOPPMAN, Esq. It is understood that the boat will soon resume her trips to Vicksburg, Captain MARSH MILLER in command.

☞ FAISCHILD & MORRIS are prepared for the holidays, as will be seen by reference to their advertisement. In the way of soft hats and ladies' furs, they stand in the front rank. See their card in special notice column, and then give them a call at No. 75 Front Row.

☞ The I-u-k Town Company wish it to be remembered that their sale of 200 town lots comes off on Wednesday, 15th. Bargains are to be had, and no cash is required—one and two years for payment. Sale to be made by CAYCE & SON.

PROF. FLETCHER'S LECTURE.—Owing to the bad weather and the muddy condition of the streets, this gentleman's lecture last night was not so well attended as its merits deserved. The lecture was an excellent one, well conceived, happily expressed, and abounding in extremely interesting matter. The audience were much delighted, and expressed great admiration.

THE BALTIMOREANS.—The Baltimore oysters sold by PANCOAST, at his depot on Monroe street, east of Main, are the rage now. Everybody is discovering their superiority to the New Orleans "gobblers." The reason of their greater delicacy of flavor is that they are from the salt waters, whereas the Orleans articles get drenched continually with fresh water from the Mississippi river, which injures their quality. PANCOAST had a large new supply arrived evening, fresh and fine, and full cans.

MARKET HOUSES.—The market house question is exciting very general attention; the citizens are determined to be the sufferers of the extortion of hucksters' carts no longer; they prefer paying a little in tax to a great deal to cheats and extortioners in huckasters' wagons. Messrs. DRANE, ROBINSON and DOUGLASS will do themselves credit in the city by promptly preparing a plan for a north and south market house, and when that is presented in Council the people will help it through.

MEMPHIS MEDICAL COLLEGE.—We learn that owing to engagements which will engross all his time and attention, Dr. GUTHRIE has found it impossible to fill his engagement as Professor of Materia Medica in this institution. His post will be filled by Dr. J. D. MARTIN, who, as Surgeon of the Memphis Hospital, and by his success in an extensive practice, has given evidence of his capacity to discharge his new duties with credit to himself and benefit to the College and student. The resigned Professorship could not have fallen into better hands.

A PHYSICIAN IN TROUBLE.—Dr. WILLIAM RIDGEWAY, is a member of the medical fraternity, belonging to what the orthodox practitioners term the "irregulars." His sphere of operations, since his sojourn in this city, has been confined principally to the chaingang, in connection with which he has lanced mother earth with a pickaxe, and aided to relieve our streets of their muddy plethora with a shovel, and performed other similar operations. Having taken up his degrees in the calabooze, he has been trying to qualify himself for the higher house at Nashville, and he has probably succeeded, for he was arrested yesterday for stealing a coat, the property of JOHN RINGWALD, from the Green Tree House.

THE GAIETY.—Miss JONES is still the accordant star at the Gaiety; each night she increases in favor with her audience, giving, as she does, the best known parts with a freshness and vigor that invest them with new charms. As is the case always when a new aspirant appears on the stage, there is considerable curiosity to know how she will compare with other and older celebrities in this or that particular character. Most attendants at the Gaiety are familiar with ELIZA LOGAN's personation of "Evadne," in the play of that name; it is a favorite part of hers, and she succeeds in it. To-night Miss JONES appears in this character, and a more striking one could scarcely be selected to test her powers. We expect to see a full house on the occasion. The petite comedy of the Windmill concludes evening.

A USEFUL MAN.—An advertisement we this day publish informs the public that R. M. SPICER has removed to Madison street, No. 30, between Front Row and Main street. The country reader is especially interested in this establishment as Mr. SPICER will sell for them the produce of their farm—butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, &c., also every description of game, and in short, with the exception of cotton, every possible thing they can bring from the farm yard, the fields, the woods, and the streams. He has a large connection, and is bound to find numerous customers at good prices. He will also purchase as well as sell, fulfilling accurately all orders whether from the town or the country. His price list will be found in another column, it is corrected regularly, and is reliable. Mr. SPICER is doing a brisk business, and from his industry and experience, he will be found decidedly "a useful man."

CRIMINAL COURT.—This Court did considerable business yesterday; JOSEPH BEST, charged with stealing a five dollar bill and five and a half dollars in specie from Mr. NEWCOMB, at the Mechanics boarding house, was sent to the penitentiary for three years.

In the case of M. M. FITZGERALD charged with stealing money, a nolle prosequi was entered.

R. J. REXER, charged with obtaining money on false pretences, was discharged from lack of evidence.

POWHATTAN WARD, charged with being a defaulter in the house of GLENN & Co., New Orleans, was discharged also for want of evidence.

P. VANNEEMAN, found guilty of stealing a carpet bag filled with clothing, was sent to the penitentiary for two years.

Several cases were continued over until the next term.

A MODEL RESTAURANT.—In a business city, like Memphis, where there are many strangers present on business; many gentlemen who live in the suburbs and come to the city in the morning, do business, dine here, and return home in an evening; and many persons without families who—disliking the discomforts of a boarding house—live in their own rooms, a good restaurant is not only a desirable but a necessary institution. True such persons can take meals at a hotel or a boarding house, but they are subject to the many inconveniences that are unavoidable where crowds dine together; and when appetite or the state of their health make a change from the ordinary diet desirable, they cannot be recommended—the same diet is provided for all, the feeble and the strong, the delicate and the ravenous, the sick and the robust—there is no difference. It is in these things that the superiority of the restaurant consists, where individuals or parties can dine at their own table, order their own dishes, and have precisely what they wish. Among the various restaurants in the city "Old Joe's" stands prominent, it is situated on Front Row, just in the business part of the city; it is ample in its accommodations, to which will, in a few days, be added a suite of detached rooms for private parties; the furnishing of the establishment is complete and in excellent taste; the waiters are numerous, well drilled, and obliging; the cook is maitre de son metier, an accomplished artist, experienced and proficient "Old Joe," himself, is a business man, conducting his establishment with energy and tact, polite and courteous in his manner, convivial and kind hearted—there are many good things about "Old Joe's Restaurant, but "Old Joe," himself, is the best of them all. Every delicacy the season can produce is to be found at "Old Joe's;" oysters in all styles, game of all descriptions cooked to perfection, splendid soups, appetizing entrees, delicious condiments, all that a bon vivear can desire are there. We have a pleasure in commending this establishment, for we have tried it, and say not a word more than it merits—every day, at all hours, on the shortest notice, "Old Joe," like a good genl, produces whatever is wanted. If anybody wants an idea of what Memphis can do let them take a meal at "Old Joe's."

LADY'S BOOK.—GEO. PATTISON & SON have received ahead of the mails and competitors, Godey's Lady's Book for January; this is the time to begin to subscribe for this elegant book with its tasty colored fashion plates and interesting information on all fashionable subjects.

A ST. LOUIS HOUSE.—We publish in our advertising columns the card of an old and well known St. Louis house, M. S. MEYHAN & BROTHER, wholesale dealers in fruits, nuts, cigars and confectionaries generally. This enterprising firm already does an extensive business with our city, but to those who are not acquainted with the house, we can recommend Messrs. M. & BROTHER as clever and reliable business men, every way worthy of the confidence and patronage of the public. Their establishment at the corner of Second and Green streets, is the largest of the kind in St. Louis or the West. See their card in another column.

MARKET HOUSE.—A considerable number of citizens spoke to us yesterday in reference to our paragraph on Thursday upon the subject of market houses. The project is decidedly a favorite one, and if Council is determined to leave housekeepers to be fleeced by cart hucksters, we are of opinion that they will have a reckoning to meet. The plea of poverty is regarded as a mere excuse—if it is genuine one, why are the figures so industriously concealed, while the fact is so loudly and repeatedly proclaimed when convenience makes it politic to do so? Messrs. DRANE, ROBINSON and KORTKRECHT, the special committee on the subject, have good wishes for success.

☞ Attention is directed to the law card of Messrs. WRIGHT & BLAIR, at Jacinto, Mississippi. Hon. D. R. WRIGHT is well known to our readers, and therefore any word of commendation would be superogation. Yet we may venture to say of our young and talented friend BLAIR, that he is made of the very material in whose vocabulary "there is no such word as fail." He is talented, ambitious, studious and well grounded in the law. We therefore commend him to the favor of our North Mississippi friends, among whom he was reared and educated, and whose interests he is prepared to serve with fidelity.

HORSE THIEF.—At McConnell, a few days ago, ED. GRAHAM lent his mare to LAWRENCE WILSON to come to the city. LAWRENCE not making his appearance back on the mare's back or in any other way, GRAHAM came to the city to hunt him and found him on the Hopefield ferryboat. WILSON told a sorrowful tale of how the mare had thrown him on Front Row the first day of his arrival in the city and run off, since which he had not seen her. They spent the day in inquiries and searching livery stables. They had no success, and at night, having arranged to extend their search to the suburbs, the two went to bed. In the morning WILSON was not to be found. GRAHAM became suspicious and made inquiries on the ferryboat, which led to his finding the horse at Dr. BATES', who had bought it of WILSON. The culprit was soon afterward in the clutches of the police, who yesterday brought him before Esq. HORNE, by whom he was sent to jail to await his trial for horse stealing.

INSURRECTION.—On Thursday last, when the overseer of Col. DANDRIDGE, of DeSoto county, Miss., was about to chastise one of his negro men, he was resisted, and the spirit of rebellion seemed to take possession of all the negroes on the plantation, numbering in all between fifty and one hundred. Both Col. DANDRIDGE and his overseer were compelled to take refuge in the house and bar the doors for safety. Court being in session at Hernando, Judge CUSHMAN, on Friday, directed the deputy sheriff to summon a posse for the purpose of reducing the negroes to subjection. The sheriff returned on Saturday, having arrested five, who were placed in jail. Others are still at large.

Those arrested will probably be brought to trial at the present term of the court, and it is believed that, under statute of the State, they will be condemned to death.

Col. DANDRIDGE is a very lenient master, and out of this, it is believed, has grown the insubordination of his negroes. He has frequently, as we learn, interposed between his overseer and his negroes, and prevented their correction when they deserved it.

ASH'S THEATRE.—This Theatre from old recollections is a favorite with the citizens of Memphis, and many will be glad to hear that it is to be re-opened for the professional season to-morrow night, with an excellent company, we are assured, including Miss Greenwood, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. Dunvage, Mrs. Thorp, Miss Marietta, Miss K. Connor and Miss E. Tree; and among the gentlemen, Messrs. W. Henderson, Geo. Johnson, G. C. Bryden, Mike Lawler, O. E. Dunvage, S. DeGroat, S. Hubbard, W. Schlim, J. Graham, G. Caulfield, J. Signiago, G. McWilliams and D. T. Ash. Some of these ladies and gentlemen have already obtained popularity here, the others are stated to be accomplished and skillful in their profession, such as will revive the recollection of the palmiest days of the old Washington Street Theatre. A number of the first theatrical stars in the Union, we learn, are engaged and will appear in rapid succession.

To-morrow night will open with the Irish humorist and vocalist, HARRY MACARTHY. This gentleman, though a stranger with us, is by no means unknown in the profession. He has obtained high encomiums in various cities as is testified by the New York Herald, Philadelphia Ledger, St. Louis Republican, New Orleans Picayune, Chicago Times, and other leading papers. The New York Herald says of his appearance at Burton's Theatre:

"We last night saw the old piece of the Poor Soldier, at this favorite house, go of with eclat. Mr. H. Macarthy, as 'Father Luke,' displayed a higher degree of comic talent than we supposed he possessed; he has a good brogue, and a fine tenor voice, and is winning golden opinions nightly."

The St. Louis Republican says:

"Mr. Macarthy is, without disparagement to the numerous delineators of Irishmen with whom we have been favored, the most uncouth and amusing of the class, and unlike most of his compeers, is a well educated vocalist; in fact, a broth of a boy, and gives the Irish character as it should be, without the too common accompaniments of vulgar caricature."

WANTED.—To buy a smart, active negro girl, aged about ten or twelve years. Apply at counting room of APPEAL office.

Dr. Carr, No. 30 Front Row, furnishes in person as good and cheap pictures as any taken in the city. d9-1w

R. J. REXER, charged with obtaining money on false pretences, was discharged from lack of evidence.

POWHATTAN WARD, charged with being a defaulter in the house of GLENN & Co., New Orleans, was discharged also for want of evidence.

P. VANNEEMAN, found guilty of stealing a carpet bag filled with clothing, was sent to the penitentiary for two years.

Several cases were continued over until the next term.

Port of Memphis.

River News.

The river was still rising yesterday. Business was much hindered by rain and the muddy condition of the landing, and some boats were obliged, from this cause, to lay over to complete their loading.

The splendid and well patronized public favorite, the Glendale, James Bugler in command, Pepper, clerk, is at the landing. The Ohio being in fine stage, this boat will continue her usual trips as the regular Louisville and Cincinnati packet for the remainder of the season. The boat is elegantly furnished; her saloon is a magnificent one, her state-rooms comfortable, and her table well supplied. Her cook is an artist, and her steward an experienced caterer. To those journeying to parts on the Ohio river, who wish to have a safe, swift and enjoyable trip, we say—take the Glendale at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The Evansville, for White river, was detained by the rain and mud yesterday, but will certainly leave this evening at 4 o'clock.

The Fitzhugh is loading at the landing. She leaves for Arkansas river at noon to-day. This is a good opportunity for parties bound that way, as the boat is an excellent one.

The Langley, Captain Mason, is the regular packet to-day for Napoleon; she leaves at 3 o'clock this afternoon, carrying the United States mails. She is a punctual boat, has gentlemanly officers, and though rapid on the way, is safe and tight.

This is the advertised day for the fleet Admiral, Captain Fleming, to leave for White river. Her time is 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Return from White river got in last night, and we learn that Captain Jones will start for White and Little Red rivers to morrow evening. Look out for the Return. She is a fine boat to travel on and has excellent officers. Jones is a whole souled gentleman.

The Ohio river boats state that the water washigh enough for them to cross the falls.

The Evansville reports that when she left White river there was a seven feet rise and still rising.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

For likenesses see Tyler & Co. They are at the pinnacle of their profession, and are careful of their reputation; hence, they permit none but durable and good work to leave their gallery. They have the largest concern of art in the State, and do matters altogether upon an extensive and systematic scale, opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

Citizens and strangers in want of likenesses, should procure the genuine double glass ambrotypes, made by Tyler & Co. They are the only picture that is durable and lasting, and will stand the test of soaking in water for weeks, without injury. Tyler & Co. intend to establish themselves permanently in Memphis, hence they make pictures that will last for ages. Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

ONLY 50 CENTS.—Those beautiful ferrotypes are taking the place of all other pictures, and can be taken just as well in cloudy as in clear weather. By our new French process we are now enable to make 1,000 per day. No charge made unless perfectly satisfactory. VASSALLO & PARK, Star Gallery, No. 262 Main street.

FOESHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—The press of the country has been particularly loud in the praise of the bitters. Among the many notices, we offer the following to an impartial public:

"It is a well known fact that we do not puff patent medicines, and that we but seldom advertise them, but Foershave's Holland Bitters comes to us endorsed in such a manner, as a specific for the diseases it professes to cure, that we not only advertise it, but give it this favorable notice unasked by the proprietor." Handel Zeitung, N. Y.

The Philadelphia Argus, in speaking of the late exhibition held in that city by the Franklin Institute, says:

"In noticing medicines, we are always extremely cautious, unless satisfied of the merits of the article. Among those exhibited is the celebrated Holland Bitters. This medicine has been extensively introduced into every State in the Union, and into the Canadian Provinces, principally within the last two years. The exhibition shows testimonials in every language known in America, among which we notice one from the late Hon. John M. Clayton, of Delaware."

THE price of Singer's standard machines has also been reduced. Singer's Sewing Machines, it is well known, though dearest in price, have always been cheaper in fact than any other machines. Persons of limited means can now procure a good, reliable executing machine.

Messrs. T. M. Singer & Co., having completed their new factory, the largest and best adapted establishment of the kind in the world, are now able with their improved facilities to carry out their contemplated reduction of prices.

M. GOLDBERG begs leave to call their attention to his Fashionable Millinery Establishment. Having retained the services of a fashionable French lady from Paris, with a knowledge of all the present styles of Dress Bonnets, he can with confidence assure them that under her immediate direction and Mrs. Goldberg's the most fastidious can be pleased. His assortment consists of every article of taste and fashion, a large portion being direct from France. Having selected them with care for cash, he can afford to sell at a very small advance, and as low as any establishment in the city. It is not presumption on my part to say some of the most fashionable ladies of this city, having procured Bonnets from N. York and New Orleans, have subsequently bought from me, and pronounced them in beauty and economy superior to those from New York or New Orleans. He solicits them to favor him by their visits, and examine for themselves, being assured they will not be disappointed in expectations.

I have also on hand a fine stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, which will be sold at cost to make room for a more extended millinery business. d8-2w

MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL OFFICE, TUESDAY, December 14, 1858.

COTTON.—The weather yesterday was showery and the streets and landing were so deeply immersed in mud that stirring was impossible; the consequence was that our reported sales are only 1,041 bales at unchanged prices. The proportion of Ordinary qualities disposed of is somewhat larger than has been usual lately, but as a general thing lower grades are not little inquired for. The sales were: 34 bales at 9 cents, 68 at 9¼, 87 at 10, 38 at 10¼, 8 at 10⅜, 49 at 10½, 31 at 10⅝, 49 at 10¾, 17 at 10⅞, 64 at 11, 228 at 11¼, 185 at 11½, 202 at 11¾, 14 at 11 7-16, 166 at 11⅝, 7 at 11¾, 71 at 11⅞, 31 at 12, 9 at 12¼, 8 at 12⅜, 58 on private terms. The closing was a little dull, and dispatches reached the city last night stating: "Dull, market since the Persia's news."

The Eclipse took out yesterday for New Orleans, 2,315 bales of Cotton.

GENERAL REMARKS.—We saw a new in busy trade in Memphis; the rivers are high, and boats are arriving daily from St. Louis and the Ohio river, and as the time is at when the rivers may be closed by ice in a hand, there is considerable business going on—stocks laying in and purchases delivered. Our General and Produce Price Currents are corrected to the time of going to press, and will be found full and accurate.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK.—The week has generally been dull in the Cotton market, only on two days, Friday and Saturday, did they reach 2,000 bales; on Wednesday they were as low as 609 bales. The entire sales of the week were 11,325 bales, against 18,779 bales last week. The hesitation in buy during the earlier part of the week arose from a want of confidence that the existing prices would be maintained. This made buyers loth to go safe until the semi-weekly steamer should arrive. When the European news came, it left the question of prices open where it was before, the late lights as to the future favorable rather than the reverse. Afterward an advance of one-eighth in New Orleans, caused by a giving way in the rates of freight to Europe, put new spirit in the market, and over 6,000 bales were disposed of on the two last days of the week. On Thursday and Friday, prices gave way a shade, but the animated demand of Saturday restored clean armor. We give the same quotations as on this day week. The demand throughout the week has continued to run on the higher grades, and those Cottons were largely selected and sold, leaving considerable "dog tail" to be disposed of at a lower day; the best Cottons are still readily purchased at full prices.

The sales during the week, as reported to us are as follows:

Monday—1,269 bales sold, 188 of which were at Ordinary, 1,081 at Low Middling—a dull market, sales 1,117 to-day, 100 of which were under 11 cents. Wednesday—market very dull, only 609 bales sold, 100 of which were under 11 cents. Thursday—European news arrived but produced no impression on the market, which continued spiritless, 1,325 bales sold, 493 of which were under 11 cents. Friday—the buyers conceded slightly, and the easier prices were in favorable situation from Liverpool, caused an animated market, and cotton being especially inquired for, 2,259 bales were sold of which only 181 bales were under 11 cents. Saturday—this is usually a quiet day, but to-day the market was very brisk, the New Orleans market having advanced an eighth, prices were firmer than on the preceding day. Sales 2,000 bales—of which 1,291 bales, being the largest lot ever sold in one parcel in Memphis, are G. J. A. Cox, were the buyers. The total sales were 2,019 bales, of which 658 were under 11 cents.

The total reported sales of the week amounted to 11,325 bales, of which 1,711 bales sold at prices under 11 cents, and 9,627 bales at 11 cents and above (a decrease of 2 cents from which the quotations will show what quality has been in demand), teach the owners of common qualities to be moderate in their expectations, and patient if sales are not as prompt as they would wish.

The shipments for the week were: In N. Orleans, 10,763 bales; Ohio river, 3,724 bales; St. Louis, 1,041 bales. Total, 15,528 bales, against 11,924 bales last week.

The receipts by the Charleston Railroad during the last week were 8,823 bales, and by the Mississippi road, 2,691 bales.

SEMI-WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE NEW ORLEANS MARKET.

From the New Orleans Price Current, December 4:

The week has opened with a very fair extent of business in cotton for the manufacturing stapler, and if will be seen that Cotton has maintained a good degree of firmness, while the rates for Sugar and Molasses have slightly fallen off. In Tobacco there is still no movement of consequence, and the transactions in most article of Western production are confined to the limited parcels required for home consumption.

Our last report closed upon a moderate business, the operations of yesterday being somewhat checked by the full prices claimed. On Saturday, however, buyers came forward, and operated quite freely, the sales reaching 3,000 bales, and on Monday we had to note a still brisk good, but with a poor assortment and full prices claimed, the sales reaching to about 2,500 bales. Yesterday the Europe's letters were received, and their tone not being of a very satisfactory character, the market generally opened with a decidedly quiet appearance, but some good lots that had been under negotiation were closed, and the sales summed up about 2,000 bales, prices being without material change from our last quotations. To-day we continue the sales of the three days up to 3,200 bales, taken for Great Britain, France, Spain, the Continent of Europe and our Northern markets.

The receipts at this port since the first of September, exclusive of the arrivals from Mobile, Florida and Texas, are 477,687 bales, against 457,617 bales to same date last year; and the increase in the receipts at all the ports, up to the latest dates, as compared with last year, is 612,500 bales. In the exports from the United States to foreign countries, as compared with the same dates last year, there is an increase of 314,827 bales to Great Britain, of 114,343 to France, and of 28,645 bales to other foreign ports.

Stock—LOUISIANA.—The depot has not yet paid with the supplies since our last report, and with some accumulation of stock, buyers have obtained an advantage in prices to the extent of an ¼@½ cent in the last day or two. The sales of the three days sum up about 4,000 bales, taken for Atlantic ports, the West, &c., and we now quote as follows:
Interior and Refuting.....	3¾@ 4¾
Common to Good Common.....	4¾@ 5¾
Prior to Fully Fair.....	5¾@ 6¾
Prime and Choice.....	6 @ 6¾
Centrifugal to Clarified.....	6 @ 8

MOLASSES.—Our last report left the market on the levee with still a considerable supply unsold in first hands, and several receipts since Sudden have been compelled to yield still further in prices in order to make prompt sales from the levee. The transactions of the three days amount to about 600 barrels, taken for Atlantic ports, the West, and our neighboring market, and we now quote for Interior and Fermenting Molasses Prime to Choice, 25@27c; Fully Fair, 23@25c; Fair to Prime, 20@23c; Common to Fair, 18@20c. A number of crops have been taken on plantation within the past few days, and we notice 400 hogsheads at 25 cents, the same rate as sales which we have previously noticed, and 150 000 gallons at the advanced rate of 26c ⅌ gal on the cisterns.

TOBACCO.—We are still without any movement of consequence to notice in the Tobacco market, there appearing to be little or no disposition on the part of purchasers to come forward and extend their stock of each manufacture, and the only sales of which we are advised since our last report were 104 and 50 kegs of Virginia twists, 2 to 8 oz ⅌ pc, and 17 bales Clarkers leaf 10 ⅌ cent ⅌ lb. As respects prices, nothing has occurred to warrant a change in our quotations, and we continue our previous figures:

COTTON.—The market was very quiet on Saturday and Monday, with sales of only a few hundred bales at a range of 10¾@11¼c ⅌ lb as extremes. Yesterday, however, an active demand sprung up, operating in sales of fully 12,000 bags, including 60 at 10¾c, 125 at 11¼, 5 600 (the extra of the F. S. Mason) at 11 1-16, 4,940 at 11⅛, 200 at 11⅜, 100 at 11½, and 100 11¾@11c ⅌ lb. The market closed firm, with an improved tendency in the rates. A cargo of 5,500 bales has arrived direct from Rio de Janeiro since our last report, and the stock now on hand is about 11,000 bags in all kinds.

SALT.—No cargo sales of Liverpool or Bulk Salt have been reported during the last three days, and our quotations are nominal at 60@65c ⅌ sack for the former, and 75@75c ⅌ bushel for the latter.
