

WASHINGTON CRITIC

WASHINGTONEERS.
Aubauer-Busch.
New Haven, December 15, 1889.
The Aubauer-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, Mo.

Gentlemen—The sample of Faust Beer faintly received from you for analysis has in 100 parts by weight the following composition:

Total solid extract..... 6.80 Alcohol..... 3.50
Carbonic acid gas..... 3.50 Water..... 89.25

Systematic search has failed to show the presence of any adulterant, and the composition is very similar to that of the Best Beer of Munich and Vienna. Yours, etc., S. W. JOHNSON,
Professor of Chemistry, Yale College.

Washington Branch:
First street and Virginia avenue southwest.
FRANK SCHWARZ, Manager.

northwest, has just opened at its mammoth ing in price from $20.00 to $150. These goods carload of the prettiest and newest styles ment of the newest designs in all departments at their magnificent emporium of fashion.

Spring Lamb.
For spring lambing in Washington dressed beef go to J. R. Kelly, Ninth street west, Centre Market, and N. L. Market, Fifth and K streets.

EMANCIPATION PARADE.

Colored People Completing Arrangements for the Forthcoming Event.
South Washington will be well represented in the Emancipation Day parade.
At a meeting last night Asbury B. Jones was elected chief marshal of this division.

John R. Evans will be right aid, William Thomas left aid and L. Johnson chief of staff, with twelve staff officers.

Following these will be carriages containing the officers of the South Washington division, which will be headed by the Bowie (M.D.) Corps: Band. Among the social clubs in the line will be the Macedonia, Cowboys, Diamond, Athletic, Rose of Sharon, Harrison Social club, Harrison and Morton Pioneers, Eastern Star, Twelfth Cadets and various organizations from Alexandria. Line will be formed by the division at the Friends of Zion Hall, Thirteenth and F streets southwest, by 8:30 o'clock a. m. Rev. H. C. Robinson will deliver an emancipation oration at the First Baptist Church.

Witches Among the Alaskans.

The wealth of Alaska forms the topic of the lecture by Rev. Shelton Jackson, general Government agent of education in Alaska, at the Y. M. C.
Building last evening. He said that the southern portion of that country was rich with gold, silver, coal and iron. The gold interests alone make it a valuable possession. It is not, in any sense, an agricultural country. It is inhabited by Eskimoes, North American Indians and Creoles or half-breeds.
They believe in witchcraft, and the supposed witches are killed in the most inhuman manner.

Knights Templar Officers.

Washington Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar, last evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Joseph K. Brummett, E. C. D.; G. Dickson, generalissimo; H. K. Shippson, captain general; Dr. Daniel M.
Farland, prelate; A. H. Holt, S. W.; L. C. Wood, J. W.; John Keyworth, treasurer; Charles Shelse, recorder; W.
C. Coolege, warden; J. P. Willett, trustee.

Increasing Prosperity.

The new Lincoln Bank, at the corner of Ninth and D streets, in the Lincoln Hall building, continues to increase in prosperity. On the opening day there were 354 depositors, the amount deposited being $227,000. The daily depositors now number 450 on the average, and the deposits $264,000. These figures, the officials say, are highly encouraging.

Bull Dog and Coon.

A novel battle between a coon and Tom Gray's bull dog "Nipper" of this city has been arranged for some day next week at D. E. Martin's farm, on the Forrester "pike." The coon is an old and tough fellow and has the reputation of having disembowelled several canines with his sharp claws.
There is considerable betting here over the event, "Nipper" being the favorite.

In Your Can't stand up on it down, you have to lie down. This is not always agreeable or convenient. Cure your piles with Old Bull's Pile Ointment before they reach this stage. 25 cents.

A Baton Presentation.

The choir of St. Patrick's Church last evening, after the final rehearsal of Easter music, presented Signor Matias with a beautiful gold-mounted ebony baton. The colors of Italy, red, white and green, were also about the handle. The professor acknowledged the compliment in a neat little speech.

Cataract Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Cataract, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a prescription which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Professor J. A. Lawrence, 85 Warren street, New York, will receive the recipe free of charge.

Cut an Artery in His Wrist.

Bartley Costello cut an artery in his wrist while pounding on a windowsill at 1220 C street. He was under the influence of drink at the time. He was taken to the Twelfth Precinct on a charge of disorderly conduct, where his wounds were sewed up.

A Ridiculous Question.

"Do you enjoy good health?" asked Brown of his friend Jones. The reply of Jones was short, sharp, and to the point.
"Why of course I do, what fool doesn't?" Every one enjoys good health when he has it. But some people do not have it to enjoy. Sick headache, biliousness, constipation, deranged liver and a host of ill, real and imaginary, are their heritage. Thousands of persons cure and prevent these distressing complaints by taking Dr.
Froese's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Small sugar-coated and easy to take; one a dose.

A COLORED MAN BEATEN.

John Lyman Hammered Unmercifully by Unknown White Men.
Last evening about half-past seven o'clock a colored man by the name of John Lyman was assailed by two white men near the corner of Tenth and C streets. They handled him pretty roughly, and no possible reason can be given for the attack.

Lyman went to the First Precinct station and made a complaint and was sent from there to the Emergency Hospital to have his wounds dressed. The two men who committed the assault had not yet been apprehended and their names are not known.

Louis James as Ingomar.

"Ingomar" was presented by Louis James and his company at Albaugh's Grand Opera House last evening. The play is a beautiful one, the gruffness of the barbarian forming a decided contrast to the gentle Parthenia. As Ingomar Mr. James did excellent work. This role is exactly suited to him. His deep voice, powerful figure and easy alertness, all help in bringing out the noble traits of this romantic character. As Parthenia Miss Mabel Amber is deserving of high praise, her work in this part being the best that she has done this week. The scenes between Ingomar and Parthenia are well written and contain many very noble sentiments, highly dramatic situations and an amount of pathos which justly make this drama a love idyl. Mr. Langdon made an excellent character study out of the mean-and miserly old merchant, Polydor, and the other parts were fairly well taken.
To-night Mr. James will appear as Richard III.

Armenia and the Armenians.

Mr. Robert Stein of the Geological Survey lectured last evening before the National Geographical Society on Armenia and the Armenians. The data for the lecture was furnished by Mr. H. Garabed of Asia Minor, who was also present. The lecturer said the Armenians are pure Aryans, like the Americans. Two of their most prominent traits are business ability and love of learning. They are a patient, tax-ridden people. In conclusion he described the mismanagement at the hands of the Turkish Government.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE SEASON.

(Medical Journal.)
Be specially careful of draughts and sudden changes.
Do not overwork. Of what use is wealth without health?
Keep your feet dry, but do not wear overheated all the time.
Remember that the pores of your skin, when in health, are always open, and that closing them causes sickness.
Dress warmly, but not heavily. Woolen clothing that permits the exhalations of the body to escape, is the best.
Eat strengthening and hearty, but not too much greasy food. It is a mistake to suppose that fat food contains the most vitality.
If you feel chilly at any time, take a drink of pure whisky at once. Duffy's Pure Malt is the purest and best and has the highest recommendations.
Do not call the doctor for every slight ailment. If you have a cold, feel depressed and lack appetite and vigor you need something to tone and build up the system.
Nothing will do this so readily as the pure article we have mentioned.

National Guard Shooting Contest.

There was a 300 and a 600 yard contest at the shooting range yesterday afternoon between the members of Company A Eighth Battalion. For first place Captain Perry, Lieutenant Meredith and Private Matthews tied, all others making a score of 24. Private Trotter, Corporal Chase and Private Gaskins all came within the thirties, but did not reach 34. There was a very creditable drill after the target practice was over.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the gums, reduces the fever, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c. a bottle.

His Ideal Man.

My ideal of a man is John the Baptist, who jumped on a king and announced his very feathers out of him.
When he was put in jail he said he would stay there until the ants carried him out through the keyhole before he would modify anything that he had said.
