Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, February 10, '59.

THEATRE.—Again we render our special thanks to the courteous agent of Adams & Co.'s Express, Mr. Borden, also to E. J. Booker of the Sounds for late papers.

CLEVELAND AND CHATTANOOGA RAILROAD.—We should have stated in our paragraph yesterday, not that this road was completed, but that it would be finished by the latter end of April or the beginning of May next.

PAID IN.—The one and a half per cent. a month in inducing tax payers to clear their accounts and save money. Collector Newsom received last week $18,121 27. This week the money is flowing in quite liberally.

THE WEATHER.—The rain of Tuesday was yesterday morning succeeded by sleet and some snow, which did not last long. The day was generally bright and cold, with a wind from the northwest.

COLLISION.—The J. M. McKee, the regular packet between Napoleon and Vicksburg, and the Cherokee ran into each other near the bar by Lake Providence, on Monday night. The passengers and crew were saved, but both are supposed to be a total loss. They sank very soon after collision.

STILL THEY COME.—We have again to express our thanks for the preference shown for the APPEAL by the public. We yesterday received the names of a club of sixteen subscribers. For his kindness in connection with this addition to our subscription list, we thank Mr. D. Wright, Esq., postmaster of Commerville, Mississippi.

MESSRS. SCOTT & DUNN.—Sterling professional advocates of these gentlemen in another column. It is perhaps unnecessary to say that they occupy a very high position at the Memphis bar, fully maintaining the standing they held at Jackson, Miss., where they practiced most successfully for a number of years. It gives us pleasure to commend them to the confidence and patronage of the public.

PLAN FOR MARKET HOUSE.—Messrs. Fletcher & Winter yesterday showed us a plan they have submitted to the committee for the new market houses about to be built on Market Square in the north end of the city, and on South Market Square on Beal street by order of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen. The proposition to carry out this idea caused considerable excitement in the portion of the city most deeply interested in the question. A strong desire existed to have the north end beautified by an ornamental square, as a "breathing place for the people," but it was found that Market Square would be too confined by its limits for the purpose, and that the ground taken from houses around were averse to having the location changed. The committee, which is a most harmonious one, only waited the will of the people. They have, in accordance with public preference, decided that the new market house for the north end shall be built on the same spot as the present one. We hope, however, that the idea of a public square in that part of the city will not be abandoned; there is plenty of open ground that can be picked from for such a purpose, which in a few years will be too high price for the purpose. The cry is "a park for Peach."

THE ALLEGED FORGERY.—For two days "Squire Horne has been engaged with the case of Robert R. DeBare, charged with forgery. It appeared from the evidence that the prisoner, J. W. Anderson, had at various times borrowed money of DeBare, to the amount of nearly two thousand dollars. A few days ago Anderson entered defendant's clothing store, under the Worsham House, and desired to borrow twenty dollars more; he was then considerably intoxicated. DeBare accused him of entertaining suspicions against him, and said he never signed a paper of his without first reading it, as he believed something was wrong. Anderson protested he had every confidence in DeBare and believed him to be his friend. The latter then agreed to let him have twenty dollars, if he would sign a note for twenty-five dollars; this was agreed to. DeBare then—as the clerk testifies—ordered his clerk to draw up a note for twenty-two hundred dollars; this he did, and Anderson being in liquor, and also influenced by the remarks of the money lender, signed it without reading, and received the twenty dollars. In security for his money, DeBare had received from Anderson a trust deed on a piece of property owned by him in Alabama street, in this city, the sale of which was authorized within a short date if the money was not paid.

Soon after the loan of the twenty dollars, DeBare went to the trustee named in the deed, who was John R. Barlow, an attorney, and directed him to sell the property as soon as the time was up. He told him of the notes he held, and questionably let drop how he had obtained the note for two thousand two hundred dollars. Barlow was determined to circumvent the intended fraud, and he informed Anderson of the state of the case. Several efforts were made to procure the note from DeBare; other means failing, Harlow drew up a bill of sale of the property in question to DeBare, for which he was to give up all the notes he held against Anderson. When the arrangement the creditor was satisfied, and gave up the notes, on receiving from Harlow, as he supposed, a document that had been drawn up, and read to him. Harlow, however, substituted for the real document a worthless paper made to look like it, in giving which to DeBare, he accepted from him only the twenty-two hundred dollars note, saying that was sufficient to bind the bargain, and the rest could be handed over at a future time. As a specimen of the way in which a very cool customer may be beaten at his own weapons, we give entire the document DeBare received from Harlow, in return for the note he had so unscrupulously became possessed of:

This instrument, made the 8th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, between John H. Anderson, of the city of Memphis, county of Shelby, and State of Tennessee, of the first part, and R. R. DeBare of the same place, of the second part, witnesseth, that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of Twenty Dollars, and twenty hundred dollars lawful money of the United States, to him paid, by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted, bargained, sold, aliened, remised, released, conveyed and confirmed by these presents, do hereby bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all that tract or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the city of Lahore, and county of Sogar, and State of Tehmingjaw, known and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at a stake in some of the mountains of said State, and running thence two hundred and eight feet (208) from the surface toward the center of the earth, and from thence one hundred and ninety-eight feet (198) further down, perpendicular to the last mentioned line, thence two hundred and ninety-eight feet (298) still further down in the same direction, to a hole in the ground, about large enough to hold all the rogues as the grantee of this instrument; thence two hundred and eight feet (208) from the last mentioned hole, further down, to the furnace used for baking other meat, and from there to the center, and back, by slow degrees, to the beginning, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claim and demand whatsoever, as well in law, as in equity of the said party of the first part, of, in or to the above described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold all and singular, the above mentioned and described premises, together with all the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever. And the said party of the first part, for himself and his heirs, the said premises to the said and possible possession of the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, the said party of the first part, and his heirs, and against all and every person whomever, lawfully claiming or to claim the same shall and will warrant, and by these presents forever defend.

In witness whereof, the said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and affixed his seal, the day and year first above written.

It came out that DeBare, after the Saturday's examination, offered a heavy sum to his clerk, whose name is Samuel Raphael, if he would swear the next day that he, DeBare, was absent from the room when the note for twenty-two hundred dollars was drawn up and signed. With becoming indignation Mr. Raphael refused, when DeBare offered him a hundred dollars if he would immediately leave the city; this also the clerk refused to do. As the testimony proved that there was no forgery in the case, the defendant was held to the two thousand dollars bail for himself, and a thousand dollars each by two sureties, for his appearance for trial at the county term of the Criminal Court, upon the charge of fraudulently obtaining the note from Anderson.

River News.

The river continued falling yesterday; the weather was cold, and in the morning very wintery.

The J. H. Lucas, the fine St. Louis steam packet, is the regular boat for St. Louis today, leaving at six o'clock for the Lucas is a first class passenger boat, and those who travel should her will enjoy their trip.

The Evansville, Captain Baird, leaves as usual to-day at six o'clock for White river. She is a very agreeable boat to travel upon, and her officers are careful and courteous gentlemen.

The Kate Frisbee, Captain McManus, is the regular packet to-day for Napoleon. She makes good time, and carries the U. S. mail.

The splendid McLellan is the Louisville packet today, starting at four o'clock this afternoon. Captain Erwin has a high reputation for skill as an officer, and kind attention to his passengers.

Captain Riley Jones' fine boat, Return, leaves as usual, for parts on White river, on Saturday.

The St. Louis Republican of February 8, reports:

The river at this port fell eight inches in the twenty-four hours ending at dark last evening, and continues to fall slowly. The ice is thick and heavy in the river, but was somewhat softened by the warm and genial sun yesterday. The mail packet left for the South, and the weather very fine. The ice is reported to be from three to four inches in thickness, but it comes down in very small pieces, and accumulates in large masses below, and found no difficulty in getting through. Navigation is the upper rivers is still suspended, no boat running above except the Alton packet Robinson, which makes her trips regularly. The Lucas reports meeting the ice at Wesley's landing, and a channel of eight feet in depth above Cairo. We learn from the Henderson Reporter that as the Kirkman was coming up the river, below Franklin, a difficulty occurred between two deckhands, when one picked up a billet of wood, and striking the other with it, knocked him overboard. He sank and was not seen afterwards. The offender had an examining trial, and was admitted to bail in the sum of $500 to appear at the next term of the circuit court.

SEE TO IT.—The condition of the filling on each side of the bridge over the first bayou on Vance street, claims attention on the part of the Street Commissioner.

DISCHARGED.—John Doyle, who was arrested on the charge of carrying a carpet bag, was yesterday examined before Squire East and discharged.

A WOMAN WHIPPER.—A creature named John Burns was yesterday put in jail for whipping his wife. Squire East will give him his deserts this morning.

☞ Dealers in family groceries are referred to the advertisement of G. B. Locke & Co., for particulars of sale to be made by them at their auction rooms, 202 Main street, this day at 10 o'clock.

☞ Purchasers of mignon are referred to the advertisement of G. B. Locke & Co., for particulars of a sale they will make this day at 10 o'clock, at their auction rooms, 202 Main street.

REAL ESTATE.—Persons in want of good lands on terms that will prove advantageous, should read the advertisement of Messrs. Ward, Hunt & Co., which we publish this morning. Arkansas lands are daily becoming more valuable, and no time should be lost by those who wish to secure a bargain.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had only five cases before him yesterday, and three of those were women. Of the five four were sent to jail and one discharged. All the women were sent to jail, one for thirteen, the two others for twenty-three days each; one of the men, for proved guilty of selling liquor without a license.

PREPARATIONS FOR AN ESCAPE.—The prisoners in one of the cells in the jail confined yesterday, by some means, to break off a piece of heavy wrought iron, over two feet long, from the iron door of their cell. It is difficult to imagine how they could accomplish the task, which must have been a severe one. One of the turnkey's quick eyes discovered what had been done. On searching the iron was found secreted in a mattress.

WOULD NOT BE ATTACHED.—A sheriff's deputy went aboard a steamboat at the landing, yesterday, to attach the boat for debt. The captain refused to be attached, and showed an empty revolver. The consequence was, the creditor had to make up some in search of an officer with nerve enough to do his duty in the face of half a dozen empty revolver barrels. Whether the search will successful, we did not ascertain.

THE GALLERY.—The play of Jane Shore is one that is not frequently performed, as few actresses are found who can make of the principal personage a successful representation. Among those few Miss Fitz Farren has proved herself to be one. To-night she will take that character, and the lovers of the legitimate drama will feel in her performance a delightful treat. Mrs. Farren will take the part of "Alicia," friend of Jane Shore. The concluding piece will be the elegant comedy of the Youthful Queen. The part of "Christine," the Youthful Queen, by Miss Fitz Farren. To-morrow evening an excellent performance will be given for the benefit of Mrs. Farren.

I BELIEVE IT SAVED MY LIFE.—Jacob Wooster, of Bush Creek, New Sewickley township, says: "For two years I suffered with the vertigo, nausea and headache, attending dyspepsia, sometimes so severely as to incapacitate me for any effort—as others, to confine me to my bed. My bowels were often so constipated as to oblige me to use the most powerful purgatives to relieve myself. Indeed, I at last found it necessary to use something of the kind constantly. Last fall I commenced taking BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS, and found it just what my case required. I cannot recommend it too highly, for I believe it saved my life."

THE IMMENSE DEMAND

FOR

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES

HAS required more extensive accommodations from factory. A SPLENDID LARGE SALESROOM has been fitted up at No. 199 Main street, next door to McClanahan & Co.'s Furniture Store, adjoining with the latter upon the second floor.

The reputation of SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES, is so well established, it is deemed superfluous to expatiate upon their merits, especially since it is necessary to introduce any kind of Sewing Machine, whether good or bad, as superior, or at least equal to all others. But assertion is not proof, and the sensible person will want to a selling advantageous, while he can avail himself of the opportunity of judging by personal inspection and trial of the merits of the Singer.

It is impossible for the purchaser of a Singer Machine to be deceived, simply because each Machine is sold with the privilege of returning it in a given time if it should not prove to be what it was represented.

Were it necessary, we could insert in a volume of facts illustrative of the machine. Success is a sure evidence of merit. It is well known that I. M. Singer and Edward Clark, who constitute the firm of I. M. Singer & Co., have become millionaires. It is an undeniable fact, that Singer's Machines have always commanded a higher price, and that there is a much larger number of them sold than of any other kind, and that hundreds of these machines have been in operation for the last five or seven years, being still in good condition.

Singer's Sewing Machines in New York, is considered a remarkable exception even in that city of mammoth establishments; for while all other manufacturers complain they are barely able to supply the demand, which has more than doubled since the present well-conducted establishment was established, I can at any time supply the demand with which the whole country is delighted.

Those who are about to purchase, if they but Machine trade, would do well to make a thorough examination before buying.

☞ Prices of Singer's Machines from $65 to $100.

THE STRATFORD GALLERY:

Or, the Shakespeare Sisterhood, comprising forty-five Ideal Portraits. Described by Mrs. J. W. Palmer; 1 vol. illustrated morocco.

The plan of this beautiful work is original as it is attractive. It is designed to a series of imaginary portraits of "Shakespeare's Gentlewomen" and "Shrewdwed Shakspeare," in which the author has sought to blend with critical fidelity and taste combined the story-telling quality of Charles Lamb, with the wonderful insight into character, spirit, and style, which has indisputably kept his title in view, and from page to page, as from genius, which has made the Shakespeare Gallery thus far unique, is delightfully describing with story and quotation. The work is a counterpart, and fitting companion, to our "Wives and Women" of Mrs. Mary Cowden Clarke, and the "Republican Court" of Mrs. Griswold.

THE DRESDEN GALLERY.

Finely illustrated with nearly 200 steel plate engravings, thick vol. 4to., in the best gilt binding.

TO THE LADIES OF MEMPHIS.

HAVING been driven to the necessity of addressing from a sense of necessity, I would call your attention to the best specimens of emplasters, and in which I have attended to the cure of many cases of Ulcerated Sore Legs, one in Memphis, and I have never yet seen a case of the physicians of this city, I now fully appreciate the value of the Emplasters, and have introduced physicians of the highest reputation, who are strong in their praise of the Emplasters, and have introduced them into their families and cured. Read them carefully, and judge for yourselves whether my practice is empirical or based on a sound principle.

H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

75 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK, Sept. 1, 1858.

DR. HOLMES—DEAR SIR: I have examined the case of Mrs.——, and find it to be a case of long standing and considerable pain. I feel considerable enlargement and great tenderness in the ulcerated part, and have no doubt of the efficacy of your plaster, the application. But I would advise you to use a gentle purgative in the commencement of the treatment, and wear plaster to not injured by it. The energy and ability which you bring to bear upon your profession, I have witnessed in the case in which you are more than in any single, not only to afford you every facility in my power, but to recommend to many years of labor. In future it may be in my power to give more definite in your behalf.—I am sincerely yours, &c.

Respectfully, your friend,
J. R. THORNTON, M. D.
