THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1859.

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, February 24, '59.

☞ All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers. The papers do not belong to them; they have no authority to sell, and every sale by them is a fraud upon us, and a cheat upon our subscribers.

NO LICENSE.—The Recorder gives Jay hood Elmore Clarke seventeen dollars in a half for running a dray without license.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder had eight cases before him yesterday morning, three of the parties were discharged. Three were sent to the chain gang and two paid fines.

ARRESTED.—Bill Connor was arrested yesterday for stealing a watch, in the street, a gentleman's pocket book, containing forty dollars, from his hip pocket.

THE RIVER.—The river continued rising fast yesterday; it is now eleven feet higher than it was a week ago; our merchants down stream will do well to be prepared.

THE NEWS.—We thank Mr. Hite, of the Wernham House and Commercial Hotel, for St. Louis and New York papers. He has all the latest dates, and a good store of literary reading.

SONS OF MALTA.—This benevolent institution is at length domiciled among us. The order meets in the building at the corner of Shelby and Union streets, partially occupied by Wildberger & Co.

THE WEATHER.—The weather yesterday was of the horrible kind—lowering skies, hazy atmosphere, murky gloom and mud of superabundant quantity and of most vile and execrable quality.

SPIRITUALISM.—Thos. Gales Foster, editor of the Banner of Light, and one of the most eloquent trance speakers in the Union, (the same person who lectured here to crowded houses last October), will speak on the above subject at Odd Fellow's Hall on Friday evening, 71 o'clock. Admission free. feb24-2t.

☞ The weather on yesterday being too inclement for the ladies to attend the sale of silver plated ware to have been made by G. B. Locke & Co., the sale was postponed until to-day at 10 o'clock, when it will take place, if fair, if not it will be sold the first fair day. The sale will be positive and without reserve—bargains may be expected.

PORTABLE ENGINES.—We publish, this morning, an advertisement of Hoadley's portable steam engines. To persons requiring machinery this advertisement is of interest, as the house is one of established excellence and the quality of their work is warranted, while their prices, as will be seen by a reference to the advertisement, are moderate.

MARKET HOUSES.—At their last meeting, council passed resolutions to the effect that: 1st. No market house shall be built on Market Square. 2d. The Special Committee on Market Houses are authorized to buy or lease ground for the North Memphis Market, contiguous to the Bayou. 3d. Neither of the contemplated market houses shall be built unless they are both built together.

GAS.—That gas in this city is an expensive nuisance, is an uncontroverted fact. In order to secure pure gas and just charges, the City Council, in December last, passed an ordinance creating the office of Gas Inspector, that officer to be nominated by the Mayor and elected by the Board. No one has yet been elected to fill the new office, and consequently, we suffer still all the evils that bad and dear gas can inflict.

BOTANIC MEDICAL COLLEGE.—The closing exercises of the fourteenth session of the Botanico-Medical College will take place this evening at Odd Fellows' Hall, at half past 7 o'clock. The degree of Doctor in Medicine will be conferred on the graduating class. The valedictory address will be delivered by Dr. A. C. Henry, of Alabama. The anniversary oration will be pronounced by Prof. L. W. Gobbet. Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to attend.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—It has been publicly stated in Council, by the Chairman of the Committee on Education, that the income arising from the school tax with this year prove entirely inadequate to meet the expenses of our city Common Schools. This is an important announcement; the Legislature has crippled our educational resources, and the deficiency will require to be made up in some other manner; what is proposed to be done in the case we are not aware, but hope it will be nothing that is likely to decrease the efficacy of the schools.

CHRISTY MINSTRELS.—George Christie's band of original Christie minstrels are on their way to this city, and will open for a very brief stay at Odd Fellow's Hall on Tuesday evening next. This company are famous for their powers of pleasing an audience. It is some time since we had any minstrelsy in Memphis, and we have no doubt such an excellent troupe as the Christie's will meet with an enthusiastic reception. Mr. Johnson, their clever agent, is in the city.

CRIMINAL COURT.—At this court yesterday John Wells was found guilty of stealing a bag containing five hundred dollars in gold, from the pocket of Mr. Branch, on the cars at the Charleston depot. He was sentenced to ten year's labor in the penitentiary.

The Grand Jury found true bills against Louis Keith, James Martin and Charles Smith for larceny; against Calvin Belleller and T. T. Sorsby for malicious mischief; and against R. G. Henderson for a breach of trust.

HANNIBAL AND ST. JOSEPH RAILROAD.—We this morning publish the advertisement of this road, which is stated to go further towards madown than any other railroad in existence. We know before us a plat of the road from which we see that if the traveler can up to Hannibal by the Keokuk boats, he will be carried due west to St. Joseph, on the Missouri, from where the trail called Marysville Cut Off, also running due west, brings the traveler to the Pike's Peak gold diggings, distant from St. Joseph 450 miles. Packets run from St. Joseph to parts in Kansas and Nebraska. Emigrants for Utah and California will find this route a saving of time and toil. H. H. Bowman is the general agent, Capt. E. F. Dill, whose office is at the wharf boat, is the agent for Memphis and will give every information.

A PERSEVERING BOGUS OPERATOR.—Capt. Garrett and officer Tucker last spring arrested a man named R. C. Roberts, who was charged with passing large sums of bogus coins. The man was held in $2500 bail for counterfeiting, and $500 for having counterfeit money in his possession. On Monday last a fellow named Smith was arrested and held to bail to answer for similar criminality. When taken, Roberts was in his company, and the officers were satisfied that he was still pursuing his nefarious practices. Yesterday an old man from the country applied to Captain Garrett, stating to him that a week ago he was induced to take some gold coin of a man at the Charleston depot, which coin proved to be worthless. Roberts was pointed out to the old gentleman, who immediately recognized him as the swindler. Roberts was again arrested by Capt. Garrett and officer Tucker, and will have to meet the three charges at the present session of the Criminal Court.

THREE ACTORS STABBED.—A letter has been received from Mr. Keller, of that portion of Crisp's theatrical troupe performing at Huntsville, Ala., stating that himself, Lovett and Ridenburg had been stabbed under the following circumstances: On the morning of the occurrence, two of the ladies connected with the company, Miss Hannah Scanlan and Miss Hedenburg, were accosted in the street by two gentlemen, who were from the country. Their behavior, the letter states, was insulting. The two gentlemen were in the theatre, and in the evening the three gentlemen named above attended them to the theater, to prevent a repetition of the offensive conduct. Again the two persons accosted the ladies; the gentlemen desired them to discontinue their ungentlemanly behavior, when both men drew knives and commenced furious attack upon the theater party, cutting and stabbing each of them, especially Mr. Ridenburg, who courageously resisted them. Mr. Keller had on a very thick coat, which partially protected his person, only one shot penetrating the fleshy the second was to the breast, and is not serious. Mr. Lovett was stabbed in three places in the side. His wounds are serious, but not dangerous. Mr. Ridenburg, who from his active resistance was especially the object of attack, was so dreadfully wounded that no hope was entertained of his recovery.

The citizens of the place were highly incensed, and threatened to lynch the two assailants, who were arrested, and were to be examined next morning.

PICCOLOMINI.—The Louisville Courier says of this lady:

There is something peculiarly impressive in the fact that a young girl of little over twenty years of age should be destined to renew in Italy—the cradle of song—the popular enthusiasts which attended the advent of a Malbran or a Pasta; and that, for three years in succession, she should have eclipsed the efforts of Grisi and a Bosio; particularly when it is remembered the very short time she has been before the public has not permitted her to appear to them on the base mounts of an excessively ornate style. Mlle. Piccolominis efforts are to truth, the result of pure inspiration, aided by a freshness of voice and a spontaneity of style rendered irresistible by the artless fascination of her by play.

Port of Memphis.

No advertisements of steamboats will be accepted through agents in this city, who are not responsible for advertising fees.

River News.

The river continues rising very rapidly yesterday, and we shall evidently have extraordinarily high water. The weather was very disagreeable, and the trading covered with mud.

The fine packet boat, J. H. Dean, Capt. O'Neil, arrived, (mud), to-day for St. Louis, leaving at 4 o'clock in the evening. The Lucas is a swift and obsequious boat, and her passengers will be pleased with the courteous attentions of her officers. Williams & Co. are the agents.

The McLellan, the well known and popular Louisville packet, leaves at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Louisville. Capt. Brown is in command, and he never fails to treat his passengers with the kind courtesy. Priest, agent.

The fine boat Boston, commanded by that popular gentleman, Riley Jones, will leave as usual on Saturday, for Wheeling, and passenger found for ports on that stream will find the Boston a very agreeable boat to travel on.

The St. Louis Democrat of February 22d says:

The river here became stationary on Sunday night, and commenced falling yesterday morning. Before daylight it receded nearly three inches. The last steamers from below report less feet in the channel out to Cairo.

The Illinois river is open and clear of ice to Lasalle. The Mississippi is open to Keokuk, and probably to Rock Island.

There was no arrivel from the Missouri up to 9 o'clk. The whole rise at Jefferson had been seven feet.

The Louisville Courier of February 21st reports:

The river is now much higher than it has been since the 1st, with the water on the first floors of all the houses on Water street below Fourth, and in most of the cellars of the houses some distance up the cross streets. The only wharf visible, last evening, was the New Falls wharf, extending along what was formerly Strader's row, from third to First streets.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 21st reports:

There were 20 feet and rising at Pittsburgh, and 25 feet and rising at Wheeling, last night. Here, it has risen fourteen feet since Friday night, and was still rising at a late hour last night at the rate of 1 inch per hour. The lower floors of the block of buildings along the levee, east of Broadway, and west of Main street, are inundated. Last night, the water was up to Water street, in the foot of Main. The occupants of the buildings bordering on the levee, described above, were compelled to remove on Saturday. The Millers and Miami Bottoms are all overflowed, destroying considerable property. The last arrivals from above report the river rising rapidly and over its banks in Illinois and Indiana. Communication by rail in the prairie roads overflowed, especially along the Illinois, Alton and Terre Haute, and Indianapolis routes. The railroad tracks could not be seen, and the trains were forced to be plowing or sailing through a sea of mud and water. Freshets in Pittsburg are generally very heavy ones. We fear that the present freshet will again overflow Mound City, Cairo, and other points along the Lower Ohio.

The storm which was so fatal to the Comet below this city, appears to have extended over a great tract of country. The same paper relates:

There was a high wind and storm Saturday night, on the river, which tore the High Flyer and Lady Pike from their moorings, at Portland, and carried them below New Albany. In their course they struck the Bowling Green, breaking off her wheel, guards, and pitman. The Lady Pike soon had steam up, and towed the High Flyer up to Jeffersonville.

☞ We take pleasure in directing attention to the card of Messrs. Robb & Johnson, carpenters and builders, Madison street, adjoining Whipple & Montgomery's mill. These gentlemen are thoroughly experienced and faithful workmen, and having the advantage of the steam power of Messrs. Whipple & Montgomery, are prepared to turn out work with dispatch. We commend them and their business to our friends, with the assurance that they are ready to give satisfaction.

☞ "The Capitol" will be opened this morning on Bank Avenue, intersection of the Alley between Madison and Court streets. Beverages are served up there in good style.

Business Notices.

Alfred Marks, Esquire, says: "My wife has been sorely afflicted with Dyspepsia for the last year. During this time, she had used so many medicines which seemed to aggravate rather than remove the disease, that we almost despaired of her recovery. Living in the country, she enjoyed all the advantages of pure air and exercise, yet each day she seemed to be more enfeebled. With some difficulty, I persuaded her to take your Holland Bitters, which, I am happy to state, has completely cured her." feb 23-1w.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of an order of sale issued by the Clerk of the Law Side of the Common Law and Chancery Court of the city of Memphis, and to me directed, in favor of Robert E. Richards vs. J. H. Bradley, Judgment 24th day of December, 1857, for $137 and costs, $3 25-100, 1 will, on the 7th day of March next, 1859, in front of the Sheriff's office, in the city of Memphis, sell for cash, to the highest bidder, the following described Real Estate: A certain tract of land conveyed by R. R. Adams to J. H. Bradley, on the 7th day of September, 1856, situate, lying and being in the county of Shelby, and in the Chickasaw District, being part of the tract of land sold by W. L. Maxwell to the said Hugh Bradley, on the 7th day of September, 1855, and designated upon the said Hugh R. Austin's plan of subdivisions of said tract, thus: Beginning at the stake made by the Rev. Mr. Stewart, on the 23d day of April, 1856, in sale numbered twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three, (21, 22 and 23,) and bounded as one tract or lot as follows, viz.: Commencing at the southeast corner of said tract; thence west with the southern boundary of said tract ten chains and seventy links to Central Avenue; thence north, fronting on said Avenue, ninety-three links and one-half of a link; thence east, said lot number twenty-one; thence east ten chains and seventy links to the eastern boundary of said tract; thence south with said eastern boundary to the place of beginning, nineteen chains and one-half of a link, containing twenty acres, more or less. Ship Afire.

NEW ORLEANS, February 23.—The ship Mary Adeline, from Thomaston Maine, took fire at 9 o'clock last night. She had 2000 bales of cotton on board. The hold was being filled with water to sink her. It is thought they will be able to save her. She was loading for New York.

LATER.—Noon 23.—Ship still burning. Cargo will be mostly lost. The cotton is insured in France by Lecesne & Co. Vessel partially insured at Thomaston. Two firemen and a negro were drowned. The efforts to sink the ship have proved unavailing. She is burning between decks.

Steamer Ashore.

NEW YORK, February 23.—The steamer Black Warrior, which went ashore at Rockway has embedded in the sand fully seven feet. The water around her is very low owing to strong westerly gales. She lies quiet and at high water, floating hopes are entertained of getting her off if the weather should continue fine. Her specie, passengers and baggage arrived up. Lighters are along side saving the freight. She is fully insured here.

River News.

LOUISVILLE, February 23, r. m.—River nearly stationary with thirty-two and a half feet on the falls.

ST. LOUIS, February 23.—River stationary with ten feet to Cairo. The Illinois and Upper Mississippi are rising slowly. Missouri falling.
