Local Matters.

Monday Morning, 11 o'clock, April 12, 1859.

☞ All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers. The papers do not belong to them; they have no authority to sell, and every sale by them is a fraud upon us, and a cheat upon our subscribers.

SHELBY COUNTY DEMOCRATIC ASSOCIATION.

PRESIDENT.
WILLIAM B. CARROLL.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.
1st Ward—JOHN O. PIPER.
2nd Ward—SAMUEL P. HOSMAN.
3rd Ward—J. A. PATTERSON.
4th Ward—J. R. MCCLANAHAN.
5th Ward—J. B. WHITSITT.
6th Ward—R. P. HILL.
7th Ward—E. G. PATNY.
8th Ward—J. R. HICKS.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.
R. P. HILL.

RECORDING SECRETARY.
H. M. LEDBETTER.

TREASURER.
H. TOLENTINE.

☞ Bishop Kavanaugh will preach at the Asbury Church this evening, at 7½ o'clock.

A WIFE-WHIPPER.—Hugo Hedgen, charged with disorderly conduct and whipping his wife, was fined ten dollars by the Recorder yesterday.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—There will be a called meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, at the usual hour this evening, at their hall.

DIVINE SERVICE.—Bishop Kavanaugh will preach to-night in the South Memphis Methodist Church. Services to begin at the usual hour.

DEFERRED REVIEWS.—We have on file a number of reviews of new books, which have been deferred on account of the press of advertisements upon our columns.

☞ MESSRS. CLEMENS & VADEN are in receipt of some new and very attractive books. We invite the attention of the general reader to their new catalogue, in another column.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Tevedel, D. D., will deliver a sermon to-night in the First Baptist Church, delivered especially to the young ladies of Memphis. The public are invited to attend.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—Attention is invited to the sale of real estate belonging to the estate of the late Chas. B. Carroll, which takes place by the Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court, this morning.

THE CALIFORNIA MAIL.—The overland mail from California, with dates from San Francisco to the 18th March, reached this city Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. It was brought from Helena by the steamer Crescent City.

☞ Mr. Lanier, Clerk and Master, will sell some very desirable property to-day in front of his office. Now is the time to make purchases, as both city and suburban property is rising in price daily. We invite attention to the advertisement and plat of property to be sold, in another column.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Yesterday being Monday, the Recorder had another busy day in this tribunal. Twenty-three cases were disposed of, including charges of drunkenness, vagrancy, and misdemeanors. Fines to the amount of fifty dollars were collected, and ten additions were made to the chain gang.

MEMPHIS BOARD OF TRADE.—Yesterday the Secretary received a telegraphic dispatch from a reliable source in Charleston, S. C., from which we learn that the decision from the courts of this city pending in the Supreme Court will be taken up on Thursday or Friday next.

ANOTHER CLUB FOR OUR MEMPHIS WEEKLY.—We are indebted to the kindness of Mr. W. C. Humphrey for a club of SEVENTEEN SUBSCRIBERS to our WEEKLY, at Salisbury, Tennessee, with the cash annexed in payment of our terms. We shall endeavor to make our paper worthy of its rapidly increasing patronage.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The case of John Raggio, charged with larceny, was disposed of yesterday, by the acquittal of the accused.

Theodore Heilbronn, convicted of tampering with shares, obtained a new trial. Conrad Caldwell, convicted to the penitentiary for four years, on a charge of larceny, took an appeal.

The grand jury returned true bills against L. D. Parker and Hugh Murray, for larceny.

FASHIONABLE DRESS MAKING.—As this is a season at which all ladies are changing their dresses, if not their dress makers, we invite attention to the merits of the Misses Corwin & Bell, late of New York. They have vast experience, having long catered to the tastes of the most refined ladies of the gay metropolis of the country, and their judgment may be consulted with advantage. We invite attention to their card, in another column.

DR. BARBER'S LECTURES.—Dr. Barber delivered the introductory to the proposed course of six lectures at Odd-Fellows' Hall last evening. The attendance was very large, and an unusual degree of interest was manifested throughout the discourse. The learned Doctor treats of Geology, Physiology, and in science, and he treats it learnedly and ably. The second lecture will be delivered at the same hall this evening.

REMAINS OF THE LATE D. T. ASH.—A gentleman of this city, who was intimate with the late David T. Ash in his life time, received a letter yesterday from a sister of the deceased, who resides in Chester county, Pennsylvania, giving directions for the removal of the body to that locality. Mr. Ash, we believe, was a native of Chester county, and it is appropriate, that his earthly remains should rest in the soil of his birth-place. The body will be disinterred at once.

A MEMPHIS CONNECTION.—We are advised that the grading of the Nashville and Northwest Railroad has been completed as far as Union City, a distance of thirteen miles from Hickman, Kentucky, the eastern terminus of the road, and that the superstructure has been completed for that distance, and is now ready for the iron. A strong force is at work on the road, and it will soon be completed to Dresden. When finished this road will form another important connection with Memphis.

NOVELTY FLOATING PALACE.—Messrs. Spalding & Rogers gave responsability to floating shows when they commenced and executed the plan of the present Floating Palace. Under the direction of their indefatigable business manager, Col. Van Orden, the enterprise was successful, and the proprietors, in point of wealth, are the prince of showmen. This gentleman, however, have consummated arrangements for a new "palace," which will so completely eclipse the present one as the steamer surpasses the broad-horn. The new equatic edifice will be of colossal dimensions, with magnificent outfits, and will carry its own propelling power—engines, gas-works, and all. This new wonder of the waves will be completed by the coming autumn, at New Albany, Ind.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—It will be remembered that our municipal election will take place on Thursday, the 28th proximo. The number of candidates already in the field is twenty. At the same period last year, preceding the election, there were but twelve candidates, four of whom were announced for Mayor. It would appear from this comparison that our citizens have lost none of their fondness for serving the people, or else they are more ambitious for defeat.

HON. THOMAS F. MARSHALL.—This distinguished orator arrived in the city yesterday on the cars of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, and is stopping at the Worsham House. We trust that he will not leave Memphis without repeating his brilliant and eloquent historical lectures, which have won such high commendations from the critical, the learned and the refined of other cities. Our citizens should forthwith secure the delivery of these interesting lectures.

WEEKLY APPEAL.—This morning we will commence to work off the large edition of our WEEKLY, which will be regularly furnished to its patrons to-morrow. It will contain an unusual amount of interesting reading, including every variety of intelligence received up to the hour of going to press; also embracing the fullest and most reliable market and river reports published by the Memphis press, beside locals, telegraphic items, editorial, etc., etc., etc. Packages or single copies may be bought at our counting room, as usual.

SPALDING & ROGER'S SHOWS.—The two great shows of Messrs. Spalding & Rogers, on board the steamer James Raymond and Floating Palace, arrived on Sunday, and were thrown open yesterday afternoon and last night to the public. These gentlemen have long been regarded as the greatest showmen of the age, and their present exhibitions fully sustain their character. The circus, although a magnificent one, is not the least attraction, for they have, in addition, the wonderful snakes, the live skeleton, the minerals, and so on. But two more exhibitions will be given at this city, the one at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the last at gas-lighting this evening. This will be the last of the floating shows at Memphis in all time.

☞ The sale of NOE in Hopefield, Arkansas, will not take place to-day as advertised.
S. S. WADDELL.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—A few days ago we alluded to the remarkable success which attended the efforts of a party of our citizens on a tripod heavily circulated, every day in the city. During a single day, and within a distance of seven miles from the city, the party alluded to bagged two deer and a wild turkey. Our worthy wharfmaster, Mr. Tobias Wolfe, was of the party, but he only held the bag, and did none of the killing. We make the correction in justice to all concerned, as it has been hinted to us that he has been using the credit of the exploit to influence his election, "Speaking modestly, we are reminded of the outfit with which two English noblemen, in New Orleans recently, furnished themselves preparatory to a Buffalo hunt in Nebraska. The inventory of their supplies was as follows: Four red flannel shirts, two pairs of thick boots, two pairs of buckskin trowsers, two Scotch caps, without visors, (no stockings or drawers) two rifles, two six-barrel Colt's (army regulation) shooters, four Bowie knives! and eight hundred and seventy-five dollars' worth of brandy, with plenty of ammition to last four months.

O. COLEMAN & CO., TOBACCO DEALERS.—Smokers and chewers of "the weed," would do well to give these gentlemen a call before purchasing elsewhere. They keep constantly on hand all the favorite brands, which they sell at manufacturer's prices, freights added, besides they are accommodating gentlemen.

Business Notices.

Persons who have failed in procuring good likenesses should try the new plan by Tyler & Co., opposite Old Fellow's Hall.

They are life-like, natural as nature and possess superiority in various ways; the pictures made by Tyler & Co. are classical, see them opposite Odd Fellow's Hall.

50 cents to $30, the prices for pictures at Tyler & Co.'s gallery.

Great success attends the enterprise of Tyler & Co., rooms daily crowded, demand unsupplied.
