THE MONEYLESS MAN.

BY M. T. STANTON.

For the Memphis Appeal.]

Is there no secret place on the face of the earth
Where charity dwelleth? where virtue has birth?
Where honest in poverty and kindness will bloom,
And the poor and the lonely may rest and repose?
Is there no place at all, where a hand from the soul
Will bring a kind angel to open the door?
Ah! search the wide world, wherever you can,
There is no open door for a MONEYLESS MAN!

Go, look in our hall, where the chandelier's light
Drives off with its splendor the darkness of night;
Where the rich holding valiant, in shadowy feast,
Sweeps gracefully down with its trimmings of gold;
And the matters of silver take up and convey
In long tipped vistas the widening way;
Go there in your poverty—and if you can,
A welcoming smile for a MONEYLESS MAN!

Go look in your church, of the cloud-touching spire,
Which grows to the sun, like most vain look of ire!
Where the orphan and widower are scorned within,
And the thirsty one is poor as a soul without sin;
Walk down the long aisles—see the rich and the great
In the pomp and the pride of their worldly estate—
Walk down in your tatters, and find, if you can,
Who opens a pew to a MONEYLESS MAN!

Go look in our jails, in his dark flowing gown,
With the name wrench'd from your manhood rudely down—
Where he lingers on the week, and smiles on the strong,
And pointeth to right, while he fondles wrong;
Where juries, their lips to the Bible have lent,
To render a verdict—they've already made!—
Go there, in the court-room, and find, if you can,
Any law for the case of a MONEYLESS MAN!

Go look in the bank, where Mammon has built
His broadcloth and thousands of silver and gold!
Where, safe from the hands of the starving and poor,
Lies pile upon pile of the glittering ore—
Walk up to their counter! Ah, there you may stay!
Your money is good, but—you've no time to pay—
And you'll rust at the bank, not one of the clan,
With money to lend to a MONEYLESS MAN!

There is none home! No room has he
For wife who has suffered so long for her bread;
Kneel down by her pallet, and kiss the death frost
From the lips of the child, poor, poverty lost!
Then turn in your agony upward to God,
And bless, amidst its mocks, you, the chastening rod,
And you'll find at the end of your life's narrow span,
There is room to place for a MONEYLESS MAN!

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—An extraordinary session of the Cabinet was called at an early hour this morning, for the purpose of considering the instructions which have just been prepared for our Minister in Mexico. The critical condition of affairs in Mexico necessitates caution on the part of our Government. Minister Maxe is evidently in a quandary. His letters clearly indicate that, and he asks instructions from our Government upon a number of points—one whereby the right of way will be secured to the United States across the isthmus of Tehuantepec, and also through Mexican territory from the Rio Grande to Mazatlan and the port of Guaymas. Other arrangements, commercial and postal, the Administration is desirous of effecting, and instructions covering them will be dispatched at once.

The Secretary of the Treasury is resolved to reduce the expense of collecting the revenue at New York, as he has done at other ports North and South, by cutting off all the efficient and unnecessary officials. He is also resolved to break up and put an end to the feeling of officials for any purpose by merciless hackery, and to increase the efficiency of the custom business by requiring the chief officers to see that the time and services of the employees necessary to the prompt and faithful discharge of their daily duties are devoted faithfully to the public service. He says there is no good reason why government employees should give their whole time to a service for which they are paid, the same as other persons employed to prive business are requiring to do; and if those reforms cannot be brought about by the present chief officers of customs at New York, other remedies will be applied. Quite a number of New Yorkers are here endeavoring to persuade the Secretary to let up on the Custom House in New York. The Collector is expected here to-morrow. They cannot avert the impending storm. Secretary Cobb is unrelenting.

Lieutenant Tredwell Moore has been appointed Assistant Quartermaster in the army, vice Page, deceased.

Colonel Stambaugh, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Surveyor General for Utah.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Persons leaving the United States for France, by way of Havre, most necessarily have their passports sized by the French Consul at the port from which they sail. Those for the continent by way of England, and who may go to London, will have their passports sized by the American Legation, wherever may be their destination. Persons going to the Spanish West Indies will have their passports sized by the Spanish Consul at the port from which they sail. Naturalized citizens applying for passports must send to the Department their naturalization papers, which will be returned them together with a description of their persons. This is all that is required. Since the commencement of the present administration about 14,000 passports have been issued at the State Department, and they are now issued at the rate of from one to sixty a day.

Colonel Steptoe, Captains Carr and Palmer, and Lieutenant Pegram have obtained leave of absence with permission to visit Europe. Although it is probable they will observe the warlike movements, they go thither as private individuals, and not by the order of this Government as a Board of observation.

The War Department has ordered an armed escort to the trains with army supplies, from apprehended attacks by the returning Pike's Peakers, information having been received of the necessity of such protection.

Attorney-General Black to-day decided the questions submitted to him by the State Department on the claims of Captain S. W. Perkins against the Russian Government. The decision settles the right of Captain Perkins to recover under his contracts to furnish one hundred and fifty tons of powder and 25,000 stand of arms. Some unimportant questions were not fully discussed, but the integrity of each claim is fully maintained. The entire amount involved is about $480,000, which will probably be paid on the return of the Russian Minister, who is daily expected from Europe. The decision has, it is considered, a most important bearing upon the supply of munitions of war to foreign governments, gagging our neutrality laws. The counsel of Mr. Perkins were ex-Attorney-General Cushing, ex-Senator Cooper and Joseph B. Stewart.

The Patent Office to-day re-issued to Horace H. Day, assignee of Tyer & Helm, a patent for improvement in the manufacture of India rubber goods by means of Zanic compounds.

A thorough reconnoissance of all the roads in being made, with the view of curtailment at every point where it is practicable without serious detriment to the public, while in many cases the service has been altogether discontinued, in others the number of trips has been reduced from daily to tri-weekly, and from tri-weekly to weekly, etc., etc. On this principle, the Post Office Department has, within the last two months, effected an annual saving of about a million and a half of dollars, exclusive of five hundred thousand saved by the refusal of the Postmaster-General to put into operation the nearly seven hundred routes created in 1858, but for the appropriation which appropriation was made. The work of curtailment is still progressing. It is not probable that the service will be curtailed on any of the railroad lines.

The sixty acting midshipmen who were dismissed from the navy for being participants in the turning and fathoming of their comrades in the Naval Academy in April last, have been re-instated to their former positions.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Despatches have been received here from Governor Cumming, of Utah, to the 28th ult. Considerable excitement still existed among the Mormons, and it was with great difficulty that he could keep them in subjection. The trouble or misunderstanding between Gen. Johnston and Gov. Cumming remains it state quo. He mentions nothing about the probability of a collision between the army and citizens, although he says they were arming themselves to case of an emergency.

Despatches to Mr. McLane were before the cabinet again to-day, and will be despatched by special bearer to-morrow for New Orleans, in time for the Tennessee's mail, which leaves on the 1st. They are full and explicit, and are all that he asked from the Government. The English Minister here is of opinion that the British Minister in Mexico will soon, if he has not already, recognize the Juarez government, or it is understood he has instructions to that effect, and that the French Minister will follow suit.

The administration is considerably puzzled and taken aback at the sudden turning of of filibuster Walker. They have all along been assured by the filibuster leaders here and elsewhere that he had given up all intention of meddling further with Nicaraguan affairs. Our squadron in those waters, however, have full instructions what to do with him in case they catch him. It is believed here that he contemplates landing at Sonora.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The President of several of the Railroad Companies, whose lines extend from Washington to Charleston, together with the President of the Pennsylvania Company, are now here on business relative to the great Southern mail, their object being to enter into an arrangement with the Post Office Department for transporting it more expeditiously, especially between New Orleans and New York, avoiding the failures which are now so frequent.

It has been stated that Lord Lyons is of the opinion that the British Minister in Mexico will recognize, if he has not already, recognize the Juarez government, and that it was understood that he has instructions to that effect.

There is no foundation whatever for this statement, and it is reliably ascertained that Lord Lyons had no information respecting the intentions of Her Majesty's government with regard to the contending parties in Mexico, and had expressed no opinion on the subject.
