Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, June 15, 1859.

RESIGNED.—We regret to learn that officer Jesse Rose has resigned his position as a watchman. Mr. Rose was the flower of our day police.

VAGRANCY.—Jas. Crawford was convicted of the charge of vagrancy before the Recorder yesterday, and sentenced to the chain-gang for a short period.

☞ A warrant was issued by Esquire Horne yesterday for the arrest of John Mahlie, who engaged in a fight yesterday in North Memphis.

CITIZENS' MEETING.—There will be a meeting of citizens at Esquire Horne's office, for the nomination of candidates to represent the Fourth Ward in the Board of Aldermen.

☞ The excavations for the block of splendid new buildings, to be located on the west side of Second street, near Beale, have been completed, and the foundations will be laid at once.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were but six cases before the Recorder yesterday, two of which were dismissed. The fines amounted to $15, but $5 of which was paid. Three additions were made to the chain-gang.

CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN.—At the meeting of the citizens of the Eighth Ward, Monday evening, Messrs. S. C. Griffin and H. Valentine were nominated as candidates to represent that Ward in the next Board of Aldermen.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Several cases of violation of the liquor and gaming laws were disposed of yesterday, and numerous judgments were taken upon scire facias. A change was made in the Grand Jury, the name of A. L. Goff having been submitted for that of John Bowen.

TOBACCO AGENCY.—We invite attention to the change in the style of the firm of Messrs. O. Coleman & Co., announced in another column this morning. Their stock of tobacco, cigars, etc., is now very large and desirable, and as they buy from first hands, they are enabled to sell at unusually cheap rates.

ARKANSAS LAND AGENCY.—It gives us pleasure to invite attention to the card of Messrs. Williamson & Rayburn, of Gainesville, Greene county, Ark. They are both gentlemen in whom the most implicit confidence may be placed, having had a large experience in the business. Any interest entrusted to them will be carefully attended to.

LOST.—It is supposed that during the fire Tuesday morning, a valuable mare, the property of Dr. Willett, escaped from the conflagration and wandered away. The mare is a bright bay, fifteen-and-a-half hands high, and five years of age, of fine blood. A liberal reward will be paid for her delivery at the office of Drs. Frayser & Willett.

☞ Dr. Hardaway, a well-known citizen, was arrested Monday evening for fighting, and confined in the calaboose during the night. After submitting to an examination before Recorder Fauntleroy, yesterday, he was discharged, he was subsequently arrested. He was then examined a second time before Esquire Horne, and again discharged.

THE PUBLIC CISTERNS.—The long-continued dry weather has not only deprived the private cisterns of the usual supply of water, but many of the public cisterns, also, have become exhausted. Such of the latter as need refilling are undergoing the process of replenishing from the tanks at the bluff. The cisterns on Front Row, above Adams street, were filled yesterday.

SCOTIA PLAYED OUT.—An enterprising Scotchman has been engaged to play to front of Ash's Old Theatre, with a view to attract visitors to an itinerant show in that locality. He plays very miserably upon the bagpipe, and is a source of great annoyance to the neighbors. We have always admired the style of the Scotch plaid, but our admiration has never extended to Scotch playing.

DEATH OF DR. TUCK.—We regret to announce the death of Dr. W. J. Tock, of this city. The sad event was unlooked for, and occurred Monday night, at the residence of Mr. Q. C. Atkinson, in the suburbs of the city. Dr. Tock had been a resident of Memphis many years; was respected in his profession, and very generally beloved by those who knew him. He was a native of Virginia, and died in the age of forty-three. His death has excited a feeling of universal regret. The remains of the deceased were interred in the Elmwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

AFFRAY AT RALEIGH.—John W. Burns, of this city, recently lost a lot of tools, which he avers were taken by two men who were hired in the vicinity of Raleigh. Mr. Burns visited Raleigh on Monday, with a view to the recovery of the tools. He failed, however, in the attempt, and was assaulted by one Michael McDonald, who assumed the quarrel for the boys. Burns was badly beaten, and barely escaped with his life. A warrant was issued at Raleigh for McDonald's arrest; but the instrument was deemed informal, and a new warrant was issued by Esquire Horne, yesterday. McDonald, it is said, is in this city.

IGNORANT OF THE FORMALITIES.—It is a remarkable fact that many well informed citizens are wholly ignorant of the simplest formalities of the law. For example, an individual who obtained an attachment yesterday from Esquire Horne against a debtor, waited patiently until the instrument had been made out, and then coolly proceeded in person to serve it on the magistrate. A "better citizen," who called upon a magistrate yesterday, to make the necessary oath to obtain a peace warrant against a neighbor, one Michael McDavit was asked by the magistrate if he wished to make affidavit to the statement which he had made. The reply was worthy of the greatest pouter in the land, for our hero promptly assured the magistrate that was the wrong man—it was one Michael McPavit he was after.

ANOTHER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—A few minutes past three o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the livery stable of Messrs. Richards & Harrison, on Adams street, between Main and Second. When the flames were discovered, the fire had made such progress that it was found impossible to arrest it, and we have to chronicle the destruction of Messrs. Richards & Harrison's livery stable, together with a large amount of stock; the marble yard of Messrs. C. C. Maydwell & Bro. and the Bon Ton Billiard Saloon and Restaurant. The negro mart of Mr. A. Delap was considerably injured, and the hall of the Pioneer Hook and Ladder Fire Company, adjoining, was also damaged. The entire loss is from $45,000 to $47,000, upon which there was but $14,500 insurance. The buildings destroyed were all new, and were of brick. The loss of Messrs. Richards & Harrison, the proprietors of the stable, is in the neighborhood of $15,000, upon which there was no insurance. No less than seventeen horses, together with all the properties of the stable, were burned. We are pleased to learn, however, that Messrs. Richards & Harrison succeeded in saving six of their most valuable horses. From the stable the fire communicated to the marble-works of Messrs. C. C. Maydwell & Bro., on the east, together with the billiard saloon of Mr. Hugh Dunbar, and the Bon Ton Restaurant, the property of Mr. Elbridge Tuffts, both of which were entirely consumed. Mr. Dunbar's loss is about $10,000 upon which he had an insurance for $4000, with Ætna Insurance Company of Hartford. The Messrs. Maydwell lose about $18,000, upon which they had no insurance. Mr. Tuffts' loss is $600, and he was fully insured. It will require an expenditure of $500 or $600 to repair the damage to the wall of the Hook and Ladder Fire Company, and about $3,000 to relume Mr. Delap, neither of which parties were insured. There is very little doubt but the fire was the work of an incendiary.

Book Notice.

ON CIVIL LIBERTY AND SELF-GOVERNMENT, by Francis Lieber, L. L. D., author of Political Ethics. Published by J. B. Lippencott & Co., Philadelphia.

This is a work displaying principles we heartily wish every citizen in the United States was familiar with. What is liberty in a political point of view? It is not freedom for everybody to do as he pleases, because no one must use his liberty to the detriment of the liberty of others. Liberty has its limits, within which it is safe and promotive of human welfare and progress; beyond them it meets its death at the hands of its two great enemies, anarchy and despotism. In the first French revolution liberty was destroyed by anarchy, in the last, when Louis Napoleon was endowed with Imperial power, by universal suffrage, it was stifled by despotism. Liberty has been preserved in this country by an avoidance of these fatal extremes. The more nearly we hold by the golden mean, and let moderation and enlarged views govern us, the more pure and lasting will our liberty be. Books that distinguish between true liberty and its false semblances, are boons of great value to us. In the work before us Mr. Lieber gives a minute analysis of the distinguishing traits of liberty, shows Empires to have flourished where liberty has been preserved, and how they have languished where liberty was excluded. The work is well printed and handsomely bound.

City Finances.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The statement of the finances of the city, published in your paper of the 11th inst., is not satisfactorily understood by some of the good people. The writer sends you a statement, made from the Mayor's statement, as he understands it, which, if correct, shows a very different result. If it is not correct, the writer would be glad to be informed to the contrary:

His House sets out with a balance or deficit against the city at the commencement of his administration of	$68,327.30
During the two years of Mayor Brush's Mayoralty, ending July 1, 1859, in round numbers, there will be made the following ordinary liabilities to the city:
W. R. Crosthwait & Co., for guarding, interpreting, etc., etc.	$70,000.00
Court Square improvements	14,278.00
Extraordinary appropriations to Fire Department, in the purchase of skids, erection of houses, etc., etc.	22,000.00
Memphis and Little Rock R. R. Co. for interest on her 8 per cent. bonds, assumed by city, for which Navy Yard is mortgaged to City, say	25,000.00
Loss in Military Companies	2,000.00
Building vacated houses destroyed by Pestilence	5,000.00
Lease of Bear's Island for Quarantine purposes	3,000.00
Washington Street Railroad	1,000.00
Jubilee account, credited up and paid after July 1, 1859	7,500.00
Pennsylvania sufferers	2,500.00
Total	$247,703.30
To this must be added amount of Notes of Mayor and Aldermen outstanding for cash and now outstanding	120,000.00
Amount of Mayor and Aldermen, by Greenlaw & Co., for grading, etc., in Memphis and Charleston R. R. Co., on one interest, balance in Taxes and others for same, bills receivable, etc., etc., say	35,000.00
Bills payable, say	275,000.00
Ledger balances, say	20,000.00
	$717,703.30
My abilities	$717,703.30
Mayor Brush's abilities	248,700.00
The difference	468,703.00
Probable amount uncollected City Tax, say	150,000.00
My balance in	$618,703.00
Mayor Brush's balance	95,000.00
Difference in resources	$523,703.00

The item of $150,000, probable amount of tax to be collected, is included twice—once in this statement and once in the statement of assets and ordinary liabilities—so I understand the difference between the amounts collected and the probable amount to be collected, is the probable amount of tax, which will be lost to the city, in round numbers, say $400,000.00

The amount of liabilities for two months (to 1 May, 1859, as per item 4) $61,328.78

The assets of the city, or resources, will probably reach the sum of $362,725.00

Balance against the city, say $131,292.18

In making the statement, every figure has been taken from the official, published statement, without any wish or intention to distort or change them. If the item of $150,000 has been twice stated, then there would be an increase to the balance, making $361,293.19—all of which I devoutly wish and hope is not the case. In your issue of yesterday morning I notice the statement of the 11th is again published, with a "small variation." In the publication of this morning the item of "bills payable" is omitted, amounting to $225,000.00, but the result is the same. This is presumed to be omitted by the printer. This statement is to show the floating debt of the city, as time bonds are not mentioned. It would be well for each individual to examine for himself and ascertain the facts, as each tax-payer is interested, and should be prepared to act advisedly when he comes to act. X.

MEMPHIS, June 14, 1859.

An important improvement in material for roofing is offered to the public by Messrs. J. Dito & Co., of New York city. It consists of a preparation of glutinous and fibrous matter combined, covered with mica, said to be very durable and perfectly water proof. It is highly spoken of by those who have used it. For particulars see advertisement in our paper.

The river was still rounding, yesterday, though not quite so rapidly as on the previous day, having fallen but about 8 inches during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock last evening. The weather was very warm yesterday, with a very light shower of rain. Business at the landing was dull.

There is some 4 feet water on Stewart's bar, above Cumberland, due, in the Ohio, which is the channel point leaves to Hamburg.

The Alice Vivian, the new packet in the Memphis and New Orleans trade, arrived yesterday morning. She is the same handsome craft she was when she freshened out. We are indebted to the attentive clerks, Messrs. Champlin and Wiggins, for papers.

The Kate Prather left for Vicksburg last evening, with one of the biggest trips of the season. She was so full of passengers that it was necessary to sleep a large number on mattrasses.

Capt. John Adams, of the Arkansas River mail line, was a passenger by the Kate Prather, for Napoleon, last evening.

There were no arrivals or departures of steamboat boats yesterday, and our river friends experienced one of the dullest days of the dull term. With the exception of the enlistments incident to the delivery of the cotton at the Bluffs, and the hurrying to and fro of travelers in search of boats, everything was quiet.

REMOVAL OF AN ENGINEER.—We made an allusion to the fact yesterday morning that the Second Engineer of the steamer Philadelphia had been dishonorably by Capt. Marshall, and that his station had been resolved by Capt. McNeel, during the last trip of the steamer Philadelphia from St. Louis to this port. The offense was intemperance and sleeping while on duty. It seems that, after having resumed the discharge of his duties, a short time, he laid down adjacent to the engine and fell fast asleep, in which condition he remained half an hour or more, when he was discovered, and set of the officers and many of the passengers were witnesses of the fact. J. H. McCord, Esq., the Inspector of Licenses for the District of St. Louis, being on board, had his attention called to the delinquency, and upon having an interview with the party (Randolph Garrett) he confessed the soft impeachment, and claimed the indulgence of the officers. The case, however, being one of the most outrageous and wanton character, and multiplying such an entire disregard of the duties of the field of engineer, Capt. McNeel, Mr. Carroll's trustee, whereupon the Captain, who had determined to kill two birds that whatever the decision might be relative to the matter, to leave him at Cairo, directed Carroll to leave the boat at Cairo; and the services of another engineer were secured.

It is to be hoped that this may prove a salutary example to all others who may hold positions of responsibility and pilots.

And we deem it proper to add, in this connection, that the steamboat officers would, on every such occasion, report similar delinquencies (as we conceive it to be the duty of all officers who may hold positions of responsibility and pilots.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of an execution to me directed from the Law Side of the Circuit Court of Shelby county, for the use of the City of Memphis, issued on judgments rendered thereon on the 21st day of April, 1858, in favor of W. P. and L. B. Hayes against A. D. Wilkerson and Weldon White, I have levied on the following described lot of land, to-wit: Lot 3 in square 17, in the city of Memphis, sold to the highest and best bidder, for cash, on the 4th day of July next, in front of the Court House door, in the city of Memphis, sell to the highest
