Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, July 2, 1859.

☞ Capt. John T. Shirley, of this city, was in Louisville on Tuesday last.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—We invite the attention of the profession to the official notice, in another column.

CONCEALED WEAPONS.—John McMurray was fined $10 by the Recorder yesterday for having a slung-shot in his possession.

CRIMINAL COURT.—This tribunal met yesterday, but no business was transacted, owing to a failure to summon a jury panel for the trial of the M'Dowell murder case.

☞ The authorities have been guilty of the folly of removing the admirable plank road on Union street. We regret to learn that the planks are to give place to gravel.

☞ F. G. Rock has resigned the cashiership of the Bank of Memphis, and W. C. McClure, formerly cashier of the Southern Bank of Tennessee, has been elected in his place.

FUGITIVE RECLAIMED.—A negro man, the property of Mr. Hawkinson, of Warren county, Mississippi, was restored to his owner yesterday. The negro has been in jail here for some time.

DISCHARGED.—Daniel Wilkins and R. W. Lane, who were arrested on the 27th June, on the charge of larceny, were released from prison yesterday, the grand jury failing to find an indictment against them.

COMMITTED.—John R. Wells, an escaped member of the chain gang, was arrested yesterday upon the charge of having stolen a watch and gun. The charge was investigated before Esquire Horne, and the accused was fully committed for trial.

ASSAULT.—A woman named Rebecca Mulligan, who lives on Vance street, in the vicinity of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad depot, was arrested and imprisoned yesterday. The charge against her was that she had assaulted one of the lords of creation.

INDICTED.—Two bills of indictment were returned yesterday by the grand jury of the Criminal Court—one against Patrick Keefe, for assault with intent to kill Patrick Keefe, and another against James Crawford, for stealing a quantity of clothing from Mary Carlen.

LIGHT GUARD.—We are requested by Captain Saffarans to say to those that the Memphis Light Guards will assemble at the drill room to-day at one o'clock and march to the house of Captain A. B. Shaw, on Union street, to be presented with a flag for the company by Mrs. A. B. Shaw.

TELEGRAPHIC.—By a telegraphic error it was yesterday stated in our telegraphic column that the Third and Fourth corps d'Armee of the Russian army were moving to the seat of war, the latter corps toward Trieste. It should have been not the Russian, but the Austrian army.

ANACONDAL.—The magic of Marion Lake is thronged daily, Sunday's not excepted, by fishermen, who are in many instances accompanied by ladies. The anglers were all lucky yesterday, and brought home almost countless numbers of the finny tribe.

☞ A business man, who is proverbially delinquent in a pecuniary way, endeavors to attract attention to his business by prefacing an advertisement "One thousand honest men wanted." An accession of one honest man in the management of his business affairs would be desirable.

RECORDER'S COURT.—A large number of cases were disposed of in this tribunal yesterday, and a heavy amount of fines assessed. Warren Howard was fined $10 for keeping a disorderly house near the corner of Main and Washington streets. Five or two charges of fighting were investigated. But one addition was made to the chain-gang.

☞ M. C. Cayce & Son's sale of improved and unimproved property, near the Memphis and Charleston depot, known as the property of John D. Armour, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. All desirous of making good investments, should not fail to attend this last magnificent sale of the season.

DRAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The annual demonstration by the colored draymen of the city will take place in the grove in the vicinity of Elmwood Cemetery, on Monday, the 4th inst., the anniversary of our national independence. A Captain for the morning year will be elected, and the occasion will be characterized by other interesting proceedings.

THE BLACKBERRY PICKERS.—The avenues to all the berrying grounds within easy distances from the city for pedestrians, are frequented at present by scores and hundreds of blackberry-pickers, of all ages, colors, and sexes, whose efforts to call the delicious fruit are handsomely rewarded. The crop is said to be an abundant one.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS.—We this morning publish the business card of Messrs. Vernon and Partee, cotton Factors, and Commission and Forwarding Merchants, No. 5 Front Row. Mr. Vernon is well know as a gentleman of high mercantile standing and is one of our most respected citizens. Mr. Partee brings business qualifications into the firm Planters will be well satisfied with this new client house.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A very sudden death occurred at the rooms of the City Dispensary, on Exchange street, yesterday. A laborer, whose name was James McDonald, applied to the attending physician for treatment, but, before he received attention, the patient fell upon the floor and died. Esquire Horne held an inquest upon the body yesterday morning, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased had died from natural causes.

THE CALIFORNIA MAIL.—The overland mail from this city for California will be transported for the present by way of Helena, and thence overland to Little Rock, avoiding the line of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad. Passengers for this route will be sent by steamer to Helena, and will there meet Messrs. Chiderster, Rapley & Co's. splendid stages for Fort Smith. Mr. Nichols, the popular agent of the line at this city, will embark for Little Rock to-day on business connected with the mail service.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE JAIL.—Captain D. F. Jackson, the efficient new jailer, has made some praiseworthy improvements about the city prison, the most noteworthy of which is that of cleansing and purification. A great reform was needed in that respect, and Captain J. has commenced the work with such taste and spirit as to warrant the belief that he is the very man of all others to consummate the needed reform. Captain Jackson's efforts are ably seconded by his worthy assistants, Messrs. Ferguson and Hess.

SWINDLERS AT LARGE.—A man and wife, named Gotton, arrived in this city Thursday by the Daniel Boone, having embarked at Bledsoe's Landing. A letter was received by our police, yesterday, from a gentleman named Henry Revell, at Bledsoe's Landing, informing our police that Cotton had borrowed $25 from the writer, in addition to which he had sold three beef cattle and pocketed the proceeds. The accused is rather a delicate man, about thirty-three years of age, with dark hair, and has suffered the loss of two or three front teeth.

DEATH IN THE BIRD CAGES.—In the absence of a fatal disease among our citizens, we are informed that the birds in the locality of Memphis are suffering at present the horrors of an epidemic. We have heard of the loss by death recently of many favorite canaries, and of several highly-prized mocking-birds. The fatal disease is of a peculiar character, for in the midst of the greatest apparent glee, and while discoursing their sweetest music, they fall dead from their perches. The ailment alluded to above, however, is not of the same character with which a sweet-singing mocking-bird which belonged to a friend was afflicted a few nights ago. The songster occupied a cage on the back porch, where he was discovered by some one prowling about the premises at a late hour. The music of the bird, it seems, excited the acquisitiveness of the nocturnal visiter, and the admiration was no doubt mutual, as the bird was completely carried away by the marauder.

A SERIES OF MISFORTUNES.—It has been said that "misfortunes never come singly," and we have in our mind at least one painful verification of the truth of this adage. We allude to the afflictions of our fellow-citizen, Mr. Dunbar. It has been but a few short weeks since his only brother, a young man about twenty years of age, and one, too, of great promise, was robbed, most brutally murdered, and then thrown into the river by his murderer. Mr. Dunbar soon afterward met with a serious pecuniary misfortune in the destruction by fire of his costly and magnificent billiard saloon, at the hands of a merciless incendiary. But, as if the misfortunes enumerated were insufficient, he received a despatch on Thursday conveying the intelligence that his aged mother was then upon her death-bed at the residence of a friend at Unionstown, Ky. Mr. D. left this city on Thursday, to gain the bedside of his mother in the trying hour, accompanied by his only sister. In his sad affliction, Mr. Dunbar has the sympathy of many devoted friends.

CHARLESTON RAILROAD.—We publish this morning, in our advertising columns, a statement of the time of the arrival and departure of trains on the Charleston Railroad, by the new time table. On account of the four train on the new table starting at a quarter to two o'clock on Sunday morning, the usual train at a quarter to two o'clock this afternoon will not start. In a few days the Cleveland branch will be opened, which will reduce the time four hours going to the East, making the trip by this route as rapid as by any other in the country. So great is the travel by this road that it has become necessary to run two trains a day. A more successful or better managed road than the Charleston, cannot be found in the United States.

HOTEL ROBBERY.—We gave an account a few days since of the exploits of one Hugh Perry at the Commercial Hotel, and gave the particulars of his arrest and examination before the Recorder. There was little doubt of Perry's complicity in a robbery at the Commercial, but the proof was not forthcoming, and the accused was let off with a trifling fine. It seems that Perry has been at his old tricks again, having figured extensively with an accomplice named Samuel, at the Merchants Hotel, Thursday night. The rascals entered almost every room in the hotel, and stole small sums of money from each. After securing their booty they effected an escape.
