Local Matters.

Friday Morning, : : : July 29, 1859.

Arrivals and Departures of Trains.

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON.—Trains arrive at 8:50 A. M. and 8:55 P. M. Depart at 1:45 A. M. and 2:00 P. M.

MEMPHIS AND OHIO.—Trains arrive at 11:00 A. M. and 4:30 P. M. Depart at 5:45 A. M. and 4:20 P. M.

MISSISSIPPI AND TENNESSEE.—Trains arrive at 10:30 A. M. Depart at 2:00 P. M.

☞ Col. Brown, the able editor of the Madison (Ark.) Pioneer, is in the city.

☞ There is an unpaid letter in the Cincinnati postoffice for Mr. James Wells, of this city.

☞ Capt. James'ains, the veteran Arkansas river steamboatman, arrived in this city yesterday.

RENOVAL.—Dr. Edmonds has removed his residence to the frame house, north-east corner Madison and Third streets. 1w RELEASED.—A free negro, named Robert Brown, charged with stabbing a slave belonging to Mr. J. B. Smith, was released on bail yesterday. Brown gave bond in $1000.

☞ Charles Morningstar, the individual committed on Wednesday in default of $2000 bail, remained in prison last evening, having failed to give the required bail.

☞ There is at present in the jail and calaboose about one hundred persons, of which forty-five are arraigned for State offenses, and the remainder belong to the chain gang.

☞ Capt. J. B. Nichols, the efficient agent of the Overland Mail Company, arrived in this city from the western division of the line yesterday.

SPEAKING AT OLD FELLOWS' HALL.—We are requested to state that Messrs. Payne and Holmes, candidates for the State Senate, will speak at Odd Fellows' Hall to-morrow (Saturday) night.

SUNDAY LAW.—There is a petition in circulation, which has already a crowd of names, asking Council to so change the Sunday law as to permit the public to get soda water on that day, it being an absolute necessary at this season of the year.

ARRESTED FOR DEBT.—Harvey Bell, Jr., was arrested and placed in jail yesterday upon the charge of swindling. He had boarded at the Commercial Hotel until his bill amounted to a good round sum, and represented himself as an agent of the Overland Mail Company.

MORE STONE FOR THE WHARF.—The tow-boat Gossite State arrived from the vicinity of City-in-Rock, Ill., yesterday, with two additional barges of stone, the material to be used in the construction of the contemplated pavement at the wharf.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—The body of a man who had evidently been foully dealt with, was found floating in the river near Messrs. J. J. Smith & Co.'s wharfboat. An inquest was held upon the body, but no testimony was elicited as to the identity of the deceased or the cause of the death.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The adoption of the one-session rule each day in this tribunal seems to have had a good effect. The number of cases brought up for litigation have been materially lessened. His honor disposed of but eight cases yesterday, and assessed fines to the amount of $35, of which just $10 were paid. Four additions were made to the chaingang.

DISCHARGED.—W. J. Bennett, the man who has been under arrest for several days upon the charge of causing the death of Jas. White, in the vicinity of Elmwood Cemetery, about two weeks since, for the purpose of committing robbery, was examined before Squire Horne yesterday and discharged. It will be remembered that it was mainly upon the strength of Bennett's own confessions that he was arrested.

THE CITY DISPENSARY.—It appears that the sudden change in the temperature of the atmosphere has not operated as a check upon disease in the city. Those who have charge of the City Dispensary are kept quite busy ministering to the wants of the afflicted poor. No less than fifty-eight cases were treated yesterday at this hospitable institution, embracing chills, bilious fevers, and the diseases peculiar to the latitude.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.—This institution is situated at Bardstown, Ky. It is conducted by members of the society of Jesus, an order whose members are the most successful educationists in the world. Although conducted by Catholics, youths of all denominations are admitted. The location is a very salubrious one, with convenient buildings, and fine roomy play grounds. The course is complete in English and classic branches, and an excellent commercial course is provided for those intending to apply themselves to mercantile pursuits. The session commences in September. See the college advertisement.

THE REPORTED MURDER AT NAPOLEON.—The citizens of Napoleon continue in a state of excitement in regard to the reported murder and subsequent robbery of Dr. Harding in that place on Saturday last, some allusion to which we have made heretofore. In spite of the excitement, it is stated upon pretty good authority that Dr. Harding had been seen in this city since his mysterious disappearance from Napoleon. Great prejudice seemed to exist at last accounts against the keeper of a saloon in Napoleon named Fred Hines, who was suspected of complicity in the crime, and when the Daniel Boone left Napoleon Wednesday, it was feared that Hines would be lynched by the populace.

The Election Law.

EDITORS APPEAL: In Judge Bailey correct in his view taken this morning with regard to the places of holding elections in Memphis? I think not.

By the 13th section of chapter 37, passed 25th January, 1858, and the 21st section of chapter 159, passed 20th March, 1858, and before the Code was the law, but at the same session it was adopted, it was enacted by the Legislature (by the first act passed) that the charter of the city of Memphis be so amended that in all elections thereafter, the polls should be opened and elections held in each ward of the city; that the judges, clerks, etc., for holding said elections, should be appointed and the places for receiving votes designated in the same manner as provided by existing law for the places already designated; and by the amendatory act passed 20th March, 1858, it is provided that the 13th section of the act of 25th January, 1858, providing for opening the polls in each ward, be so amended, etc., that in all elections in the county of Shelby, except for constables and justices of the peace, the polls shall be opened in each ward of said city of Memphis, as was intended to be provided in the 13th section of the act passed 25th January, 1858.

Now it is clear that the above acts are amendments to the charter of the city of Memphis. The first one expressly so states, and the last is an amendment to the first. This is important to the question, because it makes these acts—local, special and private—and acts of incorporation, passed before the Code, and upon each ground the provision is not affected by the repealing clause in the Code.

By the 424 section of the Code it is provided that, "local, special and private acts, and acts of incorporation heretofore passed, are not repealed unless it be herein so expressed." Upon this ground I think this special, local corporation law is excepted from the repealing effect of the 41st section of the code. But by the terms of that section this election law of Memphis is not repealed. It provides that "all public and general acts, passed prior to the present session of the General Assembly, and all public and special acts the subjects whereof are revised in the code," etc. Now, this provision for elections in Memphis is not a public and general act; it is published among the private acts, and is a private act. It was not passed prior to the session of '57 and '58 that adopted the code, and therefore is not within the repealing of section 41; nor was the subject of the special act providing for holding elections in Memphis revised in the Code; hence the 41st section of the Code does not touch the election law for Memphis.

Also further, there is no need for the county court to designate the places for holding elections in Memphis, as laid down in section 837 in the Code; because the 13th section of chapter 37, amended by 21st section of chapter 159th, awarding the charter, provided that the judges, clerks, etc., for holding said elections, shall be appointed and the places for receiving votes designated in the same manner as provided by existing law for the places already designated. Now, this is an amendment to the charter, and providing for elections in Memphis under the charter. What were its provisions at the time? The charter provided at that time, that for the election of all city officers, etc., the voters should vote only in wards where they should reside.

Thus it seems clear that the acts providing for opening polls in each ward in Memphis is a local, special act, not repealed by the general provisions in the Code; that the county court has nothing to do with designating the places in the wards for holding elections, but that they shall be designated, as in municipal elections, under the charter of July 28, 1859. The matter should be well considered, and the legal course pursued. W.

STEAM VS. ANIMAL POWER.—It is truly astonishing how much work may be done, by one of the improved "Portable Locomotive Boiler Engines," such as was sent to the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad yesterday, from the establishment of David McComb & Co., 141 Main street, where they are now permanently located in the Plantation Machine business. We are glad to see the agriculturists of the cotton-growing region adopting steam power, since it is found to be so great a saving of animals, and especially in cotton ginning, which is of necessity so tedious a process with horse power. The engine above alluded to does not weigh three thousand pounds, and yet it is of capacity to do the work of five or six horses, with about two cords of wood a week. We advise planters to call and examine for themselves these engines, one of which the above named firm have in motion, and will be pleased to exhibit its power and perfection to any one interested therein. They have also on hand, cotton presses, gin gearing, etc., all of superior and domestic make to sell. As for iron ties for cotton, they are the pioneers, and are prepared to fill orders with the most approved tie ever offered to cotton growers. We can assure parties interested that it is their interest to call and see them. dawtf

THE BARBECUE AT THE JUNCTION.—The barbecue at the Junction to-morrow promises to be the great feature of the canvass in West Tennessee. Many hundreds will be present from this city, and every locality along the line of the road will be represented. Mr. Ayres, the efficient Superintendent of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, assures us that ample arrangements have been made to transport all who may wish to attend from this city. We invite the attention of those interested to the card of Mr. Ayres, in another column, in reference to the time of departure of the train for the Junction to-morrow.

DAGUERREOTYPISTS.—The city authorities have learned that a number of the daguerrean artists in this city are in the habit of practicing their occupations on Sunday. As this is a privilege restricted in this city to the keepers of livery stables, it will be well for the offending daguerreotypists to be on their guard, for the city Marshal contemplates calling at such rooms as he shall find open on Sundays, and inviting transgressing artists—in terms too earnest for the invitation to be declined—to visit the Recorder's office next morning as principals in some legal proceedings.

FLORAL CONCERT.—The floral concert at the new Memphis Theater, under the direction of Prof. Wm. Chase, was a most pleasing entertainment. The attendance was large, and the performances were unexceptionable. We are sure it would be a gratifying announcement that the entertainment would be repeated.

ERRANT HORSES.—No less than three horses, whose owners are of this city, are at large. Dr. O. B. Early and Messrs. John Malone and Edward L. Tupp, will give notice that they will pay handsome rewards for the recovery of their horses.

☞ Mr. J. Lang, the proprietor of the beer saloon near Washington street on Main, has a remarkable specimen of the Alabama wolf on exhibition at his saloon.

PROCLAMATION.

ISHAM G. HARRIS,

GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE, to all who shall see these presents, GREETING:

WHEREAS, I have been officially informed by the President of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Company, that, on the 29th of June last, an obstruction was placed upon the track of said road, near Lafayette, Tennessee, for the purpose of the engine the Locomotive and Cars of said track, whereby the lives and property of passengers were grossly endangered:

Now, therefore, I, Isham G. Harris, Governor aforesaid, do proclaim and offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars, to any person or persons, for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons guilty of said offense.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at office, in Nashville, on the 8th day of July, A. D. 1859. ISHAM G. HARRIS.

DEPARTURES YESTERDAY.

Woodford.....New Orleans | Wm. M. Morrison.....N. O.
J. W. Lowe.....St. Louis

The Gen. Pike, from Louisville, passed Hickman yesterday, and will therefore arrive here this morning at an early hour. She has a good trip of freight, and a large amount for resheipment below.

We are indebted to Messrs. Petty and Waddell, of the Daniel Boone, and to Captain Folger, of the Kate Frisbee, for late papers.

The Granite State arrived from the Ohio river yesterday, with two barges of stone in tow for paving purposes at the wharf.

Mr. Chas. Grater, clerk of the Lucy Holcombe, has our thanks for late New Orleans papers forwarded from Vicksburg.

The cheapest steamboat sold recently in our knowledge, was the Isaac Shelby, purchased by Capt. Lucas at Marshall's sale at eleven hundred dollars.

The Cumberland river is still navigable for light draught steamers, such as the Commerce, which plys between Nashville and St. Louis.

The New Uncle Sam will make a few trips, commencing about the 20th of August, in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade, before going regularly in the Louisville and New Orleans line. Capt. McMahan will command her.

Mr. Joseph Dikoto, the well-known newspaper agent at Louisville, was in this city yesterday.

The river has commenced declining again, and had fallen two inches during the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock last evening. The weather was clear, cool and pleasant.

We learned by telegraph last night that the river had commenced receding again at St. Louis, having fallen five inches in the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock last evening.

There was a shipment of 300 bales of cotton yesterday by the steamer J. H. Lucas for Cincinnati, with the understanding that it should be reshipped at Cairo and transported by rail from St. Louis.

The Daniel Boone arrived from Vicksburg last evening with a fair trip, including about 150 passengers. She also brought five hundred sacks of cotton seed for reshipment to St. Louis.

Capt. Tom Wright has determined to place the Highflyer in the trade between this port and St. Louis. She is undergoing repairs at Louisville, but will be out again in a very short time. The Highflyer will in all probability leave St. Louis on Saturday and this port on Tuesday.

The Woodford, having had a seige of it around in the Ohio, passed down last evening. She put off here forty-one casks bacon for Messrs. Walt & Johnson, a lot of whisky for Col. Wintersmith, and a number of packages for Col. Borden, of the Adam's Express Company.

The Moses McLellan did not arrive yesterday, having been detained pulling off boats in the Ohio. She was expected to arrive last night.

Capt. Hooper's new Empire Parish, for the coast trade, raised steam at Louisville on Wednesday.

Capt. Stat Neal, of the Queen City, is building a huge packet at Madison for the New Orleans trade, in place of the old boat.

The Southerner, which left here on Monday, will not extend her trip farther than Mound City, Ill., where she will be hauled out on the ways for repairs.

The Louisville Courier says that two letters were stolen from the clerk's office on the steamboat Moses McLellan, on Tuesday, at the Portland wharf. The letters were lying on the desk for delivery, and the clerk stepped back for a moment, and when he returned the letters had disappeared, as also did two men about the same time. They were traced to Louisville, where the trail was lost.

☞ For LOUISVILLE.—The splendid mail packet Moses McLellan, Capt. Erwin, is the regular packet for Louisville at four p. m. this afternoon. She is a fine summer packet, of exceedingly light draught, and the best accommodations. Messrs. Woolfolk and Chamange are the clerks.

The fine low water steamer Gen. Pike, Capt. Jones, will leave at four o'clock this afternoon. In the present low stage of the Ohio, passengers would do well to register on the Pike, as she will encounter no delays. Her officers are experienced and deservedly popular. Messrs. Bowers and Farley are the clerks.

T. D. MARCH, |
J. W. APPERSON. |

AS another business season is approaching, we again tender our services to our friends and the public generally as Cotton Factors, Grocery and Commission Merchants, and shall be happy to receive their orders for the same. We trust that by strict and prompt attention to any business entrusted to our care, we shall merit a share of public patronage.

We have a large Fire Proof Cotton Warehouse detached, and other buildings, convenient for storage, and be given to the storing and selling of cotton in this market. We are prepared to make cash advances on same. We will store cotton free for the trade, and store and ship for 50 cents per bale. We keep an open policy of insurance, and will insure cotton at a fair rate against fire unless instructed by owners. All cotton consigned to us for storage, or sale, will be insured against the hill of lading, on insurance.

We have in store and are receiving a large and well selected stock of Groceries, and of all kinds of Goods. Also, for sale on consignment.

100 Sacks Kentucky and Alabama Jeans;
100 ... Linsey;
100 ... Osnaburgs, Louisiana & Quincy Osnaburgs;
200 ... Kentucky and Jeans Jeans (very fine);
500 ... Smoking Tobacco;
50 bbls. and half bbls. Rye Whiskey.

COSMORAMIC STEREOSCOPE.

AMONG the latest inventions in Optics, there is nothing more instructive and amusing than the Stereoscope. The Stereoscopic Views are taken from Nature, representing the finest Scenery, Cities and Monuments in Europe and this country, which, viewed through this instrument, shows those objects in bold relief, similar to their size, and thus gives the best reality for Artists, give the best idea of foreign countries and cities, and make the finest parlor ornaments.

Opticians and dealers throughout this city should not fail to call on C. MULLER, Optician, 247 Main street, opposite Court Square, for the most beautiful and instructive views.

I have received the largest and finest collection of VIEWS of Europe and the United States.
