☞ Our old and particular friend, Col. Geo. R. Fall, of Washington County, Mississippi is now in the city. He is returning with his family from the Virginia Springs. We are glad to see him enjoying fine health.

DISCHARGED.—Robert Montgomery, who was arrested Thursday on a peace warrant sued out by Mrs. Sawyer, was discharged yesterday, no one appearing to prosecute.

☞ Messrs. Geo. Britton and E. L. Topp, of Memphis, were in St. Louis Thursday.

☞ There is an unpaid letter in the Louisville post office for Jas. R. Wilder, of this city.

☞ Three persons charged with vagrancy, were sent to the chain-gang by the Recorder yesterday.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. J. O'Brien, of the Adams Express Company, for New York and Cincinnati papers in advance of the mails.

DEALING WITH NEGROES.—B. F. Arrata was fined $50 by the Recorder yesterday for dealing with negroes contrary to law.

SONS OF MALTA.—There will be a regular meeting of the members of Ingomar Lodge of the Sons of Malta, at their hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

☞ Hon. F. D. Conrad, ex-member of Congress from Louisiana and ex-Lieut. Governor of that State, passed through this city yesterday.

☞ The death of Dr. Nathaniel Bagland is announced. The sad event occured at his late residence in this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

☞ Thos. Wilson, a fugitive from the chain-gang, was re-arrested yesterday, and returned to the chain-gang for a period of forty-three days.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were twelve delinquents before the Recorder yesterday, and fines to the amount of $106 were assessed, but $14 of which was paid. Six additions were made to the chain-gang.

☞ Mr. J. L. Nelson, the young man who was shot in the affray with J. M. Drake, in this city on Saturday evening last, has so far recovered as to be able to appear in the street. Mr Drake will have a preliminary examination on Monday next.

THE OAKLAND CAMP MEETING.—Many of our ministers and leading members of the M. E. Church are in attendance upon the Oakland Camp Meeting in Fayette county. The Memphis and Ohio Railroad is the most direct route to the camp ground.

DISMISSED.—The suit brought by R. R. Sledger and J. L. Davis against J. W. Bonts, for fraudulently obtaining piano and titles to $1,800 worth of real estate, was concluded before Squire Hill yesterday by the dismissal of the accused.

CHANGE OF LOCATION.—Our young friend, Mr. John Simons, late of Clark's jewelry establishment, has become associated with Mr. J. Pooley, at the corner of Main and Court streets. He is a reliable young man, and has an ample experience in the business, with which he has been so long connected.

CHANGE OF TIME TABLE.—It will be seen that a change has been made in the time of the trains over the Memphis and Ohio Railroad. The first Express train over this road will hereafter leave the depot in this city at 5.30, a. m., the second Express at 3.30 p. m., and the freight train at 8 a. m.

DEATH OF AN OLD BOATMAN.—The death of Capt. Chas. D. Robertson is announced. The sad event occurred recently at the residence of a relative a short distance above New Orleans. Capt. Robinson was one of the oldest steamboatmen on the western waters, and commanded the first regular packet between this port and New Orleans. He was an experienced boatman and a genial companion.

ELECTION FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The polls will be opened at every Ward in the city at the usual hour to-day for the election of an Attorney-General and State Reporter. Six candidates are announced for the position, as follows: Col James B. Thornton and Milton A. Haynes, of this city; W. B. Reese, Jr., of Knoxville; J. G. Shackleford, of Clarksville; Col. J. W. Head, of Gallatin, and Thomas J. Freeman, of Trenton.

ACQUITTED OF THE CHARGE.—We made the announcement a few days ago that Mr. J. T. Dipman had been arrested upon the charge of incendiarism, in connection with the destruction of his saloon at the corner of Main and McCall streets, Monday morning. There was no proof as to his guilt forthcoming at the examination, and the accused was honorably discharged. He publishes a card elsewhere in our paper this morning.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MILITARY INSTITUTE.—The exercises in this popular institution of learning, located at Charlotte, N. C., will commence on the 1st of October next. The course of instruction is thorough, and the institution is commended to every parent and guardian in the South. The location is a delightful one, promotive of health and study, and the faculty is able and accomplished. We invite attention to the card of the Directors, in another column.

BURDINE'S GIN GUMMER.—We have recently witnessed the operation of this machine, invented by A. H. Burdine, one of the oldest practical gin makers in the country, and now the property of Burdine & Wormell, and we sure well pleased with its simplicity, and the ecility and perfection with which it operated lengthen the gin tooth, leaving the fork ound and open, and the surface between the eeth perfectly smooth and true from fork to rint of the tooth, thus increasing both the ca- pacity to contain fiber between the teeth, and to ease with which the fiber is discharged by he brush—two qualities essential in order to eat ginning and a good sample.

We published last week certificates of several substantial planters of Shelby and Fayette counties, and Mr. Arch. Reid, formerly a gin manufacturer, and if their opinion of the merits of the Gin Gummer, as indicated by their certificates is correct, this machine is certainly destined to work a revolution of economy to the cotton planter, by greatly increasing the durability of the cotton gin.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to announce the sudden death, either by accident or violence, of Mr. George Rives, son of the late Col. Peter G. Rives. The sad event occurred Thursday evening, at the residence of his Brother, Mr. John Rives, thirteen miles below this city, in Arkansas. With a gun in his possession, the deceased, accompanied by a black boy, was engaged at some duty in the corn field, Thursday afternoon, during which time Mr. R. wandered a short distance from his c mpanion. While Mr. R. was absent from the negro the gun was discharged, and the black boy soon afterward came upon the deceased, and found his head blown off, the right side of it quite dead. It has not yet been clearly demonstrated whether the deceased was murdered or came to his death by accident. The remains were interred at the residence of his brother, in Arkansas, last evening. The deceased was well known in this city.

EDITORS APPEAL:—Twas arrested by Policeman VanCampen upon suspicion of having set fire to my own premises—all policemen representing that he could have extinguished the flames, if I had rendered him the necessary assistance; that I refused to give him water at a time when he could have easily put out the fire, and that I refused him admission into the room by shutting the door. It has been published in all newspapers in the city that I had been arrested upon a charge of arson prompted by the desire to obtain my insurance. The charge as well as the representations of the policeman are utterly groundless and false. As I am prepared to show by witnesses who were present, at the fire—that I used every effort to subdue the flames, that I threw every drop of water then in the house on the flames, and labored hard to save the property, which was covered by insurance. And further more I can show that I have been loser by the fire, I had a lease upon the house for two years, and had put at my own expense two hundred dollars worth of improvements. The insurance claimed by me is only two hundred and fifty dollars, which will not cover half the actual l ss that I sustained, I was lodged in jail without any authority only upon the vague suspicions of the policeman and there remained nearly two days. And when I demanded an examination for the purpose of exculpating myself from all guilt or suspicion, there was no one who would swear out a warrant against me so the matter went by default. I challenge an investigation of the facts of the case. I have been injuriously outraged, and if the law will not give me redress upon the instigators of said arrest, I will seek it at all hazzard and to the last extremity. Some one is responsible and he or they must suffer. JOHN F. DIPMAN.

[Advertisement.]

TO THE PUBLIC AND EDITORS OF THE APPEAL: I noticed a paragraph in your issue of the 12th signed E. M. Jones. The said Jones makes statements in the said article in reference to my turning his wife and child out of my house, which are false and as black as his heart and the hearts of his associates. It is a well known fact that this man Jones has not the means or courage to make a publication; and I have proof that one of the proprietors of the Railroad House proffered to give Jones the sum of $2 to assist him in putting a similar article in the Madison Pioneer. The above fact Jones stated to one of the prominent citizens of this place.

To the facts in putting the wife of this said Jones out at the time alluded to: My house was very much crowded, I was scarce of room and on the same floor that she occupied there was some two or three sick persons, who were very much annoyed by the said wife and child. I went to Mrs. Jones and told her that if she could get board any where else I would pay her board until her husband came back. They had tried to get board at the aforesaid Railroad House and could not.

The morning that Mr. Jones left she requested me to get a Doctor to come and see her sick child. I asked her if her husband had left her any money to defray her medical bills; she said he had not left her a cent. I employed a Doctor that was boarding in my house, and paid for the prescription myself.

I did not send her a way, I merely requested her to see if she could get another boarding house, and that I would see the bill paved until Jones came back; for it was cheaper for me to pay her board than to board her, and get nothing for my trouble, for it is a well known fact that this man Jones never pays a bill when he can possibly avoid it.

It is not to be wondered at, that a man who is so low in the world, as to pawn his tools for a few morsels to eat, can be made the tool of any set of men who wish to injure another and have not got the moral courage to meet him face to face like a man, but under all circumstances prefer to shoot from under cover, or join in a mob and ride a weak and inoffensive stranger on a rail.

The above fact I can prove.

S. PALMER.

HOPEFIELD, Ark., August 12, 1859.

ARRESTED.—We have alluded heretofore to the exploits of one S. W. Younkin, the late book-keeper in the house of Mr. N. D. Wellmore, in this city. Younkin is accused of appropriating a large amount of Mr. Wetmore's money, and was arrested in Pittsburg some time ago under the charge. He was subsequently discharged there, and returned to this city last evening, with the avowed purpose of confronting his accusers. Immediately after his arrival, however, he was arrested, and will doubtless have an examination to-day.

Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous miasm of vegetable decay. This exhalation is evolved by the action of heat on vegetable matter, and rises with the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth and fens, and the system takes it in through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and exciting organs of the body. The liver becomes torpid, and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the stomach, and produce violent, continued disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious influence, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. The virus, or fever, is then in its effective field. Then the Fever follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt, convinced, and ready for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of Fever and Ague. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine the health if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and eradicates it from every part of the body. As it should, so it does cure this afflicting disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what it of ten more secrets to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from the attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from, the great variety of affections which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics, Colic, Painters' Colic, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume none of the intermittent type. This "AGUE CURE" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and those organs by degrees become habited to do this their office of their own accord. Hence arises what we term constitutional cures. They accomplish the same end in both, but often life is not long enough, or sacrificed in the attempt, while this "AGUE CURE" does it at once, and effectually. We have great reason to believe this is a sure as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.

NOTICE.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

AT a meeting of the Brother's Association, held on Saturday evening, June 25, it was resolved, that any member who shall announce that they would not give a burger credit than from one Monday to another, after the 15th of July, 1859, or, in fact, have adopted the cash system entirely. They have to pay cash for all they buy in their trade, and they hope their customers and the public will not take offence at their necessities.

Business Notices.

BURDINE'S GIN GUMMER.—We are now prepared to sell county rights for the use of this machine—an invention perfected and patented for the purpose of restoring and preserving the original length of the gin tooth. This machine is so perfect and simple in its construction that it may be successfully worked by any one, and the great amount of work necessary to be done in the way of lengthening the gin tooth, and in perfecting those that have been badly filed may suggest to the industrious and enterprising young man, the expediency of examining this machine with a view to the purchase of a county right to use and sell to planters.

C. F. Mollitor, of Germantown, is our agent for the sale of county rights in Arkansas, and G. H. Cowan for the State of Tennessee. Address W. E. Wormell, Germantown, Tennessee, and A. H. Burdine, Chulahoma, Marshall county, Miss.

TO THE COTTON PLANTER.—I have witnessed the performance of the Machine invented by Mr. Burdine, and consider it a good one for gumming cut gin teeth in saws where they are much worn. I have been engaged in the gin business as a traveling agent for six years, and have had some experience in that business, sufficient to know that it is no humbug.

TO THE COTTON PLANTER.—I have had my gin operated on by Burdine's Gin Gummer, and for the purpose of lengthening the teeth of gin saws, and continuing their original length with perfection. I am of opinion that it is a machine of great usefulness to the planter, and that by its use a gin will wear several times as long as it has or can without it.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC.—Breckenridge Coal Oil and Lamps.—We desire to call the attention of the public at large to the excellency of coal oil as an illuminator, being far superior to candles, burning fluid, vesper gas light, or lunar oil. This we are prepared to demonstrate, and in a future article will do so. Coal oil lamps are so simple in their construction, easily managed, and well adapted to burn the oil, that they give the most perfect satisfaction when properly managed. We have on hand now a large stock of lamps and shall receive a new supply next month, and are selling the lamps from 25 to 50 per cent. less than ever sold by any other person in Memphis. We can supply the country trade at a small percentage above eastern prices. We are now retailing No. 1 Breckenridge coal oil, at $1.25 per gallon, and will furnish the country trade with oil by the barrel at factory prices for the same quality of oil. All persons desirous of purchasing coal oil and lamps are invited to give us a call before buying elsewhere. Cash orders promptly attended to.
