Local Matters.

Tuesday Morning, September 6, 1859.

FAST DRIVING.—Col. McDonaldson was fined five dollars by the Recorder yesterday for fast driving.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen will be held this evening.

☞ The new company for the Washington street Theater, were passengers in his city, last night, by the steamer J. H. Lecoe.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The Recorder disposed of seventeen cases yesterday. Five delinquents were sent to the chain gang.

☞ The protracted meeting in the Christian Church, under the preaching of Mr. McGinn, continues with increasing interest, a number having already confessed.

TOBACCO SALE.—There will be a sale of tobacco to-day by the Inspector, in the Navy Yard, near the depot of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, to which the public are invited.

DESIRABLE OFFICES.—Messrs. Cartwright & Co., have some desirable offices for rent in their new building, on Front Row, near Adams street.

FINED FOR AN ASSAULT.—B. F. Wynne was fined $10 by Squire Horne for making a violent assault with a club upon August Ullmann.

☞ LOST PENSION PAPERS.—The misguided individual who purloined James McManus's pension papers last evening will please return them. They are of no value to any one but the owner.

TO CHANGE HANDS.—We are informed that the Commercial Hotel, in this city, has been purchased by a gentleman of Nashville, who has experience in the hotel business, and that it will soon pass into other hands.

☞ Mr. H. Borden, agent of the Adams Express Company in this city, returned to this city yesterday after an absence of several weeks at the North. We are indebted to him for papers in advance of the mails.

☞ In our notice of the Collierville barbecue, we neglected to make mention of Prof. Gazela, of the Germania Band, under whose leadership the fine music of the occasion was discovered.

TO BE EXAMINED.—Chas. F. Johnson, who is under arrest on the charge of forging a letter of credit upon Col. Coleman of the telegraph office, for the sum of two hundred and eighty dollars, will be examined before Squire Horne to-day.

☞ An affray occurred last evening, at the corner of Beale and Causey streets, between two citizens, in which one of them received a serious injury from the application of a loaded whip, or some formidable weapon of that character.

CUTTING AFFRAY.—A negro named Bob, who belongs to Mrs. Stewart, was badly cut in an affray with two other negroes, who belong to Dr. J. B. Gray and Mr. J. Schoonover, on Sunday afternoon. A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of the offending parties.

☞ Our old friend Sessel has now his stock of fall and winter goods on his shelves. It is large and varied, and we commend his house both to our lady and gentleman friends. He sells at low prices for cash, and is enabled to suit his customers in almost any article they can call for.

☞ We invite the attention of retail dealers throughout the country to the advertisement of Messrs. Cossitt, Hill & Talmadge, wholesale dealers in dry goods, etc. This is one of the most extensive houses of the kind in the South, and country merchants will find it to their advantage to give them a call.

CORRECTION.—We gave, on Saturday last, the particulars of the shooting affray between Capt. Jos. Jackson, of Christian county, Ky., and Mr. W. H. Weston, of this city. We have since learned that the gentleman who received the fatal shot was not Mr. W. H. Weston, Jr., but the father of that gentleman, whose name is identical with that of his son. The younger Weston was also on a visit to Kentucky at the time, but was not present at the scene of the affray.

RAILROAD MEETING.—There was an adjourned meeting of citizens last evening at the Exchange Building, friendly to the construction of the Memphis and Iron Mountain Railroad. Col. J. H. McMahon presided, and Mr. W. B. Waldron was appointed Secretary. Addresses were delivered by ex-Gov. Jones, Col. R. G. Payne, and J. T. Swayne, Esq. An invitation was received from the friends of the enterprise in St. Louis, to attend a meeting of the same character in that city, on the 29th inst.

WEEKLY APPEAL.—Our weekly edition, which goes to press to-day, will be found to contain more than its usual amount of reading matter. Among the articles of greatest prominence and interest, besides our usual supply of miscellaneous and general reading, will be found the speech of the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, on non-intervention and popular sovereignty; the able and eloquent letters of J. W. Woodack, Esq., of Eutaw, Alabama, and the Hon. Isaac E. Morse, of Louisiana, either one of which is fully worth the cost of subscription of our weekly. Single copies of this or any other edition of the APPEAL may be purchased as usual at our counting room.

BUSINESS OVER THE MEMPHIS AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The following table will exhibit the amount of business done by the Memphis and Ohio Railroad during the month of August just passed:

Receipts from passengers	$12,720 45
do. freight	6,420 63
	19,139 08
Total receipts during August, 1859	3,023 96
Excess over the corresponding period last year	12,374 11

It will be seen from the above that the business of the road has increased almost beyond precedent.

City Dispensary.

EDITORS APPEAL: Your issue of the 3d contained an item, to which we beg leave to call the attention of our city fathers, with the hope that they will take the advice of the sagient Captain Cattle—"When found, make a note of."

The paragraph mentions the crowded state of the City Hospital, consequent upon the closure of the Dispensary, and the failure on the part of those "who are in authority" to make any provision for the pauper sick of the city.

Memphis is a great place, Mr. Editor, and I have occasion to know that it is a remarkably healthy one, but not quite so much so as our municipal lords paramount seem to think. We have abundant occasion for gratitude in that we are so singularly free from epidemic visitations of disease, and we can compare our bills of mortality with those of any other city of the same population, for some one-off second best. Yet we are not entirely exempt from "the ills to which flesh is heir." We have sick people here, and among them those who are unable to pay a doctor or to purchase physic. A poor fellow came to me not three days since, whose bloodless face and trembling limbs proclaimed him a victim of the autumn tyrant—chills and fever. He had the look and the tone of an honest man, one who, health being given, would prove a steady and hard-working citizen. He said that he, his wife and five children were all sick; that they had paid their way so long as their money lasted, but they were penniless, and he had crawled out to beg for physic and medical attention.

There are many such cases in the city, and as the Dispensary is closed, and the Hospital overrun, these poor creatures failing of individual charity must needs die "as best they can." Shall such things be in Memphis. Everybody thinks himself wise enough to give good advice, and I don't arrogate the distinction of being a greater ass than the "average," I beg leave to advise our city government to look into this matter. The call is loud, and the necessity for action, immediate action, is urgent. I am not a betting man, Mr. Editor, but if I was, I would like to "bet my pills" that Memphis (to her shame be it said) has done less in this direction than any other city in the Union. We can give money to fire companies and to military companies, lavish money in our streets, in the shape of gravel, or make "ducks and drakes" of it generally, but let a word be said of the necessity of spending it for and upon the sick and suffering of the city, and, lo! what a cry of "economy" is heard!

Something must be done, and with due deference to the "honorable, the board of Mayor and Aldermen," I would suggest to them that on the score of economy, their action would be efficient. Let money be spent liberally—in this case "penny-wise is pound foolish." The sequitur of "poor pay" was "poor preach." The laborer is worthy of his hire, and medical men, no matter how enlarged their sense of sympathy, feel that they, too, must have "money for money's worth," and though they do perform, and cheerfully perform, a vast deal of labor that is purely charitable, it is too much for the city of Memphis to saddle them with all her pauper sick.

I earnestly trust that our city authorities will take a proper view of this matter. But whatever is done, let it be done speedily. No longer let it be said that the Bluff City stops her ears to the cry of her sick and suffering poor.

MEDICUS.

FATAL AFFRAY AT COMPOUNCE KY.—Mr. S. H. Shock, of this city, who arrived by the J. H. Dickey from St. Louis yesterday, furnished us the particulars of a terrible and fatal affray at Compounce, Ky., on Sunday last, in which a gentleman named Shultz and another named Starr were killed. The affray occurred at the landing while the Dickey lay there. Shultz and Starr exchanged several shots with pistols, during which affray Starr was fatally wounded by Shultz. This two then closed in a hand to hand fight, wherein a relative of Mr. Starr, named Beckman, interfered and struck Shultz several blows on the head with a club. Shultz then broke away and plunged into the river, being pursued by Beckman, who was armed with a shot-gun. Shultz rose twice to the surface, but was finally lost to view. The quarrel was general in the neighborhood, and grew out of a dispute between Henry M. Dornell and A. F. Beckham in reference to certain outrages alleged to have been perpetrated by a negro belonging to Mr. Beckham, a detailed account of which we have already published.

NEW EXPRESS ROUTE.—An arrangement has been made for the establishment of a route by the Adams Express Company, between New York and New Orleans, which will insure a connection between this city and New Orleans by railroad. The advantages of such a connection are apparent, as such regular communication will have a tendency to regulate the rate of exchange between New Orleans and this city. The arrangement will also redound to the interest of the railroads forming the connection, as it will give them additional reputation and greatly increase their receipts. Under the proposed arrangement, the time between New York and New Orleans will be three days and twelve hours, and less than forty-eight hours between this city and New Orleans. It is proposed to inaugurate the new route about the 1st October.

BARBAROUS TREATMENT OF A CHILD.—John Mehan and wife, who reside on Main street, between Poplar and Exchange, were arrested yesterday on the charge of cruelly treating a little orphan girl, named Lizzie Anna Ward, aged about seven years. A more aggravated case has rarely been made public. The child's person was terribly lacerated, and it was evident that the little innocent had been subjected to treatment bordering upon savage ferocity. The unnatural guardians obtained possession of the child in Nashville, where she was left an orphan. In the absence of a protector, she has passed into the hands of officer Moore, who will have her legally adopted as a member of his family. Mehan and his wife will be brought before the Recorder to-day.

RESIGNED.—Rev. W. J. Barbee has resigned the pastoral care of the Christian Church in this city, having accepted the superintendence of the Masonic Institute at Sonnioble, Miss.

THE ENQUIRER ENLARGED.—The Morning Enquirer appeared yesterday in an enlarged form.

The river rises to a stand at this point Saturday night, and commenced rising Sunday morning, and had risen 10 inches at six o'clock last evening. We had considerable rain in this latitude Sunday and Monday night, and the weather has become quite cool for the season.

We learn from Mr. Hinds, of the Kate May, that there is four feet six inches water in the lower Ohio, and the river falling pretty fast. Pilots find the river very troublesome at Cumberland, as the channel has changed there since the late rise.

The Jennie Whipple arrived from Louisville yesterday, fully repaired and elegantly refitted. She left Louisville with 175 tons freight and a large number of passengers. The Whipple departed for the Arkansas river last evening. It seems to us sufficient water to warrant an immediate resumption of her old trade, she will return to the Ohio river for another trip. When the Whipple left here, we regret to say, Capt. Gray was quite sick, with a bad attack of chills and fever.

The new steamer Uncle Joe, intended for white lightning trade, arrived at this port Sunday evening, and took on supplies. She purchased 10 barrels beef and 100 pounds lye.

The E. J. Lockland, from St. Louis for New Orleans, discharged one hundred wheelbarrows and a quantity of agricultural implements at this port.

The Kate May arrived from Cincinnati last evening with a fine trip, increasing her tonnage to one hundred tons and about 150 tons freight. We are indebted to Capt. H. L. Brown, the attentive clerk, for papers and other favors. The Kate is the regular packet for Cincinnati hereafter.

We learned last evening by telegraph that the Memphis and Cincinnati packet Hickman had broken a shaft in the Ohio river, on her upward trip, and that she would be compelled to remain over at Cincinnati for repairs. The Hickman, however, has arrived at Cincinnati. In the meantime the Kate will make a trip in her place.

The officers of the J. H. Dickey have furnished us an account of a terrible and fatal affray, which occurred while the boat lay at Compounce, on Sunday last, which we publish in our local column.

Mr. S. H. Shock was a passenger to this city by the steamer J. H. Dickey.

The J. H. Lecoe, the regular Tuesday packet for Memphis, was due last night with a very heavy trip. Mr. Tadwell, the clerk, arrived here by rail yesterday to advance of the boat. We are indebted to him for late up-river papers.

The large ship-wheeler, Atlantic, arrived from St. Louis Saturday, but passed down. She discharged a quantity of freight, no one knows, including a lot of brother to Elder Stewart and Armstrong.

The steamer John J. Roe took the greatest trip of the season, Mr. Morrison at St. Louis for New Orleans, the Morrison being sent to arrive at St. Louis on time, owing to the accident with which she met.

The Imperial will make another trip from St. Louis to New Orleans, and then becomes a regular Memphis and New Orleans packet, leaving here on alternate Saturdays.

The Mono McLellan, Capt T. M. Rivers, will be due from Louisville this afternoon.

The City of Memphis, which arrived from St. Louis Sunday evening, by been mild yesterday, and took the mails, freight and passengers of the regular New Orleans mail packet.

The J. H. Dickey arrived from St. Louis early yesterday morning with a fair trip, and departed last evening for St. Louis.

FOR VICKSBURG.—The fine steamer Kate Frisbee, Captain Lee, is the regular mail and passenger packet for Vicksburg at the usual hour this afternoon, immediately after the trains and packets for New Orleans Knock, Hickle and Quiz are the clerks.

FOR ST. LOUIS.—The splendid steamer J. H. Lecoe, Captain Riley, will leave at four o'clock this afternoon for St. Louis. Her cabin is one of the finest and most substantial boats in the trade, and has the very best passenger accommodations, in addition to which the pilot's special favorite, Mr. James Tadwell, has charge of the office.

TO COTTON PLANTERS GENERALLY.

From the Vicksburg Whig:
THE owners and agents of the various iron Fire Presses in this city have recently been in negotiation for a combination to induce them to cease action, and bring their iron presses down to a pressure of from 300 to 400 pounds, instead of from five, and make less that rope.
No doubt they retain the original pressure than rope would be injured by a greater one. Our impression (there are not aware of that fact—at any rate, they make no difference) is that the rope would be injured by the iron presses, and to establish the fact, that iron rope, owning in consequence of the combination, to the fact that the iron presses are not injurious to rope, and that the combination is more liable to damage by expense, in consequence of the combination, than by the iron presses, more expensive to pick and pull to order.
That iron could not be injured by rope there can be no doubt, and that it is more economical, and this point be their sole reason for using the iron. But that rope is both useful and valuable, and cannot be dispensed with, we think, from the fact that hogsheads worth nothing in new bulk, and the like planters, who have no presses, and who use rope, are thus deprived of most personal advantage.
There is a considerable difference between the pressure of rope and iron presses, and to be correct for no such, in order to insure success in Business, is left. The Cotton, Rope and Iron Presses, are all good, and have been for twenty thousand and upwards, and, if not in error, have been discovered and accurate enough, in all technology, with the interesting operations, who make all the arrangements for them.
At bell is a statement in figures, in which, our editor, who is a practical man, and who, we believe, has been in the business, gives the result of a comparison between the value of $1.25 per bale to the customer in favor of hogshead over the iron press, and rope.
This great difference certainly warrants the assertion that it is not being made by certain parties, known to the city, who have the Cotton, and who have to establish an outcry here of fallacy, per bale on all iron-bound cotton received at this port, and, in fact, all.
