Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, Sept. 14, 1859.

☞ Mr. Endleman, the well known proprietor of Dunlap Springs, is in the city.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were seventeen delinquents before the Recorder yesterday, eight of whom were sent to the chain gang.

☞ A misguided individual named George Stephenson, sent out a warrant yesterday against officer Frank Gibbs for an imaginary injury.

☞ Thanks to Mr. R. C. Hite, the well known news dealer at the Worsham house, for Louisville and Cincinnati papers in advance of the mails.

CONTINUED AGAIN.—The proceeding against Jerry Ryan and wife, who are charged with robbing Edward Whalen, was again continued by Esquire Heer yesterday in the absence of a material witness. The examination in the case will be made to-morrow.

RECKLESS DRIVING.—A reckless drayman, named John Martins, was fined twenty-five dollars by the Recorder yesterday for careless driving, in default of the payment of which he was sent to the chain gang for a period of fifty-three days.

THE SHOOTING CASE.—We announced yesterday that a young man who was seen laying about the premises of Mr. Miles Owen, Monday night, had fired a pistol at Mr. Owen's son, during an altercation between the two. The name of the young man who did the shooting is Mr. Boylens, and he was arrested yesterday. Fortunately no one was injured by the discharge of the pistol.

A SELENDID PEN.—Messrs. Kirk & Williams have received a large consignment of gold pens of all the desirable qualities, including both the Morton and Fairchild pens. Both varieties are deservedly popular, but we cannot withhold an expression of our preference for the Fairchild pen. Messrs. Kirk & Williams have at a just received their supply of fall goods, which is varied and desirable.

WHARFBOAT SUNK.—An attempt was made by the Hopefield ferryboat yesterday to tow the wharfboat from the Tennessee shore to the Arkansas side. When the steamer arrived about midway between the two shores, the wharfboat went under, and remained in that condition last evening. The water is above the deck of the sunken craft.

DUNLAP SPRINGS.—Mr. Endleman, the proprietor of this delightful wa ering place, is in the city arranging his plans for the sale of lots adjacent to the Springs to our citizens. We learn from him, that he will remain at the Springs all the winter for the improvement of the grounds and the accommodation of such invalids as may wish to enjoy their advantages.

THE QUESTION OF EXTENSION.—An election will be held at the various Wards in the city to-morrow on the proposition to grant the right of way to the Memphis and Charleston Railroad Company to extend the road to the city. It is a question of much importance to the citizens of Memphis, and we trust that every qualified voter will express his sentiments in reference to the proposition through the ballot box to-morrow.

LAND SLIPS AT THE RIVER.—The new grade at the river, near the new wharfboat, does not seem to be permanent, as it has been caving in constantly since it was made by the contractor for paving the city street. A large area of earth disappeared from the foot of Court street into the river Monday night, and considerable portion of the grade yet in sight bids fair to "go the way of all the earth" on the banks of the Mississippi.

AQUATIC AFFRAY.—A misunderstanding occured at an early hour yesterday morning, at the mouth of Wool river, between a man named Taylor from the country, and Sam'l Johnson, the proprietor of a ferry dock at that place. Mrs. Taylor espoused the quarrel for her husband, and chastised the ferryman for her efforts in behalf and assault. In addition to the mortification of receiving a castigation at the hands of a woman, Johnson was fined five dollars by the Recorder yesterday for the part he acted in the affair.

ROBBERY AT A BOARDING HOUSE.—We announced about two weeks since, that Maj. Moseley had sustained the loss of a gold watch and a small sum of money, and could not account for the robbery. Yesterday a lady boarder at the Major's lost a pocket-book containing twenty-five dollars under such circumstances as to cast suspicion upon a negro woman, a servant in the house. The woman finally confessed the theft and refunded the money. The result of this trial affair solves the mystery as to the identity of the thief who stole the watch and money on a former occasion.

DEATH OF FREDERICK ORGILL.—We are pained to announce the death of Mr. Frederick Orgill, of New York, who was formerly a clerk in the house of Holyoke, Lowns & Co., of this city and the brother of Mr. Edmund Orgill, of the House of Orgill, Brothers & Co., barter re merchants, the successors of Lowns, Orgill & Co. He was well known to most of our business men and young men, as a young gentleman of generous impulses and noble bearing. He died in New York city yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, of hemorrhage of the stomach. His death will strike a pang into many a manly heart.

Proceedings of the Board of Aldermen.

At a special meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen last evening all the members were present except Aldermen Forrest, Elder, Fether, Hamilton, Tarwater and Douglass.

THE SAFETY OF THE WATERS.

His Honor, the Mayor, announced the object of the meeting to be to take action upon the following ordinance, which passed a first reading at a former meeting:

Be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis,

Section 1. That the twenty-seventh section of the Codified Ordinances of this city, page 148, be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that it shall not be lawful hereafter for any person or persons to sell or offer for sale, any fresh meat, such as beef, pork, mutton, lamb, or veal, in the streets of this city, or at any store or stall therein, at retail, in less amounts than one quarter of a beef, pork, mutton, or veal, but that the sale of all such articles shall be exclusively confined to the Market houses, as above specified.

Sec. 2. That all huckstering or peddling in the streets of such articles of produce as poultry, chickens, turkeys, and all kinds of fowl, butter, eggs, vegetables of all kinds, fruit and the same is hereby prohibited—the sale thereof to be likewise confined to the Market houses.

Sec. 3. That the hours shall be fixed as follows: Commencing on the first of April the market hours shall be from 6 o'clock A. M. until 10 o'clock A. M., in every year, and from 1st of April to 1st of October from 5 o'clock until 10 A. M.

Sec. 4. That market shall be held at each of the new Market houses, now just completed, on alternate days—say three times a week at each place, and that a regular Market-master be appointed, with a fixed salary, with bond and security required for a faithful discharge of his duties; said officer to be entirely independent of the City Marshal, and to attend to both Market houses.

Sec. 5. That all ordinances now on record conflicting with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Ald. Lofland offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Register and Tax Collector be directed not to issue hereafter any license for the sale of meats, vegetables, eggs, or poultry, at any other place than at the market houses, until the final action of this Board on the ordinance now under consideration upon the subject.

Various propositions were made in amend the above ordinance, but they were not passed upon, and the ordinance was finally referred to the appropriate committee.

THE PAVEMENT AT THE LANDING.

There was some discussion as to the mode of paving at the landing, adopted by the contractor, Mr. Lowns. The Mayor called the attention of the Board to the fact that certain sewers were not built according to contract.

Ald. Farris offered a resolution empowering the Mayor to employ an Engineer to superintend the work of paving the wharf.

The resolution was amended by imposing the duty of making the appointment of the engineer upon the special committee on the wharf pavement, the temporary engineer to report to the City Engineer and wharf committee from time to time, which resolution and amendment were adopted.

ACCOUNTS OF STREET-HANDS.

Ald. Perkins presented the accounts of various street-hands, amounting in the aggregate to eighty dollars, which were ordered to be paid.

Ald. Farris offered a resolution to the effect that the Mayor be authorized to pay all hands dismissed from the city employ at the time dismissed, the Mayor to admit the same, which was referred to the Ordinance Committee.

The board then adjourned.

DIED.—Dr. Garland Tallaferro, one of our best, and most respectable citizens, departed this life on Sunday evening last, after a long and painful illness. The Doctor was universally esteemed by all who knew him, and leaves a young and affectionate wife, two children, upon whom he doted, brothers, sisters, and a host of friends and relatives to lament his early fall.

He was, indeed, a man of excitable qualities, high toned, benevolent and kind. "None knew him but to love him, none saw him but to praise." But it is the fate of man to die, and we have to yield to the mandates of an overruling Providence.—Brownsville Journal.

Slave Protection.

From the Bradford (Ky.) Reporter.

We have reflected but little on this question of protection of slave property in the Territories by Congress since the last canvass was over. It has two features in it. Many years ago the same question was up in Congress and before the country. One David Wilmot sprung the question (appending his proviso) to a bill before Congress. Every pro-slavery man in the whole Union, as well as every conservative man, stood arrayed against it. It was but the counterpart to the present proposition to protect slavery in the Territories—it was said that Congress, under the Constitution, could only legislate over the territory of the United States as property. So we say now—so says every man who has bestowed proper reflection upon the question at issue. If Congress has power over it, that power is somewhere delegated in the Constitution. And if such a grant of power exists in that instrument, it has escaped our vigilance. Unless such power can be shown we shall regard it unconstitutional, and an unwarrantable assumption of power by Congress, were that body to expend it. Further regard any interference with slavery in the Territories, in the way of the establishment of a slave code, as unwise and inexpedient. The reason is too obvious to require the slightest hint beyond a mere hint. The admission of the rights of Congress to interfere in that way would be a curse blasts to that body to legislate against slavery—to exclude it from the Territories. That right conceded which and probably would be the solemn peal of the death-knell of this glorious Union. Then we say to our friends everywhere let well enough alone.

The South has all the protection she needs, or can have, consistently with the laws and the nature of things.

If Congress may institute, Congress may abolish. This proposition will not be denied. If Congress may protect, Congress may refuse to protect. Policy then dictates the non-intervention principle, let it prevail.

In the year 1850, if we recollect aright, such weathercocks of the anti-slavery party North, that the Michigan Legislature passed a resolution instructing the Senators of that State to vote for the Wilmot proviso as attached to some bill. Gen. Cass refused to obey, while acknowledging the right to instruct, and resigned his seat. On that occasion he made a speech to the people which has no parallel. It would be proper to have a large edition of that able speech reprinted for distribution now. It would meet every point in issue about as well as if it had been made for the present occasion.

The Imperial, upon her return, will enter regularly in the Memphis and New Orleans trade, and will leave this port on alternate Saturdays. Her Ben Bolt has been taken off the Cairo trade, and will hereafter be employed as an extension of the Yazoo packet line. She took on board here 200 bbls Cape Gerardeau flour, and had about 50 head of stock and 1000 bushels of other freight. She left for New Orleans last evening with a large number of passengers.

The Kate Frisbie departed for Friendship last evening full of freight and passengers. Capt. Lee being forced to go out a number of consignees that were sent down from the interior.

Captain Rob Connely, a popular Missouri river boatman, late of the J. H. Crossley, has been invited to take the command of the Morris Bentinck and will, in all probability, accept the invitation.

The Ingomar dropped down to the landing yesterday, and will take her place in the Memphis and New Orleans trade to-day, leaving this port at dre o'clock this afternoon. The Ingomar will be commanded, for the present, by everybody's favorite, Captain James P. Smith, who will be assisted by Mr. Robert Gibson in the office. The Ingomar has been greatly improved during the fall season, having been refitted throughout, and repainted inside and out.

The Louisville Courier says that navigation in Green river has been impeded, or closed in all points above Greenville, until the backwater recedes.

Capt. Gaste, President of the Railroad Line of steamers, will be in the city to-day, to make arrangements for the permanent establishment of the Imperial in the trade between this port and New Orleans.

The Golden Gate has been sold at Galena by the Minnesota Packet Company to John Wood.

FOR CINCINNATI.—The fine low water steamer Hamer, Capt. Rudolph, arrived last evening, and will depart again for Cincinnati at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Travelers will find the Hamer an agreeable craft.
