[MATTERS OF THE HISTORIC or EVERGREEN.]

The Hon. Eli Shaw, formerly representative of this county in the Legislature, is now a candidate for Sheriff. He is a man who will do the people. He is up for it.

What ailing Sy Brown, so he accompanies the stranger [illegible] weeks, guiding him through our city with the attentive [illegible] and great gusto throughout of every [illegible] in the form of this magnificent, which combined so lovely a homestead as can be found in the Mississippi Valley, and so he calls for attention at the factory stores of Franklin and Webster, and [illegible] Rutan (this pride is just [illegible]) and [illegible] and [illegible] of these who have benefited and honored their day and generation. Our children, and the schools of which they are trained, for our children are what they have rendered,—these are our enduring treasures.

Yes, your long rows of quartled granite may crumble to the dust, the cities of the [illegible] villages, ripening to the sickle, may, like the plains of stricken Lombardy a few weeks ago, be knocked to pieces by the crashing and fiery rebels of artillery; this populous city, like the old cities of Etruria and the Campania Romana, may be desolated by the pestilence which walketh in darkness, may decay with the lapse of time, and the busy mart, which now rings with the joyous din of trade, become as lonely and still as Carthage or Tyre, or Babylon, and Memphis, left the prey of the great and gaunt shall sunder the desolation and the ruin; the memory of the cities shall pass, the pestilent, shall fever period. Yes, Sparta was a city of [illegible] Athens
