Daily Appeal.

MEMPHIS.

TUESDAY.....OCTOBER 11, 1859.

Reading Matter on Every Page.

Largest Circulation in the City.

THE SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY INSANITY.

There is much good sense and sound philosophy in the following article, which we extract from the Boonville (Mo.) Observer. If Mr. DOUGLAS is to be hurled out of the party because of his views on Popular Sovereignty, then indeed may we go to work and cast out nearly every Democrat north of Mason and Dixon's line and, many south of it. As we have said before, this is a question upon which Democrats everywhere must agree to disagree, otherwise the party is sundered to atoms. The Observer says: "We confess that we do not enter into the merits of the issue between the Administration and DOUGLAS concerning squatter sovereignty in the Territories. National Democrats argue that all conservative men have a paramount object in keeping Black-Republicanism from getting hold of the Government. If Whigs are to co-alesce with Democrats for this good reason, as we conceive, why should Democrats wrangle concerning an issue which will give the free States, in a body, to the Black-Republicans? We can take slaves to Mexico, if we wish to do so, but what does the privilege amount to? Who cares enough about it to enjoy the privilege? We cannot take slaves to Kansas, and we would not, in our senses, if we could, and who is damaged by the interdict? Hence the wrangle on the question of "squatter sovereignty" is only productive of mischief, and, if persisted in, will elect a Black-Republican to the Presidency.

After the contest in Illinois, the Administration should have learned wisdom enough to know that the Democratic party could never act as a unit, so long as it was the purpose of many to degrade those who did not indorse President BUCHANAN's Kansas policy. The "Lecompton issue" should then have been buried, and the personal acrimony growing out of it smothered for the good of the party and the country. But a conciliatory policy did not prevail. Those who gave aid to LINCOLN, endeavored to degrade DOUGLAS by snubbing him from the position of chairman on the Territorial Committee. From that day to this the President and his advisers keep up their warfare on DOUGLAS, making capital for the Black-Republicans and Abolitionists of the north and the Disunionists of the south. Anti-Douglas Democratic ticket would succeed no better in New York or Pennsylvania than it did in Illinois. Why then keep up a snarl, fraught with so much evil?

If it is the purpose of Mr. BUCHANAN and his advisers to so complicate the breach with DOUGLAS that SEWARD shall be the next President, they are acting wisely. But if he is endeavoring to kill off DOUGLAS that the Democratic party in the free States shall be stronger thereby, he is pursuing a course so blind as to be pitiable in the extreme. We wish to see the white cravat politicians of the North forever excluded from the White House. For this reason we do not sympathize with any one who is ready to co-operate with them. We detest their political puritanism as we ever will, and we cannot but declare that besetting anti-DOUGLAS spite at Washington which, in a revengeful feeling to one man, gives aid to, if it does not counsel with, the common enemy.

If the social habits and interests of any population demand negro slavery, there it will go. Where it is unprofitable and unwelcome it will not go, or if it does go it will not remain. This is undeniable, and it is no less true that slave owners have the privilege of going wherever their taste and interests would carry their slaves. On the opposite side of the question, no Territory, nor State, has negro slavery that does not desire it; hence there is nothing of practical importance, to squabble about. It will not be contended, we suppose, that a belief in the "squatter sovereignty" principle of Judge DOUGLAS, places the Democrat, so believing, out of the pale of the Democracy.

If so, the party is split wide open, and its enemies will make merry with its follies and find an easy victory amid the internal strifes which destroy its unity.

THE TERRITORIAL QUESTION--DOUGLAS, BLACK AND CASS.

In this morning's APPEAL we publish a reply to the "observations" of Mr. BLACK upon the Harper article of Mr. DOUGLAS, by "A citizen of Kentucky." It will challenge the attentive perusal of every reader who desires to keep pace with this controversy. In our issue of to-morrow, we will publish a second article from Mr. Attorney-General BLACK, in answer to the Wooster speech of Senator DOUGLAS. We offer no criticisms or comments of our own, but only ask the reader to give the subject his attention and in the end he will be very apt to come to the conclusion we have long since arrived at, that on this Territorial question the Democratic party never can become a unit, and as it never has, it never ought to be made the test of Democracy. We gave our zealous support to General CASS in 1848, knowing his views upon this subject. In 1852 we as warmly supported General PIERCE, without asking his opinions upon the subject at all. We as heartily supported Mr. BUCHANAN in 1856, there being only a shade of difference between his views and those of Gen. CASS, and we will as cheerfully support Mr. DOUGLAS, should he be our candidate in 1860.

In this connexion, since Mr. BLACK has undertaken the task of killing off the "heresy" of "squatter sovereignty," we would suggest to him that there is one little job he has left unperformed a long time. We believe the Nicaraguan letter of Gen. CASS was never yet been replied to by him. If the object of his answers to Mr. DOUGLAS be solely the elucidation of truth and the exposition of error, he has certainly been derelict in allowing the "heresies" of the NICHOLSON letter to slumber so long. We respectfully ask his attention to this subject.

DAWN BREAKING.

From every part of the South, says the Mobile Register, we receive cheering assurances that the people of the South are at least beginning to do justice to a man who has been more reviled and maligned than any statesman this country has ever produced, and maligned for no other reason than his despising the shuffling subterfuges and equivocal commonplaces of small politicians. Never was there an illustration on so large a scale of the old cheerful reply: "Strike, but hear." Thousands of hands have struck simultaneous blows; the time for hearing has now arrived. The people ask what has this man done to deserve such bitter, such contradictory abuse. The moment their ear is gained the cause is won, for it is the cause of reason against prejudice; it is the cause of a man who has never said one word against the institutions of the South, who has been a more consistant and more fearless champion of her rights than many born within her own borders; it is the cause of a man unjustly attacked and villainously slandered. The people of the South are magnanimous, and proportionate to the efforts made to mislead them will be the reaction that is already setting in. There is not now a Southern State in which one or more of the most influential presses do not raise their voices against this warfare on DOUGLAS. Even his assailants are becoming more respectful, and ashamed of the excesses into which the current of prejudice has betrayed them. But there are surer indications of the popular feeling than even this, and from all the means of information at our command we can now confidently assert that Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Georgia and Virginia certainly, North and South Carolina, Louisiana and Alabama most probably will heartily indorse Mr. DOUGLAS' nomination at the Charleston Convention.

In the recent gubernatorial canvass in Georgia the Opposition spared no exertion to force this question on the Democracy as an issue. The attempt was steadily and successfully resisted. Mr. BROWN declined to commit himself against DOUGLAS; the heavy majority which our telegraphic column announces today proclaims what was the popular response to this course. The Georgia Democracy are therefore left free to follow the guidance of their unbiassed judgment and their hearts. What the verdict will be, who can doubt.

Mr. DOUGLAS' indorsement by such undoubted Southern men as SOULE of Louisiana, PRYOR of Virginia, SEBASTIAN of Georgia, is a sufficient refutation of the silly slander that either his private sentiments or the policy he proposes are inimical or even unfavorable to the South. The uncompromising hostility of the Black-Republicans to him should have sufficed to expose the absurdity of such a imputation.

We therefore repeat nothing is retarding the prediction that, at the Charleston Convention Mr. DOUGLAS will at once receive the vote of the majority of Southern States, and eventually the acquiescence of the others. The South has reared Presidents, she YOUTH has furnished many—let the Great West for once fill the chief magistrate's chair."

MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.

Deson, elected two Democrats and one Opposition; Panola, two Oppositionists; Marshall, four Democrats and one Opposition; Tippah, three Democrats and one Opposition; Pontotoc, two Democrats, one Independent, and one Opposition; Lowndes, two Democrats; Holmes, two Democrats; Madison, one Democrat; Scott, one Democrat; Rankin, two Democrats; Wilkinson, one Democrat; Yazoo two Democrats; Tunica, one Democrat; Coahoma, one Democrat; Panola, Talliahatchie and Coahoma, Senatorial district, gen. TALLIAFERRO (Dem.) elected; Lafayette, two Democrats; Tishomingo reported three Democrats and one Independent; Warren, two Oppositionists and one Opposition Senator; Hinds, two Democrats, a State Rights Whig and a Democratic senator. The election of Hon. Wm. A. LAKE will be contested by Mr. GARR, Democrat.

Notwithstanding the foregoing shows a loss of several Democrats in three counties, yet the Legislature will be largely Democratic.

The election for governor is certain by a majority of from six to eight thousand for the Democratic candidate.

The five Democratic members to Congress have been all re-elected. Col. SINGLETON was the only caddiate who had opposition.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTIONS.

We see much said by the papers hostile to Mr. DOUGLAS about the recent California elections, claiming the result as a condemnation of both him and his principles. The following paragraph from the Mississippian is a specimen of what we meet in the anti-DOUGLAS papers every day:

The result in California is more noteworthy because it is a victory over the Black-Republicans and Douglas Squatter Sovereignty faction combined. The latter made common cause with the anti-slavery party, just as their leader confederated with Seward, Hale & Co., pending the Lecompton struggle. The coalition, as advised and foreshadowed by a letter of Horace Greeley, was complete.

The result has proved that Mr. GREELEY was in error. In conversation with a Californian a few days since, we were informed that the coalition was rather the other way. A large portion of the DOUGLAS Democracy united with the Administration Democrats, and hence the overwhelming majority of Mr. LATHAM. This was just as it should be, as well in California as everywhere else.

Besides, the Mississippian has not a fair conception of the principles involved in the contest. In his letter of acceptance, Mr LATHAM held the following language:

"We stand by the principles of popular sovereignty and non-intervention as they were laid down by the Democratic Nebraska Bill of 1854. We stand by the Cincinnati platform. We stand by the Administration of James Buchanan. And, above all these, we stand by the union and integrity of the Democratic party as we feel that upon the success of the principles of our party depend the happiness and prosperity of our beloved common country."

In commenting upon this, the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"The platform upon which the victory has been won in California, is our platform, word for word, so far as slavery is concerned. The California Democratic State Convention was held after the Ohio, and it adopted verbatim its resolutions, which were popular sovereignty throughout. Mr. Latham, the governor elect, is an ardent friend of Senator Douglas for the Presidency."

"If the information of the Enquirer be correct, that Mr. LATHAM is in favor of Mr. DOUGLAS for the Presidency, our exulting friend of the Mississippian will, no doubt, "root a little lower."

DOUGLAS IN ARKANSAS.

This squatty dwarf has not a corporal's guard of supporters in Arkansas. This proposterous young State repudiates the Squatter-Sovereignty heresy—and all the supporters—The people are nearly unanimous in their opposition to Douglas.

We clip the foregoing paragraph from the Jackson (Tenn.) Whig, printed "way up in the middle portion of West Tennessee. Like Mr. SOCOMBE, in the lay, our friends of the Whig must be troubled with a vast deal of "foreign correspondence," as they seem to know more about what is going on abroad than what exists under their own nose. Will it tell its readers how large a "corporal's guard" favorable to Mr. DOUGLAS could be mustered in Jackson?

Here in Memphis, where we have the opportunity of conversing with gentlemen from Arkansas every day, we learn that quite a different state of things exists in that State.—We would be for our friends of the Whig all about it, but we do not care to agitate their nerves.

☞ Mr. ROSELLE, commercial editor and reporter of the APPEAL, was yesterday presented with a handsome gold-headed cane, by W. M. PERKINS, Esq., alderman from the 8th ward, in consideration of the high appreciation which Mr. P. entertains for his reportorial accuracy and capacity. We take pleasure [in b-half of our confrere] in acknowledging this handsome and well-deserved tribute, and expressing how grateful are such compliments to those who labor in the editorial harness.

Georgia Election.

As far as heard from, at the latest dates, the following summary will show the result of the late Georgia election:

LEGISLATURE—Democrats, 78. Independents, 2. Opposition, 19.

CONGRESS—Third District.—Hardeman, Opposition, elected. Seventh District—Joseph Hill, (Dem) elected. Eighth District—John J. Jones, Democrat, elected.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE.

The Speaker announced the following as the standing Committees:

Committee on Ways and Means—Messrs. Harris, Ford, Brazleton, Armstrong, Wood, Cowden, Martin, Ewing and Williams.

Internal Improvements—Messrs. Shield, Mayfield, Brazleton, Butler, Vaughn, Williams, of Hickman, Cheatham, Bailey, Gray and Pickett.

Federal Relations—Messrs. Johnson, Gillespie, Trewhitt, Williams, of Hickman, Pickett, Ewing, Davidson, Lea, Barksdale and Shield.

Banks—Messrs. Bennett, Critz, Williams, of Knox, Gantt, Wiener, Farrelly, Shrewsbury, Guy, Harris, White, of Davidson, and Williams, of Hickman.

Judiciary—Messrs. Gantt, Wiener, Bennett, Bicknell, Mayfield, Senter, Jones, Martin, Farrelly, Shrewsbury and Whitmore.

On Free Negroes—Messrs. Barksdale, Davidson, Kincaid, of Claiborne, Trewhitt, East, Wood, Lockhart, Farrelly and Hurt.

Penitentiary—Messrs. Dook, J hnson, Haynes, McCabe, White, of Davidson, Ingram and Memphis.

Lunatic Asylum—Messrs. Kennedy, Gillispie, Gant, Bledsoe, Richardson, Nall and Kenner.

Enrolled Bills—Messrs. Lockhart, Cheatham, Vaughn, Green and Baker, of Perry.

Agriculture—Messrs Farley, Frazier, Hurt, Davis, White of Dickson, Russell, Bayless, Gorman, and Williams, of Knox.

State Capitol—Messrs. Wood, Armstrong, East, Cowden, Beaty, Porter and Whitmore.

Public Roads and Highways—Messrs. Britton, Kincaid of Claiborne, Williams of Franklin, Dodley, Hebb, Roberts and Norman.

Tippling and Tippling Houses—Messrs. Smith, Kincaid of Anderson, Woodard, Ford, Williamson, Frazier and Norman.

Incorporations—Messrs. Ford, Johnson, Senter, Jones, Ewing, Guy, Kennedy and Caldwell.

Elections—Messrs. Trivitt, Haynes, Martin, Barksdale, Doak, Russell, Baker, of Weakley and Ingram.

Finance—Messrs Bicknell, Mayfield, Davis, Dudley, Woodard, Lea and Farley.

Claims—Messrs. Trewhitt, Britton, McCabe, Smith, Kenner, Lockhart, Nall, Hurt and Caldwell.

Education—Messrs. Davidson, Trivitt, Greene, Doak, White, of Davidson, Morris, Ewing and Memphis.

Military Affairs—Messrs. Bayless, Bledsoe, White of Dickson, Porter, Baker of Weakley, Hebb, and Gorman.

New Counties and County Lines—Messrs. Hebb, Critz, Caldwell, Williams of Franklin, Richardson Baker of Perry, and Roberts.

Public Lands—Messrs. Davis, Harris, Kincaid of Anderson, Shield, Sowell, and Baker of Perry.

THE UTAH MAIL AT ATCHISON.

Special dispatch to the Missouri Republican.]

ATCHISON, KANSAS, October 7.—The mail from Salt Lake arrived at this place this morning, bringing dates to the 16th of September.

The intelligence it brings is of varied and important character, including reports of murders of emigrants by Indians.

A party of emigrants from Louisa county, Iowa, and Linn county, Missouri, were attacked near Wash Valley, by a party of sixty Shoshone Indians.

A. L. Rent was killed; J. W. Paulina, Wesley Forrom and Thomas Hunt wounded.

The Indians took all their cattle and burnt the wagons.

Another party of emigrants from Burlington, Iowa, were attacked in the same vicinity. One man killed and one wounded.

It is rumored that silver mines have been discovered in northern Utah.

Andy Williams was shot at Provo, on the 6th instant.

Arnold, the man wounded when Brown was killed, is dead.

Dr. Forney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, has returned from his visit to different tribes. He is much pleased with their crops.

Lord Grosvenor, of England, arrived on the 6th instant, made for California and China.

Col. Chapman, of the 6th infantry, and his command have arrived and relieved Col. Rugles, who left for Fort Leavenworth on the 8th ult.

Brown county gives a majority of two hundred for the Constitution.

☞ Many kinds of Tonic are advertised that we are assured will strengthen the hair, and prevent its falling out, but none that we have ever used does all that it promises; save that of Professor O. J. Wood. This we know to good from having tried it, and not even in several cases its truly beneficial effects. Dr. Wood was kind enough to send us a couple of bottles, one to a lady friend, who had her hair falling out, we presume, as we believe it to be a lady friend she had been held for at least thirty years; it has restored her hair entirely, and it is now as thick and glossy as when he was twenty five. This we say in all sincerity, and we shall be glad to have our friends try it for themselves, as we believe it is just what it professes to be. See advertisement.—Lancaster (Ohio) Eagle, Ohio.

FAYETTE COUNTY FAIR.

The fifth annual fair of Fayette county opened on Tuesday last, at Somerville. On the first day the attendance was not so large as might have been desired. The weather was fine and agreeable, and the fair grounds, with their ample dimensions, beautiful shade trees, convenient amphitheater and appropriate general arrangements, presented a most attractive appearance. The amount of business transacted was not large, but the show of cotton attracted deserved attention, and was highly creditable to Fayette county. John D. Cleaves, Esq., has good reason to be proud of the honors he gained on the occasion. The footrace that concluded the day's proceedings was a very pleasing variation of the routine business. Mr. Reed, the victor in the race, was warmly applauded.

The second day was honored with a larger number of visitors than the preceding. The display of the ladies' handiwork in housewifery and fancy work was so greatly admired, and so also were the merits of the articles, in many instances, that the judges often found discrimination a difficult task. Some very good mules were exhibited. The burlesque mule race, in which the slowest animal took the prize, no owner being allowed to ride his own "sal-mule," produced shouts of laughter, and sent home the spectators in high good humor.

On the third day the attendance was very gratifying from the large number of persons, especially of ladies, that were present. The jack stock was fair, but not of unusual merit. In blooded horses there was a very gratifying show, and old "residenters" rejoiced at the manifest progress perceptible in the raising of equestrian stock in this portion of the State. The products of the "home department" reflects great credit on the skill and industry of the Fayette county ladies. The exhibition this day closed with a display of gentleman's equestrianship. The directory with good taste appointed a committee of ladies to award the prize. The superior riding of Wiley B. Jones, jr., readily won for him their coveted award. This was one of the most interesting exhibitions of the fair.

On the fourth day, which was fine, warm, and pleasant, the attendance was very large; carriage after carriage poured out crowds of fair and richly attired ladies. The amphitheater was crowded, and presented a tout ensemble of beauty, fascination, and fashion that only those who witnessed the beautiful and overpowering display can appreciate. Fayette county never presented a sight more worthy of her pride than on Thursday last at the fairgrounds. All honor to her beautiful lady citizens. The display of grade cattle was probably the greatest exhibition feature of the whole fair; stock raisers were delighted with a show they are rarely favored with. The center of attraction was Mr. Glover's one year old bull, "Billy Brownlow," which was raised by the celebrated Kentucky stock breeder, Mr. Scott—it is a magnificent animal. The makers of agricultural implements were rather behind; if they know their interest they will never fail to be in force at the agricultural fairs. We were a little surprised to find that the shows of hogs at this fair was smaller and less striking than was to have been expected. Fayette should not be behind in this staple stock. An interesting tournament terminated the very interesting and admirable proceedings of the day.

On the last day the running of the trotters and pacers was an attractive feature. The course is a quarter of a mile around, four rounds made up the run. In our list of prizes we state the time made by the respective competitors. A masquerade, in which the humorous performance of D. L. Scott, Esq., of the Somerville theater, was an irresistible attraction, close the last day of the fifth annual fair of the Fayette County Agricultural and Mechanical Society.

The fair was a gratifying occasion and strongly indicative of progress and prosperity among the agricultural[illegible] and stock raisers of the county. The quantity of articles exhibited was not so large as on the preceding year, but the quality was in many respects, generally superior. "Le diable se mele" with all human enjoyments, and on this occasion he "raised the dust" in a manner that conferred a much larger quantity of real estate upon citizens and citizenesses than they were willing to receive. The neat and attractive city of Somerville was daily crowded with visitors giving an almost metropolitan appearance to the busy streets, stores and hotels. During the week the public were gratified each evening with a spirited performance at the Somerville theater, by the elocution class, under the able management of D. L. Scott, Esq., assisted by his accomplished and versatile lady.

We cannot conclude this sketch of the proceedings of the fair without adding our hearty acknowledgements to Wm. A. Williamson, Esq., and his amiably lady for kind and hospitable attentions during our stay in Somerville.

The following is a complete resume of the distribution of the prizes:

For the best display of fall fruit—C. C. Glover, premium.
Best quart fruit preserves—H. S. Dickson, premium, and A. P. Pentlow.
Best pickle shelled corn—H. J. Cannon, premium and certificate.
Best pickle shelled corn for stock—H. J. Cannon, premium.
Best hoeing corn—Wm. A. Williamson, premium, of C. S. Robinson, certificate.
Best bed of potatoes, late school—S. R. Solomons, premium, and W. L. Cole, certificate.
Best table cotton, four hundred pounds—J. D. Cleaves, premium.
Best five bales cotton, four hundred pounds each—John D. Cleaves, premium.
This day's exhibition closed with a foot race—three entries, W. C. Wilson, R. Pearce and John Reed. Reed won the prize. The race was closely contested.

SECOND DAY.

Best maiden for general use, any age—R. Morrow, premium and W. T. Scott, certificate.
Best saddle mule—T. T. Scott, premium.
Best one year old colt—Lewis A. Massey, premium.
Best male walking—Joseph Y. Reed, premium, L. Kirkham, certificate.
Best saddle horse of any age or breed, C. C. Glover, premium. Reed was—C. C. Glover, premium.
Best dried apples—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium, and Mrs. W. Dickinson, certificate.
Best pear dried peaches—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium, and Mrs. Daniel Gober, certificate.
Best bunch grapes—Mrs. S. Robards, premium, and Mrs. T. L. Armstrong, certificate.
Best five pounds home made cheese—Mrs. S. H. Walker, premium.
Best five pounds lard—Mrs. Wm. A. Williamson premium, and Mrs. Wm. Dickinson certificate.
Best five pounds home made starch—Miss Nancy A. Lea, premium, and Miss Dorsey H. Reed, certificate.
Best three pounds candles—Mrs. S. Robards, premium, and Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby, certificate.
Best table linen—Mrs. J. T. W. Wilkinson, premium, and Mrs. D. M. Quarles, certificate.
Best counterpane, silver variegated—Mrs. L. M. Scott, premium, and Mrs. L. P. Williamson, certificate.
Best counterpane, two varieties—Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby, premium. Mrs P. A. Williamson certificate.
Best quilting, three varieties—Mrs. L. P. Williamson, premium, and Mrs. T. L. Armstrong certificate.
Best quilting, four varieties—Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby premium, and Mrs. R. Dickinson, certificate.
Best patchwork, three varieties—Mrs. A. J. Preston, premium, and Mrs. J. P. Williamson, certificate.
Best specimen of domestic wool, three varieties—Mrs P. A. Williamson, premium, and Mrs. J. D. Smith, certificate.

FANCY WORK.

Best silk patchwork quilt—Mrs. A. A. Williamson, premium; Mrs. C. Lyon, certificate.
Best display of needle work—Mrs. T. Brickin premium.
Chenille work—Miss P. A. Williamson, premium.
Best thread embroidery—Louie Lloyd, premium.
Best specimen of tatting—Mrs. S. Robinson, premium, Mrs. W. D. Williamson, certificate.
Best specimen of knitting—Maggie Williamson, premium; Virginia M. T. Allemonte certificate.
Best embroidered stockings—Mrs. A. B. McNeill premium.

GARDEN.

Best peck tomatoes—Jenny T. Reed, premium; C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best peck sweet potatoes—H. J. Cannon, premium.
Best peck onions—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium; Mrs. H. Gober, certificate.
Best peck beets—Mr. C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best half dozen beets—Mrs. Daniel Gober, premium; Mrs. A. J. Preston, certificate.
Best half dozen cabbage—Mrs. C. C. Glover, premium, Mrs. Daniel Gober, certificate.
Best specimen of celery—Mrs. L. P. Williamson, premium, Mrs. C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best display of vegetables, five varieties—Mrs. A. J. Preston, premium, and Mrs. C. C. Glover, certificate.

DRAFT STOCK.

Best mule, four years old—Jno. T. Reed, premium. G. T. Hunter, certificate.

HARNESS HORSES.

Best pair harness geldings or mares, four entries—G. G. Pattie, premium and certificate.
Best harness gelding or mare—S. W. May, premium. R. G. Tatum, certificate.

DISCRETIONARY ARTICLES.

[Under the following discretionary articles, premiums were awarded:]

Fourteen tables—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Pair lamp mats—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Table mats, (straw)—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Peach cordial—Mrs. R. Dickinson.
Best table cloth—Mrs. T. L. Armstrong.
Oriental gauntlets—Julia Pattie.
Bedtick embroidery—Mrs. A. J. Williamson.
Prepared tallow—Mrs. S. Robards.
Knitted sock—M. J. R. Porter.

The day's exhibition closed with a burlesque mule race, three entries—S. Vandiver, premium, and W. T. Wilson, certificate; the slowest mule took the prize.

THIRD DAY.

JACK STOCK.

Best jack, three years old—Jno. T. Reed premium, H. Wiley, certificate.
Best jack, two years old—Jno. T. Reed, premium.
Best jack, one year old—S. R. Morrow, premium, Jno T. Reed, certificate.
Best jack, suckling—Levi Kirkham, premium, W. A. Hilliard, certificate.
Best mare in foal, any age—S. R. Solomons, premium, and W. L. Cole, certificate.
Best table cotton, four hundred pounds—J. D. Cleaves, premium.
Best five bales cotton, four hundred pounds each—John D. Cleaves, premium.
This day's exhibition closed with a foot race—three entries, W. C. Wilson, R. Pearce and John Reed. Reed won the prize. The race was closely contested.

SECOND DAY.

Best maiden for general use, any age—R. Morrow, premium and W. T. Scott, certificate.
Best saddle mule—T. T. Scott, premium.
Best one year old colt—Lewis A. Massey, premium.
Best male walking—Joseph Y. Reed, premium, L. Kirkham, certificate.
Best saddle horse of any age or breed, C. C. Glover, premium. Reed was—C. C. Glover, premium.
Best dried apples—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium, and Mrs. W. Dickinson, certificate.
Best pear dried peaches—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium, and Mrs. Daniel Gober, certificate.
Best bunch grapes—Mrs. S. Robards, premium, and Mrs. T. L. Armstrong, certificate.
Best five pounds home made cheese—Mrs S. H. Walker, premium.
Best five pounds lard—Mrs. Wm. A. Williamson premium, and Mrs. Wm. Dickinson certificate.
Best five pounds home made starch—Miss Nancy A. Lea, premium, and Miss Dorsey H. Reed, certificate.
Best three pounds candles—Mrs. S. Robards, premium, and Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby, certificate.
Best table linen—Mrs. J. T. W. Wilkinson, premium, and Mrs. D. M. Quarles, certificate.
Best counterpane, silver variegated—Mrs. L. M. Scott, premium, and Mrs. L. P. Williamson, certificate.
Best counterpane, two varieties—Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby, premium. Mrs P. A. Williamson certificate.
Best quilting, two varieties—Mrs. L. P. Williamson, premium, and Mrs. T. L. Armstrong certificate.
Best quilting, four varieties—Mrs. Jno. R. Mosby premium, and Mrs. R. Dickinson, certificate.
Best patchwork, three varieties—Mrs. A. J. Preston, premium, and Mrs. J. P. Williamson, certificate.
Best specimen of domestic wool, three varieties—Mrs P. A. Williamson, premium, and Mrs. J. D. Smith, certificate.

FANCY WORK.

Best silk patchwork quilt—Mrs. A. A. Williamson, premium; Mrs. C. Lyon, certificate.
Best display of needle work—Mrs. T. Brickin premium.
Chenille work—Miss P. A. Williamson, premium.
Best thread embroidery—Louie Lloyd, premium.
Best specimen of tatting—Mrs. S. Robinson, premium, Mrs. W. D. Williamson, certificate.
Best specimen of knitting—Maggie Williamson, premium; Virginia M. T. Allemonte certificate.
Best embroidered stockings—Mrs. A. B. McNeill premium.

GARDEN.

Best peck tomatoes—Jenny T. Reed, premium; C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best peck sweet potatoes—H. J. Cannon, premium.
Best peck onions—Mr. C. C. Glover, premium; Mrs. H. Gober, certificate.
Best peck beets—Mr. C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best half dozen beets—Mrs. Daniel Gober, premium; Mrs. A. J. Preston, certificate.
Best half dozen cabbage—Mrs. C. C. Glover, premium, Mrs. Daniel Gober, certificate.
Best specimen of celery—Mrs. L. P. Williamson, premium, Mrs. C. C. Glover, certificate.
Best display of vegetables, five varieties—Mrs. A. J. Preston, premium, and Mrs. C. C. Glover, certificate.

DRAFT STOCK.

Best mule, four years old—Jno. T. Reed, premium. G. T. Hunter, certificate.

HARNESS HORSES.

Best pair harness geldings or mares, four entries—G. G. Pattie, premium and certificate.
Best harness gelding or mare—S. W. May, premium. R. G. Tatum, certificate.

DISCRETIONARY ARTICLES.

[Under the following discretionary articles, premiums were awarded:]

Fourteen tables—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Pair lamp mats—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Table mats, (straw)—Mrs. C. Lyon.
Peach cordial—Mrs. R. Dickinson.
Best table cloth—Mrs. T. L. Armstrong.
Oriental gauntlets—Julia Pattie.
Bedtick embroidery—Mrs. A. J. Williamson.
Prepared tallow—Mrs. S. Robards.
Knitted sock—M. J. R. Porter.

This day's exhibition closed with a burlesque mule race, three entries—S. Vandiver, premium, and W. T. Wilson, certificate; the slowest mule took the prize.

THIRD DAY.

JACK STOCK.

Best jack, three years old—Jno. T. Reed premium, H. Wiley, certificate.
Best jack, two years old—Jno. T. Reed, premium.
Best jack, one year old—S. R. Morrow, premium, Jno T. Reed, certificate.
Best jack, suckling—Levi Kirkham, premium, W. A. Hilliard, certificate.
Best mare in foal, three years—W. A. Hilliard premium; Joseph Y. Reed, certificate.
Best filly, one year old—Joseph Y. Reed, premium.
Best mount, one year old—Joseph Y. Reed, premium.

SPECIAL WINNERS.

Best stallion, three years—W. J. O'Kelley, premium.
Best filly, four years and upward—A. W. Loving premium and certificate.
Best mare, two years—James I. Williamson, premium.
Best mare, one year—James I. Williamson, premium.

ORCHARD.

Best peck of apples—John Cowell, premium, and F. B. Kerr, certificate.
Best display of fruits, five varieties—F. B. Kerr, premium.

GRAPES.

Best peck of grapes—Julius Guyer, premium.
Best composition—Mrs. L. P. Williamson pr mium.

BLOODED CATTLE.

Best bull, two years—Levi Kirkham premium.
Best cow, three years and upward—C. Glover, premium.

SWINE.

Best sow, suckling—C. C. Glover, premium.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

Best specimen tailoring by lady—Susan Sutherland.
Best sewing by lady, under 10 years—Mrs Joseph S. Williamson premium.
Best sewing under twelve years—Mrs. Joseph S. Williamson, premium; Mrs. J. T. Wills, certificate.
Best sewing under twelve years—Mrs. J. T. Wills, premium; Mrs. Joseph S. Williamson, certificate.
Best sewing under twelve years—Mrs. J. T. Wills, premium.
Best sewing under twelve years—Mrs. J. T. Wills, premium.
Best sewing under twelve years—Mrs. J. T. Wills, premium.
Best specimen of knitting by lady